BOARD OF TRADE COUNCIL APPOINTED.

THE STANDING COMMITTEES STRUCK FOR THE YEAR.

A Special Meeting Held Last Night —Trade Excursions Talked of for Peterborough.

At a meeting of the Board of Trade held last evening, there were present Messrs. T. E. Bradburn, chairman; Robt. Fair, Macfarlane Wilson, H. P. Kennedy, T. A. S. Hay, J. W. Bennett, B. Shortly, A. L. Talbot, T. W. Martin, M. A. Morrison, W. E. Conway, J. W. Butcher, J. W. Garvin, F. D. Kerr, Dickson Hall, Dickson Davidson, A. Rose, and Secretary Quartermaine.

A number of communications were read by the secretary from various manufacturers with whom he was in correspondence.

The committee appointed to nominate the council for the ensuing year recommended the following names: Messrs. T. E. Bradburn, Robt. Fair, T. A. S. Hay, D. W. Dumble, J. H. Burnham, W. H. Hill, H. S. Macdonald, Peter Hamilton, Jas. Kendry, M. P., J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., H. LeBrun, P. Campbell, Richard Hall, R. C. McHarrie, Adam Hall, S. C. Turnbull, W. D. Parker, V. Eastwood, T. F. Matthews, A. Rose, Macfarlane Wilson, J. W. Garvin, J. H. McClelland, H. P. Kennedy, B. Shortly.

The report was received and adopted.

The Board then adjourned and the Council met in committee.

The council also recommended that the personnel of the standing committees be as follows for the year:

Board of Arbitration—Peter Hamilton, chairman; J. J. McBain, Peter Campbell, A. G. Parker, W. A. Stratton, H. J. Grassette, John Belcher, F. J. Jameson, R. B. McKee, A. Gibson, C. Fessenden, J. T. Senson.

Municipal Committee—E. B. Edwards, chairman; G. M. Roger, D. H. Moore, M. L. Henry, R. A. Dutton, M. A. Morrison, J. W. Bennett.

Manufacturers Committee—J. W. Garvin, chairman; H. C. Rogers, F. H. Dobbin, Thomas Barrie, Wm. Scott, A. J. Gough, R. Fair, F. D. Kerr.

Mercantile Committee—B. Shortly, chairman; John Nugent, J. C. Turnbull, W. E. Conway, H. Long, A. W. Cressman, Dickson Davidson, Dickson Hall.

Railway and Canals Committee—D. W. Dumble, chairman; Jas. Kendry, M.P., J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., Peter Hamilton, C. B. McAllister, T. S. Hay.

The Board again resumed and the report on being presented was adopted on motion of Messrs. J. W. Garvin and Macfarlane Wilson.

Mr. Macfarlane Wilson re-introduced his idea regarding the running of trade excursions to the town from the neighbouring villages. By running such excursions alternately over the different lines of railway, one could be arranged from each direction about every five weeks.

Mr. Shortly pointed out that the Board could not guarantee the sum, which would be needed before the railways would undertake to run such excursions.

Dr. Rose thought the merchants of the neighbouring villages would object strongly to Peterborough playthe hog in such a manner.

Mr. T. A. S. Hay and Mr. Robt. Fair wanted to see the matter referred to the Mercantile Committee and moved accordingly. The motion was carried.

On motion of Messrs. Macfarlane Wilson and Robt. Fair an honourium was voted the reporters of the daily papers.

Moved by Messrs. Robt. Fair and J. W. Garvin, that a cordial vote of thanks be tendered Mr. Arthur Stevenson for his kindness in giving the secretary of the Board of Trade, the use of a desk in the Stevenson Coal Co.'s office, No 368 Water street, near Simcoe street, telephone No. 29.—Carried.

WERE BEFORE THE BOARD OF HEALTH LAST NIGHT.

New Health Officer Introduced—The Late Dr. Clarke Appreciatively Remembered.

The special meeting of the Board of Health was held in the Town Clerk's office last night, those present being: B. Shortly, chairman; and Messrs. Adam Hall, Robert Innes, Dr. Burnham, Dr. McGrath and Mayor Davis.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and on motion confirmed.

A communication was read from Dr. Bryce, Secretary of Provincial Board of Health, asking the Local Board to take action in regard to the vaccination of children and others.—Received and handed over to the Medical Health officer with power to act.

The following communication, also from the Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, was read in reference to the proposed establishing of stock yards within the town:

Dear Sir—I am in receipt of your letter of the 6th inst., and in reply I would say that the Council should not grant a license under section 72 of the Public Health Act until it is satisfied that the location is a proper one and a detailed description has been given as to how the yards are to be equipped and managed.

I have simply to say that unless are made, whether the yards are roofed, or not, they must be a long distance from residences, otherwise they will create a nuisance. The Council can only afford to license the yards after the regulations drawn up by it have been agreed to by the owners. I may say that there is no class of nuisance which gives us as much trouble as this, and now the Council has a chance to regulate, it should do so as a condition of license.

Dr. Bingham, the newly appointed Medical Health Officer, was then introduced to the Board by the Chairman.

Dr. Bingham gave a report of his visit to the Waterworks station with the Health Inspector. They found no filterers were used, but that the intake pipe was protected by several large screens, and while these large screens would prevent any large objects from entering the pipes, still anything in a state of solution, either animal or vegetable, could pass through. He had given the water a chemical test and found it to contain animal and vegetable impurities, but he thought it advisable to have the water tested in Toronto by the Provincial Health Officers.

Chairman Shortly expressed his opinion that the reason for the water having a rather at present, was owing to the very high water which was flooding the marshes in the back country and this view was also supported by Mayor Davis and Mr. Adam Hall. Mr. Wilson Henderson, superintendent of the Water Works Co., who was present, assured the Board that everything possible was being done to provide good water and that they could not blame the company for the bad taste of the water, as it was just the same in the back lakes. They change the screens quite frequently and were exercising all possible care. He asked Dr. Bingham if the water were filtered, would it remove the bad flavour to which the Doctor replied that this was the intention. In answer to another question by Mr. Henderson, Dr. Bingham said that he never inspected a waterworks pumping station before.

Finally a resolution was passed authorizing the Medical Health Officer to forward samples of the water to Toronto to be analyzed and to report to the Board.

The Health Inspector reported as to yards, etc., which were in good condition.

The Medical Health Officer was ordered to make an inspection of the milk.

The matter as to whether the sewers had been flushed of late was discussed and Alderman Denne, who happened to be present assured the Board that they were in proper condition.

Before Adjourning

Chairman Shortly announced that since the last meeting of the Board they had lost their Medical Health Officer by death and he would suggest that a resolution of condolence be passed and forwarded to deceased's relatives.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Moved by Mr. Adam Hall and seconded by Dr. Burnham, that this local Board of Health desires to express its deep regret on account of the death of John Clark, M.D., Medical Health Officer, who passed away at a comparatively early age and its appreciation of the zealous intelligent and able service he rendered the Board and the town during the many years he held office. His zealous labour to raise the sanitary standard of the town had an excellent effect in bringing the town to the very good sanitary condition it is now in, and his suggestions and counsel were very effective in aiding the board in its work.

As a genial gentleman, his death is also regretted and this board desires to tender its sincere sympathy to his mother, brothers, and sisters in their affliction.

The Board then adjourned.

Mr. Oke has been in Montreal attending the annual fruit sale and secured this car load for his firm here, being part of the cargo of lemons and oranges of the steamship "Fremona." This cargo is pronounced the best that has come to Montreal in five years, so that our citizens may look for some extra fine fruit at R. R. Philp & Co's. store this week.

PETERBOROUGH'S PRIDE.

And youngest Hibernian Poet has something to say about Assyrian Polish and Miracle Washing Compound, in competition solicited by L. B. Felcher:

Me name is Dinnis Daley,
I have a chum called Mickey Haley,
One of nature's noblemen—a man of great renown,
Says he to me one day,
"What is that I hear the people say
About the Miracle they do be selling around the town?"

Says Dinney, "Begor you're roit,"
I hear Tommy Henry say, "It is simply out of sight,
Because the washboard is now a thing of the past.
Since we have kept it in the store
We are selling more and more,
The ladies say, 'Tommy, we'll continue as long as it lasts.'"

GOOD HEALTH FOR WOMEN

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food Restores Weak, Sickly Women to Robust Health.

Any irregularities in the monthly uterine action is sufficient cause for women to be alarmed about their health. Whether painful, suppressed or profuse menstruation, the cause can be traced to some derangement of the nerves.

A few boxes of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food will completely build up the exhausted nerves and restore the regular monthly action which removes from the body the clogged matter that would otherwise cause pain and serious disease.

It is as a restorative for pale, weak women that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has been singularly successful. It counteracts the debilitating diseases peculiar to women by feeding the nerves and creating new nerve fluid, the vital force of the human body.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has restored scores of hundreds of weak, sickly women to robust health. 50c. a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

RITUALISTS ON TRIAL.

Verdict Will Not Count Except to Bring Out Opinions.

London, May 9.—An important stage in the Ritualistic controversy opened yesterday, when the Archbishop of Canterbury and Primate of all England, the Right Hon. and Most Rev. Frederick Temple, and the Archbishop of York, the Right Hon. and Most Rev. William Dalrymple Maclaren, sitting as a self-constituted tribunal, began a hearing of the charges against the Rev. Henry Westall. Vicar of Stouthberts, Philbeach Gardens, of ceremonial use of incense and lights, and the Rev. Edward Ram, vicar of the Church of St. John. Timberhill, Norwich, on the charge of ceremonial use of incense. Messrs. Westall and Ram will have the assistance in the ecclesiastical trial of a number of experts on the question of the ritual, including the Rev. R. R. Percival, rector of the Church of the Evangelists, in Philadelphia. The decision of the Archbishops will not be binding, except as to the conscience, upon anyone, nor will it be enforcible; but, naturally, it will have immense moral weight.

The chief purpose of this Archiepiscopal inquiry is to avoid reference to the secular courts.

A large assemblage of bishops and well-known clergymen were present in the historic guard room of Lambeth Palace, when the Archbishop of Canterbury opened the proceedings with an explanation of the nature of the hearing. Arguments of counsel on both sides followed.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. Lynch, Druggist.

Brockville, Ont., May 9.—Mrs. Webster, who is under arrest charged with blackmail, was again brought before Judge McDonald yesterday. She was unable to procure bail and was taken back to jail. Her case will come up for trial on the 10th.

About $35,150 Received.

Toronto, May 9.—The Provincial Government has received $35,150 in license fees from the distillers of the province. Many brewers are paying their fees under protest. It is thought the bill recently passed is not constitutional.

Asks $50,000 Damages.

Portland, Ore., May 9.—A special from Victoria, B.C., says: It is announced that Captain Corning of the British barque Howard D. Troop will present a claim to the British ambassador at Washington for $50,000 damages against the U.S. Government for the detention of his vessel and the removal of sailors from his ship by force on Friday last.

Durham Grants the Loan.

Durham, Ont., May 9.—A vote was taken here yesterday on a bylaw granting a loan of $10,000 to the Durham Furniture Company (limited). The bylaw was carried by a vote of 224 to 20.

Happy Thoughts.

To please attract and give people something to talk about is an art in writing a prosaic advertisement. Hood, of Sarsaparilla fame, is the originator in an extensive sense, of the the idea of using proverbs and wise saws as a prefix to a pleasant introduction to the well known virtues of America's Greatest Medicine. These quaint quotations often fit the news of the day with startling directness and the moral is easily drawn, with natural good to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

TRANSVAAL CRISIS.

The Danger Overshadows All Other Topics of Interest.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN DISAPPEARS.

A Prominent Transvaaler Now in London Says the Fall of President Kruger Will Follow Pushing the South African Republic to Extremes, and Oom Paul Will Not Yield.

London, May 9.—The crisis in the Transvaal is beginning to overshadow all other topics of public interest, and there is no doubt that there reigns an uneasy feeling in official circles. Despite the fact that Mr. Chamberlain is not known to suffer from any indisposition, he left town suddenly, an unusual thing for him to do. His private secretaries strictly concealed his destination. The Secretary's absence causes no end of speculation in Parliamentary circles. The general opinion is that the country has reached the limit of tolerance of Oom Paul's diplomacy. It is felt that something must be done to terminate the present unbearable situation.

A prominent Transvaaler now in London granted an interview to a correspondent, in which he said: "If the South African Republic is pushed to extremes by Great Britain, it will mean the fall of President Kruger. The latter obstinately refuses to listen to the grievances of the Uitlanders, and defiantly resents the overtures of the British high commissioner, believing that Great Britain will not resort to extreme measures. President Kruger suffers from chronic irritation, and he believes that the Orange Free State will co-operate with him against Great Britain."

MAJOR MARCHAND KILLED.

The Eminent Little Frenchman Said to Have Been Murdered by a Band of Marauders.

Paris, May 9.—It is persistently rumored here that Major Marchand, leader of the famous Marchand expedition, which was returning from Fashoda on the Nile to the Red Sea en route from France, has been killed by a band of marauders near Ras Jibouttl, the French post on the coast, and that Captain Baratier was wounded in the same encounter.

Fighting on the Nile.

London, May 9.—The Foreign Office has received news from Unyoro that Colonel Evatt attacked Chief Kabarega on the east bank of the Nile on April 9 and completely defeated him. Three hundred of the enemy were killed and Kabarega himself, who was severely wounded, and Kang Mwanga were taken prisoners. Col. Evatt's losses were two killed and 20 wounded Uganda soldiers.

ENGINEER GRAHAM,

Of Montreal, Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 24.—Proof positive and convincing has already been given in Montreal that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only sure cure for diabetes. And day after day fresh evidence comes to light to make the proof more emphatic and convincing.

Engineer James Graham, 54 Victoria Square, says: "I suffered with Diabetes for six years. One of our best doctors told me I could not be cured.

"I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills and decided to try them. Three boxes made me well, and I have not suffered from Diabetes since."

Buried the Papers.

Paris, May 9.—Mme. Eledie Wattier, daughter of a French officer now undergoing imprisonment at Amiens for swindling, has written to M. Mazeau, first president of the Court of Cassation, declaring the late Sergeant-Major Lorimier, at one time secretary of the late Lieut.-Col. Henry, who like Henry committed suicide, secretly brought her documents, including letters from Dreyfus to Emperor William, which she says she buried in an iron box in the forest of Marly, northwest of Versailles. She forwarded a cabman's receipt for the trip, and declared herself ready to reproduce the documents.

Houses Wrecked by the Tornado.

Guthrie, O.T., May 9.—The cyclone which passed over Canadian County destroyed at least 20 farm houses and caused great damage to growing crops. At Chickasaw 17 buildings were wrecked and 14 persons injured. J. H. Murray, a railroad man, who was caught under falling timbers, died of his injuries. A report says: James Whitman and his son George, farmers, near Okarche, were killed in their field. At Okarche five homes were blown away. Rain fell in torrents, and half a dozen culverts on the Rock Island Railroad were washed out.

Don't Tear Down - Build Up.

The old-fashioned theory of tearing down disease was entirely changed by the advent of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which cures by creating new rich blood and nerve tissue. Through the medium of circulation and the nervous system they strengthen and invigourate every organ in the human body.

Preston to Be a Town.

Preston, May 9.—At a public meeting of the ratepayers, held in the Town Hall last night, the following resolution was passed unanimously: "That the Council take immediate steps to incorporate Preston as a town."

Klondike Gold.

MAY NOT MEET.

Hope of an Anglo-American-Canadian Agreement Practically Abandoned at Washington.

Washington, D.C., May 10.—All hope of reconvening the joint American-Canadian commission in August has been abandoned. The conference adjourned after having made good headway, as it was thought at the time, towards the drafting of an agreement. Owing to an unexpected and insurmountable obstacle in the shape of the lumber and boundary questions, the joint conference adjourned to meet in August, with the understanding that meantime the Governments of the two countries would test public sentiment. It was also hoped that some of the difficulties that had presented themselves in the way of a conclusion of the work of the conference might in the interim be removed by diplomatic negotiations. It has now been demonstrated, however, that the temper of neither side has yielded sufficiently to warrant the expectation of any successful result attending the reconvening of the commission.

It is said that the United States commissioners are thoroughly discouraged at the time-consuming manner in which various propositions that have been put forward are handled back and forth between London and Ottawa.

OF GOLF AND DEATH.

Our planet is a links whereon we play
Few holes or many, as death may decree.
We call him Colonel Bogy; 'tis the way
Of mankind to invent a kindlier name,
A jesting phrase for the arch enemy.
With every match the colonel leaves the tee,
But all alone he finishes the game

Some start with the rash confidence of youth,
To end in an untimely bunker grave;
The colonel is inclement, void of ruth,
Spares not the slashing driver in his pride;
No deft approach, no pawky putt can stave
Him off—many, not overbrave,
Tear up their cards in futile suicide.

Sooner or later, oftener soon than late,
We pass, and the next victim forth is led
Vaunting himself superior over fate,
But ere the home green is in sight he yields;
With one grim stroke the colonel lays him dead.
Yet is the long match ours; 'tis soothly said
The colonel plays not in the Elysian fields.

IN THE TREE.

The man in the tree was thinking.

Way off under a sunny sky was a squalid hut on a hillside. There were orange trees around the hut and in the distance were long stretches of vineyards, where men and women once sang as they worked.

Now the women were working alone save for the presence of a few half grown youths and crippled old men.

And the women did not sing as they worked. They wept sometimes, but more often they looked silently and wonderingly off into the west, where the sky line was broken by the crumbling bastions of a ruined castle.

Off beyond the castle was the sea and beyond the sea was—they knew not what. Strange lands where men and youths went to come back no more.

This was the picture that came to the mind of the man in the tree.

But one cannot sit with a cramped leg and dream of distant things for long. So the man in the tree moved and the picture under the sunny sky gave place to another, which was more immediate and more distinct.

Spreading out before him and underneath was a wooded valley with a hill beyond. Down into this valley a hundred yards to the right dipped a trail.

Yesterday it had been a mere mule path half closed by underbrush, but now it was clearly defined. The bushes had been broken off, bent over and pushed aside, while the tramp of many feet had ground to powder the weeds and grass.

At a distance of perhaps half a mile beyond and below him the trail traversed an open space. As he looked at this opening in the screen of green he saw figures crossing it. They stood out sharp and distinct in the bright sunlight. They were men with guns. Few of them wore coats. Many of them were bare from the waist up. Their faces were dark, almost black at that distance, but their chests were white. What fine targets they made, those white chests!

The man in the tree picked up the slim barreled rifle which had been resting across his bent knees. He raised the sight slide and squinted through it until he could see the steel pick on the end of the barrel outlined against the white flesh of a figure in the sunlighted gap of the trail.

Still the men with guns streamed along the trail. Aha! They are running. They will soon begin to run the other way. Just wait until the trenches get the range. A white back makes as fine a target as a white chest.

But hour after hour passed and the human current did not ebb.

Were they hours or only minutes? What was happening up on the hillside? The man in the tree turned to see.

Far up behind him on the crest was a square hut, with a thatched roof. It looked like a dovecot, but it was not. It was a blockhouse. What was taking place there he could only guess. He saw an irregular line of dark figures scrambling up the hill, some of them falling to rise no more. Why did not the rest go back? Now they swarmed about the building. How their guns smoked!

Then the man in the tree looked into the heart of things and saw his fate. These half naked pigs who fought like devils, they would not be driven back. He was cut off. To the right, to the left, in front, behind—they were there, these men with guns who fired and ran forward, and fired and ran forward again.

The picture of the faraway hut on the hillside, the women and the vineyards came once more, and the man in the tree bowed his head and wept.

It passed. He looked again down the hillside. Not alone on the trail, but in many other places the figures moved now.

The man in the tree tightened the strap which passed under his arms and around the tree. He fitted the rifle stock to his shoulder and peered out under the leaves. There was a big fellow with something red sewed to his shirt sleeve. Probably an officer. S-r-r-r! That must have gone too high. S-r-r-r! Just a little to the left. S-r-r-r! That went true. He's down. Very busy was the man in the tree.

Not too busy, however, to note the approach of a little squad of men who stopped and looked up into the trees and now and then fired into the dense foliage of the branches.

The man in the tree laid his rifle carefully across his knees and reached into the leaves above him. He brought down a gourd water bottle, held it to his ear and shook it. From the pocket of his blue and white cotton blouse he fished out a piece of dry black bread. His meal ended, he threw the empty gourd from him and began to count the cartridge clips still remaining in his hat.

"Uno, dos, tres, quatro—Christi!"

Only 20 more shots, and then—why, then the war would be at an end for the man in the tree. It remained but to die. Think you, good St. Jose, who watches over the vineyard folk at home heard that prayer or did the guns make too much noise?

On came the squad. The leader was tall and fair. He wore a blue shirt with chevrons on the sleeve and a stripe which had once been white down the outer trousers seam. He was making straight for the tree in which sat the man with the rifle.

At a distance of 100 feet the man in the tree had brought the pick on the end of his rifle down so that its top just reached the space between the blue eyes of the man on foot. His last shot should be a fancy one.

"At the third step I will fire," decided the man in the tree.

At the second step the officer halted. A thick bush with briars was in his way. He could see over it, and peered curiously into the branches of the tree.

"I believe that's where he is," said he. "The shots seemed to come straight from this direction."

"No; it was farther to the left," said a man behind him. "That's the one, that tree over there."

"Let's try a shot or two anyway," said a second.

"What senseless chatter," thought the man in the tree.

"No; it's a waste of lead," said the officer. "Dave was right. It must have been the other one. Come on!" He stepped back from the bush and started toward the left.

As he moved off the man in the tree followed him through the sights. He had moved half a dozen paces before the rifle sputtered. The tall fair man pitched heavily forward.

"He was there, blasted coward!" said one of the squad. The others said nothing. They were shooting.

"Why don't he drop—curse him!" muttered a soldier after a score of shots had raked the branches.

For answer they saw a rifle slide down, strike a branch and bound off to the ground. The strap was doing its work.

* * * * * * *

Two women sat dry eyed, heartbroken and comfortless. One was by a window against which beat the cold rain of October. The skies wept for her. The other stared out over sun kissed vineyards, where the leaves were yellow and brown.

"He will come no more," said the first.

"Ay! El no viene mas!" said the other, meaning about the same.—Sewell Ford in Short Stories.

IT'S TOO RISKY

To undergo an operation for Itching Piles when Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is a surer, cheaper, easier way to cure.

Cruel, barbarous methods belong to the dark ages of the past. There was a time when a surgical operation was considered the only possible cure for piles. Not so now. Occasionally there is still found a physician who adheres to this dangerous and expensive method, but to every one who still believes in using the knife, ninety and nine recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing in The American Journal of Health, said:

"We know that 'Dr. Chase's Ointment' meets all the requisitions of the highest standard of worth, that it will be held in high esteem wherever it is used, and consequently we endorse it to every reader."

By force of merit alone Dr. Chase's Ointment has won its way into this wide, wide world, until it has made the name of Dr. Chase familiar in almost every home, and won for the humble discoverer the title of "America's Greatest Physician."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has never been known to fail as a cure for piles. It matters not whether blind, itching, bleeding or protruding, Dr. Chase's Ointment is an absolute and perfect cure.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is the discovery of the author of Chase's Recipe Book, whose portrait and signature is on every box of the genuine. 60 cents a box. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Some Mexican Stupidity.

In the "Observations of a Ranchwoman" are plentiful instances illustrating both the "shiftlessness" and stupidity of Mexican servants. Here is a sample of the latter quality:

Complying with law and custom, I provided four men to do each a day's work toward cleaning a public ditch for irrigation purposes. At the end of the day a youth presented himself and the bill. The names of but two men were inscribed as having worked, but the sum demanded amounted to the wages of four.

"What is the meaning of this?" I inquired. "If only Luciano and Pedro worked, why do I pay the wages of Matildo and Jesus?"

"Two men worked," was the stolid rejoinder.

"Then I won't pay the wages of four."

"But two men did four days work."

"All in one day? That is impossible."

"But, senora, they did!"

"That cannot be. I must understand better before I pay two men the wages of four. Go and request the majordomo to look into this affair."

Presently the majordomo appeared.

"Senora," said he, "the bill is correct. The men have worked."

"Senor, I repeat, the thing is impossible. Two men cannot in one day do the work of four men."

"Senora, four men worked."

"Why, then, did this man tell me that only two worked? And why are not the names of Matildo and Jesus on the bill?"

"He told you that only two worked, because there was no room on the bill for the names of the others."

The majordomo spoke quite impatiently, as if I should have divined that process of reasoning by instinct. I induced him to squeeze in the names of Matildo and Jesus, which he did without a smile, and we parted on the best of terms.

Delicate Distinction.

The Senior Partner—Say! We ought to get a sign painted saying that we will only pay bills the latter half of the month.

The Junior Partner—Looks to me as if it would be better to word it that no bills will be paid the first half of the month.—Indianapolis Journal.

This Man Is In Trouble.

Some queer letters find their way to an editor's desk. And here is one of them, which is warm with life and feeling and means business:

To the Editor:

SIR—I sent you three weeks ago some Sunday a sketch of poetry which was wrote by my wife on her birthday. I told you to print it on Sunday and send the bill to me; but nary a sketch of it or bill has I seen. You has placed me in a damagin perdicament by not printin it 'cordin to instructions, for my wife thinks I either didn't mail it or got "full" and lost it. Will you please drop me a line and set me right about it? I know I mailed it to you in the postoffice, but I ain't got no witnesses. If you will set me right in the matter, I will write a piece for you myself!

THE NIGHT CLERK'S STORY.

A FACE LIKE CHALK.

A very bad attack of the Grippe one year ago last winter left my system in a very weak state and my nervous system completely unstrung. After getting over the dangerous stage of the disease I naturally expected to gain strength, but, unfortunately, did not do so. On the contrary, my blood became weaker. I daily lost strength and vitality, and my nervous system became so weak that it was a constant source of suffering both day and night. I lost appetite, the sight of food nauseated me, the weak state of my system caused shortness of breath and unnatural action of the heart, such as fluttering and violent palpitation, and my face was like chalk. I was in this condition and constantly getting weaker when I began taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. I had read the books they distributed and their advertisements in the papers, and thought, "Well, I have taken so much medicine without benefit it is useless to spend any more money. However, I finally made up my mind. It is a forlorn hope; I can but try. If I am not benefited I will not be hurt. So I bought one box and received great benefit therefrom, so continued their use, and to-day am a well man in consequence; my blood is strong, my face has the ruddy hue of health, my appetite has returned, I sleep well, I have not the slightest indications of nervousness or heart trouble, and from a sick, weak, nervous man Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have transformed me in six weeks to full health and strength." I am yours very truly,

(Signed) WILLIAM WILLARD,
Night Clerk Grand Central Hotel, Peterboro.

RINGWORM
ON BABY'S FACE

Mother Ashamed to Take Him Out. Everything Failed to Cure. CUTICURA Cured in 3 Days.

I have had my baby sick with his face full of ringworm, and tried everything and failed. I was ashamed to take him out, for every one would look at him. I was told to get CUTICURA. I got it on Wednesday, and by Saturday his face was all dried up. Now I can take him everywhere. I cannot say enough about CUTICURA. If people only knew about how his face looked a week ago, and see it to-day, they would never be without it. The people in the house can tell you how his face was, and how it is to-day.

CRAZY WITH ITCHING

Eczema on Head. Got Into the Eyes. Doctor & Institutes Could Not Cure. Cured in 2 Months by CUTICURA.

I have been troubled over two years with eczema on the top of my head. It first started to itch, something fierce. My doctor said it was eczema, and treated me for six months, with failure, so I tried more doctors, but they did the same, I tried a New York institute, which treated me for six months, but could not reach any further than the rest. I had it worse than from the start, as it commenced to get in my eyes, and nearly got me crazy with itching. I noticed your advertisement in the N. Y. World, and thought I would try CUTICURA remedies. In two months' time I did not know that I had any trouble at all, and I feel like a new man now. ALFRED MEIBEL,
Oct. 12, 1898. 626 W. 45th St., N. Y. City.

WANT THE BEST.

CATHOLIC LIBERALS OFFICIALLY DEFINE THEIR POSITION.

They Desire Representatives in the Federal and Provincial Governments of the Highest Standard.

"During the recent visit of the Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier to attend the installation of His Grace the Archbishop of Toronto, a deputation representing the Executive Committee having in charge the coming Catholic Liberal Convention waited upon the hon. gentleman for the purpose of explaining to him the reasons for calling the convention, and to ask for his co-operation in making the gathering a success. They pointed out to him that since the Conservative party in Ontario had abandoned their anti-Catholic attitude and were endeavouring to undo the mischief that attitude had caused them, there was danger that many of the Catholic electors who formerly voted with the Conservative party, but who for some years past have supported the Liberal Government in Ontario, might return to their former allegiance if something was not done to retain their confidence.

"The illness of Mr. Harty and his determination to lay down the burdens of office made it imperative that an able man should be chosen to succeed him. Mr. Harty, they pointed out, had the entire confidence of the Catholic people, and if he could retain his post nothing better could be desired. Only an able man could creditably succeed such leaders as Mr. C. F. Fraser and Mr. Harty, and it behooved the Catholic Liberal electors to meet in convention and bring forward their very best man. The deputation also pointed out the desirability of having for the representative of the Ontario Catholics at Ottawa a member of the House of Commons, and, if possible, an eloquent and able exponent of their interests — one who in the Cabinet Councils, on the floor of the House and on public platforms would be an honour and a credit to the Liberal Catholic electorate of Ontario.

"Sir Wilfrid's reception of the delegation was extremely cordial and the interview cannot fail to enhance the success of the convention. He recognized the desire, more especially of the Irish Catholic Liberals, for a leader of whom they could be proud, and commended the ambition as a laudable one. Conventions of this kind had on other occasions brought forth able, but at that time unrecognised men. He gave some valuable and kindly advice, and hoped that the convention would be a success, and that its results would be in the interests of both the Liberal party and the Catholic people.

"A deputation also waited upon the Hon. Mr. Harty and explained to him as they had done to Sir Wilfrid, the objects which the promoters of the convention had in view. They assured him that it was not called in any hostile or critical spirit, but in the best interests of the Liberal party. They recognized the splendid services he had rendered during his tenure of office, and assured him if he found it possible to remain at his post he would have their confidence and loyal support. They congratulated him on the chivalrous and unselfish spirit he had shown in standing by his friends at a critical time, and, in spite of influences which would have driven a less loyal and generous man into private life, throwing himself into the work of the fight at the general election. He had not only carried his own constituency, but to him was due in a measure, the victory of the Hardy Government at the last general election. If he found it necessary to retire from the Government who the successor should be, [illegible] out that one chosen with the approval of a representative Catholic Liberal Convention would be more likely to prove a source of strength to the party than a choice from motives of expediency. The Executive did not wish their motives to be misunderstood; they did not seek to establish any new principle, but merely as devoted Catholic Liberals to advise their leaders concerning the best interests of the Liberal party.

"With regard to the motives which garrulous and envious persons had attributed to them it was necessary to say but little. Every movement of this kind provokes criticism, and they only asked that it be fair. Mr. Harty, in reply, stated to the deputation that he was convinced that the gentlemen interested in promoting the convention were actuated by the kindliest motives towards him, and that he would give any information he could to promote the success of the convention, which, he hoped, would be of benefit both to the Liberal Catholics of Ontario and the Liberal party.

"The committee are now in a position to state, as a result of information received from prominent Catholic Liberals in all parts of the Province, that the convention will be an unqualified success, both as regards the character of the delegates and the number attending. Five hundred gentlemen in various parts of the province have been communicated with, and replies received from many stating that organization would be undertaken in their ridings at once. The tone of the replies in every instance justifies the action already taken.

"Organization is well under way already in Lincoln, Welland, the three Wellingtons, Brockville, Leeds, the two Peterboroughs, the Victorias, Ottawa, the Hurons and the Bruces. It is expected that all constituencies will be well organized by the end of this week."

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

GOLF.

The much talked of match between the Banks of Toronto and Commerce took place on the Auburn links yesterday afternoon. It was a battle royal. Both sides were confident, but as in all competitions one had to take a back seat; that one was the Bank of Toronto.

The day was charming, and the links with their grassy slopes and breezy hilltops never looked better. From beginning to end, every inch of the ground was stubbornly contested; the bankers for the two hours they played forgetting the cares and worries of the counting house. The play on the whole was of a good class, the driving at times being of wonderful distance and accuracy of judgment. The game was a victory for the Bank of Commerce, the score being as follows:

Mr. Francis and Mr. Campbell a tie.
R. C. McHarrie by 3 from A. St. A. Smith, who plays a strong game.
A. S. Houston by 6 from E. W. Lamprey.
J. H. Carter by 1 from C. Poussette.

The score by strokes was as appended:

McHarrie vs. Smith...	75—77
Carter vs. Poussette...	60—61
Houston vs. Lamprey...	72—83
Francis vs. Campbell...	56—57

The game was rather one sided, the Commerce men playing without any noticeable effort. It is understood that the winners in this competition will play the lawyers, four of their star players, to be drawn from the town bar. The play in yesterday's match was up, in every way, to North Berwick form.

CRICKET.

The town plays the bankers on Saturday afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. A number of the 1888 colts, who had an unbeaten record in their day, will figure in the town team.

The bank team will be composed of Hamilton, Napier, Milburn (Montreal); Poussette and Smith, (Toronto), Huston, (Commerce); Parker, Crane, Hollingshead, Ferguson, G. Hall, (Ontario).

BASEBALL.

The match between the Ontario Bank team and a combination team picked from the banks of Montreal, Commerce and Toronto, is exciting considerable interest. The Ontario easily defeated the combination at hockey and basket ball, but will have its work cut out to win to-morrow, as the combination includes some good ball tossers. The game will take place at the P.A.A.A. grounds, commencing at 4 o'clock.

The members of the baseball team are getting in a lot of practice these evenings and will be able to give a good account of themselves by the Queen's Birthday, when they play the Delawares on the P.A.A.A. grounds in the morning.

Messrs. Buck and Donavan, both old hands at the game, were out limbering up a bit last night and propose to get right into the game.

LACROSSE.

Practice to-night beginning at 6.30 o'clock.

Hastings will run a big excursion to Peterborough on May 24th. It is estimated that several hundred people will come up with the lacrosse team.

Two heavy defense men in the persons of George Boucher and Howard Hughes will be out to-night to begin training for the match on the Queen's Birthday. Hughes played with the Peterboroughs three years ago and Boucher was formerly one of the stars of the Aetnas, who played for the town championship against the Cretes some ten years ago.

Y.M.C.A. ATHLETICS.

The Cycling Club wheeled to Nassau last evening, returning along the eastern side of the river. Captain Fred Mosier set the pace and the run was much enjoyed by all notwithstanding the dusty condition of the roads.

Bugler Goldy was in fine fettle and his blasts seemed to stir the whole northern district of the town.

The next club run will be on Saturday afternoon.

The foot ballers will kick to-night on the Nicholls Park oval at 7 o'clock.

HOCKEY.

THE POLICE COURT.

A One-legged Tramp who Claims he is a Traveller.

At the police court this morning Edward Burke, a one-legged tramp appeared on a charge of being a vagrant and having no visible means of support.

Prisoner put up the defence that he was a traveller, selling lead pencils.

Magistrate Dumble asked why if he were a traveller depending on the public for his living, he used such profane and abusive language as that in which he was indulging, when arrested. The prisoner replied that he was very sorry and that if he were let off this time he would leave in half an hour and never return to town. He was given a chance to leave town at once.

OUR WATER SUPPLY.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Dear Sir—The question of the peculiar taste in the river water is much discussed these days and all manner of suggestions are made regarding it.

The Medical Health Officer advises boiling the water, Mr. Adam Hall advises using one of his filters, but those who boil their water say it smells, and those who use the filter say it does not improve matters either.

The Indians are supposed to know all about these matters, and so Dan Whetung has been consulted. He sniffs the air and says "dead muskrat," stating that the severe frost of last winter killed all the rats. Others who know say that there is a lake west of Lindsay the shores of which are lined with dead fish, it being so shallow as to freeze to the bottom and kill the fish. What others say is that the ice only went out a week ago, that the water is intensely cold and that all the dead muskrats and fish in the lake could not impart that peculiar taste and smell.

George Cochrane, the well-known and experienced wood ranger, who has tasted all the waters between here and the North Pole, says that owing to the very high water, the swamp waters, tainted with the taste of leaves and root and branch are being swept into the streams, and that this is the cause of the taste complained of. Cochrane says that in the course of his long life at wood ranging, when thirsty he dipped his hill in any water at hand and never felt any evil effect and he thinks the taint in the water something that is perfectly harmless and something which will soon pass away.

Those who have been on Gull, Eagle and other lakes and seen water cold and clear as crystal, and which largely supply our rivers, have peculiar satisfaction in thinking that Peterborough draws her water supply from clear, rock-bound lakes. The waters of the Burnt River have a peculiar brown colour, and but for this our water would be crystal clear. Our lumbermen and campers use nothing else but this water, and no one has ever been known to have been made sick by it. If proper precautions are used to keep contamination from the villages above us we may rest assured that we will always have a pure water supply.

Yours truly,
SENEX.

SURPLUS DOGS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I beg through the medium of your valuable paper to suggest that dog owners shall not only procure a tag for each dog, but that they should be compelled to attach it to the dog's collar and that all dogs going at large without a tag so attached, shall be liable to be seized, and kept at a suitable place and if not claimed in a certain time, destroyed. By doing this a large number of the dogs that at present roam the streets making night hideous by the barking, and in not a few instances attacking pedestrians, would be done away with, much to the comfort of lovers of quiet nights. Thanking you for your space, I remain,

Yours respectively,
A DOG OWNER.

IT MAY YET SUCCEED.

A Distinguished Diplomat on the Washington Commission.

MAY EFFECT AN AGREEMENT.

On the Other Hand the Washington Officials in the State and Treasury Departments Think the Chances Are Very Slim—Alaskan Boundary and Ontario Logs the Sore Spots.

London, May 11.—The Daily News publishes an interview with "a distinguished diplomat" this morning regarding the peace conference and the joint high commission for the settlement of questions in dispute between the United States and Canada. He is reported as saying: "Contrary to what has been published, I am very hopeful of a settlement as to outstanding questions, which indeed are already very nearly settled, except the Alaskan controversy; and while the United States and England lack identical instructions for the deliberations at The Hague, it is highly probable that they will take the same line there."

IRRITATION AT WASHINGTON.

The Alaskan Boundary and the Prohibition of the Expertation of Logs From Ontario the Sore Spots.

Washington, D.C., May 11.—(Montreal Herald Special).—The gravest apprehension is felt for the continuance of the negotiations of the Anglo-American joint high commission, appointed to frame a treaty between the United States and Canada. This feeling is so strong that a report was circulated on Tuesday that the deliberations of the commission would not be continued. There is no authority, however, for saying that the commission will not re-assemble at Ottawa in August according to the plan arranged at the time of the adjournment in Washington last February. It is apparent that the State Department expects no successful result from this meeting. A good deal of irritation is felt on account of the failure of the Dominion Government to agree to the establishment of a modus vivendi on the Alaskan boundary question, and the feeling is that if Canada is unwilling to consent to a modus vivendi, the fact does not augur well for the success of continued negotiations for a permanent settlement of the Alaskan dispute. The State and Treasury Departments have been a good deal stirred up, too, on account of the recent action of the Ontario Provincial Legislature in prohibiting the exportation of logs to the United States and especially as the legislation was made retroactive. The Dominion Government having the power to disapprove this legislation within a certain limit of time, did not do it, and as the lumber dispute was, next to the boundary question, the greatest obstacle to the success of the joint commission negotiations, the Washington officials are not encouraged by the unfriendly act of Ontario, which they regard as having received the virtual approval of the Ottawa Administration.

Money Back, If You Want It.

What could make your buying safer? Seems out of reason, you say, that we will take back goods once sold without making faces over it? Why should we make faces? Why should we hesitate? If we were in business for a week or a month there might be a sort of worldly-wise policy in selling you everything possible, regardless of truth or of your needs and then insisting that they stay sold.

We expect to be in business here for years.

We expect to see our business grow and grow.

We expect to make friends and keep them—by treating them broadly and fairly.

We do not want one of you to keep a thing you're not satisfied with. Come back with it, your money is waiting—Of course Toilet Articles, Bedding and a few things, (you wouldn't care to buy if some user had purchased them before), we do not take back.

OLD MAN SHOT HIMSELF.

Body Was Found Near Wiarton on Mr. McNeill's Farm.

Wiarton, Ont., May 11.—While Thomas Lee was repairing the fences of Mr. McNeill, M.P., yesterday afternoon, he found the body of an old man of about 70 years, close to a clump of cedar bushes, a mile north of this place. A revolver was lying at his side, and there was a bullet wound close to his eye. Coroner Fisher viewed the body, and said there was no doubt deceased had caused his own death. Deceased had lived in Keppel for a number of years of late with his son, William. In the morning he was on his way to visit his son, Thomas McGarkey, at Mar. Deceased was in apparent good health, and the cause of the act is not known.

"EMPIRE DAY"

Falls on Tuesday, May 23—Minister's Suggestion as to the Proceedings.

Toronto, May 11.—"Empire Day" this year falls on Tuesday, May 23. The Minister of Education has just issued a circular to public school inspectors, giving suggestions as to how the day should be observed in the public schools of the province. Part of the forenoon, the Minister suggests, might be occupied with a familiar talk by the teacher on the British Empire, its extent and resources; the relation of Canada to the Empire; the unity of the Empire and its advantages; the privileges which, as British subjects, we enjoy; the extent of Canada and its resources; readings from Canadian and British authors by the teacher; interesting historical incidents in connection with our own country. The aim of the teacher in all his references to Canada and the Empire should be, to make Canadian patriotism intelligent, comprehensive and strong.

The afternoon, commencing at 2.30 p.m., might be occupied with patriotic recitations, songs, readings by the pupils, speeches by trustees, clergymen and such other persons as may be available.

The trustees and public generally should be invited to be present at these exercises.

During the day the British flag or Canadian ensign should be hoisted over the school building.

MRS. WEBSTER IS FREE.

The Woman Was a Tool in the Hands of Wicked Politicians.

Brockville, Ont., May 11.—Mrs. W. K. Webster appeared for trial before Judge McDonald yesterday on a charge of blackmail. She elected to be tried by his honor and pleaded not guilty to a charge of threatening Antoine Wendling that he would be charged by Alex. McIntosh with offering him marked ballots, unless he paid her $500, for which sum she would guarantee to keep McIntosh from appearing against him. The plaintiff testified that Mrs. Webster had demanded $500 from him; that he asked her for half an hour to consult with friends. He utilized the half hour to send for the chief of police and two friends, whom he placed in an adjoining room, where they could overhear what passed. No defence was offered. The judge held that the woman had been a tool in the hands of others more culpable, and that while her conduct deserved censure, she was not actually guilty of blackmail. She was, therefore, discharged.

Looted Chambers' House.

New York, May 11.—Dr. P. F. Chambers of this city yesterday received a letter from his brother, Chief Justice Chambers, of Samoa, dated at Apia, April 29, which states that rebels, under Chief Mataafa, looted Justice Chambers' house on April 6, during the height of the present troubles. The Chief Justice lost about $1,000 worth of property.

Seat Sold for $40,000.

New York, May 11.—A seat on the Stock Exchange was sold yesterday for $40,000, the highest sum ever paid. That sum is now bid for a seat.

Iron Horses Chained Up.

Guthrie, O.T., May 11.—Two freight trains and a passenger train on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Road were stopped by Sheriff Nowblock and an armed force of deputies at Norman yesterday, and chained to the track. The engines were locked and chained and traffic stopped. All this property was levied on to collect $7,000 taxes owed by the railroad company for 1898.

The Lord's Day Act.

Toronto, May 11.—The Presbyterian Synod last night adopted the report of the committee on the Lord's Day Act. The judicial decisions which render the act inoperative were stated, and the opinion expressed that the Ontario Government will submit a special case to the Court of Appeal to determine the points raised.

Defaulting Teller Hit Hard.

THE BLACK DIAMONDS

Of Britain Will Largely Influence Her Future.

WILL LAST ABOUT 50 YEARS.

Mr. Forster Brown Tells What the Statesmanlike Course Is Under the Circumstances—A Policy to Prevent the Supreme Nation From Being Wiped Out as a Wealthy One.

London, May 11.—Mr. Forster Brown, president of the Mining Association of Great Britain, has just delivered a lecture on the available sources of the coal supply of Great Britain, and its bearing upon the future prosperity of the country. He said the best of the coal resources, at a moderate depth of 2,000 feet, and of the best quality, cheaply worked, would last about 50 years; but there would still remain unexhausted the best seams at great depth and seams at shallow depths sufficient to maintain a supply of coal of 250,000,000 tons a year for 250 years.

The statesmanlike course to meet the increased cost of coal due to natural causes such as depth, temperature and so forth, would be for the Government to acquire the internal means of communication, such as railways and canals, and pay off all the municipal loans for water, lighting, sanitation and other public purposes, thus providing for a continuation of the prosperity of the country till the coal was absolutely exhausted. If some such action was not adopted we should begin to feel the pressure of circumstances and gradually disappear as a wealthy nation soon after 50 years.

YOUNG CHINESE EMPEROR

Is in a Sad State—He Is Now Kept in Close Confinement.

Shanghai, May 11.—The former Secretary of the Tsung Li Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office), who has just arrived here from Pekin, reports that affairs in the capital are in a deplorable state. The Empress Dowager, who, no one doubts, is but awaiting her opportunity to proclaim a new Emperor, treats her nephew and foster son, Kuang H'su, with great cruelty. The Emperor is kept in close confinement, with insufficient clothing and not food enough properly to sustain life.

The ex-Secretary pleads for foreign support of the reform movement, devotion to which has caused the Emperor's practical dethronement.

ENGLAND'S ARMAMENTS

Made Her Enemies Think Twice Before Precipitating Trouble.

London, May 11.—The Duke of Devonshire, Lord President of the Council of Ministers, speaking yesterday afternoon at the annual banquet of the Central Association of Bankers, said that while Great Britain's expenditures had been enormous, any less financial preparedness would have lessened her chances of amicable agreement with the United States, France and Russia.

England's armaments, he declared, had made arbitration over the Venezuela controversy possible, and had preserved the amicable relations with the great republic. It would be asking too much to expect that all these treaties would lead to less universal, permanent peace, but what had been done showed that Great Britain recognized the responsibilities resting upon her, and was willing to use her power and wealth right fully.

Laws of Church and Realm.

London, May 11.—The House of Commons yesterday, by a vote of 310 to 156, defeated the second reading of the church discipline bill. Subsequently the House adopted, without division, a Government amendment to the bill to the effect that unless the efforts which the archbishops and bishops are now making to secure due obedience by the clergy are not speedily effectual, further legislation will be required in order to maintain observance of the existing laws of the church and realm.

Princess Christian Presided.

London, May 11.—Princess Christian, on behalf of Queen Victoria, held the third drawing room of the season yesterday. The Princess Victoria of Wales and the Duke and Duchess of Connaught were the only members of the royal family, besides Princess Christian, who were present at the drawing room. United States Ambassador Choate and his entire ambassadorial staff were present. Mr. Choate presented several Americans.

Uncle Sam's Peace Delegates.

London, May 11.—Capt. Alfred T. Mahan, U.S.N., retired, and Mr. Seth Low, president of Columbia University, New York, delegates of the United States to the disarmament congress, which meets in The Hague on May 18, reached this city yesterday with their assistants. They will start for The Hague on Tuesday of next week.

Decorated Austrian and German.

Madrid, May 11.—The Queen Regent has conferred upon the Austrian Minister of War and the German Minister of the Navy the Grand Cross of Military Merit. It is generally supposed that the decorations have been bestowed in recognition of the friendly attitude of Austria and Germany towards Spain during the recent war with the United States.

The Czarina Helps the Sufferers.

St. Petersburg, May 11.—At the instance of the Czarina two commissioners have been sent to the famine-stricken district of Russia to inquire into the distress there and to take prompt means for its alleviation. The Czarina has given 50,000 roubles for the relief of the suffering people.

Fourteen People Drowned.

Berlin, May 11.—Near Loebnitz, Saxony, on the River Mulde, a ferryboat on which was a picnic party from the little town of Rosa became topheavy with the lead and upset, throwing all the passengers into the water. Fourteen persons were drowned.

There is one good paymaster who is around on time, gives full value, and never fails in his duty. It is your privilege to select him, and his name is pure, wholesome blood. This paymaster makes the rounds of the body, visits brain, stomach, kidneys, liver, heart and head alike. Hood's Sarsaparilla acts as guarantor that this paymaster will do his duty.

If the blood is impure, it cannot do its duty, and you are the sufferer,—but you need not be. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood. It never disappoints.

Scrofula—"An abscess on my hip was lanced and never healed. Another broke out on the other hip and the next year three more appeared. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it helped me. Since taking six bottles of the medicine I have not been troubled, and previous to this treatment one of the eruptions had discharged for seven years." MRS. FRANKLIN H. TEED, Freeport, N. S.

After the Grip—"Suffered from weakness after the grip. Began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it as recommended. It relieved my son of rheumatism." MRS. R. MEYER, Zepher, Ont.

Blood Poison—"Was troubled with blood poison and pains in my heart. Tried Hood's Sarsaparilla by advice of a friend and it gave me relief." MRS. LUCY J. COOK, Windsor, N. S.

Rheumatism—"Pains in my limbs finally settled in my back. I was obliged to stop work. My blood was poor and I did not have any appetite. I could not sleep nights. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and these medicines made me a well man. Others of my family have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla after the grip with good results." G. R. Daily Examiner.

THURSDAY. MAY 11, 1899.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

If the Prince of Wales should visit us this summer he will find that Canada has grown, as well as the trees he planted here in 1860.

The spirit of Grenville's Stamp Act, carried out by the obsequious Lord North and Geo. III, lost Great Britain the greater and larger part of her American colonies. Per contra Mr. Mulock's "Stamp Act," bound the colonies the world round, more closely to the Mother Isles.

It is no surprise that Sir Charles Tupper should defend the Senate. A man that wastes the precious time of parliament raking up dead issues largely relating to himself—such as the Aberdeen episode—would naturally be expected to sympathise with the occupants of a political cemetery.

A great deal is written about the serious inroads American iron and steel are making upon the British markets. A comment, which supplies its own inference, upon such a statement, exists in the circumstance that Scotch ironmasters have advanced the wages of their workmen 15 per cent.

The Dominion Government has taken the stand that the Intercolonial railway must be extended to Montreal. If the Senate persists in getting on the track and obstructing the train, that venerable body will have the experiance that Railway Stevenson predicted in the event of a train striking a cow—"bad for the coo."

The Winnipeg bye-election for the Commons is not to be held on the graveyard voters lists—the old ones. The Dominion Government has made arrangements for the revision of the lists to date and the work is about completed. It is said that the Government will introduce an amendment to the Dominion Franchise Act requiring that all bye-elections shall be held on the latest revised lists.

The U. S. Volunteer Army law provides that volunteers shall be discharged "when the purposes for which they were called into service are accomplished." It will be seen that this allows some argument in support of the contention of the Governor of Colorado that the volunteers in the Phillipines are being illegally retained in service. If he really carries out his threat to test the matter in the courts, the case will be interesting.

The Mail and Empire is at it again. It is discussing the redistribution bill which the Government may bring down. Nobody outside the cabinet knows what the purport of the bill is, yet an Opposition organ goes into details and invents political horrors the bill is to perpetrate. These gratuitously incorrect and misleading statements will be quoted by other journals as facts, and will by some, be believed. This is a sample of the extent the organ will go to to gain a political point.

It will be learned with general regret that Hon. Mr. Tarte, Minister of Public Works, has devoted himself with so much energy to his public duties that his health is severely impaired. For some time Mr. Tarte has been in poor health, but his unbounded energy has kept him working when he ought to have been in bed. His physician has ordered rest, and he ought to obey. Not even his political enemies will grudge a holiday to the most public-spirited, and aggressive Minister of Public Works Canada has had since Hon. Alexander Mackenzie held that office.

The suggestion that Mr. Charlton shall be summoned to the bar of the House of Commons has, the Globe humourously remarks, been made without due consideration. In the first place the bar was abolished a year or two ago, and in the second place, Mr. Charlton is a total abstainer. There is a bar on the Senate side of the building, maintained in order to assist in checking hasty legislation, but even if Mr. Charlton were taken there neither treats nor entreaties would induce him to take anything stronger than ginger ale.

Inherited greatness that pays honour to greatness won by genius is not often in evidence. In these days of imperial bounce and divine right rubbish of the "me-und-Gott" order, it is refreshing to learn that His Royal Highness, the Duke of York, in expressing surprise that his trifling illness attracted so much attention, said, one may infer with a sigh of envy—"Really, I might be a Kipling." Potentates with pedigrees who recognize poetic poentialiites have more brains than those who had that birth in the purple confers anything more than social distinction.

A population equal to that of a town, half the size of Port Hope, landed at Halifax and Quebec on Tuesday—1400 Galicians and 1200 Doukhobors, in all 2600. Population is the one of the two great wants of our boundless Northwest, the other being adequate transportation facilities; and without the latter the former must necessarily be limited. The value of the products of a country that can be made yield a thousand times more than the wants of the people, will be greatly depreciated in value without adequate means of getting the surplus to the only market, the world over.

Great Britain is true to its "open door" policy. Early in September, when the railway to Khartoum will be completed, Gen. Lord Kitchener, Sirdar of the Egyptian army, and Governor of the Soudan, will open the Soudan, to traders and others without restriction. Foreign goods will be admitted duty free, but a small registration fee will be levied at Wady Halfa. Europeans will be allowed to acquire land in the country. The highest form of civilization follows in the wake of British subjugation, if subjugation can be applied to a conquest that imposes no yoke, but represents an extension of civilized freedom.

Mr. Mulock by good management, has got the postoffice department pretty well on its feet and Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, has got the Intercolonial railway upon the track. In speaking in the House on Tuesday, he said that the result of the operation of the railway for the year ending July 1st, next, would be a larger surplus than has ever been known in the history of the road, and he almost ventured to say larger than all the surpluses that had ever been obtained, put together. Opposition journals may sneer at the present administration as a "business-is-business" government, but results show that they bring about satisfactory business results in quarters, where under the previous administration, failures to make ends meet, were the gloomy rule.

THE FORD BILL.

A drastic and radical tax measure, known as the Ford Bill, was passed by the New York Legislature in the closing hours of the session as the result of a brief but urgent message from Governor Roosevelt. This measure extends the terms "land," "real estate," and "real property" to include in addition to all structures and appurtenances upon the land, such as railroads, telegraph and telephone lines, the value of all franchises, rights or permission to construct, maintain and operate the same in, under, above on or through streets, highways or public places. In some quarters the passage of the bill has been hailed as tending to lighten the burden on real estate, particularly in the City of New York, while representatives of the corporate interests most likely to be affected are somewhat shy of expressing themselves regarding the operation of the bill. One thing which seems to be regarded as certain is that, owing to the importance of the interests effected, the measure will be subjected to judicial scrutiny through the medium of suits to test its constitutionality. The ultimate fate of the measure will be watched with interest.

DR. GAUTHIER ENDORSES

Dr. J. T. A. Gauthier, of Valleyfield, Que., writes: "I, the undersigned, certify that the contents of this letter, in regard to the cure of Mr. Isadore Major, by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, is correct."

Here is Mr. Major's letter: "After so years of suffering from backache and kidney disease I owe my life to Dr. A. W. Chase. I had tried an endless variety of remedies to no avail, and on the recommendation of a friend began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two pills that night and two next morning gave great relief, and I continued their use until now I am completely cured. My friends are surprised and pleased to see me well again, for I spent hundreds of dollars in vain trying to get cured. Before using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills my back ached so I could not put on my shoes and couldn't lift 50 lbs. My shoulders were sore, I had headaches and a bad taste in the mouth. These troubles are now entirely gone and what I say I am ready to prove. I have told my friends of my wonderful cure, and many have been greatly benefited by using these pills."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the greatest kidney cure the world has ever known. One pill a dose, 25c. a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Reynolds' new Janagu steamer, which is being put together under the superintendence of Mr. McKendrick, of the Bertram Engine Works Co., Toronto. It shows very fine lines, and is expected when completed to do 17 or 18 miles per hour.

An Interesting Case.

Mr. W. G. Phyall, proprietor of the Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington street, east, Toronto, says:—While living in Chicago I was in a terrible shape with itching and bleeding piles, I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in several ways by their treatments to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr. Chase's Ointment, I used but one box and have not been troubled with piles in any shape or form since.

—There are many public school teachers in the city who would like to attend the meetings of the Board of Education if there was only space to enable them to be seated in the room. Why not make it possible for spectators to be present at such meetings if they choose to come?

THE CHARLTON BILL

Raising the Age of Consent From 16 to 18 Years Passed.

MR. COMSTOCK INTRODUCED.

Brockville's New Member Cheered by the House and the Galleries—The Criminal Code Amended.—Mr. Casey's Bill for Making Provision for Drainage Over Railway Land.

Ottawa, May 11.—The House adjourned at 10.05 last night, after having spent the day in discussing private bills and motions for papers and in interrogating the Ministers. The most interesting spectacle of the day's proceedings was the introduction of Mr. Comstock, the newly-elected member for Brockville, who was introduced by Hon. Mr. Mulock and Mr. D. C. Fraser. The galleries were crowded by visitors from Brockville, who to the number of 300 came up by special train to witness the event. The entrance of the latest addition to the Government ranks in the House was greeted with the greatest enthusiasm by the Government benches, and the example of hon. members on the floor, becoming contagious, spread to the galleries, and called forth from the Speaker a proclamation of the rule which strictly prohibits any demonstration in the galleries. Mr. Charlton's bill amending the Criminal Code, 1892, by raising the age of consent from 16 to 18 years, was passed, also the Columbia & Western Railway Company's bill, after a vigorous effort by western members to have it sent back to committee. The debate on Mr. Casey's bill respecting drainage on and over the property of railway companies was, after a long discussion, again adjourned.

Questions and Answers.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in answer to Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper said it was not the intention of the Government to make any proposition this session for the representation of the Yukon territory in the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Sifton, in answer to Mr. Rosamond, said it was the intention of the Government to give to sons of farmers or others in Ontario, who may wish to take up farms in the Northwest Territory, the same privileges and advantages as have been given to the Doukhobors, Galicians and other aliens.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said, in reply to Mr. Morrison, that no claim had been made upon the Government by or on behalf of the British Yukon Mining, Trading & Transportation Company for some $400,000, or any amount of damages.

A number of motions for papers were carried.

The Alien Labor Law.

Before the orders of the day were called Mr. Clarke called attention to an item in Tuesday night's Toronto Star about 75 Italian laborers being engaged in Buffalo to go to Toronto, and asked if the Government intended to enforce the Canadian alien labor law.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he was not aware of the Government agent at Toronto having made any report on the matter, and the Government would have to receive his report before taking action.

Sir Charles Tupper called attention to the newspaper reports that the international commissioners would not meet again.

Sir Wilfrid said he had heard nothing of the report and so far as his information went there was no foundation for it.

Mr. Clarke Wallace called attention to a statement in The Montreal Witness of last night that the bye-election in Winnipeg would be held on the old lists.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said The Witness was not as well informed as it usually was. New lists for Winnipeg were now in course of preparation.

Col. Prior called attention to the position of a man who had been granted a permit by Mr. Ogilvie to take liquor into the Yukon and was threatened with serious loss on account of the disallowance by the Dominion Government of the ordinances authorizing the permit. He wanted to know what the Government proposed to do about it.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he would state on Friday what the Government proposed to do.

Mr. McInerney inquired what course the Government intended to pursue with reference to the report of the lobster commission.

Sir Louis Davies said that it was intended to adopt some of the recommendations as soon as possible. He might say there would be no curtailment of rights this year, but there would probably be an extension of the fishing season.

Age of Consent Raised.

The orders of the day being reached, Mr. Charlton moved the third reading of his bill to amend the Criminal Code so as to make more effectual provision for the punishment of seduction by raising the age of consent from 16 to 18 years.

Sir Hibbert Tupper and others pointed out that the present act was the same as the English act, which had been passed after very careful consideration, and urged that the law should not be altered. After some discussion the House divided on the third reading, which was carried, 68 for to 29 against, as follows:

The Division.

Yeas — Messrs. Bain, Beith, Bell (Prince), Bethune, Blanchard, Bostock, Britton, Burnett, Campbell, Cargill, Casey, Charlton, Christie, Clancy, Clarke, Cochrane, Copp, Craig, Dechene, Desmarais, Douglas, Dyment, Earle, Ellis, Ferguson, Fielding, Fraser (Guysboro), Frost, Gibson, Godbout, Graham, Guillet, Hale, Henderson, Heyd, Holmes, Hurley, Joly de Lotbiniere (Sir Henri), Kaulbach, Kloepfer, Laurier (Sir Wilfrid), Lewis, Macdonald (Huron), Macdonell (Selkirk), McLaren, McClure, McGregor, McGugan, McHugh, McInnes, McMillan, McMullen, Martin, Maxwell, Moore, Morin, Oliver, Pettit, Richardson, Robertson, Rogers, Rosamond, Snetsinger, Somerville Sproule, Tolmie, Tyrwhitt, Wallace—68.

Nays—Messrs. Angers, Bazinet, Beausoleil, Bell (Pictou), Bergeron, Bernier, Blair, Bourassa, Carroll, Champagne, Davies (Sir Louis), Ethier, Fitzpatrick, Haggart, Ives, LaRiviere, Lavergne, Logan, Macdonald (King's), Mackie, McCarthy, McDougall, McIsaac, McLennan (Inverness), McNeill, Prior, Savard, Tisdale, Tupper (Sir Charles Hibbert)—29.

Drainage Over Railway Lands.

The House then resumed the debate on the proposed motion of Mr. Casey, that the order for the House for committee of the whole on bill No. 24, an act concerning drainage on and over the properties of railway companies, be discharged and the bill be referred to a special committee.

Hon. Mr. Blair moved that the committee consist of Messrs. Tisdale, Haggart, Russell, Bourassa and Casey.

Dr. Sproule pointed out that according to the rules of the House, the two first named were ineligible to serve on the committee, having expressed themselves against the principle of the bill.

Mr. Speaker ruled that the objection was well taken, but at this point the House rose for recess.

Columbia & Western Railway.

When the order for the third reading of the Columbia & Western Railway bill was reached, Mr. Oliver sought to have it amended by striking out the clause increasing the company's bonding powers. On division the amendment was defeated by 61 to 14, and the bill then read a third time and passed.

Mr. Casey's bill was again taken up and debated for an hour without any decision being reached.

The House adjourned at 10 o'clock.

Provincial Prohibition.

Mr. Flint has given notice of the Dominion Alliance provincial prohibition resolution which he will move in the House. It asserts the desirability of uniform prohibition legislation in the provinces and territories and declares that the sale of intoxicating liquors should be prohibited in such provinces as by a majority vote declare in favor of it, and remain in force therein for four years, and thereafter until repealed by vote by majority of the electors. The vote is to take place at a general election. It further provides that in provinces wherein the law is in force liquor shall only be sold for medicinal purposes and no brewer or distiller shall produce, except for export out of the province.

LEAVES THE PARTY.

Hon. John Costigan Has Cut Loose From the Conservatives.

Toronto, May 11.—(Globe Ottawa Special.)—Hon. John Costigan last evening announced to The Globe correspondent that he had cut loose from the Conservative party as it now is organized. "I do not think," said Mr. Costigan, "that the men who now pose as representatives of the old Conservative party, to which I belonged and still belong, are by any means the representatives of the Conservative instinct in Canada in politics. I have left these people, and I have no objection to The Globe stating it."

DELEGATION OF LEATHER MEN

Asked Sir Henri Joly for Compulsory Inspection of Hides.

Ottawa, May 11.—S. R. Wickett, Edgar A. Wills, G. B. Beale and A. R. Clarke of Toronto and a dozen or more other representatives of the tanning industry waited on Sir Henri Joly yesterday with the object of securing compulsory inspection of hides, in at least ten cities of Canada. The deputation said that owing to lack of inspection the tanners claim hides are imported into Canada from Britain, whereas a big export trade might be secured; only thorough inspection would enable Canada to compete in the European market.

Sir Henri Joly produced hundreds of petitions from butchers and farmers against compulsory inspection. He gave very little hope to the delegation. A meeting has been arranged for this morning, when both sides will be heard.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 96/100 dollars ($1264.96) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334 80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

FIRST COMMUNION.

One Hundred and Sixty-four Children Confirmed at St. Peters.

Ascension Day was observed with appropriate ceremonies in St. Peter's Cathedral to-day, the services being conducted by the Ven. Archdeacon Casey, assisted by Rev. Father Scanlan.

At 9 a.m. a first communion was held for children, when 164 little ones, 92 of whom were girls and 72 boys, were confirmed, nearly 100 of these receiving the first communion. The girls were dressed in white and the boys in black, the latter wearing white ribbons on their arms. As they marched from the Communion hall to the church they sang a hymn to the Sacred Heart.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon service was held again, at which the little ones renewed their baptismal vows. The Bishop exacted a pledge from the entire class that they would abstain from all intoxicating liquors until they were at least 21 years of age.

—If you want to stop the growth of the biggest burdock you ever saw, just take a knife and cut the plant below the crown, close to the ground, then pour a tablespoonful of coal oil upon it, and in nine cases out of ten it will never appear again.

—The shipment of grain from Midland to Montreal has set in with a rush, and "double-header" trains of 38 and 40 cars each pass through night and day. At present there are seven big grain vessels tied up at Midland elevators awaiting a chance to unload.

—The ranks of the Battalion are steadily filling up with men of fine physique. There is still room for more, and it is to be hoped that every file will be filled when the Rangers go to Niagara-on-the-Lake. The fact that the men are to receive their pay this year should induce many more to give their time to drill.

Locke, formerly of the George street church, Peterborough, has been appointed professor in the department of history and philosophy of education in Chicgao University. The well-known psychologist, Dr. Dewey, is in charge of this department, and it was through his recommendation that Mr. Locke was appointed. Prof. Locke is a graduate of Victoria University and a post-graduate student of Chicago University, where he left a fellowship to assume an instructorship in the department of history and philosophy in Harvard. Strong efforts were made to induce Mr. Locke to remain at Harvard, but he had accepted the Chicago position. He will remain at his present post until the close of the summer session, when he leaves for Chicago. Mr. Locke has been a close student of public school systems, and it was his thorough knowledge of pedagogy and his brilliant work at Harvard that caused the Chicago University to seek his services. Mr. Locke also bears the degree of Bachelor of Pedagogy.

BETTER HOURS FOR EMPLOYEES

Was the Subject Discussed Last Night by Some of the Clerks of the Town.

Better hours for employees was the subject discussed by a number of representatives from the principal business houses in town, at a preliminary meeting which was held in the National hotel last night. It must be understood that this is not a movement on the part of the clerks to bulldose their employer sinto some unreasonable proposal, but those who were there volunteered the statement that their employers were heartily in accord with the idea and willing to agree to anything in reason to give their employees better hours during the summer months as long as such a movement was unanimous.

It is proposed to include dry goods groceries, boots and shoes, hardware, clothing, and druggists, and the promoters are confident that their suggestions will become effective by the first of July or earlier. The exact nature of the movement has not been given out but will, most likely, be in the form of a weekly half-holiday, or close say at four o'clock each day in the week, except of course on Saturday's or the day before holidays.

It was decided to call another meeting for Tuesday night at the same place, when representatives from every store in town will be present and form an association. The boys say that every other town of any importance in Ontario, has better closing regulations than Peterborough, and that we have no reason to be behind in this respect. A few years ago the half-holiday system was tried in Peterborough and is said to have worked quite satisfactory.—Com.

Saturday's game on the Nicholls Park oval between the bankers and the town begins promptly at half past two.

The Bethany Cricket club has organized for the season with the following officers:

THE WHEEL.

The C. G. E. Wheelmen intend holding a road race on Saturday afternoon, May 20th, over the Lakefield course. This annual event always arouses considerable interest amongst the citizens and doubtless there will be a big crowd to see the finish at the Nicholls Park track. When the handicaps are announced some of the riders will be sorry that they scorched so hard coming in from Chemong a week ago Saturday.

LACROSSE.

Campbellford would like to have Hastings and Peterborough play off their match in that town on the 24th, as it is expected that a big crowd will follow the lacrosse team from Hastings to see what the boys can do in fast company. The match promises to be a hot one and the local team would feel far surer of victory if Lionel King was home to take his old place on the home field.

As all of the senior team cannot get away to play the Tecumsehs in Toronto on the 27th, a number of the best juniors will have a chance to show what they are made of.

Campbellford wants the Juniors to play home and home matches during June, but the Juniors will have to get out and practice before any dates will be arranged for them.

McDowall, of Owen Sound, will be a strong man for the Juniors, and may be fast enough to catch a place on the Senior team.

Tom McDonough is going to try and fill his old place at centre again for the Seniors. He used to be very speedy when he is in shape.

McClelland is developing in a manner which will fit him for senior company before the year is over. He is a hard and close checker and is afraid of nothing.

SPRAYING FRUIT TREES.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir—As I am frequently asked for the particulars of the mixture for spraying fruit trees, will you kindly publish the formula so that your readers may have it before them: Copper sulphate 4 pounds, lime(fresh) 4 lbs., Paris Green 4 ounces, water 40 gallons. The bulletin recently issued by the Department of Agriculture, Toronto, may be had for asking the Department for it, and it gives full particulars as to spraying.

Every owner of an orchard should carefully fight the caterpillar this year. In addition to the tent caterpillars, which are easily detected and may be removed by picking off or crushing the nests, there are others which last year were so bad on the maple and basswood trees, and which are not so easily seen or removed. Thorough and frequent spraying is the best and easiest way to deal with all of these enemies. Those who have not yet sprayed should do so at once before the blossoms open, and again as soon as the blossoms have fallen, and then two weeks later. New leaves are constantly growing and they furnish fresh food for the caterpillars until they also are sprayed.

Last year when the caterpillars were so bad I had not a single apple tree injured. The spraying was very effectual.

Yours truly,
E. B. EDWARDS.

TRIM THE BOULEVARDS.

The boulevards in front of some residences are in a condition quite shocking to those of esthetic tastes. In some instances these boulevards are in marked contrast with the well-kept lawns inside the fence. But the beauty of the nicely kept premises inside is greatly marred by the ugly outside surroundings. Citizens should take a pride in keeping the boulevards trim and clean, and thus contribute to the attractiveness of this beautiful town. It is not always, however, the fault of the occupants that the boulevards are neglected. In many cases houses are rented, and tenants do not care to incur the expense of filling in and sodding the boulevards. This should be done by the owners, and there are few, if any, residents who would not then gladly keep the grass watered and trimmed. A neatly kept boulevard adds more than is supposed to the value of a property.

ASCENSION DAY.

The festival of Ascension Day is observed on the fortieth day after Easter day, because St. Luke in the Acts of the Apostles tells us that Jesus shewed Himself to His Apostles, after His resurrection, "by many infallible proofs being seen of them forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God."

This festival has been observed by Christians from a very early date. St. Augustine, (A.D. 354-430) speaks of it as either instituted by the Apostles, or by some early and numerously attended councils of the primitive bishops. St. Chrysostom, the great orator of Constantinople, (A.D. 347-407) says: "On this day we, who had been shown to be unworthy of earth, were raised to the hope of heaven; we, who were not fit to receive dominion even on earth below, were exalted to the kingdom which is above; and our nature, kept out by cherubim from an earthly paradise, may now sit about the cherubim on high."

At the time of the Reformation, the Church of England in accordance with its general principle to retain old customs that appeared reasonable and free from superstition, retained the festivals that commemorated the great events in the life of Christ, such as Christians commemorating His birth; Good Friday, His death; Easter, His resurrection and in like manner the observance of Ascension Day was retained, special Psalms and Lessons, together with a special Collect, Epistle and Gospels were appointed for the services.

In the middle ages the festival of Ascension Day, or Holy Thursday became a favourite for the holding of fairs. As these were not conducive to holiness, an Act of Parliament was passed so early as Henry VI, prohibiting this custom. The same Act reveals the fact that in those days markets and fairs were sometimes held on Sundays, for the Act also prohibits these, with the exception of four Sundays in harvest, upon which markets could be held. This part of the Act was not repealed until the year 1856. The rest of the Act remains unrepealed. In spite of this Act of Henry VI, fairs were held in some places on Ascension Day. The present writer remembers one held annually on "Holy Thursday" till within the last thirty years. These fairs were once important events for the transaction of business, but by degrees as other facilities for business increased, the fairs degenerated, into rough and rudely kept holidays. Many readers will remember the description of a 'fair' in Tom Brown's School Days.

In spite of the importance of the event commemorated on Ascension Day, it does not attract the attention which many think it should, and whereas many denominations that entirely abandoned the observance of special Holy Days at the Reformation, are beginning to see the value of the religious observance of Christmas Day and Good Friday, there is no sign at present of any recognition of Holy Thursday outside of the Greek, Roman and Anglican Communions.

STONY LAKE NOTES.

Transportation Facilities to be Improved This Year.

Mr. J. D. Collins, secretary of the Stony Lake Cottagers Association, states that he has been unofficially informed that the summer service on the Grand Trunk between here and Lakefield will be put into operation on Monday, June 19th. This will be very satisfactory to those cottage owners who wish to go out to the Lakes early in the season.

Mr. Collins has also been communicating with General Manager Hayes of the Grand Trunk, in reference to extending the track from the station to the wharf at Lakefield, as much time is lost in moving luggage from the station to the boats in the summer. Mr. Hayes has promised to give the matter his consideration.

POTPOURRI.

Round my jar of white and blue
Faint delicious odors play;
Roses, once of gorgeous hue,
Blooms of a forgotten day,
In the warm and golden air
Breathed as now their perfume fair.

Did my lady pick them all?
Flitting, radiant as a flower,
While the satin petals fall
In her scarf, a scented shower—
See, they lightly flash and fly,
Jewels 'gainst an azure sky!

Lady Betty lies long dead,
But her roses still recall
Days when they their fragrance shed
Clustering o'er the gray stone wall,
And their spirits sigh to me
From my jar of potpourri.

COPLEY'S GLASSES.

We had been talking over a lively incident in the life of one of our friends—his name was Thwaites—which had led to a peculiarly strong development of that individual's nose. Three of us knew Thwaites quite well, and one of the three had told the story to the others. The fourth man did not know Thwaites personally, but he did know a story of another man, of which, he said, the story about Thwaites reminded him.

"You know that eyeglasses make a great difference in the looks of a man, don't they? Well, this is how Copley came to wear eyeglasses:

"His eyes? They may have suffered from the artificial help they have been getting from those glasses all these years, though I believe he has had the good sense all along to wear simple lenses that make not the least difference to his vision. But he certainly never took up with those eyeglasses for the good of his eyes. It began as a matter of policy with Copley.

"When I knew him first, we were both students in a big London hospital, trying to become doctors.

"Copley was very much in earnest, you see. He may have been naturally disposed to have his larks in one way or another, but he always had a certain shrewdness which kept him from playing tricks calculated to bring the professors down on him. In particular he knew how good a thing it was to stand well with the dean of the faculty.

"I ought to explain, in case you do not know, that there the dean of the faculty is the professor who has held office longest, and at that particular hospital the statutes made him very much of an autocrat. For instance, there were three big 'exams' to pass in the five years, and no student could present himself at any one of these three without a certificate from the hospital he belonged to that he had attended lectures and demonstrations 'duly and faithfully' for a certain number of terms. These certificates were signed at our hospital by the dean of the faculty alone. He took the reports of the other professors, but in the last resort his signing or not signing might be very much a matter of his own personal estimate of the individual student. See? The dean could practically stop a man from getting his degree, even if that man knew as much about medicine as Galen.

"Fortunately our dean was a good old fellow, and he used his power not only with justice, but with mercy. Perhaps his botanical studies made him mild. I have noticed that people who have much to do with plants and flowers are mostly of a genuine disposition. He was professor of 'materia medica.'

"One day he seemed fidgety and distracted when he took his place to begin the lecture. He seemed to be looking over the class in search of some one. Presently his eyes fell on Copley. The old man puckered up his brow and stared at Copley through his spectacles.

"Then he began in a nervous, irritable way. 'Yes, sir, you. I don't know your name, sir. You, sir. What is your name, if you please?'

"Copley made no pretense of not seeing that he was the person in question. He frankly answered, 'My name is Copley, sir.'

"'Copley? Ah, very well, Mr. Copley,' says the old man. 'Mr. Copley, I have to tell you in the presence of this class that unless your character undergoes a change you will never be fit to practice the healing art. You have no humanity, sir. You are cruel, sir; cruel.'

"Copley had no idea what the dean was talking about, and none of his friends could enlighten him. Some of the class could guess, but they did not happen to know Copley well enough to volunteer a hint. The truth was that some student had been making an ass of himself that morning with the schoolboy trick of fastening walnut shells on the feet of a cat and then turning the beast loose in the lecture room corridor. The janitor had at last been obliged to kill the cat with a shotgun. The dean thought he had found the perpetrator of this outrage, but he was wrong. Poor Copley had not even been in the college and knew nothing about it.

"As Copley had no idea what the dean was driving at, he could only submit to a harangue, while the students tittered, and then after lecture go and ask the dean what it all meant. But the dean only stared at Copley as a particularly impudent specimen of a normally impudent genus—the London medical student.

"'Go away, sir! Go away, Mr. Copley, and remember that I have an eye on you!'

"But after that the dean seemed to have it in for Copley. Twice again in that same term Copley was reprimanded for outrageous behavior of which he had no sort of knowledge. The second time he was threatened with expulsion for having willfully and deliberately intoxicated a little street Arab and then put him to sleep in the dissecting room, where he afterward came to himself in a terrible fright and very nearly had a fit.

"Whoever was the perpetrator of this villainy, the dean had, as he thought, the evidence of his own senses as to the perpetrator's identity.

"'I saw you, sir, when you brought that unfortunate child into the inner courtyard,' said the dean. 'I saw you and wondered what you were doing with him.'

"'Copley kept his head this time. It was a very serious affair, and he saw the necessity of using all his wits.

"The faculty never did find out who was guilty. It was a most unsatisfactory investigation. Copley's innocence was clearly established, but a disagreeable suspicion of several first year and second year men also grew up. Copley, I ought to say, was in his fourth year.

"The story of the street Arab who had been frightened nearly to death got into the newspapers and made a sensation. There was no doubt that it would injure the reputation of the hospital. The board of directors debated over the affair at a special meeting, and all the 700 students debated over it on all occasions.

"It was a nurse—of all possible people—who gave us the first hint of a way to put a stop to the persecution of poor Copley. She was chatting with him, myself and a senior student, all of us on night duty in her ward.

"'The thing is quite plain to me,' she said. 'In fact, I believe I could put my hand on the guilty party tomorrow morning if I wanted to. But the scandal has nearly blown over now, and the young man has been badly frightened. So we might as well let well enough alone.'

"'And how about me?' says Copley.

"'Well, then,' she said, 'Mr. Copley has a double—yes, a double. Mr. Copley's double is a young limb of satan in his first year. I have noticed the likeness over and over again, but as you gentlemen never see anything of the first year students'—

"Of course, now that she had mentioned it, we all saw just how it was. The nurse did not tell us the name of this young man, but we three quietly kept on the lookout for Copley's double among the first year men, and in less than 24 hours we found the double of Copley in a youth by the name of Wixem. We all three pitched upon the same man. There was no room for the least doubt. The only difference between Copley and Wixem was that Wixem was always serious and even grave in his demeanor, and Copley had a gay, devil may come way in spite of his troubles. Any one would have taken Wixem for a sober, earnest, ambitious student, which is just what he was not, and Copley was.

"Copley was so exasperated that he attacked Wixem on the sidewalk, just outside the principal gate of the hospital, and gave him a terrible black eye. Copley was arrested by a passing policeman, but Wixem was too cunning to appear in court. He knew that people were still talking about the dissecting room scandal.

"'Well, anyhow,' said Copley's friends to him, 'that black eye will help the dean to distinguish between you and Wixem for some time to come.'

"But for several weeks Wixem did nothing that could get Copley into trouble. The dean looked at Copley very hard from time to time, and Copley bravely returned the stare.

"Then came Copley's eyeglasses.

"You see, we all, including the friendly nurse, agreed that Copley could not go on blackening Wixem's eyes periodically to keep from being mistaken for that young miscreant. So the nurse suggested that Copley would look very well and immensely professional in gold trimmed eyeglasses. And after that there was no possibility of mistake."

"And so," one of the three asked, "your friend Copley stuck to the identifying glasses for life?"

"Yes; but wait one minute. The funny thing was that the first day Copley appeared in hospital with his new glasses—I was with him at the time—he also wore a dark frock coat and a high hat, and it happened that he had never before appeared there in such a sober get up. Just as we entered the inner courtyard, which happened to be deserted, Mr. Wixem, looking very solemn, which meant that he had been up to some devilish pranks, met us as he was coming from the museum wing. Copley gazed at him, as if he would like to have his eye just once more.

"Wixem stopped short and said, 'Why, sir, I had no idea you were in town.'

"'Hadn't you, sir?' says Copley. 'Then, sir, let me recommend you to bear in mind that I am in town.'

"Wixem only stared for a moment, said 'Oh!' in a manner that indicated both astonishment and relief, and passed on.

"'Copley,' I said, 'that young man took you for his father.'

"'I'll father him if he doesn't mind what he's about,' says Copley.

"The general effect of the eyeglasses was wonderfully effective for good in Copley's career. In the first place, the dean discovered that he had made a good man a victim of his own mistakes. He wanted to reopen the inquiry about the dissecting room, only the board wouldn't let him. But he became a fast friend to Copley, and that fact helped him on considerably long after he had begun practice.

"No; it isn't merely as a souvenir that Copley continues to wear his glasses. The fact is that friendly nurse wouldn't hear of his taking them off. She is Mrs. Copley now."—Exchange.

IT MAKES RICH BLOOD THAT MAKES HEROES.

Pale and Bloodless.

Anæmia is the term which doctors use to indicate poverty of the blood. Probably 90 per cent. of the girls and women of to-day suffer from anæmia. This is a startling statement—but it is true. It is easy to distinguish anæmic women. They have a dark semi-circle under the eyes; a sallow or waxy complexion; thin limbs, weak chests and ill developed forms. They are languid and tired; subject to backaches and headaches, and sometimes to hysteria and fainting spells. If the poor and watery blood is not enriched, and the tired and jaded nerves strengthened, consumption must almost inevitably follow. In this emergency there is only one medicine that will promptly and effectively create new blood and strengthen the nerves, and that is

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE.

This remedy has cured more cases of anæmia than all other medicines combined. Read what an eminent Australian physician, J. G. Bourchier, M. D., F. S. Sc. (London) and late government medical officer says:—

Manager Dr Williams' Med. Co. 127 Redfern St., Sydney, N. S. W.

Dear Sir:—For some time I have been in the habit of recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my patients with excellent results. As a tonic their effect is most satisfactory and permanent. In Anaemia, Chlorosis, and allied diseases I have found them very valuable, and in irregularities of the menstrual period they are unequalled.

A SEVERE CASE OF ANÆMIA CURED.

Miss Mabel J. Taylor, living at 1334 City Hall Avenue, Montreal, writes: "I write to give you the honest testimonial of a young girl who believes her life was saved by the use of your Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. In November, 1897, I was suddenly stricken with loss of voice, and for eight months could only speak in a whisper. At the time I was completely run down. I had no appetite, no energy; suffered from headaches, palpitation of the heart, and shortness of breath. I was not able to walk up or down stairs. I was given up by the best doctors, and the different remedies I took did me no good. While in this condition I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. By the time I had taken four boxes my voice was restored, and after the use of eight boxes I am feeling perfectly well. I cannot find words to express my thanks for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me, and you are at liberty to publish this letter, in the hope that it may be of benefit to some other sufferer."

The Genuine are Sold only in Packages like the Engraving. WRAPPER PRINTED IN RED.

At all dealers, or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

A FINANCIAL CRISIS.

The Climax Was Forced by a Relentless Slot Gas Meter.

And the slot meter, with its joshing clothes on, can turn some awfully embarrassing tricks. Now there is a young man living in a nice little flat not far from Park avenue, and he had one of the slot meters put in because he holds that it is better to pay for everything as you go and then you know where you stand. For a month past the young man has been running close to the wind financially and economy of the strictest sort has been his watchword. Also the young man's wife, being a woman of understanding, has cut expenses down to the minimum. Last Friday the young man expected to make a raise down town during the day, but the man he expected to meet disappointed him, so he went home without a cent in his clothes, and, to make matters worse, there was no money in the house.

Nothing of the financial crisis in this household appeared on the surface, however. The flat is handsomely furnished, and when some friends to the number of half a dozen called Friday evening everything looked prosperous. The host and hostess were both smiling as young folks will smile through adversity, and matters were drifting along right merrily until the gas went out.

At that instant the young man realized with horror that there wasn't a penny in the house and that the sum of 25 cents wherewith to propitiate the god of the gashouse was an imperative necessity.

"My dear," he said tremulously—"er—have you a quarter in change?"

"Good gracious, Charlie!" gasped the lady somewhat hysterically, but still with great presence of mind. "There isn't a thing in the house but a $10 bill."

"I've got some change," said one of the visitors, forking out a handful of silver.

"All right," said the young man. "I'll skin out and get the $10 broken after awhile." The borrowed quarter went into the slot, the gas burned once more, and, in the hilarity that ensued, further reference to that quarter was studiously taboued.—Minneapolis Journal.

The Scilly Islands.

A letter written by a New York artist who is painting there gives an enthusiastic description of the Scilly islands, which have so far been comparatively unknown to American tourists. Even the Anglish have been slow in realizing the charms of the islands so near their own shores, but it seems that this spring many artists have gone to "daffodil land," and the winter exhibitions will probably be flooded with pictures of the islands. Daffodils have always grown in great profusion in the Scilly islands. February and March are the height of their blossoming time, and to quote the artist's letter:

"The whole land is a blazing sea of brilliant yellow daffodils surging up upon gray rocks and falling back in foam bursts of white narcissus. Even the tulip fields in Holland don't give such gorgeous effects of color. You should stand on one of the little hills here and look across the sunlit fields if you want to see the loveliest things in the world. Yet sometimes I think the flower drifted land is more beautiful under moonlight than in the daylight, and daytime or nighttime the air is scented as though it blew straight from Araby the blest."

Sugar as Food.

In an interesting paper recently published on the value of sugar as a food, as compared with fat, M. Augusto Chauveau maintains that its nutritive value is considerably higher than that deduced from its heat of combustion, and that the calculation that 0.756 pound of the former is equal to one pound of the latter is in many cases exceeded. The increase in relative nutritive value is due largely to the fact that sugar promotes assimilation of the proteids and reduces dissimilation, and the value of a food must necessarily depend not only upon the energy it is capable of supplying, but also on the indirect influence that it is capable of exerting in the renewal and formation of animal tissue. From whatever point of view the matter is regarded the superiority of sugar over fat as a food, whether for men at rest or at work, is very distinct.

Didn't Like Medicine.

Henrik Ibsen, the Norwegian dramatist, was intended at first for a doctor, and at the age of 16 he had to don a druggist's apron. His ambition carried him a little beyond that, and he decided to become a doctor and read up for examination at Christiania. In the course of his study he was reading Sallust, and the character of Catiline so took his fancy that he wrote a little play introducing him. This was Ibsen's first dramatic work.

A Mean Inference.

A young physician was once called in by a gentleman who had a very sick mother-in-law. After looking into the case carefully the young M. D. called the gentleman aside and said, "Well, the only thing I can suggest is that you send your mother-in-law to a warmer climate."

The man disappeared and came back with an ax a moment later and exclaimed: "Here, doctor, you kill her! I really haven't the heart."

LARGE FORTUNES ARE BEING WASTED

IN ATTEMPTS TO CURE DYSPEPSIA AND OTHER STOMACH TROUBLES.

If Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Were Used These Diseases Would Vanish From Canada at One-Hundredth Part of the Outlay.

"Give me the money that is paid to doctors every year for their vain efforts to cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Wind on the Stomach, Foul Breath, Catarrh of the Stomach, and other stomach troubles, and I'll clothe every ill-clad person, feed every hungry one, build houses for the homeless, and build a church or a schoolhouse at every cross road in the Dominion." So spoke a physician a few days ago.

He did not over-estimate the enormous waste of money in this direction. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are thrown away yearly on this purpose. If all who suffer from these diseases would quit doctoring and use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, hundreds of thousands of dollars would be saved, and these stomach diseases would be unknown in Canada. For Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure these complaints as certainly as the sun melts the snow.

If you don't believe it—test them. They'll convince you by curing you.

The doctor who restricts himself to the treatment of one disease, can cure that disease when the physician who treats all diseases fails. Just so with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and stomach diseases. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets were made to cure these diseases only. They are not cure-alls.

But Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets do cure all stomach troubles. They have never failed yet. They will not fail to cure you.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or will be sent on receipt of price, by The Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

WILL CO-OPERATE.

Great Britain and the United States Will Advocate Arbitration at the Peace Conference.

Washington, May 10.—The United States and Great Britain will stand together in the advocacy of the adoption of a scheme for the settlement of international disputes by arbitration, which will be presented to the disarmament conference at its meeting in The Hague on the 16th of the present month. The American delegates, headed by Ambassador White, are equipped with a fairly well-digested plan for the execution of this long-cherished project, while the British delegates are prepared with a plan which is almost identical with the American project.

Horsewhipped the Mayor.

Bellefontaine, O., May 10.—Mayor John Cassidy was horsewhipped yesterday by Miss Minnie Crawford, a milliner, on the main street of the city. Miss Crawford had recently been subpoenaed as a witness in the Mayor's court, and had failed to respond. She became angered at the Mayor, and yesterday she lay in wait for him as he was going to his office. Drawing a whip from under her cape, she lashed the Mayor over the head and shoulders, forcing him to take refuge in a drug store. Miss Crawford has not been arrested.

Telegraph Line for Kootenay.

Ottawa, May 10.—An act to incorporate the Northern Telegraph Company passed the railway committee yesterday. Those who asked incorporation were: D. C. Corbin, Spokane; Duncan Ross, Greenwood, B.C., and others. The capital stock of the company is placed at $50,000, and the head office is to be at Greenwood. The company may construct and operate lines between such points in Yale, West Kootenay and East Kootenay as it may desire. Mr. Bostock was in charge of the bill.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. Lynch, Druggist.

Carnegie Has Good Intentions.

New York, May 10.—The London correspondent of a morning paper quotes Mr. Andrew Carnegie in an interview as saying, in answer to a question regarding the disposition of his fortune of $300,000,000: "I intend to complete the distribution of my wealth, reserving only a provision against any anxiety for the future of my daughter. She will not be a great heiress.

"My time will be spent in searching out good objects, both in America and Great Britain, and in writing."

Arrival of Immigrants.

New York, May 10.—A special despatch from Halifax last evening says: The Hamburg-American steamship Brasilia, which arrived yesterday morning from Hamburg, from which port she sailed on April 29, had on board 1,400 Galicia immigrants who are bound for Canadian points. The health officers in inspecting the steamship at quarantine found 18 cases of measles on board.

A STRIKE SETTLED.

Montreal Cotton Operatives Return to Work—The Moulders Still Out—Situation at Buffalo.

Montreal, May 10.—There is nothing of importance new in connection with the moulders' strike. None of the 12 large concerns which decided to refuse the demands of the strikers have as yet shown any sign of giving in, nor have any of the workers reported back for duty.

Returned to Work.

The girls and boys employed at the Merchants' Cotton Company's mills at St. Henri, who have been on strike, returned to work yesterday morning, and everything is running smoothly once more. The strikers have accepted the company's offer of 6¼ per cent. advance on piece-work. This includes not only those who struck, but the entire staff. The demand was for an increase of 10 per cent., but in offering the 6¼ per cent. it was pointed out that it was an advance of 1¼ per cent. better than the rates prevailing before the reduction in 1896.

THE STRIKE AT BUFFALO.

A Gint in Spite of the Elevating Done—De Barry Bobs Up.

Buffalo, May 10.—The strike situation along the docks remains practically unchanged. Contractor Connors stated yesterday that he was working 18 elevators with a full force of men and was elevating 1,000,000 bushels of grain a day. Notwithstanding the statement the fact remains that there are 56 large steamers now in the harbor, waiting to be unloaded, and 35 more are due within the next 48 hours.

De Barry on the Alert.

Buffalo, May 10.—Inspector De Barry's attention was called yesterday to an advertisement inserted in a Toronto paper the day before for 100 laborers. These laborers, it is said, are wanted in Buffalo to take the places of the striking shovellers on the docks.

"All I have to say," said De Barry, "is that if Mr. Connors brings into this country those 100 men it will cost him $100,000 in addition to costs. It is a violation of the United States Alien Labor Law."

Strike at Hamilton.

Hamilton, May 10.—The coalheavers and unloaders on the bayside went out on strike yesterday morning. They want 15 cents an hour. They have been paid 12½ cents.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

May Have Been Drowned.

Belleville, Ont., May 10. — William Holgate of the 7th concession of Thurlow, and his hired man went fishing about sundown yesterday in the Moira, where the water is very deep. Two hours later their boat was found bottom up a mile away. As these men have not reached home, they have, no doubt, been drowned, and the river is being dragged for their bodies. The hired man was David Maddock of Marchmont.

How Murder Will Out.

Toronto, May 10.—Austin Bowen, who is now serving seven years in Kingston Penitentiary, will be held to stand his trial on the charge of murdering Watchman Gray at Almonte last July. Gray was watchman at a mill, and was found dead, having been shot by burglars, who escaped. Joseph Thompson, who was arrested and taken to Guelph in connection with the recent burglary at Hillsburg, has given the clue away.

Kang Yuwei at Ottawa.

Ottawa, May 10. — His Excellency Kang Yuwei, who is an exile from China, owing to his having attempted to reform that country along the lines of European nations, is in Ottawa for a few days. He was escorted from Regina by Staff-Sergt. J. H. Heffernan of the Mounted Police, and from here to New York—whence he sails on June 3 by the Lucania for England—he will be in charge of Col. Sherwood.

Minnie Grey, Who Ran Away.

Hamilton, May 10—Minnie Grey, a 10-year-old girl, who resides at 92 Shaw street, ran away yesterday because of unpleasantness with her mother. She went to Niagara Falls, but was brought home by the conductor of the train, to whom she told her story. There was rejoicing at the house when the police brought her home.

Mr. Tarte's Illness.

Ottawa, May 9.—The Minister of Public Works is still confined to his house and is seriously, if not dangerously, ill. His physicians have ordered that no one should be allowed to see him, but Mr. Tarte cannot be made to obey orders when he thinks himself well enough to work, and consequently he has had his deputy and his private secretary with him nearly all day preparing supplementary estimates and answering letters. Mr. Tarte is understood to be suffering from stone in the bladder, which is a particularly painful disease, and it is said he will have to undergo an operation in about ten days' time. After that he will be induced, if possible, to take a trip for the benefit of his health.

WILL STAY PONTON'S TRIAL.

So Says the Deputy Attorney-General—Ponton Sues for $5,000.

Toronto, May 10.—E. Gus Porter was in town yesterday.

Deputy Attorney-General Cartwright wrote to him: "I am directed to say that it will be impossible to proceed with the case of Queen v. Ponton at the coming Assizes."

Mr. Porter applied to Mr. Justice Robertson to have Ponton appear before the court within the next few days. No trace of the case appears on the docket for the May Assizes.

Yesterday morning a writ for $5,000 for alleged slander against W. H. Madden was issued by W. H. Ponton. It is claimed that in a barber shop in Napanee, after the escape of Pare and Holden, Mr. Madden used the words, "Ask yourself where Billy Ponton was last night. Part of the $5,000 which he stole from the bank aided in the escape of those two men."

Seven citizens, including Magistrate Daly, signed a statement declaring the words were used.

Col. Ponton's Barns Burned.

Belleville, Ont., May 10.—Col. Ponton's barns on the front of Sidney were accidentally fired yesterday afternoon by the burning of tent caterpillars in trees adjoining, and were totally destroyed, with implements and vehicles. Loss, $3,000; partly insured, but amount cannot yet be learned.

Body Horribly Smashed.

North Sydney, C.B., May 10.—A miner named Gillis was instantly killed yesterday at Dominion No. 1 Colliery, and several others narrowly escaped with their lives. Gillis fell from the cage to the bottom, a distance of 100 feet. The body was horribly smashed.

The North Hastings Appeal.

Inspector William Greer of the Attorney-General's Department is convinced that Pare and Holden went east.

Night Coughs.

Terribly wearing on the system is the Cough that comes at night and prevents sleep. Sometimes it's a constant Cough, Cough, that won't be quieted.

Sometimes a choked-up stuffed-up feeling that makes breathing difficult, and sleep impossible. Whatever it may be, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the remedy that cures.

Here's what Mrs. Fred Laine, St. George, Ont., says about it: "My little girl would cough so at night that neither she nor myself could get any rest. I read about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thought I would try it. I am thankful to say it cured her Cough quickly, and now we use no other Cough remedy in our house."

METHODIST MILLION FUND.

IN RELATION TO EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

W. J. Robertson in the Christian Guardian on the Subject.

The Christian Guardian says: The raw material for an editorial on the relation of the Twentieth Century Thanksgiving Fund to our educational institutions has been in mind for some time, but before it took shape, a letter came from the vigourous pen of Mr. W. J. Robertson, of St. Catharines, and we give it the prominence of our editorial space, because we hold firmly that our laymen should come to the front in such important connexional discussions and appeals. This Million Dollar Fund stands in need of strong lay leadership, such as Mr. R. W. Perks gave in England. The following is Mr. Robertson's letter:

Dear Sir,—The near approach of the Annual Conference gives rise to thoughts as to what different lines of action will be taken by these bodies regarding the Million Dollar Fund. Although the General Conference has left each contributor the utmost liberty of choice in disposing of his gifts, there are certain considerations, which it seems to me, ought to guide our benevolence. I would like, very briefly, to indicate what seems to me to be the true policy at this juncture. Our givings might possibly be so directed as to leave very little to show for the sacrifice made; they might be so directed as to work a positive injury to our church enterprises. Institutions might be helped, to an extent sufficient to relieve them from temporary pressure, and yet these same institutions would suffer permanently by having the springs of denominational benevolence dried up, under the false impression that the relief given was sufficient for the future, as well as the present. For instance, no greater evil could befall the Missionary Fund or the Superannuation Fund than a gift sufficiently large to leave a popular impression that these two funds were removed from the sphere of annual subscriptions. It would be a very large amount, which, in the shape of capital invested, would give an annual income equal to what the present offerings of the people now provide.

As we plod along in our daily church work, those of us who are interested in finances realize keenly the strong objection so frequently made against constant appeal, for all sorts and conditions of church enterprises, distressed churches, unfortunate churches, foolish churches, distressed ministers, feeble missionary schemes, etc. On investigation, it is generally found that these appeals are all deserving attention, and such support as we can afford to give. Nevertheless, they are obstacles in the way of many of our people, who like to know when a finality has been reached in the matter of appeals. To such friends of our cause, it would come as a welcome relief to have at least one of those many objects of our benevolence permanently provided for, and removed from the pauper class. Again to illustrate, I may mention the Union Church Relief Fund and the General Conference Fund, as funds requiring final relief. As I see it, the gifts to our Million Dollar Fund, after such funds as the Union Church Relief have been adequately provided for, should be almost entirely devoted to two purposes or objects. We have heard much for some years past of churches deeply involved in debt; and we are all aware we have such churches. It came, however, as an agreeable surprise to me, and I am sure, it did to many, to notice from The Guardian report, that so many were free from debt, and so many with a debt of less than $500. We are not so impoverished as we thought we were, and every day the situation improves. But, the appropriation of a thank-offering to lessen some of our debts, should be our first aim. We should not be in bonds, financial or otherwise, to any man or corporation.

After due provision has been made for our deeply involved churches, there should remain a large amount — the gifts of the wealthy, and of the membership of churches with little or no debt. To what should this be appropriated? I believe that it would be wisdom to devote almost the whole of what is available to educational work. Our universities are not on the same footing as our Missionary Fund, or even our Superannuation Fund. The missionary cause appeals to all kinds and conditions of people, and is always sure of response when appeals are properly made. Its best endowment is the good will of our people, maintained and fostered by a judicious administration of its affairs. But our universities are in a very different position. They necessarily cannot make a strong and effective appeal to the hearts and pockets of the majority of our people. Nevertheless their work is as important as that of the Missionary society, although the fruits may not always be as apparent. Our influence as a denomination in Canada will more and more in the future rest upon our educational status. We cannot afford to take a secondary position in all matters intellectual and moral. We claim the first place among Protestant denominations in point of numbers; we should endeavour to hold the first place in all that makes intelligent Christian citizens and promotes the general well-being of the Dominion. Yet this cannot be done without money, and this money should be largely (not wholly) in the shape of a permanent endowment. The annual appeals made to people, even to the children in our Sunday schools, on behalf of our educational work, appear small financially, although important educationally; but what can be done with a lessening revenue and an increasing expenditure? What we should do as a denomination would be to select such educational institutions as our needs demand and then support them heartily. We lose a good deal of popular support, and waste our energies, by adopting institutions which we do not need, and end by keeping them all in a state of comparative inefficiency.

There are two classes in our church that ought to be open to an appeal for an adequate endowment of our colleges. The first class is that relatively large element in our membership that is acquiring this world's goods with great rapidity. One would think that the noblest monument a wealthy man would desire for himself or family would be the active, living influence of a great university, properly equipped for its work, through his wealth.

The other class I refer to is composed of those who are always so weary of educational appeals. What a boon to have this incessant begging cease! Here, indeed, would be a substantial relief to all concerned; and not only a relief, but a substantial benefit, to the denomination and to the state. Let us have something permanent to show for our offerings, and what more permanent and abidingly useful than a well-equipped university?

W. J. ROBERTSON.

WOMEN TO THE RESCUE.

The Improvements They Demand—Room For Similar Work in Canada.

Syracuse Post.

Under the auspices of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs, the active co-operation of all club women throughout that state has been enlisted on behalf of the following public and practical reforms.

1. To secure good sewerage and pure water.
2. To make school buildings and grounds as attractive, safe and sanitary as possible.
3. To provide for greater cleanliness of streets, alleys and vacant lots by the free use of garbage cans, painted boxes or barrels, and a more systematic removal of all refuse.
4. To prevent the loose flying paper nuisance that frightens horses and gives an untidy appearance to roadways.
5. To stop expectoration on sidewalks and the floors of public buildings and street cars.
6. To secure improved roads through the "State aid system" or any other.
7. To prevent, if possible, advertising on fences along public highways.
8. To encourage window gardens, flower beds in yards and public places (through the free distribution of seeds, when necessary), the planting of vines and shrubs, and the beautifying of lawns, parks, church grounds and cemeteries.
9. To stimulate householders to plant and trim trees in the natural, artistic and best way.
10. To engage the services of the local press at all times in creating strong public sentiment for town improvement.
11. To urge the removal of front fences and to keep sidewalks free from snow.
12. To interest railroad companies in improving the usual unsightly grounds around railway stations.
13. To enlist the school children, singly and collectively, through talks and placards.

The Wisconsin Federation of Women's clubs has taken a large and perhaps an impossible contract, though, if it achieves even a tithe of the important and needed reforms to which it has thus set its hand, it will, in this work alone, abundantly justify its existence.

Apt Quotations.

Proverbs, axioms and wise sayings have been uttered by Confucius and other wise men from time immemorial, but few people realise how many there are of them. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, have over two thousand and they have originated the ingenious plan of serving them up in delectable shape in thousands of newspapers with each one neatly turning a point as to the merit of their well known medicine. The extensive use of these proverbs is original and creditable to Hood & Co.

—STORE NEWS—

COMPARISONS

That are Odious to Bargain Day Stores.

The more that shoppers make comparisons of our prices with so-called Bargain Day Store prices the more trade we will get. What in the name of common sense is the use of paying exhorbitant prices for the same article at Bargain Day stores when we can sell you at Lesser Prices any day of the Week!

Seeing is believing. All we ask is—to come and compare these regular goods and everyday prices with the same goods and prices advertised as "Extra Special" at Bargain Day stores:—

25 dozen 10c. Handkerchiefs for 4c.
25 dozen 5c. Children's Fancy Handkerchiefs for 2c.
4,000 yds. Skirt Binding Braid for 1c. yard.
10,000 yards Baby Ribbon, pure silk, all colours, for 10c per doz. yards.
GLOVES! GLOVES! Undressed Kid Gloves for 25c. per pair. All shades.
2,000 yds. 7c. Heavy Factory Cotton for 5c. per yard.
10 pieces Coloured Art Muslin, with or without border for 5c per yard.
8 pieces 8c. Crepe ones, good patterns and quality for 5c. per yard.
DRESS GOODS! DRESS GOODS! 10 pieces 75c double fold Checked Dress Goods at 12½c. per yard.
Ladies' Hose 5c per pair.
Crompton's Reliable 75c. Corsets for 50c.
Cromptod's Summer Corsets for 50c.
GINGHAMS! NEW PRINTS! A great line at 10c. and 12½c patterns for 8c. yd.
Best Fine Brush Binding, stamped S. H. & M. for 5c. per yard.
SOAP! SOAP! We have none—but on close comparison our customers will find that the druggists and grocers give one box better of GOOD PURE SOAP than Bargain Day soap vendors.

Such prices as the above keep our hands busy—not one hour or one day, but six days of the week—with small profits and quick returns.

LADIES—Select your Hats and Millinery now for the 24th of May. Ask to see our Trimmed Hats. Never had a better trade. Good days every day of the week. Sailors and other patterns of Untrimmed Hats for 5c. up.

DREYFUS IS SENT FOR

Devil's Island Prisoner Is to Arrive in Paris In June.

LOOKS BRIGHT FOR REVISION.

Public Hearing of the Dreyfus Case Has Been Arranged for May 29—A Majority of Ten of the Judges of the Court of Cassation Favor Revision—A Demand for Picquart's Release.

Paris, May 12.—The Petit Bleu says to-day that ten members of the Republic Guard and four gendarmes left St. Nazaire at the mouth of the Loire, France, on board the steamer Lafayette last Tuesday to form an escort to bring Dreyfus to France, and that his return may be expected by the end of June.

THE COURT OF CASSATION.

A Majority of Ten Now Favor Revision—May 29 They Will Publicly Hear the Dreyfus Case.

London, May 12.—The Paris correspondent of The Daily News says that the conversion of judges of the Court of Cassation to revision of the Dreyfus case has been rapid, and that a majority of ten is now in favor of revision.

M. Bailiot-Beaupre, president of the Civil Chamber of the Court of Cassation, has announced that his report on Mme. Dreyfus' demand for a revision of her husband's case will be ready even earlier than June 1, namely on May 25 or 26. Accordingly, the public sitting of the united court has been fixed to begin May 29. It is a coincidence that the same day has been fixed for the trial of MM. Deroulede and Habert, who will thus probably be deprived of whatever chance remained for them to pose sensationally as the heroes of the attempted coup d'etat on the day of President Faure's funeral. The proceedings of the Court of Cassation are likely to swamp their little show.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held last night in Grand Orient Hall to demand the release of Col. Picquart from the Cherche Midi military prison. So great was the crowd that the hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and an overflow meeting, attended by thousands, was held in the courtyard. Among the speakers were Prof. Brisson of the Sorbonne and M. de Pressense, editor of The Temps.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted calling on the Government to immediately liberate Picquart, who was declared to be the victim of his love of truth and of a conspiracy among the high army officials. The streets in the neighborhood of the meeting place were guarded by a strong force of police, the authorities anticipating trouble.

Upon departing from the meeting M. de Pressense sought to pass through quiet streets to avoid the anti-Dreyfusites, who, of course, object to any movement looking to the release of Col. Picquart. The police, however, compelled M. de Pressense to walk along a crowded thoroughfare, where, as soon as he was recognized, he was attacked by a gang of ruffians. He took refuge in a cab, which was pursued by the yelling mob, who struck the sides and back of the cab with sticks. The cab driver struck right and left among the gang with his whip, and finally outdistanced the pursuers, saving M. de Pressense from serious injury.

The Inhabitants of the Samara District in Russia Eating Grass.

St. Petersburg, May 12.—The condition of the famine sufferers in the eastern provinces is appalling. Typhus and scurvy are now rampant among the starved inhabitants, who are dying by scores. The inhabitants of the Samara district are reported to be eating grass.

UNSAFE AS A RETREAT.

Mr. Higgins and Assistants Had to Get Out of the Filipinos' Lines—Rebels Looting Natives' Property.

Manila, May 12.—Mr. Higgins, manager of the Manila-Dagupan Railway, and two of his assistants, who had remained inside the insurgent lines to protect the property of the railway company, arrived at San Fernando yesterday. They had been informed by the insurgents that they would be no longer responsible for their safety if they remained within their lines. Mr. Higgins corroborates the stories that have been told of the demoralization of the Filipinos, and says that the rebels are looting all the natives' property. Mr. Higgins adds that now is the time for the Americans to strike hard.

Filipinos Killed a Frenchman.

New York, May 12.—A despatch from Manila says the insurgents have assassinated M. Dumarais, a Frenchman, who had crossed their lines under a flag of truce.

A despatch to The Herald from Manila says the insurgents have succeeded in landing ten machine guns at Capiz, on the Island of Panay.

Thinks the End Is Near.

Washington, May 12.—General Otis has cabled the War Department concerning the situation in the Philippines. He says that it is very encouraging. The tone of the despatch leads the officials here to believe that the end of the Filipino insurrection is near at hand.

A Protest to Rome.

London, May 12.—The heads of the religious orders in the Philippines, according to a despatch from Rome to The Daily Mail, have presented a petition to the Pope, in which they protest against the "American atrocities."

Particulars of the charges of bribery and corruption in the South Ontario election case, set for trial at Whitby, May 25, have been filed at Osgoode Hall. The document obntains 257 paragraphs, and relate to the various towns, villages and townships. Amongst those implicated in the charges are: Joseph Haycock, John W. Thompson, Hon. Joseph Martin, Alex. Smith, L. Burnett, M.P., W. T. R. Preston and the members of the Ontario Government.

FREIGHT HANDLERS JOIN IN.

Buffalo Grain Shovellers Have Secured New Allies.

Buffalo, N.Y., May 12.—The strike among the members of the Freight Handlers' Union at this port is gradually assuming a serious aspect.

There are about 2,000 of the men pledged not to work for any contractor, and many of these are now on strike. Originally a few of the men went out in sympathy with the grain shovellers, and now it is believed that in case the scoopers gain their point they will still remain out until their own difficulties have been settled. General managers of transportation lines said yesterday that if the contractors did not quickly demonstrate their ability to do the work of loading and unloading freight boats they would be compelled to devise other means of relieving the congestion of traffic at this port. At the Lehigh Valley docks the company called in a lot of yardmen and their employes to take the places of the strikers.

At the Central, Erie and other big docks the work was practically at a standstill, the few freight handlers who were at work being non-union men. The freight handlers demand an increase of wages from 25 cents an hour, the present rate, to 30 cents an hour for work outside of the freight houses, and 20 cents an hour for inside work. They also ask for the abolition of the contract system.

Toledo, O., May 12.—Since the S. C. Reynolds returned from Buffalo without unloading, not a bushel of grain has left this port. The loss to grain shippers is beginning to be felt severely. The canal boatmen are also feeling the delay in shipments.

MICHIGAN WILL BAR TRUSTS.

Senate Passes a Bill to Prevent Combinations and Monopolies.

Lansing, Mich., May 12.—A bill passed the Senate yesterday practically shutting trusts out of Michigan, and its friends claim votes enough in the House to pass it. It prevents trusts and monopolies of capital, skill or arts from creating or carrying out restrictions in trade or commerce, from limiting or reducing production or increase, from reducing the price of merchandise or any commodity, or from fixing any standard or figure whereby the price to the public consumer of any article or commodity of merchandise shall be in any manner controlled or established. In addition to criminal and civil penalties provided, any person injured in his business by a trust may sue and recover twofold the damages sustained.

Turks Forced to Retreat.

Aden, May 12.—The insurrection in Yemen is gaining ground. The Turkish commander, Abdullah Pasha, has been forced to retreat on Sana, the capital of the Province of Yemen, after having sustained great losses of men from Arab night attacks, desertion and famine. His force has been utterly demoralized.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In order that the Intercolonial Railway may reach Montreal, it is necessary, says the Hamilton Herald, Independent, either for the Government to build the extension or purchase the Drummond Counties Railway. The purchase of this line is probably the cheaper plan; and as it is right that the government railway should have an independent entrance into the chief summer port of the Dominion, Mr. Blair's present proposal for the purchase of the Drummond line will no doubt meet with favour in the country. It is in line with sound railway policy—Government ownership and operation of the means of transportation.

Andrew Carnegie says he intends to devote the remnant of his life to spending the bulk of his fortune of a couple of hundred millions, and he proposes to expend it in good works. This is all very nice from a sentimental point of view. But it might be considered that a man who amasses his millions does not acquire such wealth by hoarding his earnings or from the legitimate profits of business. He must to a large extent have made his money at the expense of somebody, to whom a certain share would rightfully belong. Would'nt it have been more in line with strict justice that that person should have had the opportunity of using money that rightfully belonged to him in "good works" on himself or his family, than having, without his consent, to make Mr. Carnegie his agent in its disposition?

Why, asks the Ottawa Free Press, should Sir Charles Tupper fly into a passion whenever the Drummond County Railway purchase is under discussion? His friends last year had to back down ignominously from the attempt to show some underhanded dealing on the part of the government in connection with the matter, which, like true Tories, they deemed a natural element in such a transaction. The report of that committee told the country that at the close of the evidence Mr. Haggart was constrained to say, "We never made any charges of corruption." The evidence showed the transaction to be in the interests of the country, and now Mr. Blair has placed the "hackneyed" subject oneject once more before Parliament in a manner that leaves no doubt as to the wisdom of the scheme, and the public advantage that must arise from it. Why then should the leader of the opposition rage, and his lieutants wax furious? Is it because, as Mr. Blair hinted, they hold a brief, not for their constituents or another railway corporation? The opposition course seems to justify Mr. Blair's opinion, and it is as well that the point should be more and more conspicuously during the continuance of the obstructive tactics which the opposition seems inclined to exhibit.

OUR MANITOBA LETTER.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Dear Sir — Our long winter—a winter of over five months — has at last succumbed to the powers of spring. The first signs of "breaking up" began to show on April 12. One week of fine spring weather in this country will usher in a grassy plain in lieu of banks of snow, and will call the farmer from the fireside to the drill. Many farmers were able to harrow by the 18th, and seeding commenced about the same time, becoming quite general by the 24th. Work went along smoothly till May 3rd, and now at the time of writing, May 5th, a snow storm, accompanied at intervals by hail and rain, has been raging for three days. It has interfered with the work of the farmer, but will do no harm; on the other hand it is claimed much good will be done by the snow, as it will moisten the ground and start the grain to grow.

During April we had ideal weather, no storms, no very cold spells, bright, clear days with a hot sun, while the evenings and nights were cool.

High winds swept over the country on April 26, as a result of which many dust storms were seen. At such times dense volumes of dust arise from the light lands and sweep over the prairie, making work or travelling almost impossible. These storms are generally of short duration and occur only in the spring before the grain stalks appear.

A great deal of "breaking" was done last year, and certain it is that much larger acreage will be sown this spring than ever before.

Something concerning the manner in which the grain is sown and land prepared may be information to some of your readers. All land which has been "broken" and "back set" the year before is ready for the harrow. The farmer first thing in the spring harrows this and then puts on the drill. Most farmers use at least 3 horses, but generally four on the harrow, plow, disc or drill, harrowing 30 acres per day and drilling 25. Land which has been "broken" only the year before may be treated in either of two ways. It may be back set, i. e., plowed and then harrowed and sowed, or it may be disked and then harrowed and sowed. Two crops are taken off a summer fallow, the second crop being drilled in on the stubble.

Every train now brings in its immigrants, and cars of settlers' effects are being unloaded daily at all stations.

At no time in the history of Manitoba has the country received such an influx of home seekers. In the Province the largest immigration is going to the Dauphin District, while Moose Mountain District will receive the greatest number in the Territories.

As fast as districts are settled railways are built. A road will be built this summer from Glenboro to the Deloraine branch, another from Dauphin to the Gilbert Plains, north of Lake Dauphin. In the Territories a road will be built to the Moose Mountain District, which at present is 40 miles from C.P.R. or Soo lines.

The great question before these houses has been the elevator monopoly. The government is determined to rid the province of that monopoly. They are making rapid strides towards that end, and when their object is accomplished —which will be in the very near future — they will have won the eternal gratitude of the western people and made their calling and next election sure.

Say! Mr. Editor! the people of the Province of Ontario are under the impression that no game exists on these gardens of the deserts — let them visit any part of Manitoba at any time of the year for a brief spell and they will be convinced that this is the "Happy Hunting Ground."

During the winter large Jack rabbets skip over the prairie in all directions. Prairie chickens abound in the bluffs. Foxes and coyotes (wolves) are too plentiful, often making raids on fowl and sheep. Large birds, as the crane, owl, hawk and gull are flying here and there all winter. Plenty of beaver and otter (now protected) are found in the rivers.

The autumn is the season for the prairie chickens. They are very plentiful and are shot by the hunter from the rig. The geese feed on the prairie fields in the fall. I have seen as many as six geese shot with one charge from a shot gun. There are plenty of deer in some districts.

At this time of the year large bands or herds of broncbos are rounded up from the prairie where they have been feeding all winter, or are brought over from the Western States. These bronchos are of all sizes, [illegible] from 400 pounds to 1200 pounds and sell for prices ranging from $25 to $100, according to size. They are used as saddle horses, drivers and workers, and in many cases prove very serviceable. They are quick, active, very hardy and sure footed, but on the other hand are never to be trusted, as they will kick, bite and "buck" till their dying day.

Regarding cattle there will be a scarcity this summer, as hard times and big prices have induced the majority of farmers to sell their stockers. These cattle will be shipped to a good grazing district and kept there till fall, when they will be ready for the market.

Dr. A. W. CHASE
DISCOVERED A NEW TREATMENT FOR NERVOUS DISEASES

In his study of diseases of the nerves, Dr. A. W. Chase found that in nearly every case the cause of trouble was improper nourishment. About one-fifth of all the blood in the human body is found in the brain, and unless this blood is rich and pure the nerves cannot obtain proper nourishment, and become worn out and exhausted.

Nervous depression, nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, loss of sleep and vital force, lack of energy, are symptoms of weak, watery blood and exhausted nerves.

It was as a food for blood and nerves that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food was prepared. Its remarkable success in curing all diseases arising from thin blood and impoverished nerves is proof that Dr. Chase's theory of feeding the nerves with blood is the proper one; stimulants only act on the tired and worn out nervous system until there comes a complete collapse.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food creates new brain and nerve cells, and makes the blood pure and rich. It restores to the exhausted nerves the vigor of perfect health. 50c. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THE COST OF WAR.

The international disarmament conference meets in Holland next week, and statisticians are preparing figures regarding the cost of war, to submit to it for consideration. Those that have already been published show that war is an expensive pastime, and even in a financial sense, without including the greater loss of valuable lives, is all that General Sherman remarked that it was. Amongst the wars of the last half century, the direct cost is computed as follows: The Crimean War, $1,700,000,000; the Italian War of 1858, $253,000,000; the Austro-Prussian War, $350,000,000; the Franco-German war, $2,533,400,000; and the Turko-Russian War, $1,290,000,000 — a total of over six billions of dollars for the five great European conflicts. The American Civil War cost $5,000,000,000 and and one billion in loss of property. If figures are convincing according to their immensity, the congress at The Hague will not be very long in reaching a satisfactory conclusion, which, if universally adopted, would induce the whole world to turn its men-of-war into excursion steamers and its gun carriages into baby cabs.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P Olivia, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this great medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney trouble, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigour and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by Jas. Lynch, Druggist.

AN IMMENSE BUSINESS.

What the Rathbun Company is Doing This Year.

The Rathbun Company have a larger number of logs afloat on the streams and lakes of their limits this season than at any time in the history of their operations during the past fifteen or twenty years, and their output of lumber this year, will be immense.

They have at present employed on the different drives a force of nearly one thousand men whose wages aggregate nearly $6000 a week. The largest of 275 men are at work on Black River, where there is a monster drive of sixteen and one-quarter million feet, and the next largest on the Madawaska. Five of the ten drives on the move will be floated through Peterborough to Campbellford to be manufactured into lumber at the saw mill there. Wages for "river drivers" this year run from $20 to $24 per month, which is in advance of last year when the highest was $18. The following is a list of the drives, the number of men employed on each and their destination.

On the Madawaska 150 men, Deseronto; on Black River 275 men and on the Moira, 30 men, Belleville; in Muskoka, 80 men, Gravenhurst; on Deer river 30 men, on Beaver Creek, 50 men, on North river, 30 men, on Gull river, 50 men, and on Squaw river, 25 men, Campbellfrod. A drive on which there are 75 men, is now running into Trenton.

The first drive will arrive here in the early part of June, and it is expected the Campbellford mill will commence operations a short time before, about the first of the month.

An Interesting Case.

Mr. W. G. Phyall, proprietor of the Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington street, east, Toronto, says:—While living in Chicago I was in a terrible shape with itching and bleeding piles, I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in several ways by their treatments to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr. Chase's Ointment, I used but one box and have not been troubled with piles in any shape or form since.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

DESTITUTE CHILDREN.

The Ontario Method Of Providing For Them.

Montreal Witness.

Mr. J. J. Kelso, superintendent for Ontario of neglected children, waited upon the Mayor and members of the City Council yesterday. He advocated the abolition of the system followed in Montreal, of committing destitute children to institutions. He advocated the placing of them in respectable families until able to earn their living. In the past five or six years nearly one thousand children had thus been sheltered. They never allowed a child to go to jail in Toronto. It is a comparatively easy matter to place the little ones in private houses, as one finds many a family without children and ready to adopt an orphan. Thus the cost to the city is much reduced. Mr. Kelso suggested the formation of a children's aid union, composed of members of different charitable associations. It would have a general supervision over the protection given to neglected young people. He felt that the adoption of such a system would save to the city about $15,000 in three years.

HIAWATHA.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Down this way crops are looking fine. There is a prospect for a big harvest.

Mr. Craig has started his stage. Between his stage and the work around the village, he is kept very busy.

On Sunday evening a large congregation turned out to hear a very edifying sermon by Rev. Mr. McCauley, of Keene.

The lake is free from ice and many of our residents spend a cool evening on its surface.

There's quite a lot of discontent among the Indians here. They claim they have to send their children to Muncey to school, while they contribute to the support of the school in Hiawatha. The chief is going to investigate. He thinks it time for a change.

OPINION IN ENGLAND.

The Reported Failure of the Washington Negotiations.

SEVERAL COMMONERS TALK.

Canada Will Benefit by Self-Reliance, and British Trade Will Be Increased With This Country If the United States Brings the Negotiations to an End—The Washington End.

London, May 12.—Notwithstanding the official pronouncement of the Government to the effect that the negotiations for the amicable settlement of differences between the United States and Canada have not been broken off, the opinion of some prominent British statesmen is that the negotiations will not result in any important concessions.

The views of several influential Commoners have been obtained.

James Bryce said: "I should regret, but should not be surprised at, the termination of the negotiations without definite result. An agreement would have been good all around. It certainly would have cemented a desirable friendship between contiguous countries."

Sir Charles Dilke remarked that "America seems anxious to come to terms and Canada is equally anxious to conciliate," so he could see no reason why the two, being thus minded, could not agree.

Canadian Self-Reliance.

Sir Howard Vincent, Sir William Houldsworth and the Right Hon. James Lowther held the opinion that Canada would benefit by self-reliance, and contend that if the United States has decided to bring the negotiations to an end the action should throw Canadian trade into British hands exclusively, and, therefore, England should support the Dominion, in order to keep for Europe what the United States will soon be eager to obtain at any price.

Mr. Lowther said in conclusion: "Yankee indifference is a mere bluff, designed to make Canada a Lazarus at the gates of Dives."

A Government officer is authority for the assertion that Lord Herschell said, on accepting the appointment on the commission: "I go for a holiday, not because I am sanguine that the negotiations will accomplish anything."

Blame Britain and Canada.

Washington, May 12.—The correspondent of the Associated Press says: The statements of the press of London and Canada respecting the reasons for the recent failure of negotiations with Canada have occasioned much surprise in the official world of Washington. These statements asume that the Canadians made all the offers of concessions, the United States commissioners standing by existing conditions. The facts as understood here are directly contrary to that view. Take the question of trade with Canada, for example. It is positively known that the Americans offered absolute free trade in mineral products, an enlargement of the free list of forest products, an important concession of duty on lumber and on most agricultural products. It is also known that they offered liberal terms for the adjustment of the Behring Sea sealing question, and offered an amicable method for the adjustment of the boundary question, yielded to Canada's views in respect to alien labor and to the lake fisheries, and offered reciprocal mining privileges. Indeed, if the opinion in well-informed circles here is well founded, nearly every offer of concession proceeded from the side of the United States, the Canadians, as a rule, declining to commit themselves to any distinct proposition on the foregoing topics, the Alaska boundary excepted. In fact, it is believed here that the distinct offer of concessions for a settlement came almost wholly from the United States commissioners.

Technical Truth-Telling.

Washington, May 12.—(Montreal Herald Special.)—If one is to judge by the feeling manifested among officials of the State Department and leading officers of the Administration, it is only a technical violation of the truth to say that the negotiations of the Anglo-American joint high commission will never be resumed. No one seriously doubts that the members of the commission will re-assemble at Ottawa in August, according to the arrangement agreed on last February, but the belief here is that the new meeting will be a mere formality, and that no good result will be accomplished.

Senator Fairbanks, president of the American commission, has gone to Alaska, with the sincere purpose of learning as much as possible about the disputed boundary matter and of devising some remedy for the disagreement between the Canadian and American members of the joint commission. He is not altogether hopeless of a successful result at the re-assembling this fall, or he would not have made the trip to Alaskan territory.

Intemperance in Drugs.

There is a source of nervous ailments entirely special to this age and the unexpected outcome of our present day chemistry and advertising. Intemperance in drugs is becoming more common, and it may possibly outstrip the abuse of alcohol in its evil results. The manufacture of new chemical products is supplying the public with endless carbon derivates of high molecular power and of imperfectly known physiological action. Some are most dangerous, and their continued indulgence leads to confirmed neurosis or hopeless neurasthenia, and it thus comes to pass that as the therapeutic activity of the profession tends to abolish disease that of the public is manufacturing it.—Medical Journal.

THREE ARE DEAD.

Joseph Harvey Killed His Wife, Uncle and Grandmother, and Wounded His Baby and Father-in-Law.

Howard City, Mich., May 12.—Joseph Harvey last night killed his wife, his uncle, Robert Pierson, and his grandmother. He also fatally wounded his 8-months-old baby and his father-in-law, John Logenslayer, and finally shot himself, inflicting a wound which is expected to prove fatal.

Harvey's uncle and grandmother live a mile north of town. The murderer went there last evening. He asserts that Pierson, his uncle, was quarrelling with his grandmother, and that he interfered; that thereupon Pierson stabbed and killed the old lady, aged 70, and that he (Harvey) retaliated by shooting his uncle dead. After shooting Pierson, Harvey stabbed him three times.

Harvey then returned to his home, two miles southwest of the town. Arriving there, he shot his wife twice, killing her. He then fired at his 8-months-old baby, the ball going into its arm. Next Harvey entered his father-in-law's room and shot him twice, inflicting, however, no fatal injury. He then turned the revolver on himself, shooting himself in the neck. Harvey's wife, when attacked, was sitting up with the body of her mother, who died the day before.

The Pierson home presents a horrible appearance. Pierson's body was found in a chair and that of the old lady on the floor, clad in a night dress. There were signs of a desperate struggle between Harvey and his grandmother, but no sign of a fight between the two men. Harvey himself informed the sheriff of the murders at Pierson's house. He was then arrested for murdering his wife. He has nothing to say about the tragedy at his own home. There are strong threats of lynching.

It transpires that Harvey, on reaching the home of his late mother-in-law, said nothing about his horrible acts at Pierson's house. He offered to sit up by the corpse of his wife's mother. Accordingly, the others retired. It was 4 o'clock in the morning when Harvey went to his wife's room and killed her, and attempted to slay his baby and his father-in-law. He also fired at Miss Labar, a teacher, who boarded in the house, but without effect. Harvey's wound is serious, but he is certain to recover. The cause of his terrible work has not been determined.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334 80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

—A clergyman last Sunday, in the course of a thoughtful sermon, deplored the fact that the people were living beyond their means. They were erecting fine houses which they were unable to pay for. How about the church? Does it set the people a good example? The facts made answer. There is, as far as Old Saw knows, only one church in Kingston which is free of debt; at any rate the percentage of them is very small, almost infinitesimal. There is scarcely a church erected but has hanging over it, from the moment of its dedication, a heavy cloud of debt. Sometimes this cloud is so dense and threatening that it takes all the united breezes found in the country to drive it away.—Kingston Whig.

ST. PAUL'S CHOIR SACRED CONCERT.

A MOST DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT LAST EVENING

The Programme Reflected Great Credit on Mr. J. Crane, the Painstaking Organist and Choirmaster of St Paul's.

The sacred concerts given by the choir of St. Paul's church, have grown to be an annual event, which is always looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation by the music loving public of Peterborough. Never yet has Mr. Crane disappointed his patrons and consequently the programmes which he prepares are always thoroughly enjoyed. The concert of last evening was fully up to the average, the members of the choir even appearing to excel over some of their previous efforts, particularly in the unaccompanied chorusses.

The applause during the evening was naturally subdued, not through lack of appreciation on the part of the audience, but owing to the fact of the concert being held in the church. The young lady members of the choir were all arrayed in white and looked very attractive indeed as they took their places.

The Opening Number of the program was Gounod's chorus, "Send out Thy Light." This difficult number was admirably handled by the choir, the alto and base voices coming out strongly. The artistic treatment of the soft notes in the closing lines elicited the admiration of all. It was, however, in Sullivan's "Yea: Tho I Walk," which was given unaccompanied, that the choir showed the results of the careful training, which the members had received at the hands of Mr. Crane. The voices rose and fell with a harmony which reflected great credit upon those taking part. Another anthem which greatly delighted the audience was Hamley's "Trisagion Sanctus," which was also rendered unaccompanied with great effectiveness, the soprano voices taking the high notes with a pleasing ease and fullness. In the anthem, "Spirit Immortal"—Attila, the obligato solos were taken by Mrs. Mein, Mr. Gorrie and Mr. Jas. Dawson. Mr. Dawson particularly distinguished himself in this number, his fine notes coming out strong and and true with a breadth of power and compass, which surprised many who were unaware of the fact that the choir possessed a voice of Such Capabilities.

Mr. Dawson also gave Gray's "Dream of Thanksgiving" in which he showed exceptional quality on the low notes. Mr. K. G. Lech's careful rendering of the cello obligato added much to the pleasure of the audience.

The manner in which the numbers of Miss Dora L. McMurtry and Mr. Alex. M. Gorrie, of Toronto, were taken by them respectively, was a proof to the audience that Canada possesses artists of such merit, as to render it unnecessary to wander afield for soloists in concert work.

Mr. Gorrie is possessed of a high tenor voice of melodious sweetness. His high notes are characterized by a clearness and breadth of sympathy not often encountered. His first number was Granier's "Hosanna," which was faultlessly rendered and was perhaps enjoyed better than any other of his selections, with the exception of "The Land O' the Leal," which latter seemed peculiarly suited to his softer notes. The ballad stirred many a Scotch heart as evidenced by the manner in which it was received. Blight's "Wandering Child Come Home" was which was most meritoriously given.

Miss Dora L. McMurtry's numbers were distinguished by great carefulness of interpretation. The crescendo passages were taken in a manner which betokened cultivation of a high order and in the higher register her voice took to itself notes of exceptional sweetness, with a pathetic intonation of a very pleasing character. In Torrente's "Show me Thy Ways O Lord" and Gounod's "Oh Divine Redeemer," Miss McMurtry had ample opportunity of showing the wonderful control which she has over her voice. Though voices of greater compass have been heard in concert work in Peterborough, the opinion will be endorsed that in sweetness and correctness in the higher register, combined with artistic treatment of crescendo effect, Miss McMurtry has never been surpassed here.

One of the most pleasing numbers on the programme was the duet "I will Magnify Thee"— Mosenthal, which was rendered by Miss McMurtry and Mr. Gorrie. The effect was rendered doubly worthy of appreciation through the fact that the selection was to allow both artists to revel in their liquid soft notes which so thoroughly delighted the audience.

As a closing number the choir sang Sir Michael Costa's arrangement of the National Anthem,

The accompaniments during the evening for the soloists were played by Miss Mary Grant, who has such an exceedingly dainty and delicate touch as to peculiarly adapt her for this very difficult branch of pianoforte playing. Miss Grant's careful work is always appreciated by those whom she accompanys.

Special credit accrues to Mr. Crane's training through the fact that all of those taking part in the chorus and anthems are members of his choir and were unassisted by any outside talent. The majority of the voices were developed by Mr. Crane himself, and he may be pardoned a feeling of satisfaction and pride at the result of his efforts.

—The finest yoke of mammoth matched oxen in the world are owned by a resident of Buckland, Mass. They are like elephants in size, their actual weight at the age of eight years being 7,300 pounds; 17 hands high, 10 feet in girth, 15 feet in length, and 15 feet, 11 inches from tip to tip. They are unequalled for size, quality, mating and beauty. They have a record for hauling on the ground on a drag a dead weight of 11,061 pounds.

FOR DOMESTIC SERVANTS.

The Canadian Catholic Emigration Society Will Provide Them.

In the prevailing dearth of domestic servants now so commonly experienced, it may perhaps interest our readers to hear that an English emigration society is desirous of placing some of the girls they bring over in this town and neighborhood.

Two ladies, agents of the Catholic Emigration Society visited this town two months ago, to see what prospects there would be for a few of the boys and girls who are expected during the second week in May. This society up to now has been known as the Southwark Catholic Emigration Society and has changed its name in consequence of this amalgamation with the other Catholic Emigration Society under the presidency of his Eminence, the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster. This society owns three houses in the Dominion, namely, St. Ann's Home, 149 Berri street, Montreal, its headquarters for girls, New Orpington Lodge, Hintonburg, Ottawa, the receiving home for the boys, and a farm at Mackinac, Manitoba, for the training of older boys in farm work. The efforts of this society have been mostly confined to boys, who for the last 18 years have been brought into this country and placed with farmers of Ontario, the management of the work, having chiefly rested with the Rev. Lord Archibald Douglas and the Rev. E. St. John. It is only within the last two years that the emigration of girls on similar lines has been taken up, principally by Miss A. F. Proctor, for many years a well-known member of the London Charity Organization Society. So far about 70 girls have passed through the home at Montreal and are placed in Montreal and the suburbs. Owing to the increased number of young people, which are now imported, the ladies in charge of the work are preparing to send small contingents to other towns, when proper supervision can be provided and good suitable places found for them. A large party of boys are coming out on the same date as the girls, namely, May 14, and for a few of them also places among the Catholic farmers of the neighborhood, would be desirable. We might add, as to the character of these young emigrants that the rules of this society are very stringent, none but perfectly honest and respectable boys and girls of known good character being permitted to be emigrated under its auspices. The well doing and good character of each individual emigrant has become a matter of increased importance to the societies bring them out, since the passing of bills both in Ontario and Quebec, by which all societies emigrating children are forced to remain the responsible guardians of these until they reach the age of 18.

Any information that may be desired as to terms or otherwise will be supplied on application to the secretary, Miss Urquhart, 149 Berri street, Montreal.

It will be seen from posters on the bill boards that Dr. Harvey's old homestead, next north of the George street Methodist church, is to be sold by public auction at 2 p.m. on the 22nd of May. It is to be sold by the executors. Sale on the ground. Time brings changes. No doubt a fine new structure will soon grace this property. 1d

LAST NIGHT'S BURGLARY.

Mr. Gosselin's Meat Market Robbed During the Night.

The meat market conducted by Mr. Jos. Gosselin, No. 243 George street, was entered sometime during the night and burglarized.

Mr. Gosselin closed and locked up his shop at noon yesterday, and on coming to open up this morning found that the wire screen on the front window had been cut out. On entering the store and opening the refrigerator he at once missed a quarter of lamb and a round of beef. Other meat may also have been taken but of these two pieces Mr. Gosselin is certain.

As there were several suits of clothes in the shop it is a wonder that these were not also carried off. The thieves evidently tried to enter the till as fully half a box of burnt matches were found on the floor beneath the money drawer. The till has a bell attachment and the noise of the alarm evidently frightened the intruders away.

A neighbour informed Mr. Gosselin this morning that he heard steps around the store at about 1 o'clock, and this, therefore, was probably the time that the burglary took place. The deed was a daring one, entry being made from the sidewalk on George street, which is traversed at all hours.

DOUBLE ACCIDENT.

A Train Runs Over a Dog and Another Causes a Horse to Run Away.

This morning Mr. Joseph Batten's dog was caught by a train on the Grand Trunk tracks near the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co's. works and had the tips of both paws amputated.

Dr. Robinson was sent for to dress the wounds and on arriving left his horse outside untied. Another passing train a few minutes later frightened the animal, which ran away and, before it was recaptured wrecked the buggy and badly damaged the harness, as well as maiming itself to a considerable extent.

THURSDAY HALF HOLIDAY.

A Merchant Opposes the Proposition—Disorganizes Business—Favours the Whole Day Rather than Half.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Dear Sir,—I see by your yesterday's issue that the regular annual agitation by some of the clerks of Peterborough for the purpose of procuring an additional half holiday, on Thursday afternoons during the summer months is again taking place.

Some three years ago I with others consented to this arrangement and it was not many weeks in existence before I regretted exceedingly that I consented to close my business on Thursday afternoons. I found that all business was practically closed at noon and that instead of having the holiday for recuperation, if need be, that the clerks were scattered on their wheels in all directions returning Friday morning to business more tired than when they left on Thursday noon and some of them more unfit for business purposes. It is a well known fact that in a town like Peterborough, business does not commence before nine or half past nine and with the half holiday we would have only two and a half hours business on Thursdays.

I have no objections as a business man to allowing, and do allow, clerks their usual holidays, allowing them their pay in the meantime, but I most decidedly object to closing my place of business to meet the whim of a half dozen who are always waiting for six o'clock, and are as a rule looking for holidays on every possible occasion.

We have now ten legal and proclaimed holidays in the year and any one of these I prefer giving, to closing the half day. Personally I would much prefer closing the whole day on Thursdays than closing the half day. There is nothing that disorganizes business in a town so much as the half holiday system. Let each merchant give his clerks a day off as it can be arranged conveniently, and this should be satisfactory to those who expect to have the half holiday and be paid for their services as well, while the paymaster has his business tied up for the day.

As a merchant I hope all will agree with me not to close their places of business on Thursday afternoon.

Yours truly,
MERCHANT.

HAVELOCK FIRE.

Mr. Alex McAuley's Residence Scorched on Tuesday.

On Tuesday forenoon about 11.30, Mr. Alex. McAuley's residence caught fire from a burning chimney, and was only saved after a hard fight on the part of the willing citizens. After the alarm was given, the exact location of the fire was hard to find, and when finally located, no water was available, owing to a mistake at the roundhouse, except by a bucket brigade. Through the efforts of the energetic helpers, the fire was under control by the time the power was turned on, and in a short time the flames were extinguished. The contents were almost entirely removed. Mr. McAuley, who was away from home at the time of the fire, informs us that the building and contents were insured for $2250 in the Norwich Union, and he thinks the damage by fire and water will amount to $500.00. He also desires to thank all those who assisted so heartily at the fire.—Havelock Standard.

ONDERDONK AND HIS MEN.

Considerable dissatisfaction exists amongst those employed on the Kirkfield section of the Trent Valley Canal, on account of the non-payment of the wages due a large number of the employees. Whether Mr. Onderdonk took the contract at a sum insufficient to complete the work satisfactorily and at the same time pay his employees, is a matter beside the question, but the late Conservative Government is most decidedly to blame for their short-sightedness in not providing for retaining in their own hands a sum sufficient to pay the employees, with power to terminate the contract at any time that default was made in payment by the contractor. The Conservative Government and the contractor are responsible for the conditions which are creating such dissatisfaction at Kirkfield.

OBITUARY.

The Christian Guardian contains the following obituary notice of the late George Kilgour, of Clarendon, who was a brother of Rev. Joseph Kilgour, of Peterborough.

George Kilgour was born in Clarendon, September 7, 1843, and fell asleep in Jesus April 3, 1899. He experienced a change of heart when eleven years old, under the ministry of Rev. Mr. Houghton, and joined the Methodist church. From that till called home his life was that of the just, which shineth brighter and brighter. From early life he seemed mature beyond his years, and all through life, from manhood, was looked up to at home among his neighbours and friends, and in all church matters. On June 12, 1879, he married Miss Mary Jane Hammond, who proved a devoted, faithful wife and mother, and who now, with her four children, sorely mourn their very great loss. For several years he was steward, trustee of the parsonage and church, and Sunday school superintendent, in all of which he is greatly missed. His care of the poor, visiting the sick and attending church, even in the most stormy weather, were remarkable. His last testimonies to the value of the religion of Jesus all through life, the cleansing efficacy of the blood to cleanse from all sin, and the power of God to keep under all circumstances will long be remembered by those who heard them. He leaves behind two brothers, one of whom is Rev. Joseph Kilgour, of Peterborough; two sisters, a wife and four children, all members of the Methodist church, one of his loved ones having gone before him to the better land.

Energy Easily Earned.

WARD'S BLOOD & NERVE PILLS

Wasted energy must be made up or the body will weaken and perhaps perish.

For a long time prior to taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills my nerve system was greatly deranged and I was terribly nervous, so much so that in my business (Linesman of the Kingston Electric Light Co.,) my extreme nervousness naturally made the following of my business extremely hazardous. Before taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills my kidneys had been affected for some time. I had constant soreness and stiffness across my loins and the small of my back. My appetite was variable and very poor. I also suffered greatly with constant headaches. I am glad to be able to inform you that Dr. Ward's Pills completely cured me of all the above ailments and made me a well man. I have found no medicine like Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, although I have tried many different kinds. They acted quickly and effectually on my nerve system, making my nerves strong and removing all indications of nervousness. These valuable pills also removed all kidney and back trouble and restored to me a healthy vigorous appetite. I have had no headache since five months ago and feel justified in saying that they are a wonderful remedy. They not only removed nervousness, but gave me healthy kidneys, removed all soreness and stiffness from my back and loins, cured me of headache and gave me a good appetite, consequently I am highly pleased. I know of no medicine that equals Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills for nervousness, chronic headache, sore kidneys and back and loss of appetite. Yours truly, John McCutcheon, 522 Princess St., Kingston, Ont.

MOTHER COUNTRY OWNS IT.

Another Phase to the Never-Ending Deadman's Island Question.

Vancouver, B.C., May 11.—There is still another phase to the never-ending Deadman's Island question. A special from Ottawa says: "The question of title to Deadman's Island and Stanley Park, raised by the claim of the Provincial Government, is likely to lead to further complications. The matter has been closely examined since the province stepped into the arena, and it now appears that neither the Dominion nor the province is owner, but the Imperial Government. British Columbia was a Crown colony up to 1858, and when given responsible government, so far as the authorities at Ottawa can find, there was no transfer of naval reserves to the province nor to the Dominion in 1871, when British Columbia entered confederation. Thus it is fixed that Stanley Park and Deadman's Island are precisely in the same position as Esquimalt Reserve today, absolute property of Imperial Government.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

THE WORK OF TRUSTS

Hon. James W. Lee of Pittsburg Gives Important Evidence.

THEY SHUT UP THEIR RIVALS.

The Attorney of Several Pipe Line and Oil Companies Elucidates His Testimony by Describing How the Standard Oil Company Absorbed Over 100 Companies—Trusts Bad for Labor.

Washington, May 12.—The industrial commission yesterday heard the first witness to be called in connection with its inquiry into the operations of trusts. The witness was Hon. James W. Lee of Pittsburg, attorney for several pipe line and oil companies, and formerly a State Senator of Pennsylvania. Mr. Lee's testimony was directed especially against the Standard Oil Company. Speaking of the effect of trusts upon the consumer, Mr. Lee said the tendency was to increase prices until they became extortionate. Trusts were organized to secure a monopoly, and when this was secured by closing up rival establishments, they were in position to fix prices, which were, according to his observation, generally increased in order to permit dividends on watered stock. This had been eminently true of the Standard Oil Company.

As an illustration, he said that when the Pure Oil Company, in which the witness was interested, went into the field in New York in 1896, they found the Standard selling oil at 9½ cents a gallon. The price was almost immediately reduced to 5½ cents, and has remained there since, the object being to drive out the rival. The first price was inordinately high, but the latter was ruinously low, and while the independent company had met the reduction, it had done so at a loss. He thought the competition had resulted in a saving of fully $3,000,000 to the people of Greater New York. The same condition of affairs existed at other competitive points.

Mr. Lee expressed the opinion that the Standard Company was still getting rebates from the railroad companies, despite the law, and he thought this was accomplished by paying exorbitant prices for lubricating oil.

He stated that the Standard Company had within the past 20 years absorbed about 100 companies, but five companies with which he was connected had refused to sell at an advance of 12 per cent. in cost when they were about to be closed out by the sheriff. This refusal had been dictated largely by sentiment. Now, however, independent companies were doing a profitable business. He knew of several refineries which had been purchased at high prices by the Standard Company, and then had been shut down. He had also heard that men had received a bonus to remain idle, but he had no personal information on this subject.

Mr. Lee said the Standard Oil Company had made an effort to prevent the extension of the business of the independent companies to foreign markets by buying up the tankage at given points and by selling at lower prices than prevail even in the United States. Still the independent companies were able to compete abroad largely because in Great Britain and Germany, and in some other countries, competition was preserved to a greater extent than in the United States. In Germany no one was allowed to do business at a loss. The profits made abroad were what enabled the independent companies to continue in existence, as the business in this country alone was unprofitable.

Mr. Lee's testimony at the afternoon session was devoted to the effect on the oil business. He said the aim of the trust was to get a complete monopoly of business, fixing the price as it may please and leaving little or no profit to the producer. In illustration, he said the Standard Oil Company had maintained the price paid for crude oil at 85 cents per barrel for a year; that for ten years previous to 1895 the price paid had averaged only 80 cents per barrel, whereas the average cost of production was not less than $1.

Mr. Lee was quite confident that the general effect of trusts was injurious to labor. The effect was to deprive laborers of competition, of chances for employment when thrown out of work, and to make them subservient and poorer citizens. As a means of prevention of trusts, Mr. Lee suggested a law making destructive competition a criminal offence. He thought the fear of imprisonment would intimidate some of them. Nothing had done so much as destructive competition to prevent progress and fairness. He would also suggest that the capital of all corporations, except those of a public or quasi-public nature, should be limited to $1,000,000. He thought that something of this kind was necessary, and that if a remedy was not found the country would be ruined by combinations of capital detrimental to the public interests. Under the conditions personal ambition was stifled, and many men were being kept out of business because of the existence of the combinations.

Duty on Wines Modified.

London, May 12.—Sir Michael Hicks Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the House of Commons yesterday agreed to reduce the proposed tax on colonial light wines to an additional threepence per gallon, and this concession was accepted. The original proposition was sixpence per gallon.

Corner on Kipling's Works.

London, May 12.—The Daily Mail declares that a group of American and English literary agents has formed a syndicate for the purpose of controlling the future productions of Mr. Rudyard Kipling.

The Tanners and Butchers.

Ottawa, Ont., May 12.—The tanners waited on the Premier yesterday afternoon in reference to the inspection of hides, which they wanted to be made absolute in certain districts. A delegation from the Montreal butchers opposed this, and Sir Wilfrid proposed to take the matter into consideration.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

Makes Weak Women Strong, And Sick Women Well.

For over thirty years this celebrated remedy has been making women's lives happier—healthier—safer.

Many thousands of women have testified to its wonderful effect.

It is the one medicine that can be depended upon when there is any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism.

It purifies, heals, soothes, builds up. It is needed when backaches make life miserable—when a sickening, dragging, bearing-down feeling makes work a weary agony and play impossible—when disagreeable drains give proof of burning inflammation—when sick headache, nervous irritability, loss of energy and appetite are the reminder of unhealthful irregularity or painful periods.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 838 East College Street, Jacksonville, Ill. "I was so bad I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains in the lower part of my bowels, and such distress every month, but now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman. Thanks to your medicine. I never forget to recommend it to all suffering women. Consider myself a living testimonial of the benefits of your 'Favorite Prescription.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets help the effect of all other medicines by keeping the liver active and the bowels open. At all dealers—get what you ask for.

Butter and Cheese.

Ottawa, May 11.—At the meeting of the agricultural committee yesterday morning Prof. Robertson gave a talk on butter and cheese. He said that butter required a preservative for the English market. In regard to cheese, he said that the method of storing ought to be improved for the export trade. Cheese ought to be cured for the English market in a cold temperature, which would give it a flavor more palatable to the English taste.

It was decided to set apart a day for a discussion of the fruit trade, as the present cold storage arrangements are said to be not altogether satisfactory for fruit.

Distrust of Russia.

Berlin, May 11.—The Kreuz Zeitung, evidently expressing the opinion of official circles regarding the peace conference, says: "Every impulse toward increased armaments during the present century has come from Russia and France, and there can be no sincere talk of disarmament by Russia, who would be the last power to call a congress in the interest of humanity and to cast the false mask away."

Twelve Houses Destroyed.

Wichita, Kas., May 11.—A cyclone struck Coldwater, Kansas, last night, completely destroying 12 houses, and killing Joseph Bowers, a prominent cattle man. Aldrich's general store was wrecked and a brick block in Main street blown down. The Presbyterian Church was blown away and the Court House unroofed.

MARTIN CAHILL.

St. Catharines Man Arrested in Connection With West Elgin Election.

St. Catharines, May 11. — Detective Flynn has been here for several days working on the West Elgin bye-election case. He enlisted the services of local constables, and also had a St. Thomas officer in touch. Yesterday morning a sensation was caused here by the arrest of Martin Cahill, who was working at Thorold. Cahill was taken to St. Thomas last evening to stand trial on the following charges:

"That on the 12th day of January, 1899, he did commit the crime of forgery, for the said Martin Cahill did there and then make a false document, to wit, a certain written statement of the poll after counting the ballot papers at polling subdivision No. 11 in St. Thomas, relating to the provincial election held in West Elgin, Jan. 19, 1899, purporting to be signed by A. E. Montgomery, deputy returning officer of the said polling division, knowing said document to be false, with the intention it should be used and acted upon as genuine, to the prejudice of the electors of West Elgin, etc."

The other charge is, that he did, unlawfully and wilfully, without legal justification or excuse, injure and cause to be injured, and make and cause to be made erasure and addition of names in a certain poll book, prepared and drawn out according to the Ontario Election Act, etc.

A PRICELESS RELIC.

THE FAMOUS BLACK STONE OF THE TEMPLE OF MECCA.

How This Treasure of Islam Appears at the Present Day and the Various Theories of Its Origin—Guarded by Mohammedans.

So carefully is the black stone of the temple of Mecca guarded, even to this day, that the accounts given by different writers as to the nature and appearance of the black stone exhibit some considerable variations, for orthodox Mussulmans cannot be prevailed upon to give a straightforward description of it, and mere adventurers, like the several European hadjis (Burckhardt, Burton and the others) could only gratify their intelligent curiosity by stealthy investigations. Detection in the act of pursuing such investigation would have cost the travelers their lives, in pursuance (as Mohammedans suppose) of the law of the prophet. Your faithful Mussulman cannot understand that any other motive than worship should lead any one to visit Mecca.

The Mohammedans believe that this famous stone was brought down from heaven by angels. It is set in the wall of the Caaba, which stands within the great colonnade. The stone is four feet nine inches from the ground and is kissed and touched with great veneration by every pilgrim to Mecca.

Mr. Bate mentions what intelligent travelers have recorded concerning the nature of the black stone. One of them tells us that it is undoubtedly a large aerolite—an opinion which scarcely harmonises with its reputed quality of floating in water, since aerolites usually contain a large percentage of heavy, metallic matter, such as iron pyrites.

Another traveler reports that it looks like a piece of lava, containing small extraneous particles of some white and yellowish substance.

Still another of these authorities affirms that it is a fragment of volcanic basalt, sprinkled throughout its surface with small, pointed, colored crystals and varied with felspar upon a dark ground, like coal, excepting one of its protuberances, which happens to be a little reddish.

Others, again, claiming an equal title to exact knowledge, give it as their opinion that it is nothing else than an ordinary piece of stone from quarries in which the Meccan territory abounds. These last mentioned travelers, however, appear to overlook the circumstance that this opinion of theirs does not take due cognizance of that property of the stone to which we have just alluded and also the circumstance that the only kind of stone yielded by the Meccan quarries is a sort of gray granite.

Not so difficult is it to form an idea as to its size and present appearance. In form it is an irregular oval, the inequality of its two longer sides imparting to it a somewhat semicircular appearance. It measures about 6 inches in height and 8 in breadth, the diameter on its lower and wider side being 8½ inches. The surface is protuberant and somewhat knobby or undulating and has the appearance of being composed of a number of smaller stones of different sizes and shapes, securely fitted together with cement and perfectly smooth.

Its appearance is as though the original piece of stone had been broken to pieces by a violent blow and then repaired. And, as a matter of fact, this appears to be the true explanation of this irregularity of the surface, for it is recorded by the Arabian historians of the Caaba that in the year 413 of the Hajira an emissary of a certain Egyptian khalifa, known as "the Mad Khalifa Hakim," shattered it to pieces by a stroke of a club, and they relate that after this event the pieces and even the dust also were carefully restored and the fragments cemented together.

The protuberances mentioned are 12 or 15 in number and are such as to impart to the surface of the stone a muscular or pebbly appearance. Near the middle there is a hollow which reaches to about as much as two inches below the outer edge of the stone and is of a kind to suggest to the visitor the surmise that one of the protuberances may have been removed.

The color of the surface of the relic is at the present time a deep reddish brown, or, as some have described it, a metallic black, and, notwithstanding the polished appearance imparted to it by the constant touching of unnumbered myriads of devotees, it yet bears on its undulating surface what appear to be evident marks of volcanic origin.

These muscular protuberances, however, are attributed by the Moslem authorities to the incessant osculations and rubbings of the faithful. The smoothness may perhaps be attributable to this cause, but the obviously fractured and pebbly appearance is not accounted for in this way.—Asiatic Quarterly

Women and Their Cats.

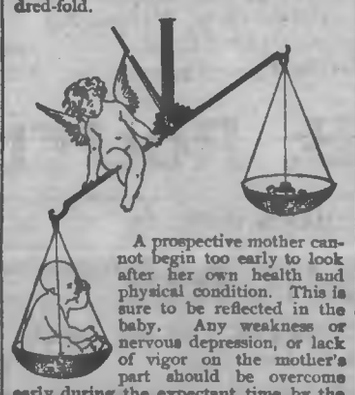
Louis Wain, the famous cat painter, professes to believe that a cat owned by a woman is the mirror of its mistress' temperament. He says that if a cat that has been constantly with its mistress is suddenly removed from her society the creature will show the characteristics madame has displayed. If she has been snappish, pussy will scratch; if she has been sulky, pussy will sulk too. If this were really true, it would pay a prospective husband to steal the cat of his ladylove before taking the fatal matrimonial step. As the cat is about the most independent creature alive, one can't help being skeptical of Mr. Wain's theory.

Life on an East Indiaman.

There was never a finer ship afloat than the East Indiaman from, say, 1800 down to the last of them, such as the Earl of B..carres. Those old East Indiamen were exceedingly comfortable ships—liberally found and handsomely furnished. It is a question whether passengers grew more weary of the ocean after four months' salt water to Bombay and Calcutta than do travelers in these times after six days of the Atlantic or a little more than a month to New Zealand. People of old, when they went to sea in an Indiaman, knew what they had to expect. They danced, flirted, sang, talked scandal, quarreled and made it up, and often the young people got engaged to be married. All the after part of the ship was a village full of people more or less good humored.—Clark Russell.

LOVE IN THE SCALE.

"How much does the baby weigh" is only another way of asking, "Is he healthy and strong?" When a baby is welcomed into the world with loving care and forethought, his chances of health and strength are increased a hundred-fold.



A prospective mother cannot begin too early to look after her own health and physical condition. This is sure to be reflected in the baby. Any weakness or nervous depression, or lack of vigor on the mother's part should be overcome early during the expectant time by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which promotes the perfect health and strength of the organism specially concerned in motherhood.

It makes the coming of baby absolutely safe and comparatively free from pain; renders the mother strong and cheerful, and transmits healthy constitutional vigor to the child.

No other medicine in the world has been such an unqualified blessing to mothers and their children. It is the one positive specific for all weak and diseased conditions of the feminine organism. It is the only medicine of its kind devised for this one purpose by a trained and educated specialist in this particular field.

The sale of "Favorite Prescription" through dealers in medicines, by far exceeds all other medicines for women. It has a record of cures as wide as the world. It is known and used successfully in every civilized country on the globe. There is nothing that takes its place. There is nothing "just as good."

Delicate women should be extremely careful not to imperil their health by resorting to any preparation put up by unskilled, uneducated persons, or mere nurses.

SAVED BOTH MOTHER AND CHILD.

"I am now a happy mother of a fine, healthy baby girl," writes Mrs. F. B. Cannings, of No. 4320 Humphrey St., St. Louis, Mo. "Feel that your 'Favorite Prescription' and little 'Pellets' have done me more good than anything I have ever taken. Three months previous to confinement I began using your medicine. I took three bottles of the 'Prescription.' Consequences were I was only in labor forty-five minutes. With my first baby I suffered 18 hours, then had to lose him. He was very delicate and only lived 12 hours. For two years I suffered untold agony, and had two miscarriages. The 'Favorite Prescription' saved both my child and myself. My baby is not yet three weeks old and I do not think I ever felt better in my life."

"SHE DID NOT SUFFER ANY."

"I am happy to write you to inform you of the good my wife has received from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Rev. R. A. McPhee, Kingsboro, Kings Co., Prince Edward Island. "About two months before parturition she began its use, and continued to use it until the child was born. She had some fear of the delivery, this being her first child; but, thanks to the 'Favorite Prescription,' she did not suffer any, either before or after the birth of the baby. The child too is hearty and healthy, has had no rash nor any of the many ailments to which babies are subject.

"We believe that if the 'Favorite Prescription' were more widely known and used, it would lessen very much the pains and dangers of childbirth."

This book has already gone into more than a million homes. The original price was $1.50. Now an edition in paper covers is being distributed FREE. A WRONG IDEA OF... DYSPEPSIA

It is an old idea long since exploded that digestion is confined to the stomach. No modern scientist denies that by far the greater part of digestion and the more difficult part takes place in the intestines. This explains why dyspepsia is never really cured by preparations which merely aid stomach digestion and act only on the stomach.

This fact also explains why Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have been so remarkably successful as a cure for the worst forms of dyspepsia and indigestion.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and give new tone and vigor to the intestines, and make them able to perform their work of digesting the substances on which the stomach has no effect.

Stomach treatment may do well enough for slight indigestion, but if you have chronic indigestion or dyspepsia of a serious nature you can profit by the experience of scores of thousands who have been permanently cured by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25c. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

SWEET COMPANIONSHIP.

I walk the bosky path by the sea
Alone, yet not alone, for at my feet
Press the glad flowers with sparkling faces sweet
To tell their names and histories to me.
All else in mood discordant seems to be;
Harsh cries of gulls, the low waves' sullen beat,
The wind that tries its voicings incomplete,
The fog that comes in chill monotony.

The pimpernel, where tangled violets grow,
Whispers of English Maud. Loved Wordsworth knew
Yon tall spired foxglove with its bells of blue;
Their old romance the bleeding hearts confess.
Would that life's friends to me might always show
Such sweet companionship, such friendliness!

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

BASEBALL.

The match which has been looked forward to with much interest, between a team picked from the Ontario Bank staff, and representatives from the banks of Commerce, Toronto and Montreal, was pulled off yesterday afternoon on the P. A. A. A. grounds and resulted in a sweeping victory for the Ontarios, the score being 29 to 12. The game was somewhat late in starting and only four innings were played, but even this was sufficient to show the good material of both sides. A stiff breeze swept across the diamond and it may have been owing to the twirlers of both teams not making allowance for this, that so many batters took their bases on balls. The game, nevertheless, was interesting throughout, and the fair number of spectators who witnessed the entire game, did not want for amusement.

The Ontario bank men went to bat first, the first victim they put up being Manager Parker, who after fanning the wind twice, took his base on a dead ball. Garney Bell came next, and sent a dandy out into the space. Each man had his turn until it came to Parker again, who made first in fine style. Garney Bell was the first man to get out, being very cleverly caught out by Frances. Not until the Ontarios counted 15 runs did the combination succeed in getting them out.

Poussette did the twirling for the combination team in this innings but resigned in favour of Frances for the remainder of the game.

The Ontarios had very little difficulty in turning down their opponents in their first innings, Poussette being the only one to reach the home plate, while Carter was left on third. Hollingshead and Garney Bell were the battery, and did very effective work. The former throws a very good ball which seemed to puzzle the batters not a little.

In the second innings the combination men's fielding improved, and they held their opponents down to three runs. They went in and retired also with three. The third innings was a whitewash for the Ontarios, and their opponents were treated to the same dose next. In the fourth innings the Ontarios made 11 runs and the combination men 8, resulting in a victory for the former by 29 to 12. The following is the score:

Milburn did the catching for the combination team in a most efficient manner.

Mr. R. A. W. Hay acted as umpire and there was no kicking over his decisions.

One of the combination men claimed that Manager Parker ran from 1st base to third without going near second, but the umpire did not see it.

We understand another game between the same teams is being arranged—not in baseball however, but in cricket.

The Ontario Bankers have now beaten a picked team from all the other banks at hockey, basket ball, and baseball, and next propose to try and turn them down in lacrosse and cricket.

The following members of the base ball team are requested to turn out for a practice match to-morrow afternoon at 2,30 sharp. The team will have to practice hard until the 24th, so all be on hand in uniform: Graham, Connors, Johnson, Donovan, Parnell, Thompson, Grady, J. O'Brien, Hodge, Melrose, McCabe, Paxman, D'Russia, Morgan, Sheridan, W. O'Brien, J. Davis, McLennan.

THE WHEEL.

The managers of the World's Bicycle Meet, which is to take place in Montreal City next August, have issued their list of prizes for the occasion, and it is found that the total runs to $3,000. This is, of course, the largest sum ever offered in Canada for bicycle prizes, and is certain to attract to the city many of the fastest riders in the world. This means that many thousand bicycle enthusiasts will come to see the "crack-a-jacks," and the city will be inundated with visitors who delight to do honour to any temptations toward money spending that we may put in their way.

But the managers cannot properly advertise the event or give a fair idea of the hospitality of the city unless they are provided with what David Harum would call "the-go-and-fetch-it." The solemn divorce pronounced by the Charter between the city authorities and any known reserve of money seems likely to keep the City Council from coming to the support of the Committee with the generosity which the occasion calls for; but this only piles the obligation the more imperatively upon private interest. What the City Council can do it should do; but the citizens ought not to let Montreal be shamed for its meanness even if the aldermen decide that they have been left no means of raising the money for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birthday or the assistance of so worthy an object as a World's Bicycle meet. And it is only a matter of justice to see that the hotels, railways, steamboat companies and other interests likely to be the greatest benefactors should be the greatest subscribers; other citizens according to their interest.

It is calculated that the Meet will attract from ten to fifteen thousand holiday-makers to the city; and they will put money in circulation which will lubricate all classes of business. The bringing of such gatherings to Montreal should be encouraged, not discouraged; and it is a poor way to encourage the practice to leave the men responsible to bear the whole financial burden or else greet their visitors with a beggarly welcome. Then a broad business of free advertising, if inaugurated at once, will greatly augment the stream of visitors and increase the success of the affair.—Montreal Gazette.

CRICKET.

The bank team which plays cricket against the town to-morrow afternoon will be composed as follows) Hamilton, captain, Montreal; Milburn, Montreal; Poussette, Toronto; Houston and Frances, Commerce; Parker, Crane, Hollingshead, G. Bell, Ferguson, N. Bell, Ontario.

The grand old game of cricket, which for many years flourished in Cobourg as if it were its native soil, but for some years has been rather neglected, is having a vigorous revival. For the past two weeks enthusiastic cricketers have been practising at the Agricultural grounds upon the old crease, and on Friday evening a club was formally organized and the following officers were elected: President, Mr. E. H. Osler; Vice-Pres., Rev. A. W. Spragge; Captain, Mr. Percy Trower; Sec.-Treas., Mr. B. S. Walker; Committee of Management, Dr. Ferris, Dr. Fairbanks and Mr. Percy Trower. The club have rented the Agricultural grounds and expect to play neighbouring clubs from time to time during May and June, both here and elsewhere. The first match is to be played in Port Hope against Trinity College School towards the end of the month. In the meantime practices are taking place from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. every week day. Cobourg World.

Apt Quotations.

Proverbs, axioms and wise sayings have been uttered by Confucius and other wise men from time immemorial, but few people realize how many there are of them. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, have over two thousand and they have originated the ingenious plan of serving them up in delectable shape in thousands of newspapers with each one neatly turning a point as to the merit of their well known medicine. The extensive use of these proverbs is original and creditable to Hood & Co.

WATCHING THE RIVERS.

Ontario Government Guarding Against the Export of Logs by Michigan Lumbermen.

The Ontario Government has stationed forest rangers at the mouth of the principal streams flowing into Lake Huron, the Georgian Bay and Parry Sound, in order to see that no logs are exported to the United States except those cut previously to the prohibition coming into force. The rivers so watched are the Mississauga, Thessalon, White Fish, French, Magnetawan and Sequin. The Crown Lands Department does not believe that any of the Michigan lumbermen will attempt to export in defiance of the law, but deems it best to be on the safe side by guarding against such a contingency. One of the largest Michigan firms, Eddy Bros., of Bay City, have cut 15,000,000 feet in Ontario limits during the past winter, and will probably have this all manufactured under contract in Ontario.

—STORE NEWS—

COMPARISONS

That are Odious to Bargain Day Stores.

The more that shoppers make comparisons of our prices with so-called Bargain Day Store prices the more trade we will get. What in the name of common sense is the use of paying exhorbitant prices for the same articles at Bargain Day stores when we can sell you as Lesser Prices any day of the Week?

Seeing is believing. All we ask is—to come and compare these regular goods and everyday prices with the same goods and prices advertised as "Extra Special" at Bargain Day stores:—

25 dozen 10c. Handkerchiefs for 4c.

25 dozen 5c. Children's Fancy Handkerchiefs for 2c.

SOAP! SOAP! We have none—but on close comparison our customers will find that the druggists and grocers give one box better of GOOD PURE SOAP than Bargain Day soap vendors.

Such prices as the above keep our hands busy—not one hour or one day, but six days of the week—with small profits and quick returns.

LADIES—Select your Hats and Millinery now for the 24th of May. Ask to see our Trimmed Hats. Never had a better trade. Good days every day of the week. Fadore and other patterns of Untrimmed Hats for 5c. up.

THE LATE THOS. PUE

His Body was Found in the Indian River Amongst the Logs

The report that Mr. Thomas Pue, of Indian River, was drowned on April 26, has been found to be too true, the body having been found in a jam of logs and driftwood just by the bridge on the boundary line between Otonabee and Douro, at Indian River. The deceased went out after dinner to build a fence in the orchard, but was not missed until tea time, when Mrs. Pue sent the children to call him. He could not be found. Nothing strange was thought of it until next morning, when it was found he had not come home. The villages around were visited in hope of finding the missing man. Two hundred people came from far and near to assist in the search, but the water being very high it made the search exceedingly difficult. Mr. Richard Carveth, a near neighbour, who had been untiring in his efforts for fifteen days, was rewarded by discovering the body as stated above, on Thursday afternoon, May 11th, about 3 o'clock. He was buried on Friday (yesterday). Rev. J. E. Moore, of Mark street church, conducted a service at the house and accompanied the funeral to Keene, where a service was held in the Methodist church by Rev. S. McAuley, Rev. Mr. Moore assisting at the service. Mr. Pue was the owner of a farm just north of the village of Keene. A year ago he gave up farming, having rented his place. He made a sale and came to Ashburnham and started a grocery store, but the business was not a success, and he rented the saw and chopping mills one mile north of Indian River, where he was doing a good business. His widow and five children have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN ONTARIO COUNTY.

A MURDER AND A SUICIDE IN GREENBANK.

Frederick Wood Shoots His Wife and then Blows His Own Brains Out.

Greenbank, Ont., May 13.—Frederick Wood shot his wife twice this morning, one bullet taking effect in the abdomen and the other in the back. He then shot himself through the head, dying instantly. Mrs. Wood is still living, but cannot recover. Wood quarreled with his family last spring and as a result was locked up in Whitby jail for three months.

Since his release he has been wandering from place to place, his family refusing to admit him to their home.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

The Work which is Going on Along the Nassau-Little Lake Division.

As the warm weather continues and the ground becomes somewhat dryer the work on the local section of the Trent Valley Canal progresses more rapidly. For some time the workmen have found it very difficult to proceed with their work owing to the frost from the ground mixing up the clay in a very disagreeable manner. This has been the state of affairs at the lift lock, over Armour's hill, but a vastly different reason may be assigned for the lateness of the contractors in doing much at the Little Lake end of the canal. At this point, owing to the very high state of the water in the Otonabee this season, the work on the canal has been greatly impeded, by the backing up of the water to where the workmen are engaged, and thereby causing much delay and annoyance.

Indeed, contractor Laverdure states that he had no idea that the work would be delayed so long, but now that the river is settling down to its normal state and that there is no more frost to come out of the ground work from this out will be pushed forward with all possible speed.

At the present time there are about 100 labourers engaged on the local section, about 75 of whom are employed on the lift lock excavations, about 20 at the Warsaw road and a few at the Little Lake end of the canal. The sights to be seen by a visitor at the works are most interesting and well worth the time spent in inspecting the same. The Nassau end of the section has been completed and all the men have been pretty much concentrated on their work of excavating for the big hydraulic lift lock. What immediately astonishes one when he approaches to where the work is going on, is the immense piles of stone and sand that are piled for great height and great distances around. There is in the neighborhood of 12000 yards of stone and the same amount of sand, the most of which was drawn from various places last winter, and which will be used for concrete and finishing up the sides of the canal. The distance between the upper and lower level of the canal at the lift lock, will be about 75 feet, when completed and when one is told that a large boat will be hoisted by hydraulic power, this distance and continue its journey to the north or south as the case may be, it seems hard to believe. As said before the workmen are having a very nasty time in the clay at this point. Many of them with rubber boots on are wading around in mud several feet deep. The mud is dished into barrels and by means of cables transferred into small cars which are drawn by small locomotive engines to the desired place. There are about ten or twelve of these cars and two engines. The ground is a net work of small tracks which facilitate work of this kind very much. The big steam shovel has not been put to use yet this season owing to the slushy nature of the ground, but on Monday it will be put in operation.

From this out the work will be carried on with greater progress than ever and during the coming season the local section will present a busy spectacle.

ANOTHER BANK IS BROKEN INTO.

The Branch of the Standard Bank at Bowmanville.

ELEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS TAKEN.

The Nightwatchman Tied and Gagged—Also a Burglary at Keene Last Night.

Special to The Examiner.

Bowmanville, Ont., May 13. — (Bulletin)—Six men broke into the Standard Bank last night and cleaned the place completely out. They tied and gagged the night watchman. Safe and vault were knocked all to pieces. Fourteen thousand dollars is said to have been taken.

Special to The Examiner.

Bowmanville, Ont., May 13.—A daring bank robbery was perpetrated early this morning, when the Standard Bank was robbed of over $11,000. There were seven or eight men in the gang, who thoroughly understood the business of safe cracking. The building is a brick structure, built in 1894 and is equipped with the latest and most improved burglar proof appliances. The burglars first went to the police office and seized the night watchman, Henry Metcalfe, whom they blindfolded, gagged and handcuffed. They then, after telling him what they proposed doing and threatening to shoot him if he did not keep quiet, escorted him over to the bank, which is only across the corner, and commenced operations.

Metcalfe was guarded by one man with a revolver, while the others entered the bank by removing a pane of glass from one of the windows on the west side of the building. The front door was then pried open. Three explosions took place in quick succession, which apparently worked well, for in about half an hour the three doors leading to the place where the valuables were deposited were shattered as though they were of wood. About $11,000 belonging to the bank and $101 belonging to the Canada Life Assurance Company and a lot of valuable belonging to private citizens were carried off. As soon as the job was finished the burglars carried night-watchman Metcalfe into the bank and departed for parts unknown. Metcalfe was found about 5 a.m.

KEENE BURGLARY.

The general store of Mr. James McNeil, at Keene, was entered and burglarized, between the hours of eleven last night and five o'clock this morning.

Entrance was obtained through a second story window, the intruders making their egress by prying a lock off the store door from the inside.

Two money drawers were emptied of their contents, consisting of a few dollars in change and a desperate attempt was made to secure the contents of the safe. The handle was broken off and a number of holes drilled into the door. These were found filled with powder, which had not been exploded. The holes were drilled at a distance of about ten inches apart, an effort evidently being made to locate the bolts. A punch, some chisels, a drill and a heavy hammer were evidently used in the attack on the safe.

Mr. McNeil found that it was impossible to open the safe door, this morning, on account of the usage to which it had been subjected. It is therefore impossible to ascertain, at present, whether the burglars were, or were not successful in securing the contents, which consisted of only a small amount of cash and Mr. McNeil's business papers.

The fact that a number of raw eggs had been sucked and a quantity of cakes eaten is an evidence that the men concerned in the robbery took their time, but it is not understood how they were deterred from exploding the powder in the holes drilled in the safe for the purpose.

The place was secure at eleven o clock last night and the robbery was not discovered until five o'clock this morning. There is no clue to the person who committed the act.

A Narrow Escape.

On Friday evening last while Messrs. James Jackman and W. Fischer were paddling to Stony Lake they met with an unpleasant experience. They were just reaching Young's Point, and in going around a pier the current was so swift that before they could face the boat to it they were caught in an eddy and upset. Both managed to cling to the canoe until a young man named Walsh came to their rescue with a boat, when they were taken to the shore none the worse for their ducking. Only a few things were lost out of the canoe.

How welcome they are, these new blooming blossoms. They are purity personified, these bits of life, with their bursting buds, joyous in their first sight of Spring. There are no impurities about them.

Humanity, however, continues to have its troubles, most of which can be traced to impure blood.

But humanity rests more contented now, for it knows that Hood's Sarsaparilla, the wonderful blood cleanser, never disappoints. You need it today.

Severe Pains—"I had severe pains in my stomach, a form of neuralgia. My mother urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made me well and strong. EMPIRE DAY IN THE SCHOOLS

At first glance, as on maturer consideration, one is inclined to say that the setting apart of the day previous to the 24th of May, to be observed as "Empire Day" in the public schools of Ontario, is a highly commendable action. The idea of association connects with the occasion the birth of a Sovereign, the best that has ever ruled, and ruled the largest and the greatest empire the world has ever known. And Ontario is the best province of the greatest of the components of the great Colonial Empire. Loyalty, like charity, should begin at home; and in connection with the inculcation in the minds of Ontario [illegible] of loyalty to the empire as [illegible]nt, pride to be taken in the [illegible]should be taught on the [illegible]e duty of every citizen to [illegible]tive province worthy, by [illegible]s own actions, as a component, of being proud of [illegible]f the most devoted loyalthis, loyalty to the emmere abstract sentiing without meaning or thus every integral point of the empire being taught pride in and loyalty to itself, always associated with pride in and loyalty to the central group of islands and the empire at large, will result in a magnificent co-operation, which alone can make the empire permanently great. The children should not only be taught of the greatness of Canada as it now stands, of its infinite natural resources, of its climate, surpassed by no other country, of its political institutions, the best constituted, and the best administered in the world, but they should also be inspired with faith in its future of greatness, and have impressed upon them that the increase of this greatness is the measure of the thoroughness with which every individual citizen performs his duty to the state, directly, and, incidentally, to the Empire. While the sentiment of loyalty should be excited the far higher and more enduring ideal of duty should be created. This becomes all the more important under the reflection that the British Isles, the heart of the Empire, are approaching the zenith of their intrinsic development, and Britain must look more and more to her great colonies, sown broadcast in every water, as the media of her continued stability and the maintenance of her present proud and unchallenged imperial pre-eminence. As the British Isles cease to be self-contained they must lean more and more upon the broad shoulders of the colonies. And Canada's shoulders are grandly broad. We therefore must keep the mother country in mind of the fact that Canada has the greatest coal fields in the world, that her nickel and gold mines are of known richness, but of unknown extent, and that here is the grandest known field for the profitable investment of the uncounted wealth that centuries have been pouring into the lap of Dame Brittania, that here is the grandest home for the overflow of the teeming population of the British Isles. Let the celebration of "Empire Day" in our public schools be given some practical shape. The singing of patriotic songs and waving of flags is all well enough from a sentimental point of view, but if the observance of the day is confined to these they will be but as "tithes of mint, anise and cummin" compared to "the weightier matters of the law," represented by the inculcation of the idea of loyal performance of duty by every individual citizen, by the imparting of a knowledge and the creation of appreciation of our natural resources and national institutions and their relation to the central and outer parts of the great Empire we have so great reason to be proud of; whose interests we should be proud to serve and promote, not by mere mouth loyalty but by the devotion of our best moral, intellectual and physical powers.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In the movement—if there is a movement—suggested by Mayor Davis in regard to taking steps to pro railway crossings, the question nat roadway crossings, the question naturally arises—why should the town bear part of the expense? The railways have gained important privileges from the town and should, one would think, exercise such privileges at their own proper expense, since theirs is all the profit. The town is responsible only for the permission to use our streets. The railways created the conditions that make our crossings not only dangerous to life but the cause of several deaths. The railways get the benefit, the railways furnish the danger and it does not seem an extravagant view to take, that they should have the financial responsibility in connection with rendering the level crossings safe.

The Topeka State Journal publishes a letter written to his home by a private in the 20th Kansas regiment, in which occurs the following passage: "They say that after this place (Malolos) is taken the balance of the Filipinos will surrender. Only those who do not know these people will believe that. They will never surrender until their whole race is exterminated. They are fighting for a good cause, and the Americans should be the last of all nations to transgress upon such rights. Their independence is dearer to them than life, as ours was in years gone by and is today. They should have their independence, and would have had it if those who make the laws in America had not been so slow in deciding the Phillipine question. Of course we have to fight now to protect the honour of our country, but there is not a man who enlisted to fight these people, and should the United States annex these islands, none but the most bloodthirsty will claim himself a hero. This is not a lack of patriotism, but my honest belief." Apparently it is not necessary to send anti-imperialist literature to the soldiers in the Phillipines. They are sending better anti-imperialist literature to the people at home.

The Hamilton Herald says: It is bad enough for members of Parliament to accept passes from railway companies; it is worse for judges to do so. There are judges in Canada who travel on railway passes while they receive from the government the money to pay their travelling expenses. Can these be just judges? If this is the fact, and it is hard to believe it is, it is exceedingly wrong. The judge that accepts a pass does wrong, because, being human, he is liable to be influenced by such a favour, unconsciously perhaps and unintentionally but, effectively, all the same. The judge of the story who refused a complimentary "shine" from a boot-black, lest some time in the future he should not be in a position to be strictly impartial, had a true conception of the responsibility of his position. As to a judge accepting a pass while his travelling expenses are paid by the government, that is felony—or at least obtaining money under false pretenses. How can such a judge pass sentence on a man convicted of crookedness in obtaining money? Is it to be hoped for the sake of the untarnished reputation of our judiciary that the Herald is utterly mistaken in its statement in this regard.

JOHN COSTIGAN SAYS HE HAS QUIT THE PARTY

THE EX-CONSERVATIVE MINISTER HAS SEVERED HIS CONNECTION.

He Winds up his Farewell by Stating that the Liberals Have the Confidence of the Country at Present.

Toronto World.

Montreal, May 11.—The World's statement made a few weeks ago to the effect that Hon. John Costigan would soon abandon the Conservative party is fully confirmed by the following despatch to The Herald, dated Ottawa, May 11, when Hon. John Costigan made the following important statement:

"You may say that I have entirely severed my connection with the Conservative party as it stands today.

"You may go further, and you may state that I do not consider the leaders of that party represent the party or the ideas that I have always supported. Indeed, I may say that in my opinion they are the men who wrecked the Conservative party. Their tactics and their principles are entirely at variance with my own, and for that reason I have voted against them.

"As to the tariff I am convinced that the changes made by the Liberals are more satisfactory to the business people and the country generally than the changes read in the last Foster tariff. I am prepared to support the Liberal Government in its policy so far as it agrees with my own views.

"Measures may come up where I shall be compelled to differ from them, but I need not anticipate these.

"The Liberals have the confidence of the country. I have already voted for their measures, and shall do so excepting in such cases as I have mentioned."

A PERFECT, SURE, AND RELIABLE CURE.

THE DOCTOR'S OPINION REGARDING DODD'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

They Cure Dyspepsia and all Other Stomach Diseases by curing the Stomach and Bowels—They are the only Cure on Earth.

They were talking about Dyspepsia. The doctor said it causes more misery than whiskey does. But, he said, he could cure it. He knew of one remedy—for Dyspepsia, and every other stomach trouble—that always cures. That one is Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. He knew of no other.

The lawyer agreed with the doctor as to the misery caused by Dyspepsia. He claimed that indigestion, Sour Stomach, Foul Breath, Wind on the Stomach, Biliousness, Nervousness, and Catarrh of the Stomach were responsible for equally as much misery. "You are correct," said the doctor, "and I will wager $1,000 I can cure the worst case of any one of these diseases with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are the natural digestive. They digest the food when the worn out, exhausted stomach fails to do so. Digest the food, and there will be no stomach disease."

"Every case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and other stomach trouble is accompanied by constipation, more or less severe. To make their cure complete the Dodd's Medicine Co. put in every box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets a package of small, brown Tablets, that are simply perfection as a regulator of the bowels."

"Thus, Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets digest the food perfectly, the small Tablets stimulate the bowels to healthy action, and the waste matter is carried off instead of remaining in the stomach to poison the system. The cure is perfect."

"Where can I buy Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets?" queried the lawyer.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents a box, or five boxes $2.50, or they will be sent on receipt of price, by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

Good Blood!

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day. One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain.

Which is it?

If bad, impure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet cannot sleep. You are as tired in the morning as at night. You have no nerve power. Your food does you but little good.

Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you; but will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

To Hasten Recovery.

You will be more rapidly cured if you will take a laxative dose of Ayer's pills each night. They arouse the sluggish liver and thus cure biliousness.

TO RESTORE THE DROWNING.

Rules that are Often Read but Thoroughly Known by Few.

Summer and winter each has its perils. He is too hopeful who feels feels confident that there will be no more skating or swimming fatalities. The record of the past makes such a confidence impossible. Already the list of deaths by bathing in 1899 contains the name of at least one Ontario victim and it may be that during the next few months some person who will read these lines will have an opportunity of becoming life-savers through knowledge of the following rules for resuaitation, compiled by the Provincial Board of Health of Ontario:

Rule 1. Proceed at once to employ means to restore breathing. Do not delay this in order to procure shelter, warmth, stimulants, etc.

Rule 2. Remove all obstructions to breathing. Instantly loosen or cut apart all neck and waist bands; turn the patient on his face, with the head lower than the feet; stand astride the hips, with your face towards his head, and, locking your fingers together under his belly raise the body as high as you can without lifting the forehead off the ground, and give the body a quick jerk to remove mucus and water from the mouth and windpipe. Hold the body suspended long enough to slowly count one, two, three, four, five, repeating the jerk more gently two or three times.

Rule 3. Next place the patient on his back on a flat surface, inclined a little from the feet upwards, raise and support the head and shoulders on a firm cushion, or folded article of dress, placed under the shoulder blades. Cleanse the mouth and nostrils, open the mouth, draw forward the patient's tongue securing it there either by holding it with the fingers, or by a piece of string or an elastic band placed over it and under the chin.

Rule 4. Grasp the patient's arms just above the elbows, and draw them gently and steadily upwards until they meet above the head. This is for the purpose of drawing air into the lungs:

Keep the arms in this position for two seconds, then turn them down and press them gently and firmly for two seconds against the sides of the chest, pressing at the same time on the breast and abdomen. (This is with the object of pressing air out of the lungs.) Pressure on the breast bone and abdomen by an assistant will aid this action.

Repeat these measures alternately and deliberately until a spontaneous effort to breathe is perceived, immediately upon which cease to imitate the movements of breathing, and proceed to induce circulation and warmth.

Rule 5. To excite respiration.—During the employment of the above methods irritate the nostrils with snuff or smelling-salt, or tickle the throat with a feather. Rub the chest and face briskly, and dash cold and hot water alternately upon the patient.

Do not be too soon discouraged. Remember that at any time within two hours your efforts may be successful.

Rule 6. To induce circulation and warmth.—After breathing is commenced, wrap the patient in warm blankets, and apply bottles of hot water, hot bricks, or anything to restore heat.

Warm the head nearly as fast as the body, lest convulsions should be induced, rubbing he body with warm cloths, or with the hands, and slapping the fleshy parts may assist to restore warmth and breathing.

If the patient can swallow with safety give him hot coffee, tea, milk or spirits.

Allow the patient to have abundance of fresh air.

THE MAN WITH THE HOE.

The following poem appears in the last issue of The Outlook, after being specially revised by the author, Edward Markham. It was accompanied by the picture of a man leaning upon a hoe, whose dull, brutish face betokens all that the poem depicts.

Bowed by the weight of centuries he leans
Upon the hoe and gazes on the ground,
The emptiness of ages in his face,
And on his back the burden of the world.
Who made him dead to rapture and despair,
A thing that grieves not and that never hopes,
Stolid and stunned, a brother to the ox?
Who loosened and let down his brutal jaw?
Whose was the hand that slanted back this brow?
Whose breath blew out the light within this brain?

Is this the Thing the Lord God made and gave
To have dominion over sea and land;
To trace the stars and search the heavens for power;
To feel the passion of eternity?
Is this the Dream He dreamed who shaped the suns
And pillared the blue firmament with light?
Down all the stretch of Hell to its gulf
There is no shape more terrible than this—
More tongued with censure of the world's blind greed—
More filled with signs and portents for the soul—
More fraught with menace to the universe.

What gulfs between him and the seraphim!
Slave of the wheel of labour, what to him
Are Plato and the swing of Pleiades?
What the long reaches of the peaks of song,
The rift of dawn, the reddening of the rose?
Through this dread shape the suffering ages look;
Time's tragedy is in that aching stoop;
Through this dread shape humanity, betrayed,
Plundered, profaned and disinherited,
Cries protest to the Judges of the World,
A protest that is also prophecy.

O masters, lords and rulers of all lands,
Is this the handiwork you give to God,
This monstrous thing distorted and soul quenched?
How will you ever straighten up this shape;
Touch it again with immortality;
Give back the upward looking and the light;
Rebuild in it the music and the dream;
Make right the immemorial infamies,
Perfidious wrongs, immedicable woes?

O masters, lords and rulers in all lands,
How will the Future reckon with this Man?
How answer his brute question in that hour
When whirlwinds of rebellion shake the world?
How will it be with kingdoms and with kings—
With those who shaped him to the thing he is—
When this dumb Terror shall reply to God,
After the silence of the centuries?

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. Domestic Missions.

To-morrow special collections will be taken up in St. John's on behalf of Domestic Missions i. e., in Algoma and the Northwest. This collection is annually made by order of the Bishops of Canada and it is most important that churchmen should do their utmost on behalf of their brethren in the great northwest, where the struggling setters cannot as yet fully support the ministrations of the church. A large part of the collection is devoted to work among the Indians, in which the Church of England has been most successful in her wide operations. This will be welcomed as a direct opportunity of preaching the gospel to the brethren within the confines of our own Dominion.

SUMMER HALF HOLIDAY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir—In reply to "Merchant's" letter in yesterday's Examiner, I see he regrets signing the petition some three years ago for the half holiday and lays great stress on the some ten legal holidays we are entitled to. Possibly he regrets favouring the employees with them as much as he does the half holidays during the summer. We have 52 Sundays in a year and can go farther, do more wheeling in a full day than we can on one half day, and yet we return to work Monday morning in fit condition to do our work; what a poor argument!

Merchant says it's a well known fact business don't start in a town like Peterborough until nine or half past, and if Merchant would keep open till 10 o'clock every night business would be still later in starting and he would have some hangers on coming in as we do on Saturday nights. Now that merchant would sooner close all day Saturday than half a day, so I would suggest closing say at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and give Merchant six or seven hours to do business, but still giving clerks a good, long evening, and having no tendency to disorganize his business. I don't anticipate Merchant's letter will altogether affect the move. My argument for early closing every evening is for those who love wheeling. Possibly the afternoon would be wet, while after 4 o'clock each evening very little or no business is done, and they can take a long wheel or go somewhere with their families and enjoy the evening. They will be almost sure of enjoying four or five day evenings in the week.

Yours truly,
EMPLOYEE.

THE HALF HOLIDAY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

I agree with the remarks of "Merchant" in yesterday's issue. The Thursday half holiday is more of a nuisance and disarrangement of business than anything else I know of. I trust those who desire half holidays will be allowed to make such arrangements with their employers as will enable them to take the holiday without forcing others to close their business when they have no desire to do so. It is a very easy matter to arrange for one-half the clerks to go off week about without closing the town up to travellers and strangers, and business generally. Yours,

GROCER.

An Unique Advertisement.

Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, the wide-awake sail, tent, awning and flag manufacturers, are always getting up something new in the advertisement line which is not only useful to themselves but of use to the public as well. The latest idea in this line, and what contains a very interesting piece of history of national importance, is a neat little cardboard pamphlet which folds twice and is endorsed on the back, "An explanation of the Union Jack and a soldier's song, with compliments of J. J. Turner & Sons, Peterborough, Ont." On one page an explanation of our national flag is given and it would be news perhaps to a good many to learn just how the Union Jack was designed, but it is all told here. On the next page is printed a poem entitled "Our Country's Flag, a Soldier's Song," which is a most patriotic composition indeed. In the centre of the unfolded pamphlet, are the three separate designs, which compose the Union Jack—The English flag, St. George's Cross; the Scottish flag, St. Andrew's Cross, and the Irish flag, St. Patrick's Cross. They are fixed in such a manner that one in following the directions given, can form the union flag of England, Ireland and Scotland as it was originally figured out. The rest of the pamphlet is taken up with suitable advertising matter of this well-known firm and the entire and the entire affair is not only catching to the eye but most interesting and instructive. The pamphlet was from the presses of the Examiner.

NEW HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE,

TO BE ERECTED IN ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL GROUNDS.

The Church Authorities of St. Peter's Decide that More Accommodation is Required.

The increased accommodation which is found necessary for the patients at St. Joseph's hospital has rendered it imperative that the apartments hitherto occupied by the aged and infirm be vacated, and in order to provide for the wants of the latter, the church authorities of St. Peter's Cathedral have decided upon the erection of a new building, which will be located to the south and somewhat nearer Stewart street than the hospital.

The new House of Providence will be three stories in height and 42x70 feet in size, with walls 47 feet high. The foundation will be of cut stone and the basement will be large and airy. It will be utilized for the purposes of a laundry, furnace rooms, refectories, pantries and kitchen. A dumb-waiter or lift will be operated from the kitchen to the top flat, with doors opening into it from each landing.

The ground floor will be occupied by the men's ward and sleeping rooms and the first floor is to be devoted to the women's wards and sleeping rooms. The children's apartments are on the top floor.

Spacious verandahs will decorate the entire south side of the building, with doors opening out on them from each floor, and to the aged and infirm these will prove a great boon when the weather is suitable for sun baths. Each flat will be furnished with all the modern conveniences in the way of baths, lavatories, etc.

Mr. John Belcher, C.E., is the architect. Tenders are asked for in another column.

A TRIP TO THE BACK LAKES.

A Small Party Went up to Inspect the Cottages.

Yesterday afternoon a sort of skirmishing party, of the many pleasure-seekers who yearly visit our back lakes, enjoyed a very pleasant outing in inspecting their cottages on Stony Lake. The party which left here on the morning train for Lakefield, was composed of Messrs. E. B. Edwards, R. Neill, E. H. D. Hall and wife, F. H. Dobbin, J. J. McBain, John Nugnet, J. D. Collins and wife, George Cochrane and K. G. Lech, and a number of ladies. The steamer, Sunbeam was taken at 10 o'clock and the members of the party let off at their respective cottages which were inspected and found to have wintered in fine style, and in general good condition. The time was spent by the ladies in planting flowers and by the men in getting matters in shape for the summer's opening.

The party arrived at Lakefield again at seven o'clock in the evening, where they were met by Leary's 'bus and conveyed home. They report the lake looking grand and the water four or five feet higher than when the camping season opens. They also claim that the water has the same peculiar taste as that in Peterborough, which they say is owing to the water flooding the swamp, lands, etc. Not in five years has the water been so high.

AN ARTIFICIAL LAKE.

One May be Constructed in the Little Lake Cemetery.

The directors of the Little Lake Cemetery made their annual spring visit to the grounds on Thursday afternoon for the purpose of ascertaining what improvements it is advisable to undertake during the year.

The south east portion of the cemetery is a very low-lying piece of ground which never thoroughly dries out and the directors have been considering the matter of draining or raising it for some time, but as the cost of filling it in would be very great, the question has been deferred from time to time. On Thursday, Mr. Foord, the caretaker made a suggestion which, if found feasible, should overcome the difficulty at a cost which would not be too great. His suggestion is to construct an artificial lake about half or three quarters of an acre in size, and with the earth available through the excavations to raise the low ground in the vicinity. At a glance the idea seems practicable, as the ground in the south east corner of the cemetery is of a clayey nature, which would make a good bottom for such a lake as Mr. Foord suggests. The idea is to have a driveway around it and so favourably were the directors impressed with the scheme that T. A. S. Hay and Mr. Foord have been asked to prepare plans and specifications in order that the matter may be brought before the Board in a regular manner.

Of all the walks in the cemetery only two are still undrained and of these two, one will be drained this year. The main drive leading from the gates will also have a flag gutter constructed along the opposite side to where one already exists.

Another section of the cemetery has been set apart in which the foot stones will be lowered to the level of the sod this year, in accordance with plans inaugurated last season. The stones are sunk in the ground on a level with the sod and the initials of the deceased chiselled across the top. The object is to allow the use of the lawn-mowers with greater freedom.

THE CATTLE YARDS.

Town Commissioners Add a Proviso to the Lease.

A meeting of the Town Trust commissioners was held in the town offices yesterday, all the members beenson, chairman; John Carnegie, W. H. Moore, Richard Hall and R. S. Davidson.

The question was taken up of the leasing to Mr. H. P. Kennedy of that portion of the town property between the tracks of the Grand Trunk and C.P.R., which he wishes to convert into a stockyard. It was agreed that a provision should be added to the proposed lease causing the expiration of that instrument so soon as the Stanley Piano Co. are prepared to commence manufacturing operations.

Mr. Kennedy, who was present at the meeting agreed to the change being made in the conditions of the lease, but asked that in case he be removed from the premises inside of one year, that a rebate of $25 be allowed him on the year's rental of $100, which is paid in advance. To this proposition the commissioners consented.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

Breezy Items from the Otonabee and Rice Lake Ports.

The traffic on the Otonabee river and Rice Lake may be said to be in full swing now, and from this forward the local steamboat owners anticipate a busy season. While a certain degree of high water is always very beneficial to steamboat traffic, still the officers of the boats on the Otonabee river and Rice Lake state that traffic is somehwat impeded through the excessively high state of the water this season. The river shows signs of lowering however, but it will still be above the average height for some time yet.

The steamers, North Star, Rainbow, and Eclipse arrived in port this morning with a considerable number of passengers. The Rainbow, in command of Capt. Coppethweight came up for supplies, etc., with Mr. Burnit on board. Andy Young is engineer of this fast little steamer this year, and with such an efficient and obliging captain as she has, she will certainly pull her share of the trade. The Rainbow will start running Saturday trips to Peterborough by the first of June. She has been busy of late towing logs and other such stuff to its owner's mill.

The Eclipse brought quite a few passengers this morning. She is again captained by Charley Calcutt with James Tobin as mate and Jim Logan, engineer. She has been busy this week in towing. A scow load of hogs from Harwood, a load of wood from Campbelltown and some timber from mills on the lake, were brought up.

The first excursion of the season will be held on May 24th, when the Auburn Sunday School scholars will have an outing at Jubilee Point. The steamer Eclipse has been chartered for the occasion.

The steamer, North Star has been taking the steamer Beaver's place on the Saturday market trips. Clare Calcutt will be in command with Mr. Harris, jr., the owner of the boat, as mate. The Star has a contract from Kirks Bros. to bring 250 cords of wood from Campbelltown to Peterborough.

The Beaver will again be in command of Capt. Harris with engineer Whitred at the leaver.

As yet no license has been granted to the new hotel at Gore's Landing and it is hardly probable that such will be obtained. The house is now open and the prospects for a good season's trade are good.

THE ESCAPE OF PARE.

Ontario Government Will Give $800 if He Is Recaptured.

Toronto, May 13.—Inspector Chamberlain's report on the escape of the cracksmen, Pare and Holden, from Napanee Jail, was discussed by the Ontario Cabinet in council yesterday afternoon, and it was decided that $800 reward would be offered by the Government for the capture of both criminals, or $500 for the capture of either one.

Deputy Attorney-General Cartwright says the trial of Ponton cannot possibly go on, as had been arranged, and that the defence have been finally notified to that effect.

The statement is a highly favorable one in every way.

A TREATY IS POSSIBLE.

Opinion Obtained in High Quarters in London.

NEGOTIATIONS NOT BROKEN.

Not Have They at Any Time Been Endangered Since the Adjournment of the British-Canadian-American Commission—Confirmation of This London View From Washington.

London, May 13.—With reference to the progress of negotiations by and the status of the Washington joint commission, the correspondent here of the Associated Press has obtained from the highest quarters the following authoritative statement: Negotiations have never been broken off nor endangered at any time since the adjournment of the commission. If matters proceed as smoothly as they are at present doing here, Sir Julian Pauncefote's return to Washington will be signalized by the conclusion of a treaty embracing every question in dispute in a manner honorable and pleasing to the two countries.

AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

Americans Say the Joint High Commission Will Meet in August.

Montreal, May 13.—The Herald's special correspondent at the American capital sends the following: "Washington, D.C., May 12.—An authoritative declaration from the State Department respecting the Government's attitude regarding the work of the Anglo-American joint high commission was obtained to-day by the correspondent of The Herald. It was said officially for the first time since the recent gossip in regard to the alleged breaking-off of negotiations began that it has not been decided to abandon the efforts to settle the existing differences between this country and Canada and that the joint high commission will meet in August as arranged. No contrary decision has been reached, and while it is admitted that the differences which the commission endeavored to adjust are very great, there will be no lack of effort to bring the disputants into harmony.

Mr. Fairbanks Speaks.

"This statement was corroborated by Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, the president of the American commission, who gave to The Herald correspondent the following interview:

"'It is true that there is a feeling among those interested that the British, Canadian and American commissioners will not succeed in getting together sufficiently to arrange a treaty for the settlement of the embarrassing questions at issue, but it is not fair to accuse the United States of being responsible for the conditions which have given rise to that opinion. Canada has wanted her own way in nearly every proposition advanced, and has been unwilling to make concessions. In the question of the boundary dispute between Alaska and the British possessions the Canadian Government showed a disposition which surprised the United States. Canada admitted that the principle of our proposal was correct, but has since pursued a temporizing policy, which is evidently designed to lead up to a refusal to agree to the modus vivandi. She has submitted conditions which the United States cannot accept, and is showing any but a conciliatory spirit.'"

Will Canada Be Snubbed?

Washington, D.C., May 13.—Due notice has been taken by the officials here of the semi-official declaration from London respecting the chances for the conclusion of a treaty that will settle all of the questions at issue betwen the United States and Canada. All that can be said is that the Administration will be extremely gratified if Sir Julian Pauncefote returns to the United States with new instructions that will meet the difficulties which baffled the first Commission, for it, as matters stand, is realized that nothing can be expected to result from a further meeting of the Commission.

The statement that the negotiations are to be deferred until the return of Sir Julian Pauncefote to Washington is regarded as significant. It confirms fully the original statement that the Commission cannot meet August 2 next, for the Ambassador's return to this country was set for next autumn. The despatch also appears to convey an intimation that the British Government has about reached the conclusion that the only method by which these vexatious issues can be adjusted by directing negotiations between the representatives of Great Britain and the United States. The parties to the negotiations up to this point have before expressed perfect confidence in their ability to reach a satisfactory agreement between themselves in a very short period of time if allowed to do as they believed to be right, so they would be glad to be relieved of the intervening forces.

What the Thunderer Says.

London, May 13.—The Times, expressing its hope of a successful termination of the labors of the Joint High Commission for the settlement of questions in dispute between Canada and the United States, says:

Both the United States and Canada must understand that they cannot expect to have things entirely their own way. Our imperial part is rather advisory as regards both. Every narrowing of the area of controversy is to be welcomed as promoting good feeling, which we are glad to note is displayed on both sides.

Before the Commission re-assembles public opinion in both countries will have to be ascertained, and so far as we can gauge it promises to be favorable to many, if not all, of the questions in dispute.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:
Dear Sirs,—My hair had been falling for some time, and I tried a bottle of your "Hairene," and was surprised and pleased to find that less than half of one bottle stopped the hair from falling and completely removed the dandruff.

Yours truly,
J. M. WALLACE.

"Mrs. Sanders had ten hemorrhages and people here said she would never be well again."

W. A. Sanders, Esq., of Hern, Mason County, W. Va., writes: "My wife had hemorrhage of the lungs. She had ten hemorrhages and people here said she would never be well again. But she began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and she soon began to gain strength and flesh. After taking ten bottles she was entirely well. If you think this will do you any good to publish, just use it, and, if anyone disputes the merits of this almost omnipotent medicine, they may enclose a self-addressed envelope with stamp, and I will answer."

When anything is wrong with the lungs there is no time to lose. The steps are easy and quick from a "slight cold" to bronchitis; from bronchitis to pneumonia; from pneumonia to permanently weakened lungs, and from that to dread consumption itself.

The time to cure consumption is before it gets a start. Take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery on the first appearance of cough or cold, and you will never have a hemorrhage or a tubercle. The "Discovery" is the greatest health builder in the world. It first straightens out all digestive disorders, and aids the body in ridding itself of poisonous effete matter. It tones up the stomach, invigorates the liver and in connection with Dr. Pierce's Pellets keeps the bowels open and regular. Don't let an unscrupulous medicine dealer foist some substitute when you want Dr. Pierce's medicines. Assert your rights—get what you ask for, and be well.

LANGLEY'S AIRSHIP.

The Professor Soared Aloft 500 Feet, But Descended Without Accomplishing Much.

Washington, May 12.—Professor S. P. Langley, secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, the inventor of the aerodrome, who was given $25,000 by the Board of Ordnance to experiment with his flying machine for war purposes, made his first test at Quantico, Va., yesterday. Prof. Langley, with the amount of money placed at his disposal, built a new and larger machine than that with which he experimented two years ago. The machine was launched from the top of a houseboat anchored in a broad sweep of the Potomac about three-fourths of a mile from the island owned by the Quantico Rod and Gun Club. The result was not so successful as were Prof. Langley's former experiments with the smaller machine. The machine soared aloft to a height of 500 feet, and descended after a horizontal flight of 800 feet. His former machine, which was propelled by a small steam engine, flew three-quarters of a mile, and only descended when the steam was exhausted. It was understood that Prof. Langley was to overcome the limited power capacity of the former machine by the use of a condensing engine, which could repeatedly utilize the condensed steam from the boiler.

TERRIBLE RAILWAY WRECK.

Twenty-Five Killed and Fifty Injured by a Smash Last Evening in Pennsylvania.

Reading, May 13.—The Pottsville Express was run into at Exeter last evening. The passengers could give no connected story of the wreck and the number of dead and injured was not known to any of them. The number of dead is fully 25 and the injured 50. The first train ploughed through three cars of the forward train, completely wrecking them. Eight dead were brought here at 1 a.m. A score are under the debris. A train load of wounded were brought to the hospital here. Great excitement prevails throughout the city. The railroad officials offer no explanation of the accident. The coroner will institute an investigation at once. Returning passengers at 1.30 a.m. say the scenes around the wreck are of the most fearful description.

STRIKE TO END AT BUFFALO.

Grain Shovelers Appear to Have Gained Their Point—Everybody Will Go to Work.

Buffalo, May 13.—It looks to-night as if the strike of the grain shovelers was about over. Bishop Quigley has brought about an agreement on all but minor points, and it is expected that the men will be back at work next week. The strikers have gained a big victory, securing practically all that they had fought for. Several hundred coal shovelers and a like number of freight handlers are out on strike in sympathy with the grain shovelers, but it is thought that they will return to work now that the main strike is settled.

NOW IT IS ACCEPTED LAW.

Life's not Worth the Living—South American Nervine Restores Hope and Perfect Health.

She had about given up hope of a permanent cure when South American Nervine was recommended to her. She procured it, and in a very short time experienced wonderful relief. After taking six bottles she was absolutely cured. She says: "I believe it to be the most effective remedy for stomach trouble in the market."

One of the Magnates of Wall Street and an Ex-Governor Taken Off Suddenly.

New York, May 12.—Former Gov. Roswell P. Flower died to-night at 10.30 at the Eastport Country Club, at Eastport, L.I. Mr. Flower was taken ill early in the day with a severe attack of acute indigestion. In the afternoon symptoms of heart failure supervened and he grew steadily worse until the time of his death. The attack of heart failure was accompanied by a fainting spell and Mr. Flower's family in New York City were quickly notified. Mrs. Flower and the former Governor's nephew, Frederick S. Flower, accompanied by Dr. Thomas H. Allan, Mr. Flower's physician, left at once on a special train for Eastport. When they arrived there Mr. Flower had somewhat recovered, but to-night the attack of heart failure was marked and Mr. Flower became unconscious an hour or more before his death.

At Oderou, in Austrian Silesia, an immense district has been inundated. At Dresden the River Elbe is higher than it has been at any previous period for 30 years. The tributaries of the Elbe and Oder have overflowed, inundating the Roesa District. At Bleterfield 11 persons were drowned in attempting to cross the River Mulne. Trains still continue to run.

BROTHER JONATHAN.

He Will Now Take Steps to Crush the Fruit Trade of the Island of Jamaica.

Jamaica, May 12.—The tariff bill so obnoxious to the American Government, the enactment of which by the Legislative Council was already a foregone conclusion, was finally passed yesterday, and Jamaicans now are apprehensive of immediate retaliation upon their exports to the United States.

An American citizen of Jamaica, who has been elected a member of the Legislative Council, the Hon. J. T. Valache, strongly urged the framing of a substitute measure on lines which should render easy the negotiating of reciprocal arrangements with the United States. He said that England had deserted the West Indies and that, the Home Government's promises to help the islands having been broken, Jamaica could look to the United States alone for its future prosperity. America, he said, was substance; Great Britain shadow. The loss of the American market would spell the ruin of the colony—ruin utter and complete.

The Hon. S. C. Burke said that he had seen the letter from a leading personage of the Washington Government, transmitted through United States Consul Dent, and he declared that so soon as the bill should become law immediate retaliatory legislation would be invoked to crush Jamaica's great fruit trade with the United States—the island's staple industry, now that sugar production has gone by the board.

Despite these warnings, the council passed the bill without inserting provisions to facilitate the arranging of a reciprocal agreement.

She says, "After years of suffering I rejoice to be freed." Name given on application. Sold by H. S. Macdonald and Ormond & Walsh.

Will Uncle Sam Compensate?

London, May 12.—In the House of Commons to-day the Right Hon. William St. John Brodrick, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, replying to a question by Captain John St. Clair, Radical member for Forfarshire, relative to destruction of British property by the bombardment of Iloilo, said that the Government had no information with regard to the intention of the United States to compensate traders. "The question of these claims," the speaker said, "is under consideration by the British Government and will not be lost sight of."

Hon. Mr. Harty Endorsed.

MAY BE MURDER.

Watson Stein Badly Beaten by Tramps and Cast From a Train.

Woodstock, May 13.—A man giving his name as Watson Stein, a Russian Jew, was brought to the hospital here yesterday morning suffering from serious injuries, which may prove fatal. He and a companion crept into a box car of a passing freight train. A short way out from London Stein was joined by several tramps, who wanted a free ride. Everything went well until near Governor's Crossing, below Eastwood, when the tramps demanded his money. On refusing they jumped on him and robbed him of all he had. In fighting with the strangers he was stabbed in the hip and thrown out of the car onto the side of the track. His hip bone is broken and his arm fractured. Several trainmen found him lying in an unconscious condition. He was put on a freight train and taken to Woodstock Hospital. Late last evening Stein was very low and the chances of his recovery are very slim.

HALFBREEDS' CLAIMS.

Government Has Appointed a Commission to Deal With Them.

Ottawa, May 13.—Major James Walker of Calgary and J. A. Cote, Mr. Smart's private secretary, have been appointed a commission to deal with the halfbreeds of the Northwest Territories born between July 15, 1870, and 1885 who may present their claims. The commissioners are to leave Edmonton for the north with the Indian treaty commission.

When the halfbreeds' commission issued in 1885, it only empowered the commissioners to issue scrip to those born prior to July 15, 1870, the date of the transfer to the Hudson Bay Company. The halfbreeds demurred to this, and have again and again pressed the claim that halfbreeds born between July 15, 1870, and 1885 should receive the same treatment as those born prior to 1870, and the Territorial Legislature has on more than one occasion adopted and forwarded to the Government at Ottawa resolutions in support of this claim.

The Government has now decided that the Indian and halfbreed rights should be extinguished at the same time.

CANADIAN BOATS HIT.

Must Produce Consular Bills of Health on Entering U. S. Ports.

Detroit, Mich., May 13.—The Treasury Department intends to compel all Canadian vessels arriving at American lake ports to produce consular bills of health as prescribed by the Quarantine Act of Feb. 15, 1893. The order contained in a circular of April 3 is the result of the prevalence of smallpox in many localities this year. Some think, however, that the order has been inspired by the action of the Canadian authorities in demanding the same papers from vessels leaving Cleveland. The order will make untold trouble for Canadian boats.

A GREAT VICTORY

AFTER A SHORT, BUT HOT AND DECISIVE VICTORY.

The Enemy Driven Out—Dodd's Kidney Pills the Victors—Mr. Gillean Tested them and they Proved True and Faithful Friends.

Amherstburg, Ont., May 12.—Jas. R. Gillean, proprietor of the Lakeview Hotel, here, is one of the happiest men in town. For some years past, he has been in very poor health, and was a great sufferer from Kidney Disease.

In spite of all that medical skill, and numerous remedies could do, Mr. Gillean grew gradually worse. His sufferings increased, and there seemed to be no hope of curing the disease.

One day a friend called to see him, and advised him to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, telling him they had cured a number of cases, of which he knew, and which were all worse than Mr. Gillean's. The latter procured a box, doing him so much good, that he got three more. These cured him completely, and he is now obliged to hold quite a reception, every day, so many friends call to congratulate him on his happy recovery.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are astonishing the medical fraternity daily, by their marvellous success in cases of Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Gravel, Urinary Troubles, Female Complaints, Blood Impurities, and all other Kidney Diseases. Many physicians in this district prescribe them in their practice, always with the best results. Kidney Diseases cannot resist the action of Dodd's Kidney Pills which are the only cure on earth for such diseases.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or will be sent, on receipt of price, by The Dodds Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

Eczema on the Scalp

Some of the cures effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment are more like miracles than anything else. The case recorded here was one of the worst ever brought to the attention of Toronto's best physicians, and when doctors gave up all hope of recovery Dr. Chase's Ointment was successful in producing a perfect cure.

Mr. James Scott, 136 Wright Ave., Toronto, states: "My boy Tom, aged ten, was for nearly three years afflicted with a bad form of Eczema of the scalp, which was very unsightly and resisted all kinds of remedies and doctor's treatment. His head was in a terrible state. We had to keep him from school, and at times his head would bleed, and the child would scream with agony. For two and a half years we battled with it in vain, but at last found a cure in Dr. Chase's Ointment. About five boxes were used. The original sores dried up, leaving the skin in its normal condition. To say it is a pleasure to testify to the wonderful merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment is putting it very mildly."

A BOOMERANG LASSO.

Frank Beaumont Went After Big Game in Wild West Tactics and Lost His Life.

New York, May 12.—This is in The Herald under a Chester, Pa., date: The skill of young Frank Beaumont in throwing a lasso resulted in his death last evening. Ever since a wild west show exhibited in this city the boys of Chester have been practising with lassos. Young Beaumont, when he tired of lassoing boys of his own age, looked for bigger game. He stationed himself along the Reading Railroad near his home, and prepared to lasso an engine. The end of the lasso was tied about his waist, and the loop he circled above his head as a freight engine came up the grade. With a whoop he sent the loop whistling through the air.

The engine driver was leaning out of the cab window, unconscious of the boy at the side of the track, and was startled to find his arms pinioned to his sides. The loop of the lasso had fallen with great precision, and as the train moved forward the loop was jerked taut, rendering the engine driver helpless.

Young Beaumont, thrown off his feet when the jerk came and unable to untie the rope around his waist, was dragged along the tracks, the roar of the train drowning his shrieks, and was finally drawn under the car wheels. The engine driver succeeded in freeing his arms and stopped the engine, but when the boy was picked up he was dead. The wheels had scalped him, and he was bruised and mangled.

CHINESE ARE TRICKY.

Acknowledgment of the Anglo-Russian Agreement Does Not Imply Acquiescence.

Pekin, May 12.—The Chinese Government, in acknowledging the receipt of a communication regarding the Anglo-Russian agreement as to spheres of influence in China, expressly declares that the acknowledgment in no wise implies acquiescence. Immediately after communicating the agreement, the Russian Minister, M. De Giers, demanded the right to build a railway connecting the Machurian system with Pekin. This is regarded as of the utmost importance.

Fell Four Stories and Lives.

Hespeler, Ont., May 12—Archie Fennell, employed in the Brodie Woollen Mills, fell down the elevator shaft from the fourth floor yesterday afternoon and lives to tell the tale. He was leaning against the gate looking down the shaft, watching for the elevator to stop, when the gate, which was fastened in an upright position, became loosened and down went Fennell, head first, turning a somersault on the way down. When near the bottom his hands came in contact with the cable, which he grasped, thus greatly breaking the fall. A bad shaking up and a painfully bruised body were, wonderful to say, the only injuries sustained.

MRS. G. UNDERHAY'S CASE.

Confined to Bed for 14 months a Helpless Invalid—Her Spine was Affected—Could move neither hand nor foot—Doctors said she would Die.

That was 15 years ago—She's strong and well to-day Burdock Blood Bitters made a thorough and permanent cure.

No one to look at Mrs. Underhay's picture, which we give here, would think that fifteen years ago she was a woman that was so far gone that she was given up to die by her medical advisers.

The story of her wonderful and permanent cure by Burdock Blood Bitters would seem somewhat romantic could it not be readily confirmed by writing the lady herself, who at the present time is postmistress and keeps a store at Widder, Ont., and is well-known to a wide circle of friends in Lambton County.

The following is the statement Mrs. Underhay gave of her case Dec. 16th, 1893.

"About three months before my last child was born which is nearly nine years ago now, I could not move a foot either in bed or out, and continued so for about eleven months after he was born.

"The trouble started with a dreadful pain in my hip, so that I could not be moved without screaming, and to raise me up hurt me so much I could not stand it.

"My spine was affected in three places, which made me so that I could do nothing for myself, not even lift my little babe out of the cradle to save him, and from my long confinement in bed my back was one solid sore from my shoulder down. I was living in Brown City, Mich., at the time, and the doctors there told me I might live for five or six years, but I would never walk again.

"My father then came over for me and brought me home, and I can recollect so distinctly how every jar of the train seemed like killing me.

"After being in Widder for a while a gentleman who was travelling for Burdock Blood Bitters called to see me and said he believed that remedy would cure me. He seemed to understand my case so well that it encouraged me to try B.B.B. I do not know ho wmany bottles I took in all, it was quite a number, but every bottle brought me nearer health and strength, so I continued to use it until I was perfectly well.

"About two years after this my husband died, and I was left with six children to support, the eldest of whom was only 15 years of age.

"I had to work hard to keep myself and family, yet so complete had my cure been, that I never felt any indication of the old trouble returning.

"I firmly believe that I owe my recovery, under God, to B.B.B., as nothing else could have saved me.

The following letter recently received shows how complete and permanent the cure made 15 years ago has been:

Mrs. Underhay writes: "I am keeping the Post Office and grocery store here at Widder, and with the exception of a fall I had recently, which hurt my knee, I have been the picture of health ever since I was cured, 15 years ago, by Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I thank God for that medicine, for I don't believe I would have been alive to-day only for B.B.B.

"Everybody who knew me when I was sick, even the doctor himself, thought it a miracle to see me walk again, as no one ever expected me to be able to get out of bed, and looked for me to die like many another who has been afflicted as I was.

"If anybody wants to write and ask me any questions about my case I will only be too glad to answer them."

Can anyone read the foregoing account of Mrs. Underhay's transformation from a helpless, bed-ridden invalid, to a strong, healthy, active woman, through the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, without being convinced of the wonderful power this medicine has over diseases of the severest nature?

Can any one with ailments such as constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick headache, boils, pimples, rashes, eczema, sores, ulcers, tumours, scrofula or any disease of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or blood, afford to fritter away money on any other remedy than B.B.B.

No other can cure so promptly, and no other in the world has so many "permanent cures" to its credit as B. B.B.

Notes.

Frank Bolan has returned home and is expected to show up on the lacrosse field on Monday night.

There were a score or so of players out last evening who had a warm "workout," the home players lining up against the defence men. Amongst those participating were Jimmy and Jack McCabe, Hughes, Glover, Myles McDonough, Lipsett, Crossley, Brown, Reynolds, Jack Mein, McClelland, Overend, Whitcroft, McGrath, Reilly, Mekes, Dineen, Ayers, Dillon, and Comstock.

On Monday evening every player who intends being in the game should be out in uniform as sides will be chosen and play begin at 6.30 sharp.

After practice the boys should get into the habit of running a mile or so in order to get their breathing apparatus in good shape.

Last year's juniors have developed marvellously and many of them will have chances of playing on the senior team, during the season in exhibition matches.

Crossley turned out for the first time this season, last night. He is catching and passing well. Brown also made his first appearance, but by his play it is evident that it will not take long for him to get into shape.

The senior defence should be very strong this season. Glover, Mein and McDonough are already showing up even better than last year.

Jimmy McCabe is going to play on the home this year, instead of the defence. His fearless style of play is just what the local home needs. With his brother Jack and Lionel King some fast work should be done.

The knowing ones pick Hollingshead and Reynolds for the respective positions of outside and inside home for the match on the 24th.

Geordie Lipsett ought to make a good man to cover centre field. He is doing fast work already.

No seniors are to play in the junior matches this year. The second team will be allowed all the scope possible, as this is the only way to encourage new men to enter the game.

Overend has filled out during the winter and when he gets accustomed to using his body more in the scrimmages, he should make a lively candidate for senior honours.

It is within the range of the possibilities that Howard Hughes will spend a few months in town. If he shows his old form he ought to have no trouble in catching a place with the seniors.

Dillon is doing great work and will undoubtedly make a great defence man this season.

The two games on the 24th will partake largely of the nature of an experiment. These are the first games of the season and it will be difficult to pick the best men for the senior team at the outset, but a few games will tell the tale.

Markham has secured a new goalkeeper. Glover is not playing this year and will be greatly missed at point. Pennock, of Stouffville, has been added to the team.

BASE BALL.

The base ball season will be formally opened in Peterborough on the morning of May 24th, when the local wielders of the wagon tongue will try conclusions with the Delawares, of Toronto. It is now some three years since Peterborough had a base ball team of any standing, and the revival of interest in the game will of course be hailed with much delight among its many admirers in town. What sort of material will compose the team for the coming season it is hard to say, owing to the fact that there can be no judging by the previous year's record, or the year before for that matter, as is usually the case in sizing up a team of any kind at the beginning of the season. But even from the game the bankers indulged in on Thursday afternoon it is evident that there is material in town for a good team, or for several teams for that matter, and it is not unlikely that some dark horses will appear a little later on.

The encouragement the local management has received in regard to applications for membership to the club, as well as promises of support from many responsible citizens, must indeed be most gratifying. Among the many who will figure on the team this season will be Chris. Graham, "Paxy" Paxman, Dan McCabe, Parnell, Sheridan, D'Russia, Conners Miles McDonough, Bob Hay, Johnson and C. Dumble. Among others whom the management would like to see get down to work are Sam Read, A. J. McClelland, Hollingshead and Garney Bell. Dr. Neil has promised to step onto the diamond once more, and that old veteran, Sam Ray, may also be taken from the retired list. Lionel King, too, would strengthen the aggregation. Of course at so early a date it would be utter nonsense to place the men, but those who will do the work in the box will be that old war horse Dan McCabe, Conners and Parnell. Every one knows the former's ability at tossing the leather, while the other two are looked forward to with much interest. Graham and D'Russia will likely wear the mask, while Parnell is also reported to be also handy behind the bat. Johnson will hold down third base in all probability, and Sheridan has been spoken of for third. Connors has proven to be a good man at short stop in addition to being able to pitch. Among the rest of the players will be found very capable men for the various positions, and not a weak spot in the whole outfit will be found when they get down to work.

Read is the once famous Princess street nine first baseman of Kingston, and while he has retired for some few years, a big effort will be made to have him get down to the game once more. He indulged in a little practice just before the bankers' match on Thursday afternoon, and one could easily see that he had not forgotten his old time quickness. Hollingshead, who did the twirling for the Ontario Bank aggregation this week, would be a tower of strength on any team. He is a heavy hitter, a sure catch, and pitches a fairly good ball. McClellan appears to be quite handy at the game, and would soon develop into a "crack-a-jack" while Garney Bell, who did wonders at the bank match on Thursday, is looked upon as a coming man. He catches well, is a heavy hitter and a general all round good man.

With such men as these to pick from and with the determination to keep strictly within the bounds of amateurism, there will be no need of importing any players; but nevertheless Secretary Hay has received numerous inquiries from players throughout Ontario anxious to come to town. Among these is a catcher from Berlin, and Taylor, late of the Ramblers, the Royal Oaks and the Orioles, of Toronto. Taylor is reported to be a good shortstop, but the management is doing wise to bring in no outside players.

Many have been the challenges received by Secretary Hay from outside clubs, anxious to arrange games with the local team. Varsity wrote down stating that they would like very much to open the season here on the 24th of May, but other arrangements had been made by the local management which will prevent their coming. It is to be hoped that Varsity will visit Peterborough later on as they would be a big draw card. The Argyles of Toronto, champions of last year's city league, also wrote for a game with the local men for the 24th, but they could not all be accommodated. The grand old baseball town of Cobourg has resurrected the game there and ask for a match at an early date, which will be arranged a little later on. The St. Mary's of Toronto, the Night Owls and the Wellingtons of the same place, are after games as well as a team from Port Hope, so that the prospects for a red hot season of baseball is a sure thing.

While exhibition games are always interesting in baseball as in everything else, it cannot be denied that league games are slightly more so. Put a team in a league and it always arouses more or less interest and indeed considerable if they strike the winning gait.

With teams in Lindsay, Cobourg, Port Hope, Millbrook, and Peterborough an effort should have been made before this to form a league. It is possible to accomplish such a thing even at this late date and it would not only arouse interest in the game in Peterborough, but throughout this district. As far as Peterborough is concerned, they are willing to enter such a league any time, and do what they can to help along the game in this section of the province. Speak up Lindsay, Port Hope, Cobourg and Millbrook!

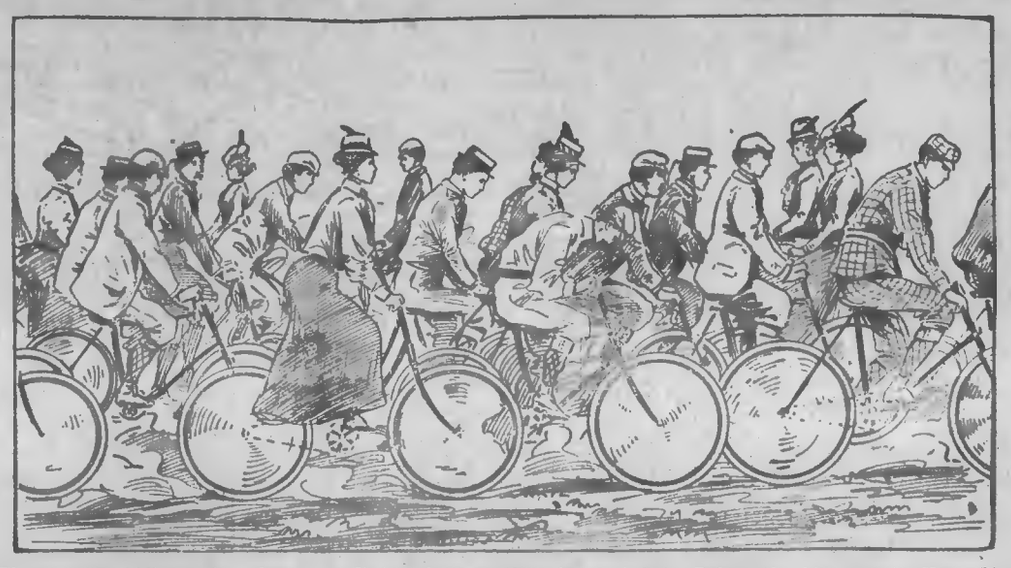
Bicyclists Must Be Strong and Healthy to Fully Enjoy the Pleasures of Wheeling.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Imparts Physical Strength and is a Perfect Restorer of Nervous Energy.

An Opinion from a World Champion.



The young, middle aged, and even those in advanced years are looking forward to a season of recreation and pleasure through the use of the bicycle.

Wheeling, under certain conditions is undoubtedly conducive to the health of both men and women.

People who are weak, broken in health and suffering from impaired nervous energy, only increase their troubles and aggravate their ailments when they use the bicycle. It is a well known fact that many suffering from nerve troubles, physical weakness, heart irregularities and nervous dyspepsia have hastened their end through wheeling.

If young and old desire to wheel for health and enjoyment they must be strong and vigorous before the exercise is indulged in.

The use of Paine's Celery Compound for a few days will quickly brace and tone the nervous system and give all needed strength to the weak body. The blood will be made pure, circulation perfect, the brain clear, the eyes bright and the spirits buoyant. After these blessings are acquired, wheeling is a pleasure and benefit.

It is also worthy of note that Paine's Celery Compound is the great recuperator and restorer of strength in cases where long distance riders have exhausted their energies and strength by hard and fast riding.

From amongst the thousands of amateur and professional bicyclists who have obtained health, strength, and vigour from the use of Paine's Celery Compound, we are permitted to use the letter of Champion C. W. Miller, who astonished the world by his wonderful six days' ride.

Mr. Miller says: "I won the six days' bicycle race in Madison Square Garden. I covered 2007 miles and beat my next competitor 22 miles.

"Two weeks from the date of that exhaustive struggle I would not have known that it happened. I was in as good condition as any man could possibly be.

"I owe to Paine's Celery Compound a debt of personal gratitude. For several years I have occasionally used this splendid spring remedy when I was out of sorts or run down.

"I have been a professional bicyclist for about three years; before that I was in the grocery business. Before the big race in New York, feeling that I ought to be in the best possible condition, because a nervous break-down on the track is one thing that all well-trained men are afraid of—I began to use Paine's Celery Compound. It was a part of my successful training.

"But what I feel I ought to tell you is this; that after the race, when I had used up every bit of energy that I could and was as far broken down as a man would naturally be after such a tax upon his energies. I felt the need of something to tone up my system, to restore my nerves, which were somewhat shaken, to give me an appetite which I had lost, and I fell back upon Paine's Celery Compound. I assure you that it did me so much good that I am very glad indeed to send you this letter.

"Trusting that riders who are not put to such severe tests as I, and perhaps couldn't stand such severe tests, may have the benefit of my experience, and use what I consider a perfect restorer of impaired nervous energy, I am, Yours truly,

C. W. MILLER,
Champion Long Distance Rider of the World.

To Err Is Human."

People like to talk about attractive things in advertising. In a company recently the proverb above quoted, and which appeared at the head of one of a well constructed series of advertisements of Hood's Sarsaparilla, was so much discussed that we doubt if anyone there will ever forget the source whence it came. Messrs. Hood & Co. are using these proverb advertisements on a very broad scale, and they are attracting discussion and favourable comment everywhere.

That are Odious to Bargain Day Stores.

THE LIBERAL SPLIT.

Harcourt's Bitter Personal Attack on Lord Salisbury.

WHAT THE EX-PREMIER MEANT.

It Is Asserted That Lord Rosebery Did Not Mean to Drop Home Rule—The Liberal Papers Take Up the Cudgels Against Sir William Vernon Harcourt—Cable News.

London, May 15.—Lord Rosebery's speech before the London Liberal Club on May 5, in the course of which he expressed a wish for the revival of the old Liberal spirit, has proved an oratorical apple of discord of the first order. It has elicited a virulent reply from Sir William Vernon Harcourt in a speech before the Devonshire Club, which has been the political sensation of the week. Sir William's speech bore witness to the bitterness of the duel for the leadership of the Liberal party between himself and Lord Rosebery and to the pent-up personal feeling of the speaker against Lord Rosebery, who was responsible for his temporary effacement. In the course of Sir William Vernon Harcourt's speech, he declared that Lord Rosebery's words were tantamount to the advice, "take a sponge and wipe out the glorious inheritance which Mr. Gladstone left the party before his ashes are cold." The Liberals have taken up the cudgels in behalf of Lord Rosebery and talk to Harcourt very straight. The Speaker calls his interpretation of Lord Rosebery's words "a most absurd and malicious falsification of his meaning, and the worst example in recent years of downright misrepresentation." The British Weekly says: "Harcourt's attack was grossly unjust and slanderous, and only to be accounted for by a rancor of hatred amounting almost to madness."

Other mouthpieces of the Liberal party insist that Lord Rosebery, in urging a return to the Liberalism of 1886, did not mean a change of program, but a return to the party discipline and cohesion that existed in the halcyon days of Liberalism.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt yesterday announced that he will speak to his constituents on May 24. His utterances are awaited with the keenest interest, and another speech in his best fighting style is expected. Meanwhile the Conservative press interprets Rosebery as Harcourt does, and in some quarters the opinion is expressed that Rosebery's utterances are nothing less than a direct bid for Mr. Joseph Chamberlain and a prelude to Rosebery identifying himself with the Liberal-Unionists.

The Sun says that Lord Rosebery's abandonment and his explicit acceptance of the Liberal-Unionist program might, in the event of a Conservative victory at the next elections, possibly be marked by the offer and his acceptance of Cabinet rank.

MEASURES AGAINST JEWS.

The Russian Government Orders Them Out of St. Petersburg.

London, May 15.—The Russian Government has decided upon exceptional measures against the Jews, doubtless owing to the intense feeling against them prevailing in many parts of Russia at the present time.

The first anti-Jewish measure was promulgated on Saturday, under which the stay of all—even foreign—Jews is prohibited in St. Petersburg. No exemption will be made, even in the case of French Jews. There have been serious outbreaks against the Jews at Nicolaieff in connection with the Easter festivities of the Greek Church. The Jews there number 32,000, out of a total population of 100,000. The rioters, who were mostly laborers, numbered 5,000. They wrecked hundreds of Jewish houses and shops, desecrated Jewish graves and killed and injured a large number. About 400 of the rioters were arrested after several furious conflicts with Cossacks, several of whom, it is reported, were stoned or beaten to death with heavily-weighted slings, with which the rioters attacked the police.

THE DEADLY RESULT.

Twenty-Eight Killed and 50 Injured in the Pennsylvania & Reading Railway Accident.

Reading, May 15.—Twenty-eight dead and 50 injured, some so badly that they may not recover, is the awful result of the terrible rear-end collision on the Philadelphia & Reading Road late on Friday night.

The cause of the disaster is still involved in mystery, and officials of the road are investigating, in order to place the blame. The man at the signal tower at Exeter Station claims to have had the signals properly displayed. In a statement yesterday, General Superintendent Sweigard of the Reading Railway said the prime cause of the accident was a block of freight cars on the track, which were taking a siding at Birdsboro, and which compelled the express to stop at Exeter. It is not known as yet whether a signalman was sent back to notify the special or second section.

A strange feature of the disaster was the fact that not one woman was killed, and only one was injured. Norristown is in mourning, as the greatest number of dead and injured were residents of that place.

A FATAL FAMILY QUARREL.

Frederick Wood Shoots His Wife and Then Kills Himself.

Greenwood, Ont., May 15.—A shocking tragedy occurred here about 7 o'clock on Saturday morning. Frederick Wood, his wife and family quarrelled last spring, and, as a result, he was locked up in Whitby jail for three months. Since his release he has been wandering from place to place, the family refusing to admit him to their home. He slept in the barn on Friday night, and entered the house as soon as the family had gone to work, his wife and daughter being the only ones present. He gave his watch to his daughter, then ordered her out. He then shot his wife, one bullet taking effect in the abdomen and one in the back. Thinking he had killed her, he placed the revolver to his mouth and fired, killing himself instantly. He leaves a grown-up and very respectable family. Mrs. Wood died at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning.

HE CLAIMS THE ROYAL CITY.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 15.—Samuel A. Connor, a barber, living at Braeburn, will enter suit in the Hamilton (Ontario) Division Court next month and lay claim to nearly all the site of Guelph, a town of 15,000 inhabitants. Connor's brother, William, will join in the suit.

Their grandfather, John Connor, was an early settler in Canada, and a British soldier during the war of 1812. For service rendered the Government 800 acres of land were allowed him. At the time of his death, more than 50 years ago, none of these tracts were valuable, and his son, John, jr., who left home at an early age, did not return when his father died, and was thought dead. The land was thought to be without owners, and squatters settled upon it. It is now occupied largely by the city of Guelph. It is the sons of John who have undertaken to recover the estate.

The Prince Going to Dublin.

Dublin, May 15.—The Prince of Wales has accepted the invitation of the Earl of Cadogan, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, to visit this city during the progess of the Horse Show in August next. The Princess of Wales will accompany His Royal Highness, and their visit will last about a week.

Filipinos Attacked Spaniards.

Madrid, May 15.—An official despatch from Manila says the insurgents attacked the Spaniards at Zamboanga, on the Island of Mindanao, but were repulsed. Two Spanish officers and three men were wounded and one man was killed. The insurgents cut the water supply at Zamboanga.

A Noiseless, Smokeless Gun.

London, May 15.—The Daily Mail yesterday morning says the Admiralty has offered £75,000 for an electric gun invented by the son of a Portland grocer. The gun throws an explosive shot a distance of 5¼ miles with a velocity of two seconds. It is noiseless and smokeless.

NINE LIVES LOST.

Coal Schooner Foundered in Lake Superior—Only the Captain Saved.

Sault Ste. Marie, May 15.—The schooner Nelson, deeply laden with a cargo of coal, foundered in Lake Superior, off Grand Maris, on Saturday night. So far as known here no one escaped except the captain.

The crew consisted of the following: Captain Andrew Haghney of Toledo, the captain's wife and 2-year-old child, Fred. Haas, sailor, residence unknown; six sailors, names unknown.

KRUGER AND MILNER.

The Volksraad Assents to a Conference Between Them.

MAY COERCE THE TRANSVAAL.

Lord Salisbury Said to Be Sounding France and Germany—Oom Paul Preparing for Emergencies—Burghers Warned to Be Ready to Take the Field at a Moment's Notice.

Pretoria, Transvaal Republic, May 15.—The Volksraad has given its approval to the meeting of President Kruger and Sir Alfred Milner, Governor of Cape Colony and high commissioner of South Africa, on neutral ground, at Bloemfontein. The points of decision are now being decided, and the general opinion is that the meeting will clear the air of most of the existing troubles.

Sounding France and Germany.

Paris, May 15.—The Eclair learns that Lord Salisbury is sounding France and Germany with a view to ascertaining if they would abstain from intervention if England found it necessary to take active measures against the Transvaal. The Eclair believes that France will give the required guarantee and that the Kaiser will also promise neutrality.

Kruger's Warlike Preparations.

Johannesburg, Transvaal, May 15.—The work of fortifying the redoubts and the hilltops at points of strategic importance is progressing rapidly.

BE READY TO TAKE THE FIELD.

Transvaal Burghers Have Received Such Instructions From Commanders.

London, May 15.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail says:

"At a meeting of the commandants on the western border of the Transvaal yesterday (Saturday), instructions were issued to the Burghers to prepare to take the field at a moment's notice from Pretoria.

"The negotiations are still pending for the proposed meeting between President Kruger and Sir Alfred Milner (Governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner for South Africa). Mr. Chamberlain, British Colonial Secretary, it is said, will not assent to the conference unless the Transvaal Executive pledges himself to initiate bona fide reforms."

MARCHAND TO BE LIONIZED.

His Expedition Achieved a Great Feat in Cross-Country Travel.

Paris, May 15.—Patriotic Frenchmen are preparing to give Major Marchand a reception such as even Napoleon never received on returning from Egypt. He will arrive when France is at fever-heat over the Dreyfus case, and there are strong indications that the military party is anxious to use the commandant as a pawn in their political game.

The expedition is reported healthy. It is a remarkable performance, since the French flag was hauled down at Fashoda, on Dec. 11, to cross the Abyssinian tableland eastward to the coast. In the earlier stages the expedition was aboard the gunboat Faidherbe and other small boats. It was an enormous task to drag them over the sandbanks and the rapids of the Haro, an affluent of Sobat, which flows into the Nile near Fashoda. Leaving the river, the heavy material had to be transported by mules. The mission reached Addisaba on March 31, and rested there. It is expected at Jibutil on May 17, where Governor Martineau has made great preparations to welcome Major Marchand. The cruiser D'Assas has been at Jibutil since April 16, and will convey Major Marchand to France.

RUSSIA'S DEMAND REFUSED.

Chinese Government Declines to Grant the New Railway Concession.

Shanghai, May 15.—The Tsung Li Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office) has replied to the Russian Minister at Pekin, M. de Giers, that the Government is unable to accede to the Russian demand, made last Wednesday, for a new railway concession, connecting Pekin with Russia's present system in Manchuria. Not since the taking of Port Arthur by Russia have the Chinese been so agitated as over this demand. The concession asked for would ruin the existing northern railways, in which British capital to the amount of £3,000,000 is involved; but there seems to be no alternative route without interfering with plans for railway extension which the Chinese have in mind.

SAYS HE CURED CONSUMPTION.

Italian Scientist Claims to Have Invented a Gas That Will Do It.

Rome, May 15.—Prof. Cervello, at the Palermo Hospital, has invented what he claims is a cure for consumption. The principal feature of the cure is the inhalation of gas produced by a powerful antiseptic called formalina. Cervello says he has tried the method on 20 consumptives in the third stage of the disease in the Palermo Hospital. Two died from debility before the cure could operate; 13 recovered within a month, and five are fast recovering their health. A factory for the manufacture of formalina is being erected. Treatment is expected to cost $10 a day. Prof. Cervello will shortly go to Berlin to lay his discovery before the Berlin Congress on Tuberculosis.

PORT BURWELL BURNED.

Business Portion of the Village Has Been Destroyed by Fire.

Tilsonburg, Ont., May 15.—The business part of Port Burwell was entirely destroyed by fire on Friday night with the exception of Mr. Emery's store. The fire was first discovered in the rear of D. Zant's store about 10 o'clock. The fire took everything before it on both sides of Main street for two blocks—the post-office, telephone office, drug store, G.N.W. telegraph office, hardware store, general stores, two hotels and several other buildings. Loss about $50,000; probable insurance, $25,000. Altogether there were 27 buildings destroyed.

"Honesty is the Best Policy."

Never was a more pointed saying put into print, and yet to be honest only because it is policy is a poor kind of honesty. Better change "policy" to "principle" and the world will like you better. In the medical world there is one medicine honest for principle's sake—and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It is the specific of the age for all blood troubles. The liver, kidneys and bowels are all toned up by its action as a cleanser and thus good health ensues. It never disappoints.

Rheumatism—"I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal for rheumatism. It has done me more good than any other medicine I have taken." MRS. PATRICK KENNEY, Brampton, Ont.

Bad Cough—"After my long illness, I was very weak and had a bad cough. I could not eat or sleep. Different remedies did not help me but Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up and I am now able to attend to my work." MINNIE JAQUES, Oshawa, Ont.

Biliousness—"I have been troubled with headache and biliousness and was much run down. Tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it gave me relief and built me up." A. MORRISON, 89 Defoe Street, Toronto, Ont.

Heart Trouble—"I had heart trouble for a number of years and different medicines failed to benefit me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and three bottles completely and perfectly cured me." MRS. C. A. FLINN, Wallace Bridge, N. S.

A Safeguard—"As I had lost five children with diphtheria I gave my remaining two children Hood's Sarsaparilla as they were subject to throat trouble and were not very strong. They are now healthier and stronger and have not since had a cold." MRS. W. H. FLECKER, Pembroke, Ont.

Varicose Veins—"I have been a great sufferer from varicose veins, which swelled my foot and limb, discharging watery matter. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and the sores healed." MRS. A. E. GILSON, Hartland, Vt.

CHANGED POLITICAL ALLEGIANCE.

Hon. John Costigan has decided to leave the Conservative party. His statement as given for publication, is given as follows:

"You may say that I have entirely severed my connection with the Conservative party as it stands to-day.

"You may go further, and you may state that I do not consider the leaders of that party represent the party or the ideas that I have always supported. Indeed, I may say that in my opinion they are the men who wrecked the Conservative party. Their tactics and their principles are entirely at variance with my own, and for that reason I have voted against them.

"As to the tariff I am convinced that the changes made by the Liberals are more satisfactory to the business people and the country generally than the changes read in the last Foster tariff. I am prepared to support the Liberal Government in its policy so far as it agrees with my own views.

"Measures may come up where I shall be compelled to differ from them, but I need not anticipate these.

"The Liberals have the confidence of the country. I have already voted for their measures, and shall do so excepting in such cases as I have mentioned."

Those are very good reasons the Hamilton Times thinks for a change of political allegiance, and it is quite probable that similar ideas are influencing other Conservatives in a direction. Sir Charles Tupper's egotism and Hon. John Foster's pettifogging are not calculated to strengthen any party. No wonder Mr. Costigan and other men of independent minds refuse to follow such leaders. After the next general election, there will be no Tories left in Canada except a few old soreheads.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The story that the Caledonian Railway Company of Scotland had ordered 30,000 tons of steel rails from the United States is denied. The Company says it has ordered 1,000 tons, to b eused for experimental purposes.

The shareholders of the Bank of Montreal are in luck. In the past year they have received $1,200,000 in dividends, and the selling value of their stock has been increased by $1,920,000. This sterlingly stable old banking company has become in Canada as solid as the Bank of England.

The Liberal goverament is a stickler for provincial rights, whether aforesaid rights are threatened by political friend or political foe. Just now it is making a most emphatic protest against the proposed legislation of the Dominion government relating to friendly societies, which it regards as being a direct interference with its prerogatives. The choice lies, the Brantford Expositor thinks, too, if precedent counts for anything, that it will be successful in the protest.

MR. TARTE'S PLANS

Prospective if positive the people of Canada will be pained to learn of Hon. J. I. Tarte's serious illness. For weeks he has been in a condition that would have prevented men of ordinary energy from transacting business of any kind whatever. But the Minister of Public Works, in spite of the orders of his physician, has had his subordinates come to his room, and bolstered up in a bed day after day, he has dictated correspondence, and given orders concerning the work of his department, which is very heavy. It is no wonder under these circumstances that instead of recovering he gradually grew worse, until now he has been ordered to cease work entirely, undergo an operation and spend some months abroad. All will unite in wishing the indefatigable minister speedy recovery.

HON. WILLIAM HARTY ENDORSED.

The Catholic Liberals of Kingston Satisfied with their Member's Course in the Legislature.

Kingston, May 13.—A large meeting of Catholic Liberals was held in this city last night for the purpose of discussing the forthcoming Catholic Liberal convention to be held in Toronto on the 23rd inst. Objection was taken to the paragraph in the circular sent out by the promoters of the convention, which referred to better Catholic representation in the Ontario Cabinet and Federal Parliament. A strong resolution was moved and carried endorsing Hon. Wm. Harty as Commissioner of Public Works, pledging him the heartiest support of the Catholics of Kingston, pronouncing the convention uncalled for, and only gotten up by a few Toronto gentlemen. The meeting refused to appoint delegates to attend the Toronto gathering. A second resolution was also carried, expressing entire confidence in the Hon. Wm. Harty's work and actions since he became Commissioner of Public Works, and eulogising him as Kingston's representative in the Legislature and endorsing the Hardy and Laurier administrations.

THE NICKEL CONTROVERSY.

New Caledonia Can't Compete with Canada's Supply, Either in Quality or Quantity - Canada not to be Bulldozed by the Copper Company.

Mr. S. J. Ritchie has a five-column letter in the Globe in reply to Mr. R. G. Leckie's recent letter in the same paper on the nickel question, in which Mr. Leckie is branded as the paid agent of the Canadian Copper Company, accused of stool-pigeon methods and told that his name ought to be Lackey, not Leckie. According to Mr. Ritchie's calculation, the nickel matte from Sudbury is so much richer, both in nickel and in copper, than the matte from the Caledonia, that there would be a loss in importing the latter to New Jersey to be refined. He says that "refining would be cheaper in Canada that it is in New Jersey for the same reason that it is cheaper to produce matte in Canada that it would be to produce it in New Jersey," and makes the following statement with regard to the recent reported consignment from New Caledonia:

No doubt the Copper Company foots every dollar of the expense of importing this 3,000 tons of ore from New Caledonia, and of the 5,000 additional tons for the sake of deceiving, brow-beating, and practicing a fraud upon the Canadian Government and the Canadian people. They could well afford to be at the expense of importing and paying for 8,000 tons of New Caledonia ore if it were not worth one cent to them when it was imported for the sake of preventing the Government imposing an ex[illegible] duty and thus continuing the sec[illegible] contract which for years has ex[illegible]ed between the officials of the C[illegible]per Company and the Orford Re[illegible]ing Company, a contract which [illegible]nder all circumstances they [illegible]ve refused to show or to produ[illegible] in any court. The officials of the Copper Company do not calculate upon these schemes, humbugs and frauds being shown up and exposed. Their only hope is that the Government and people of Canada will be frightened by the importation of New Caledonia or into New York to take the place of Canadian nickel.

WOOL AND CROP PROSPECTS.

The Outlook not at all Reassuring to the Trade.

The Toronto Globe in referring to the wool and crop prospects says: As is usual in the early part of May, when preparations are being made for the coming of the new wool clip on the market, great interest is taken in the prospects presented for this important industry. The outlook is anything but reassuring. To begin with, it is estimated that 75 per cent. of the clip of last year is still held in the province. A good deal of this wool was purchased from 16 to 18c, and the highest price bid for it to-day in this market is 13c. Not only is the bulk of last year's clip still held in Ontario by parties who a year ago expected to be able to sell it at a profit soon after it was purchased, but a Canadian exporter has at an American point a large lot of the 1897 clip, which he was able to get across the line before the Dingley duty took effect, and for which, notwithstanding the fact that it has the advantage of not having to carry the 12 per cent. duty which the 1898 clip would have to pay, there is practically no market in the United States, and it remains to-day unsold. The position of the Canadian clip for the present season is this: The greater part of the last clip is unsold; native wools in the United States, with which Canada fleece can be compared are to-day lower than the importation price of foreign wools with which they may be ranked in the American markets, and the effect of the Dingley Act on American native growths has, as a result, been very disappointing to ranch men, who expected that it would result in a sharp rise in values. The best price that can be obtained in the United States for Canada fleece now is 27c. The duty is 12c, the freight charges 0.55 of a dollar, the consular charges 0.25 and the commission for selling on the otherside of the line 1 1-2 cents per pound, which makes a total of 14.30 per pound for charges after the wool is purchased here. This would leave for the purchaser of the wool in Canada, reckoning on a sale at 27c in the United States 12 3-4 cents per pound, and that price leaves no margin of profit for the exporter. This is the situation at present as it is figured out by local exporters. So much for washed fleece. The position of unwashed is even more unpromising. Within the past few weeks a Toronto dealer has sold some unwashed at 18c in Boston, which, after paying the duty and freight and other charges, makes the value of the unwashed wool in this market exactly 6 1-2c per pound, and yet purchases have lately been made here of unwashed at 8 to 9c.

The official report of the crops in Ontario, while certainly not very promising, can scarcely be taken to represent the situation at present. The data on which the report was based was gathered a couple of weeks or more ago, and since that there has been a good deal of improvement in some localities. There has not been a great deal of rain this spring, but owing to the depth to which the frost went into the ground last winwinter and the fact that it has been longer than usual in coming to the surface, there has been more moisture than would otherwise have been the case. The farmers have been very busy replanting fields where the fall wheat was killed out, and the damage, when the cereal crops are taken as a whole, will not be as great as at first expected. In Manitoba there has been good progress made with the seeding, and another week week of fine weather should see seeding operations in many sections almost or entirely completed. It is expected that there will be a considerable increase in the wheat acreage in the Northwest this season.

DEPARTMENTAL STORE PROBLEM.

The Missouri Legislature has had the courage to tackle the departmental store question. It proposes to remedy this evil by imposing license fees ranging from $300 to $500, according to the number of departments in each store. Provided this legislation is held to be constitutional it may prove effective, but an everlasting amount of trouble will be experienced when the Missouri legislators undertake to define what constitutes a "department" or a "departmental" store.

BURGLARS GOT $11,000

The Standard Bank at Bowmanville Successfully Robbed.

NITRO-GLYCERINE WAS USED.

The Town Constable Was Secured and Gagged—A Vault and a Safe Were Wrecked to Secure Their Booty—Guards Posted to Shoot Any Who Interfered—$5,000 Reward Offered.

Bowmanville, May 15.—The Standard Bank, on the corner of King and Temperance streets, the business center of the town, was burglarized on Saturday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock, and all the money in the vault, excepting the coppers, was stolen, with a number of valuable papers.

Henry Metcalf, the nightwatchman employed by the Town Council to patrol the business streets, had just finished taking his lunch in the police office in the Town Hall block, only about 50 yards from the bank corner, when he heard footsteps on the sidewalk, and went to the door to see who was passing. As he stepped from the police office door to the street he was seized by two masked men, one on each side of him, and his arms raised from his sides to prevent his reaching his pocket for his revolver. He was pushed back into the office and the baton wrested from his hand by a blow from some instrument that inflicted a gash on the back of the head, now badly swollen. Metcalf was then blindfolded by a third party with an ordinary white linen handkerchief, and gagged by another similar handkerchief.

When his arms were first seized two other men stood, one on each side of him, with revolvers pointed to his head, and he was told that "if you open your peep we will shoot you." They took from his pocket a pair of handcuffs, and, placing his hands behind him, handcuffed him, and he was then marched by the two men towards the bank. Before he was gagged Metcalf said: "Boys, is this a game?" thinking it might be some local sports playing a trick on him. One promptly answered, "No, it's business; we are going through the bank." He was taken a few steps south of King street, beside the bank, and his legs tied with a piece of rope that apparently had been part of a clothes line.

One man stood by him as he sat on the sidewalk with Metcalf's revolver, which they had taken from him, in hand, while the others, at least five in number, proceeded to do the job. A large pane of glass was cut with a die from a west window and an entry secured to the manager's office. The front door was pried open. Very soon he heard an explosion, the men having run on to the street by the front door. They immediately returned to the building and in a few minutes there was another explosion. The burglars had now secured entrance to the inside vault, where they rifled the contents of several boxes, some belonging to the manager and others to customers who had placed them there for safe keeping. Before the third explosion, which blew open the massive safe, Metcalf was moved a few yards farther south so as to be away from danger should the walls be blown out. This explosion, like the others, was very successful, and it was the work of only a few minutes to secure the contents.

The amount of money stolen is over $11,000 belonging to the bank, and $90 to the Canada Life Insurance Company, for which Mr. W. J. Jones, the manager, is agent; $110 belonging to the Queen Fire Insurance Company, both of which were in a private pouch. Many valuable papers are also missing, receipts, drafts, etc.

When the burglars got through with the job, which lasted only about 30 minutes, two of them carried Metcalf into the bank, laid him on the matting on the floor, and left him there gagged and bound. He soon began shouting, but not till about 5 o'clock was he discovered by Frank J. Garrett. Chief Richard Jarvis was soon on the spot and removed the handcuffs, and Mr. Metcalf was once more at liberty.

The bank robbery has been discussed on all sides and many theories advanced. Some think the safe-crackers had an accomplice staying here for some time. Others think they have spent a night or two in the town in the guise of tramps. Certain it is that their movements show evidence of the familiarity with police regulations and how to carry their scheme to a successful issue with the least disturbance.

A J. & J. Taylor safe was ordered shipped and placed in the Standard Bank vaults on Saturday. When the new safe was being removed from the station the wagon was crushed by the weights, and William Rowe had one foot badly crushed.

Government Detective Rogers returned home to Toronto late Saturday, and confessed that he could not find the slightest clue to work on.

A reward of $2,500 will be paid for the recovery of the money, and $2,500 for the arrest and conviction of the thieves.

Badly Confused.

Lord Bramwell, says the biographer of that jurist, used to tell a story illustrating the complete paralysis which may affect the human mind at trying moments.

One day when he was on board a Rhine steamboat he noticed a lady, evidently in great distress, trying by signs to explain to the officials some matter of importance. Fancying that she was a countrywoman of his own, he asked

"Do you speak English?"

The poor lady had really lost her head, and she could only stammer out, "Un peu"—that is, a little.

Then Lord Bramwell continued the conversation in French, but it became evident that the lady understood scarcely a word. German and Italian gave equally bad results. Finally she muttered audibly to herself:

"How I wish I were safe at home!"

"But surely you do speak English!" exclaimed the baron.

"I can't speak anything else," she sobbed. "That's what makes me so helpless among these foreigners."

HAGUE HOTELS FULL.

The Russian Delegates to the Czar's Peace Convention Have Arrived—The Delegates Pledged to Secrecy.

The Hague, May 15.—Every available inch of space at the leading hotels here has been taken up by the delegates to the peace conference and their staffs. The conference promises to be a more strikingly remarkable gathering than it was first expected. Some of the delegates have already arrived.

The Russian Delegates.

Baron de Staal and the other Russian delegates to the international disarmament congress arrived here Saturday night, being the first of the official representatives to reach the city. About 120 delegates will be entitled to vote.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken to prevent unauthorized persons from gaining admission to the Huis Ten Bosche, where the sessions of the conference will be held.

Count Munster Will Open.

There is a general agreement among the diplomatic corps at The Hague that Count Munster will call the delegates to order and will nominate M. de Beaufort, the Dutch Minister of Foreign Affairs, as honorary president. Baron de Staal will then be elected chairman, and the Russian program will be produced.

This is the logical order of procedure, since the congress is the Czar's project, and the delegates of 26 nations have been brought together on Russia's initiative.

A Forecast.

London, May 15.—As the time approaches for the assembling of the Czar's disarmament conference the expectations of a practical outcome of any importance continue to diminish. A very simple but decisive fact justifies this view. The instructions which the delegates of all the great powers, with the exception of Russia, carry to The Hague, while, of course, secret in all details, embody a virtual prohibition against the acceptance of any radical proposal for changing the present international relationship. The policy of diplomatic machinery will remain unaltered, and the game of beggar our neighbor between European nations will probably not receive any serious check.

The general impression in diplomatic circles is that the practical work of the conference will be limited to a revision of the Geneva convention, and within these narrow limits most of the delegates will probably be glad to discuss proposals to further eliminate the unnecessary cruelties of war. Nothing whatever is now heard of the talk of a general disarmament.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. —The Wm. English Canoe Company have just finished two lovely canoes for the Governor General, Lord Minto and Lady Minto.

—The past winter has been unusually severe for strawberry plants, a large amount of them having been blighted and killed. Raspberry bushes in many places seem to have suffered a like fate.

—The Chief of Police would like an owner for a key which was found at the corner of George and Antrim streets at noon to-day. The key was made by the Millar Lock Company, of Philadelphia.

The Norwood Register says: "We aer told that a bailiff from Peterborough, and his assistant from Havelock, who went out to serve some papers on a farmer in Belmont the other day had to face a shot gun and a sledge hammer, but they got through all the same.

—Marks Bros. Company arrived on the noon train from Barrie, where they closed a two-week's engagement to packed houses, Saturday night. The play for to-night is "Only a Country Girl"; to-morrow night, "Myrtle Ferns," and Wednesday, which is positively the last night, "Rip Van Winkle" will be the bill.

—Those industrious citizens who have already had their gardens planted, have felt somewhat anxious the last few nights on account of the low temperature prevailing. And not without cause, for last night a sharp white frost prevailed, and the thermometer hovered within one-half a degree of freezing point. On low lying land the ground was frozen slightly.

—The C. P. R. Company have decided upon a most important change in construction, which may have far-reaching effects in the future maintenance of their system. They have ordered for immediate use 50 miles of 100-pound rails, to be laid on a portion of the line between Montreal and Ottawa, and on the main line from Montreal Junction southerly over the St. Lawrence bridge, —Last Friday evening some mischevious persons tied a tin can and a bunch of fire crackers to the subsequent appendage of a pet goat belonging to Mr. Wm. Campbell and started it up the front street, and it is said that the incident furnished a great deal of amusement for all, with the exception of the bailiff, who manifested an inclination to seize a telegraph pole.—Norwood Register.

—Ambidexterity is what they call it. Domestic science is no longer the latest subject introduced into the public school curriculum. Though not yet adopted by the Provincial schools it probably soon will be. It has become one of the subjects taught in several of the states in the American erican republic. Ambidexterity has much in its favour. Why should we not use our left hand as dexteriously and as readily as we do our right? It is only the habit of not doing so that causes it to be otherwise. If a child is taught to use both hands alike the ability to do so will prove a great blessing if, in after years, some accident deprives him of one of his arms or hands.

A COMING TREAT.

The 57th battalion band under the leadership of Prof. Gliddon, will give a grand concert in the market hall on Friday, the 19th inst., when an excellent programme will be rendered. A very unique selection will be the rendering of a descriptive piece called the "Night Alarm" by D. W. Reeves, the synopsis of which is as follows:

A calm and peaceful night—10 o'clock—lights out—all in bed—"choral"—the alarm—fire, fire, box 28—horses rush out, hitch up and off—the gallop to the fire—engines at work, etc.—fire out—recall—march home—chorus, Home Again.

The board of management has decided to ask a silver collection which will certainly not be out of place as their funds are low at present.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Mr John Stewart Badly Injured as Well as Other Occupants of the Carriage.

Yesterday morning when Mr. John Stewart, of Otonabee, was driving home from St. Paul's church, accompanied by his wife, and two friends, the pole of the carriage broke when some distance out of town, causing the horses to run away.

The occupants of the vehicle were thrown out and Mr. Stewart seriously injured, while Mrs. Stewart was considerable cut up, as well as the other passengers.

Dr. Boucher was sent for and attended to the victims of the accident. Mr. Stewart has not regained consciousness and it is feared his injuries may yet prove fatal. The carriage was almost completely destroyed.

NEW TOWN BRIDGES.

Two to be Constructed—Tenders Asked for Erection of Abutments.

Tenders have been asked for the erection of abutments for new town bridges which it is proposed to construct across the creek at Dalhousie and Sherbrooke streets.

As the Grand Trunk Railway was concerned in the erection of the bridge across the creek at Jackson Park, the matter of repairing it, is to be left over until such time as the old agreement can be searched and the conditions as to the terms of maintenance ascertained. The delay in repairing the latter, which has been closed for a year, occasions a great deal of trouble to those who have occasion to wish to use it.

POOR SEASON FOR FISH.

The Spawn of Many 'Lunge and Bass will be Lost.

The maskinonge and bass in the spring of the year make for the shallowest waters to deposit their spawn and the 'lunge have left their spawn, this season, in places which will be dried up when the water falls, thus destroying all chances of propagation. This therefore, will be a disastrous year for the propagation of the 'lunge. The bass are now going up to spawn and a lik efate will befal them, as the waters are still above high level mark. Those lakes with rockbound shores will of course suffer less than Chemong and others in that vicinity.

The Indians say that the water has dropped a foot and a half already and the froggers state that they have found vast quantities of spawn in pools where the young will unquestionably perish.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

Want Permits to Fish.

A number of American anglers have applied to the Ontario authorities for permission to fish in the waters under Provincial control. OBITUARY.

THE LATE MRS. J. J. LAMB.

The death of Mrs. J. J. Lamb, nee Miss Mary Frances Armstrong, which sad event took place at her late residence, Omemee, last week, has cast a gloom over the entire community.

Deceased has been unwell for a number of years, but was able to go about up to a short time before her death. She was born in Millbrook in the year 1855, and in 1872 was united in marriage to Mr. J. J. Lamb, and resided in Omemee since that time. To this union six children were born, three of whom survive her, viz: Sara, Harry and Jessie. Deceased was an active and faithful member of the Presbyterian church, a true Christian and she has gone to reap the reward of the just. She leaves a husband, three children, a mother and a sister to mourn her loss, all of whom have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement.

The funeral on Sunday to the Emily Cemetery was very largely attended, showing the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held by her many friends. The impressive funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Henderson.

THE LATE JOSEPH WINDREM.

Another of Emily's pioneers departed this life on Sunday, April 30th, in the person of Mr. Joseph Windrem, at the ripe old age of 82 years. Mr. Windrem was a native of Ireland, but moved to Canada and settled in the Township of Emily many years ago. Deceased was an enterprising and industrious farmer, and was highly respected by his large circle of friends. One sister, Mrs. Thos. Wilson, of Emily, seven sons, Messrs. George, of Orange Line, Emily; Samuel, John and Armstrong, of Tiny; Joseph, of Waverly; William Henry, of Cavan; Isaac, of Lindsay; and Louis, of Emily, and four daughters, Mrs. C. Allan, Toronto, Mrs. Fyke and the Misses Letitia Ann and Mabel, of Emily, are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving brother and father.

CHURCH UNITY.

A Circular Sent to the Members of the Canadian Society.

The following circular has been sent to all members of the Canadian Society of Christian Unity. It is hoped that many who are not members of that society will take advantage of its suggestion.

Peterborough, Ont., May, 1899.

Dear Sir,—Some years ago the then Archbishop of Canterbury published a suggestion that on the Festival of Whitsunday, sermons should be preached on the subject of Christian Unity. The suggestion was cheerfully adopted and acted upon by many ministers of various denominations in England.

A similar suggestion was made and adopted at a meeting of the members of the Canadian Society of Christian Unity, last Novmeber.

The Festival of Whitsunday, is kept by many Christians as a commemoration of the birthday of the Christian Church, about fifty days after Easter, when the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and Disciples and the work of the Church was commenced. (Acts II) It is in short the anniversary of the birthday of the Christian Church.

May I, therefore, on behalf of the Council of the C.S.C.U., ask you to try and make it convenient to preach on some aspect of Christian Unity on the coming Whitsunday, May 21st. The lesson of the day of Pentecost seems to be the reversal of the story of the Tower of Babel. Just as sin divides and separates man from man, so holiness unites men. The unifying work of the Church is symbolized in the gift of tongues. There can, therefore, be no day more suitable for sermons on Christian Unity than the day of Pentecost, or Whitsunday.

Believe me,
Your faithful brother in Christ,
HERBERT SYMONDS,
President of the C.S.C.U.

Cost nearly 25.

With shoes, broad-soled, with hob-nails filled,
He next his feet bedecks:
For them he gave up in exchange
A crisp, new green-backed X.

For sundries, like a code of rules,
White paint, a rubber tee,
And books to tell him how to play,
He dropped at least a V.

At last he started out one day,
And as he hit the fence—
"Gee!" someone heard the caddie say,
"He plays like 30 cnets."

LAWN TENNIS.

Th eannual re-organization meeting of the Peterborough Tennis Club will be held in the Y.M.C.A. to-morrow afternoon at 4.30 o'clock.

The scheme of forming lawn tennis districts in Ontario, the club in each group to play among themselves and the winners in each district to play off the semi-finals and finals in a central locality, is rapidly taking definite shape. The Western League, taking in all the cities and towns from London to Windsor, formed themselves into three groups early in the season. The following clubs, in addition, have been corresponded with:—Uxbridge, Lindsay, Peterborough, Millbrook, Port Perry, Oshawa, Whitby, Sunderland, Cannington, Newmarket, Aurora, Bradford, Port Hope, Cobourg, Napanee, Kingston, Belleville, Deseronto, Ottawa, Marmora, Goderich, Clinton, Brussells, Wingham, Blyth, Stratford, St. Mary's, Mitchell, Seaforth, Watford, Brantford, Berlin, Fergus, rampton, Georgetown, Guelph, Milton, Streetsville, Owen Sound, Collingwood, Meaford, Ingersoll, Woodstock, Cornell, Thamesvillle, Niagara, St. Catharines, Merriton, Grimsby, Hamilton, Orangevillle, Mount Forest, Barrie, and Orillia.

The clubs which have replied are almost a unit in strongly endorsing the scheme. If possible, a meeting to work out the details will be held this week. In the meantime clubs which have not already written to Mr. Summerhayes, at 28 Wellington street east, Toronto, are requested to do so without delay, with their suggestions as to grouping, number of players, etc.

THE WHEEL.

The Canadian General Electric club's roadrace will be held on Saturday afternoon next at half past two. The course will be from the corner of Smith and Water streets to Nassau and back, ending at the Nicholls Park. The entry list closes at 6 p.m. Thursday. The fee is 25 cents and may be handed in to any of the officers of the club. Entries will only be received from club members.

THE KENNEL.

A meeting of the Dog Show Committee will be held in the Examiner office on Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. As the business is of importance it is hoped every member will be in attendance.

MR. WILLIS, WOODSTOCK.

Escaped a Deadly Enemy by the Aid of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Woodstock, May 1.—(Special) This city is deeply agitated, with joyous excitement, because another popular resident, has escaped from the fatal grip of kidney disease, by the aid of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Everyone knows Mr. H. A. Willis, the genial proprietor of the "Buckingham" hotel. He tells his story, thus: "For two years past I have suffered intensely from Lame Back and Kidney Disease. Nothing I ever used helped me.

"My sufferings grew worse daily. I heard so much of Dodd's Kidney Pills that I decided to try them. I got relief from the first box. Three boxes cured me entirely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure.

Against Billiards.

At the last meeting of the Tweed council a strong deputation of the W. C. T. U interviewed the members asking that the billiard and pool rooms in that place be abolished. Rev, D. M. Martin and Mr. W. F. Campbell also addressed the council on the subject, with the result that without any discussion whatever it was moved that all by-laws relating to such licenses be repealed. The motion carried unanimously. In Hastings the council has raised the licenses of the table to $300 for the first, and $200 for each additional table owned.

EARLY CLOSING.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir—I notice in the columns of your paper of last week letters for and against a half holiday during the months of July and August.

I heartily endorse your kindness in publishing them, as there is no better means of getting the views of both merchant and employees. Unfortunately when a move such as this is on too few employees have courage to put forth their views and fail to stick together. Consequently such movements fall through. Now there is certainly room for an improvement or a move for better hours, say for a couple of months during the hot, quiet summer, and in no way conflict with or disorganize business, or yet close up the town to travellers or the public in general. "Employee's" suggestion I consider a good one, and fail to see why it should not meet with the views of every business firm in town. Business is all over by that hour. As regards the half day holiday, of late many of our merchants have spent considerable money in making Thursday a special day for business (I presume to relieve Saturday's rush); Wednesday is a market day, and farmers look to that day—that is to a certain extent. So I feel satisfied, and I think many will agree with my views, that the idea of an early closing movement would be more acceptable to both. It would no doubt have a tendency to encourage early shopping, and there is certainly room for vast improvement in that respect in Peterborough. The early closing movement should have the support of all reasonable merchants. Cities have adopted it and find it works well. As regards arranging holidays with employers according to circumstances, it is not a subject to take up space with. It is a well known fact that there will be some (so called good reason) to refuse, or at least say "wait." As a citizen, and non-interested as a merchant or an employee, I certainly can see room for improvement as regards to better hours, and I consider an early closing movement as a means both to encourage early shopping, which will be in the interest of the merchants and enable clerks to have an extra hour or two in the summer evenings to realize the fact that the world was made for their benefit and pleasure as well as those of a few merchants. Looking at this subject from a common sense point of view there is nothing to be lost by "Merchant" in the "early closing" movement as to disorganizing his business, or yet to the "Grocer" in closing the town to "travellers" and the public generally. To consider this matter from a religious point of view, I regret being able to say sufficient, and consider it a fit subject for some or all of our worthy clergy, who are more capable of speaking on the subject than I am. Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, etc.

SORELY STRICKEN SETTLERS

Ontario Government Grants $300 for Relief of Destitute Residents at Kennebec.

The Ontario Government has passed an Order in Council authorizing the expenditure of $300 in the purchase of seed grain and potatoes for the relief of certain settlers at Kennebec in the northern county of Frontenac. The order in council was passed after the fullest investigation being made by Mr. J. B. McWilliams, who was appointed to make a report upon the condition of the settlers in the district.

The families for whom the relief is intended number about 80, and they are in a most deplorable state of destitution. The district in which they are located is scarcely suitable for agriculture by reason of its rocky character, but for some years the settlers managed to make a living by selling timber in addition to tilling the soil. Now, however, the timber is all gone, and last July the frosts which may have caused considerable damage in other places, completely destroyed their scanty crops. To add to their other misfortunes sickness came upon the Kennebec settlers and great suffering was caused by epidemics of infectious diseases. The condition to which they have been reduced is pitiable in the extreme, and the facts having been brought to the notice of the Government it decided to afford relief of the nature indicated. The amount granted is small, but it is hoped that it will alleviate the distress of the sufferers. Such assistance is exceptional, but the circumstances were of a character that called for some action in the interests of humanity.

GUELPH CATHOLIC LIBERALS.

Refuse to Countenance Proposed Convention.

Guelph, May 15.—(Special to the Examiner)—Some 15 Catholic Liberals met Saturday night in the Knights of Labour Hall to consider the request sent out by the Executive Committee of the proposed convention in Toronto, asking South Wellington to send delegates to the convention. It is understood the session was rather a stormy one. The representatives who go from here will merely represent their own personal views, a feeling being manifest not to countenance the movement in any official way.

Quaint Sayings.

It is interesting and instructive to read bright and well constructed advertisements. Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, must have been at a great feast and taken everything home with them. They are using a bright selection of quaint old sayings and proverbs as the starters in a series of clever advertisements, wherein the proverbs are neatly turned and paraphrased to fit the subject matter. The public like this breezy advertising, as it reminds of other proverbs and opens up discussion.

The annual tea and sale of work by the Girls' Guild of All Saints, will be held on Thursday next. Splendid programme in the evening. Tickets 15c.

Early Accidents

Cause Lifelong Suffering.

A Case that is Causing Talk.

When a lad about eight years of age I fell into a cellar a distance of ten feet, striking on my head, and causing concussion of the brain. I was taken to a London, Eng., Hospital, the first seven days not recovering consciousness. I am now 35 years old and from the time of my accident until I began taking Dr. Ward's Pills five months ago I had been subject to fainting spells, never being more than two weeks without an attack of fainting. As I grew older these spells became more frequent, lasted longer, and left me with less vitality. I was weak, had no strength or stamina, always very low-spirited and down-hearted; imagined that every thing and every person was going against me, and life only had a dark side for me. My appetite was poor most of the time, but I am now happy to say that, since taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, I have only had one fainting spell, shortly after I began taking them, so I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Ward's Pills cured me. Before taking these pills I always looked for a fainting spell not more than two weeks apart; now, I would be greatly surprised at a recurrence of these spells. Life is now bright—the constant, morbid, down-hearted feeling is gone, being replaced by a contented, hopeful feeling. I feel like working. My appetite is good, and in every respect I have experienced the health and strength restoring properties of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. They certainly have proved a great blessing to me. Yours truly, (Signed), Thomas Stanton, Brighton, Ont.

SUCH CRUELTY SHOULD STOP.

Two Boy Deserters From British Navy Flogged Till the Blood Ran.

Halifax, N.S., May 13.—Two naval deserters from H.M. cruiser Comus were detected by military police boarding a steamer yesterday bound for New York, where they had intended joining the United States navy, being attracted by the larger salaries paid on United States ships. The deserters, who were 18 and 19 years old respectively, were handed over to the naval authorities.

The younger lad was sentenced to 12 lashes with a birch and the other to 24 lashes. The birch had been steeped for 24 hours and was in excellent order the when the boys were ordered on deck. The second stroke of the lash brought blood from the youngest, and notwithstanding that the boy suffered great pain he received the full sentence. The older boy also got his full complement, his back being covered with blood before the last stroke of the birch had been administered.

Those who witnessed the lashing say it was the most brutal affair that has ever been witnessed on a war vessel in Halifax.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

On his person was found a Dime Savings & Banking Co. book. No. 15,543, in favor of Bro. Charles Warner, and signed Charles Neill, financial secretary. About 40 years of age. FILIPINO CONGRESS.

Twenty of the Fifty-Six Members Favor Peace With the U.S.

TWENTY ARE IRRECONCILABLE.

The Other Sixteen Admit That Absolute Independence Is Unattainable, But Demand Better Terms From the United States—Particulars of the Complaints of the Nebraskan Volunteers.

London, May 13.—A special despatch received here yesterday from Manila says that the Filipino Congress, now sitting at San Isidro, is composed of 56 members, of whom 20 favor peace and an equal number are irreconcilables. The others, holding the balance of power, are ready to admit that absolute independence is hopeless of attainment, but demand better terms at the hands of the United States.

NEBRASKANS ARE TIRED.

They Petition Gen. MacArthur to Be Relieved From Duty.

Manila, May 8, via Hongkong, May 13.—The First Regiment Nebraska Volunteer Infantry is taking the unusual step of respectfully petitioning the division commander, Major-General MacArthur, to temporarily relieve them from duty at the front. The regiment is badly exhausted by the campaign, in which it has taken an active part, and not many more than 300 men of the organization are at present fit for duty. Sunday last 160 men of this regiment responded to sick call. It is added that many of the men have been unable to have their clothing washed for months past, having been compelled during all that time to sleep in their uniforms, to be in readiness for fighting. Since Feb. 2 the regiment has lost 225 men in killed and wounded, and 59 since the battle of Malolos. Officers of the regiment said to the correspondent of the Associated Press here yesterday that they thought that the men had been worked beyond endurance and should be given a rest, and some of the regular regiments, which are now guarding the city, sent to the front.

Five volunteer regiments and the Utah Battery of Artillery are at San Fernando. They muster in all about 2,500 men. Many of the soldiers are in hospitals suffering from heat or other cause. The wounded were all suffering acutely and showed the effects of exposure to the sun when they arrived. Three days' rest has already worked wonders.

Dewey Coming Home at Once.

Washington, May 13.—"Send Olympia's mail to B. F. Stevens, No. 4 Trafalgar square, London, England," was the notice given out at the Navy Department yesterday. This is the first formal indication that Admiral Dewey and the flagship Olympia are coming home immediately.

Upon inquiry, it was ascertained that Secretary Long had the evening before cabled Admiral Dewey permission to return at once to the United States. He has been relieved of the obligation of remaining at Manila until the Philippine commission completes its work. He is not even required to await the cessation of hostilities. It is estimated at the Navy Department that Dewey will reach the United States in time for a national demonstration on the 4th of July next.

Example is Better than Precept.

These sententious proverbs, or old saws, which are used as prefixes to all of the Hood Sarsaparilla advertising in thousands of papers throughout the country, are evidence of a new and original style of display advertising both pleasing and effective. The Hood firm is to be congratulated on so cleverly adapting such wisdom as has filtered down through centuries. Another charming thing about this Hood advertising is the unique type they are using.

SYRIANS WANT INDEPENDENCE.

25,000 of Them in the United States Willing to Fight Turkey.

New York, May 13.—"Syria was proclaimed a free and independent State yesterday by a revolutionary party, which, for three years, has been secretly at work throughout the world," says The Herald.

"Mimeograph copies of a call to arms were issued by the thousand from the headquarters of the secret council or junta not far from the Syria colony in Washington street, this city. This revolutionary party has on its rolls 25,000 men in this country alone, who are willing to fight to free Syria from the rule of the Sultan of Turkey.

"Young Syria, as the society is called, is the result of gradual growth. The success of the Cubans has inspired it to take a bold stand. The members say there will be a very 'sick man' in Europe before long, for they assert they will have the funds to equip armies and vessels of war."

Another Disastrous Tornado.

Eagle Pass, Texas, May 13.—A tornado struck the mining town of Hondo, in the Sabinas Valley, Mexico, Wednesday. Lawrence McKinney, son of the mine superintendent, was killed and ten were severely injured. A large boarding house, railroad station, store and buildings connected with the mines were almost entirely demolished.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

Mrs. Alfred Clarke, of Hitewan, Manor Co., Iowa, has been the mother of four children. Now she says:

"I am about to become a mother again, and I have been troubled with morning sickness and vomiting. I could not eat any breakfast; but two days ago I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' twice a day, a teaspoonful at a time, and I am pleased to say that I have not had a vomiting spell for two mornings."

The "Favorite Prescription" relieves morning sickness and the other discomforts of the period preceding motherhood by purifying the whole system and by strengthening and invigorating the special organs involved. Morning sickness is due to the efforts of nature to remove from the body every bit of impurity which might offset the health of the little one to come. The direct cause of the nausea is an irritation of the nerves of the feminine organism, which have a sympathetic connection with the nerves of the stomach.

The "Favorite Prescription" goes directly to the seat of the trouble, soothes the ruffled nerves and brings comfort at once. It is a safe medicine to take. It contains no alcohol, opium or other dangerous drug. It contains no sugar or syrup. It aids the digestion and is a general system tonic, while it acts directly and strongly on the one special set of organs.

THE HOUSE IN SUPPLY.

The Customs and Marine and Fisheries Estimates Considered in Committee—The $5. Minte.

Ottawa, May 13.—The attendance in the House yesterday was small, as most of the Ontario and Quebec members went home Thursday until Monday. The day was spent in considering estimates of the Customs and Fisheries Departments. Little progress was made, as the fisheries estimates were criticized in great detail, and it was far on in the morning when the House rose.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier laid on the table certain papers relating to the Pacific cable.

Mr. Casey suggested that the Pacific cable correspondence be printed at once, so that it may be forwarded by mail to Australia, which was agreed to.

Bills Introduced.

The following bills were introduced and read a first time:

To amend the criminal code in respect to animals; to prevent the docking of horses' tails, except by competent persons having proper appliances—Mr. Penny.

Respecting the Great Northern Railway Company—Mr. Savard.

Respecting the Red Deer Valley Railway and Canal Company—Mr. Frost.

To incorporate the Ottawa Suburban Railway Company—Mr. Morrison.

The Redistribution Bill.

Sir Charles Tupper asked when the redistribution bill would be brought down.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—I hope early next week.

In Committee of Supply.

The House then went into committee of supply, taking the customs items in civil government, which were passed after some criticism of items by Mr. Tayler, Dr. Sproule and others.

On the marine and fisheries vote, Sir Louis Davies explained that the new cruiser being built on the Clyde will cost $180,000 and will be called the "Minto."

After Recess.

The following private bills passed through committee of the whole were reported, read a third time and passed:

To incorporate the St. Clair and Erie Ship Canal Company—Mr. Tisdale.

To incorporate the Yale-Kootenay Telegraph Company—Mr. Bostock.

To confer on the commission of patents certain powers for the relief of George L. Williams—Mr. McCarthy.

Respecting the Bronsons and Western Lumber Company and to change the name to the Bronson Company—Mr. Belcourt.

Respecting the Niagara-Welland Power Company—Mr. Gibson.

Respecting the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company—Mr. Prefontaine.

Second Readings.

The following bills were read a second time and referred to committee:

Respecting the Hudson's Bay and Yukon Railway and Navigation Company—Mr. Oliver.

Respecting the Montreal Island Belt Line Railway Company—Mr. Lemieux.

To incorporate the Canada Mining and Metallurgical Company (Limited)—Mr. Haley.

To incorporate the Sudbury and Wahnapitae Railway Company—Mr. Dyment.

In Supply Again.

The House then again went into committee of supply, resuming the discussion of the items for supplies for Government steamers.

Mr. Ellis defended the prices paid for supplies in St. John.

Mr. Taylor moved that the vote of $145,000 for maintenance and of repairs to Government steamers be the same amount as last year, $118,000.

The debate was continued until a quarter to twelve, when Mr. Taylor's amendment was put and lost.

Sir Hibbert Tupper said he regretted that the Minister of Marine and Fisheries was not making any provision for continuing the tidal survey in the St. Lawrence, and referred to the action of the Underwriters' Association in connection with the loss of the Labrador and the Castilian.

St. Lawrence Navigation.

Sir Louis Davies said no practical navigator had ever told him that any better charts existed than those commenced by the Bayfield and continued by others. He assured the House that the Government was fully alive to the importance of the matter of insurance in the St. Lawrence, and declared that he could not understand the action of the underwriters. The Government was putting several new lights in the St. Lawrence, at the Traverse and other places, and trying by every means to improve the navigation of the St. Lawrence, and steps were being taken to impress on the English underwriters that they had been unjust in jumping at the conclusion that the St. Lawrence was not well lighted and buoyed.

The discussion was continued until 1 o'clock, when the vote for ocean and river service, which had been under consideration since 5 o'clock, was carried and the House adjourned.

HAS GRIPPE LEFT ITS MARK

ON YOUR CONSTITUTION?

Do you feel weak, nervous, listless—Lack strength and energy?

Take a few Boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills—They'll make you Strong and Well Again.

"Haven't felt right since I had the grippe," is an expression one hears on every hand just now.

This terrible scourge leaves in its train weak hearts, shattered nerves, impoverished blood, and a general run down, debilitated condition of the system.

Thousands of people throughout Canada are just now needing the timely assistance of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This remedy has a wonderful way of strengthening, invigorating, and building up the health after la grippe or any serious illness.

Mrs. Eliza Cook, who lives at 109 Palmerston Ave., Toronto, says:

"Seven years ago I had the grippe, followed by inflammation of the lungs. I have been afflicted ever since with heart trouble. To walk any way fast would make me gasp for breath, and many a time I have had to stop on the Street to regain my breath.

"I had smothering feeling at night, and my nerves were unstrung. Anything annoying or worrying me produced extreme weakness, and would set my heart beating so fast that I thought I was dying. I would become so nervous as to tremble like a leaf.

"I began taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills some time ago, and have been getting better ever since. My nerves are much stronger, I can walk without difficulty, and the palpitation, fluttering of the heart, shortness of breath, and nervousness troubles me no more.

"I gladly recommend these pills as the best medicine I know of for heart and nerve troubles, and the after effects of grippe on account of the great good they have done in my case."

A SLAP AT THE TRUSTS.

Boston Elevated Railway Saved Money by Buying in England.

Boston, Mass., May 15.—A consignment of 300 tons of steel guard rails has just arrived from London, to be used by the Boston Elevated Railroad in its construction work. The purchase was made last March.

Gen. Bancroft, vice-president and general manager, said that everything had been done by him to place the order with some firm in this country, but when he went into the market he found that the competition in these particular rails had been eliminated and that he would have to pay the price established by the trust producing them if he was to use American-made goods.

This price he considered exorbitant, and invited quotations from English makers. As a result, the contract was given to a London firm at a price considerably under that made by the domestic mills, and which admits of rails being landed here, duty paid, at a saving of 33 per cent. over the price insisted upon by the consolidated concerns.

WORSE THAN YELLOW FEVER

Kidney Disease, Man's Deadliest Foe —Dodd's Kidney Pills Its Only Cure.

Toronto, May 15. — "Yellow fever and smallpox combined do not kill as many people as Kidney Disease does," was the assertion of a prominent physician, recently.

The assertion is fully borne out by facts, and were it not that there is a means of checking and curing Kidney disease the number of its victims would be trebled.

But the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills keeps the death rate from this complaint quite low compared to its former height.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were used in every case of Kidney Disease there would be no deaths from it.

Two Men Lost Their Lives.

Trenton, Ont., May 15.—Four men named Elias Weeks, Edward Chase, John Fitzgerald and Gilbert Bonter were crossing in a sailboat from Weller's Bay, near Consecon, to Smoke's Point, near Brighton, yesterday morning, when the boat capsized, throwing the four men into the water. Fitzgerald and Bonter were both drowned. Weeks and Chase were clinging to the keel when found, but Weeks is still unconscious, and there are very little hopes as to his recovery. Chase is alive, but in a very exhausted condition. The accident took place about seven miles from Trenton.

PROVINCIAL RIGHTS.

A Protest From the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

FRIENDLY SOCIETIES BILL.

A Memorandum From the Ontario Authorities to the Federal Authorities at Ottawa Pointing Out to the Latter That the Province's Rights Have Been Encroached Upon.

Toronto, May 13.—His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, acting on the advice of the Attorney-General, has drawn the attention of the Secretary of State at Ottawa to the bill introduced into the Dominion House of Commons entitled an act respecting the incorporation of benevolent societies, a measure which appears, he says, to be open to serious objection on the following grounds:

(1) That the bill, without in any way changing the objects for which the societies are incorporated, proposes to change Provincial into Dominion corporations and to deprive the provinces of their control over societies wholly provincial in their origin and character.

(2) That the bill gives power to invest funds in securities not permitted in like cases by provincial laws.

(3) That in certain cases the bill provides that land held by such societies is to escheat to the Dominion, and it purports to deal with other property and rights therein, and affects civil rights within the power of the province only.

(4) That the bill contains provisions entirely opposed to the existing Ontario laws, particularly as to the limit of risks.

(5) That the subject of benevolent societies is properly a matter for provincial and not Dominion legislation.

Enclosed in the Lieutenant-Governor's communication was a memorandum by the Registrar of Friendly Societies, setting forth in detail the grounds of objection to the bill.

Friendly Societies Protest.

The legislative committee of the Canadian Fraternal Association has also presented a protest to the Ontario Government, through Hon. J. M. Gibson, and has asked that pressure be brought to bear to prevent any further action being taken on the Fielding bill at Ottawa at present.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

You know there is much more painting done now-a-days than of old, but did you know there is a far better way to do it? Painting is no exception to other things. The art has not stood still. You can still buy some white lead (are you a judge of it?) and some oil (are you a judge of that?) and find a neighborly painter and have some paint made; but as sure as you are alive there is a better way.

Are you awake to the fact that you can get a paint that is made for the particular work you want done, of the best materials combined in the best proportions, mixed in the best way; and that will do more than any other paint will do? If this is not true, then The Sherwin-Williams Paint factory with its tons of daily output and its thirty years of wonderful growth is a pure miracle. "Paint Points" will help you paint right. It's free.

LOCAL CHURCH CRIMES.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR ADDRESSES GIVEN.

Special Services in the Charlotte Street and Mark Street Churches —Notes of Other Services.

At St. Paul's church, yesterday morning the choir sang very effectively the anthem, "Trisagion and Sanitus" by Hawley.

In the evening in St. Paul's church, the anthem, "Spirit Immortal" from Attilla, was rendered, the solos being taken by Mrs. Mein and Mr. J. Dawson.

Rev. John Bushell, M.A., of Keene, will be ordained to the Priesthood next Sunday week in Toronto. His services on that day will be conducted by J. J. Turner, jr.

Mrs. Morris rendered the sacred song, "Paradise" as an offertory piece in St. Luke's church last night. Mrs. Morris is well known in Peterborough and many of her old friends and acquaintances were present.

The following are the officers of the George street church Sunday school for the current year: Superintendent T. W. Robinson; secretary, A. E. Dixon; treasurer, J. S. Knapman; librarians, F. H. Dobbin, T. E. Pratt, A. J. Warne, H. Goldey, Geo. Gilbert, F. Green and Ross Dobbin.

At the Murray st. Baptist church yesterday Rev. Mr. Bastow preached a very impressive sermon, taking for his subject, "The Master has come and calleth you." In the evening, the choir sang, "God calleth you" and Mrs. Hunter and Miss Hutchinson rendered a selection, "Come in the Gloaming" in excellent style.

Next Sunday being Whitsunday, will be observed as a Festival in St. Luke's. Yesterday morning Mr. Symonds explained the significance of the day. There will be two celebrations of the Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. respectively. In the morning the sermon will be on Christian Unity, and in the evening the flower service will be held.

Rev. H. Symonds will address the clergy of the Deanery of South Simcoe on "Christian Unity" to-morrow evening at Cookston. Ministers of other churches have accepted invitations to be present. On Wednesday morning he will give a devotional address at the communion service, and afterwards read a paper on Unity to the clergy alone.

Rev. Mr. Kilgour occupied the pulpit in the George street Methodist church yesterday morning and Rev. Mr. Steele of Frazerville, in the evening. Mr. G. W. Mulligan took the baritone solo in the anthem in a very pleasing manner. The evening anthem, "Rejoice and Sing" was rendered in excellent style by the choir, as well as "Lift up your heads, oh ye gates," in which Mr. Walden took the solo in fine form.

The last meeting of the synod committee prior to the annual meeting of the Synod, will be held in Toronto next week on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, when the reports for the ensuing year will be drawn up. The report of the committee on the memorial from Peterborough will recommend that the diocese of Toronto be divided, but that for a period of years after the division the members of the two dioceses be united in a synod council.

Rev. Canon Lauder preached both morning and evening in St. Luke's church, Toronto Junction yesterday. There were a good many present from Peterborough to hear the eloquent preacher. In the morning he preached on the subject of "Christian Unity" which was rendered with much heartiness at both services.

CHARLOTTE ST. CHURCH.

The services in the Charlotte street Methodist church last evening were especially devoted to the members of the Christian Endeavour.

"How to Succeed in Life" was the subject of a ten minutes' address by the pastor, Rev. D. O. Crossley, and which was made plain enough for any one to follow. To obtain success in life was to battle against a succession of currents which run down hill to evil and destruction. If we press against these currents we shall finally reach the summit of success. Every one shold ask themselves which one of the two things they intend doing, to allow themselves to be carried down this current, or go in with a determination to fight against it. There is no royal way to renown, and he asked the question would it be better to have these obstacles removed out of the way? He did not think it would; in fact it would be a calamity, for without temptation there could be no resistance, and if there was no weak spots in our lives to overcome we would never be heard of. The speaker quoted Job as having great temptations to contend with and finally coming out victorious. What may be applied to the time of Job may also apply to the present age, for every man who has loomed up out of the noble ages of life is a hero. In conclusion Mr. Crossley impressed upon those present two necessities to accomplish success in life; one is the concentration of our thoughts, and the other consecration of those thoughts forever.

Mr. Sorsoliel, of the South Central public school, took for his subject "The Eminence of Success" and started out by declaring that we must get a specific idea of what is meant by success in life. Before we express an opinion on a man's success in life we generally size up his surroundings, who his relations were, what his chances were in life and what he is worth financially, but we never look at what his mind is or what his soul is. Many who may to-day be classed as having been very successful in life, may yet prove to be terrible failures. He might sum up success in life in saying a successful life was that life which has developed all its powers for good, and subdued all its powers for evil. In obtaining a successful life he claimed there should be a course pursued the same as in any line of study. The speaker went on to show the great amount of good done to the world by education and the cultivation of the brain. Only a small percentage, he claimed, of our population went any further than our public schools, and the man who has taken advantage of better educational institutions may have a better chance. Still it is possible for all of us to get a great amount of culture in a secondary school. He did not advocate a mental culture from a selfish motive, but for the purpose of giving to the rest of the world the word of God. We do not glory in the fact that it is easy to obtain, but that we know how to go about it.

The next most important thing was the choice of our occupation. We do not pay enough attention to this, and he pointed out the great danger of a young man starting out in an occupation for which he is not adapted. We should not spend our time in idleness waiting for some situation to come to us, but we should ask ourself the question, "What can I do for what have I a fitness?" and not think about what position one would grace. We should be ready to take a bumble position at first and the greater positions will come to us when we are fit to grace them. All our efforts should be devoted to one main object, and we should not imagine that we can be successful at many different professions. True, Gladstone was a success as a journalist, a politician and almost anything he went into, but, remarked the speaker, we have only one Gladstone in one hundred years. The mastering of success in life does not come in a week, or in a month, but by the continual adherance to what is right and living an honest, upright and conscientious life. In concluding his very interesting address the speaker claimed that success in life may be summed up in three ideas, in seeking to obtain mental culture, in perseverance, and by dedicating our best powers to humanity.

At the services in the Charlotte street Methodist church music was as follows: In the morning the anthem was "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me, O Lord," Mr. A. L. Davis taking the recitative and Mrs. Pearse the alto solo. The offertory anthem, "Home at Last," was well rendered. In the evening the anthem was, "Saviour, when night involves the skies," Mr. A. L. Davis taking the baritone solo. "He shall feed His flock" was very effectively produced, the soprano solo being ably taken by Miss F. Hall. The offertory anthem, "Our Father, God," with soprano and tenor duet was also well rendered.

REWARD FOR THE CROOKS.

The Inducement will be $500 for Either or $1000 for Both.

The provincial authorities have decided to take another important step in the efforts to recapture Pare and Holden, the Napanee bank burglars and jail-breakers. A circular will be issued from the Attorney-General's department offering a substantial reward for the arrest of either or both of the runaway thieves, and it is hoped by this means their ultimate capture will be rendered more probable.

The amounts of the proffered rewards will probably be $500 for either of them and $1000 for both.

Several thousands of copies of the circular will be printed, and it will be forwarded at once to the police authorities in all centres of importance throughout Canada and the United States, to the various detective agencies, to the criminal departments of the various provinces and states, and in fact, to every person or official to whom the information is likely to prove of value, or the reward for an incentive to activity in the search.—Belleville Sun.

ALL HEADACHES by AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS.

Mr. Roy's Informal Talk to Amatours at the Y.M.C.A.

Mr. R. M. Roy addressed a large gathering of amateur photographers Friday evening in the Y.M.C.A. building.

It was agreed at the opening of the meeting that Mr. Roy should hold himself open to answer any question that might be put to him, and as this was pleasing to all, it was unanimously carried out, and Mr. Roy did not give a lecture.

One of the first questions asked was:—How do you account for there being such good lenses in these cheap small $5 cameras?

The large lenses used in the $25 to $500 cameras in order to have them the right size, are frequently chipped off and these chips are put in the small cheap cameras, and thus it is that the lenses are well bround and polished and in every way superior to the lenses that you will find in the 4x5 ones, which have to be made especially for them.

On a very clear day when the light is very bright I would give it a slow instantaneous exposure and use a second size diaphram. If the day is a little dull or overcast or lots of dust, use full aperture with slow instantaneous exposure. The last thing to do before making an exposure is to draw the slide, but be careful to do so, having the slide perfectly true and square and also be sure that you put it back the same way. This is the cause of more failures with amateurs than anything else. The amateur is generally too rattled and anxious to make the exposure, therefore he does things quickly and does not take sufficient care—avoid hurry and take your time. For an indoor picture it is better far to make an over exposure than an under-exposure and half of the pictures brought to me for the development are under exposed. Amateurs generally give from 5 to 7 seconds or from 7 to 15 but this is not sufficient. 30 seconds is about a normal exposure for an indoor exposure. One need not be so careful with an indoor exposure as regards time as the exposure is so much longer, an infinitesimal portion of a second will serve to make or mar an out-door exposure. The smaller your diaphram the sharper your picture will be. For general landscape work I prefer a slow plate. With regard to plates I think that the "Seed" and "Hammer" plates are absolutely relaible and they are a reasonable price.

The "Seed" is a little finer ground plate, and if you want a very soft effect the "Seed" is the better of the two. The "Hammer" takes the touching a little better though.

With regard to developing, if you have an under exposed plate reduce the strength of your developer. Never add the water in your dish with the plate in it; remove the developer and then add the water, for if you do add the water to your developer with the plate in it, it will produce a chemical fog. If you are sure that you have an underexposed plate, first thoroughly wet your plate before you place it in the developer. It is not at all a bad plan to always wet your plates thoroughly before placing them in the developer.

Films will develop quicker when placed upside down in the developer. Plates should be left five or ten minutes in the fixing bath after all apparent white is gone.

Pin holes are due to carelessness and dust and dirt. Don't try to remove them by blowing, for your breath is liable to moisten the plate and some saliva is likely to get on it through so doing. Pin points can only be removed by applying a little Indian ink in the plate with the point of a very fine camel hair brush, nothing else should be used. By this process you produce a white spot on your print that can be asily erased by applying a little Indian ink, as on the plate. Be very careful that in applying the ink to the plate that you fill the hole and not put any of the ink on the outside rim of the pin hole or you will produce a black spot with a white rim on the outside of it.

Be very careful of the cards for mounting; they must be chemically pure, and all ordinary card board has lime in it, and that will cause the picture to fade, and is the cause of so many faded pictures. I never would use a card that is not warranted chemically pure.

Chamberlain and the Colonial Representatives Confer.

AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

Lord Selborne, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, Replies to an Interpellation on the Subject by the Earl of Aberdeen — Colonial Representations to Be Considered.

London, May 16.—The Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, had a conference yesterday on the subject of the proposed Pacific cable with Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal, the high commissioner of Canada, and other colonial agents-general, who presented certain modifications of the original proposals. Mr. Chamberlain promised that they should receive the best consideration.

Replying in the House of Lords to the Earl of Aberdeen (Liberal), former Governor-General of Canada, who urged the importance of Imperial and colonial Governments reaching an understanding with reference to the Pacific cable, the Earl of Selborne, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, said Her Majesty's Government was perfectly prepared to review the whole matter in the light of any new representations the colonies might make, with a sincere desire to arrive at a decision satisfactory to all Governments concerned.

During the course of his remarks, the Earl of Selborne assured the House there was no intention upon the part of the Government to throw cold water upon a matter of such great public interest, nor was there any idea of being ungracious. He expressed surprise at the fact that exception had been taken to the Government's assertion that the cable was more important to Canada and Australasia than to the United Kingdom, explaining that this was not incompatible with the view that it was of great importance to the Empire, as it might be perfectly true that such a project as this might be of great Imperial interest, and at the same time be of greater importance to specific portions of the Empire.

Continuing, the Under Secretary said he did not think anyone conversant with the full aspect of the matter would regard the Government's offer as being ungenerous, because it offered to share the burden, without demanding a share of the profits. The sum of $100,000 was named because it seemed to be the outside limit on the proportion of five-eighteenths, which Great Britain could be called upon to pay. The conditions proposed, he explained, were merely such as the experience of the postoffice and treasury suggested, and being the most likely to secure efficiency. If the colonies had any objections to urge against the form of the British proposals, the Government was perfectly prepared to review the whole matter, with a sincere desire to arrive at a decision which would be satisfactory to all concerned.

PEOPLE LINE THE ROUTE.

Her Majesty Drove to Kensington Palace, Accompanied by Duke and Duchess of York—Great Enthusiasm.

London, May 16.—Queen Victoria arrived in London yesterday from Windsor, accompanied by the Duke and Duchess of York and her suite, and drove to Kensington Palace, the party occupying a number of open four-horse landaus, with postillions in blue and white, red-coated outriders, escorted by a detachment of the Horse Guards. Enthusiastic people lined the route to the palace, where Her Majesty visited the old apartments which she occupied as a young girl, which have been renovated preparatory to opening the palace to the public.

Her Majesty Patted "Tim."

On the arrival of Her Majesty at Paddington railroad station she noticed on the platform a shaggy Irish terrier named "Tim," which collects contributions for the widows and orphans of the railroad. The Queen had "Tim" brought to her by the conductor of the train, and after patting the terrier on the head she dropped a piece of gold into the metal box hanging about the dog's neck.

MONOPOLY ENDS.

Rankin Power Company Will Surrender Its Privileges for a Number of Concessions.

Toronto, May 16.—The negotiations for the surrender of the monopoly held by the Canadian Niagara Power Company have been concluded, and the agreement arrived at will doubtless be presented to the Ontario Government for ratification at a council meeting to-day. The company named has agreed to abandon the monopoly in return for a number of concessions. In place of the present annual rental of $25,000 per annum a tariff of rates has been decided upon. Under the new agreement the company instead of a fixed annual payment will pay in proportion to the power which it develops. The new tariff is as follows:

For the first 10,000 horsepower developed, $15,000 per annum.

For the next 10,000 horsepower, $1 per horsepower per annum.

For the next 10,000 horsepower, 75 cents per horsepower per annum.

For the remaining power developed up to 100,000 horsepower, 50 cents per horsepower.

It will thus be seen that under the new arrangement the revenue derivable by the Government for the first 30,000 horsepower developed will amount to $32,500. It the company develops up to 100,000 horsepower it will pay a further sum of $35,000, making a total revenue of $67,500.

ARE THEY THE ROBBERS?

Five Men Arrested at Tweed and Several More at Peterboro in Connection With the Bowmanville Sensation.

Tweed, Ont., May 16.—Yesterday afternoon five men were arrested a mile east of this town on suspicion of having been concerned in the Bowmanville bank robbery on Friday night. One of them, who was in town earlier in the day, showed intense interest in the contents of a Toronto morning paper, and the editor of The News notified the local constables, with the above result. They are now at the police station and carefully guarded. One of the men said he was James Conklin of Toronto, that he was 59 years of age, and that he was a moulder by trade, and worked a short time ago in the safe works of J. & J. Taylor.

The second man gave the name of George Ward, said he was 53 years of age, and last worked in the Detroit Stove Works at Detroit, Mich.

The next gave the name of William Jones of Toronto. He said he was 37 years of age, and last worked in the carriage works of Jones & McLauchlin in Buffalo.

The fourth said he was born in Lambton County 43 years ago, and that he last worked in Erie Pa.

The last man gave the name of Patrick O'Brien, and said he had been working with a farmer named Torpy, six miles from Peterboro.

They all denied having anything to do with the others, although they were traveling together.

Greer Goes to Tweed.

A telegram was sent to the general manager of the Standard Bank shortly after the arrest asking for instructions, and last evening a message was received from Provincial Detective Greer giving instructions to hold the prisoners until his arrival on the 2 a.m. express from Toronto.

Mr. West Don't Know Him.

Toronto, May 16.—Mr. Joseph M. West, president of the J. & J. Taylor Safe Works, was called on early this morning, and Mr. West stated that he did not know of any such man as James Conklin, arrested at Tweed, who said he had been an employe of the Taylor Safe Works.

They Had Standard Bank Bills.

Peterboro, May 16.—What may be important arrests in connection with the recent bank robbery at Bowmanville were made here last night by Chief Houzal and constables. In the afternoon a few tramps, under the influence of liquor, made themselves annoying to the employes around the C.P.R. station. As time wore on the men became drunken, and this ultimately resulted in their arrest. When searched at the police station, a number of Standard Bank bills of $5 denomination and quite a large amount of small silver was found on them.

Trying to Stop Frauds.

Madrid, May 16.—The Minister of Finance, Marquis Villa Verde, has issued a decree closing immediately the registers of foreign bondholders, in order to decide who is entitled to gold payments on the external debt coupons under the recent law. This course is taken to stop the frauds by which Spaniards transfer their claims in order to secure gold, in which foreigners only are entitled.

DEADMAN'S ISLAND.

The Famous Spot the Scene of a Red Hot Time on Monday.

THE RIOT ACT HAD TO BE READ

Mr. Ludgate, the Lessee of the Island From the Dominion Government, Starts to Cut the Timber and Is Arrested by Attorney-General Martin—Case Traversed Till Thursday.

Vancouver, B.C., May 16.—The Riot Act was read on Deadman's Island yesterday morning, and Theodore Ludgate was arrested and put in handcuffs after a fierce struggle with two officers, one of whom he roughly used. Ludgate, who has leased the island from the Dominion, decided the night before to make another landing on the disputed island. At 5 o'clock a force of sixty or seventy men were actively at work cutting down trees. About 6 o'clock a provincial constable arrived and ordered that the work be stopped. Ludgate defied him, and the officer, realizing his helplessness, did not attempt to use force, but set off for assistance. About 6.30 Officer Baines of the city police arrived and his order for cessation of work was also ignored. Provincial officers continued to arrive, one at a time, until they were about ten strong and each armed with revolvers.

They made no attempt, however, to interfere with the men until the arrival of Attorney-General Martin and Justice of the Peace Anderson, about 9.15. The Attorney-General requested Ludgate to order his men to stop work, but the mill man remained obstinate as ever, whereupon the Attorney-General ordered his arrest. Officer Baines stepped forward to execute the orders. He attempted to arrest Ludgate by the arm, but received a blow on the jaw from that gentleman which sent him sprawling among a heap of underbrush. Officer Campbell went to Baines' assistance and after about two minutes' fierce struggling the two managed to get the handcuffs on the prisoner.

The Riot Act Read.

All the men had in the meantime stopped work and were ready to attack the police, when the Riot Act was read, and on Ludgate's advice they refrained. Ludgate was led from the island with blood flowing profusely from his nose, and the men recommenced work. The Attorney-General addressed them and said if work was not stopped and all off the island in 30 minutes the constabulary would be ordered to shoot. The men held a short confab and decided to leave. The city is in a great state of excitement and all kinds of rumors are afloat.

The Province has received a special from Nanaimo, which says H.M.S. Egeria departed from that port yesterday morning for Vancouver simultaneously with the arrival there of the news of trouble. It is expected here almost any hour, but it is not known what action will be taken. The police are still on the island and are being reinforced. It is believed that Ludgate's men will go back and attempt a seizure. It is also rumored that troops will be ordered out. Ludgate is in jail and refuses to accept his release on bail.

The case came up before Stipendiary Magistrate Anderson in the afternoon. Very little was done in court, Ludgate's lawyer objecting to its jurisdiction. The charge was cutting timber on Crown lands. Mr. Martin appeared against Ludgate, and asked for an adjournment till Thursday, which was granted.

WILL NOT QUIT HOSTILITIES.

Aguinaldo Gives Notice That the War Will Be Continued to the Bitter End—More Fighting.

London, May 16.—The Filipino Junta here has received the following message from Aguinaldo, cabled from Hongkong under date of May 13: "The Filipino Government, in accordance with the general feeling of the country, has decided to continue the war at all costs, until independence is secured.

"The Filipinos energetically refuse the American peace overtures, based on restricted autonomy, coupled with promises of subsequent self-government.

"The Filipinos demand a strict fulfilment of the articles of the American constitution and treaties contracted by the American representatives when imploring a Filipino alliance in combatting the Spaniards.

"All the Filipino generals support Aguinaldo. General Luna's reported overtures for peace are untrue. Our army is near Manila, simultaneously attacking the whole American line.

"The heat and rains are causing many casualties in the American army. All the hospitals are crowded with sick and wounded. Four hundred of the Cincinnati regiment have been imprisoned by General Otis for insubordination in refusing to fight. The regular troops quartered in Manila and other towns are quiet. The volunteers are abused and are always at the front with scanty rations.

"The discontent between the Americans and Europeans is general."

Into a Nest of Insurgents.

Manila, May 16.—The "tinclad" gunboats Laguna de Bay and Cavadonga and a launch, under Captain Grant, ran into a nest of insurgents concealed in the bushes on both sides of the Rio Grande River, three miles above Calumpit, yesterday afternoon and were received with heavy volleys at short range. A sergeant, belonging to the Utah battery, was killed and a private was wounded. Opening with their rapid-fire guns, the Americans killed twenty of the natives and wounded several others, filling the jungle with a hail of shot for a half hour, until the enemy fled.

They Are Still Deserting.

Halifax, N.S. May 16.—Desertions are occurring almost daily from the 1st Leinster Regiment, stationed in the garrison. Five privates have departed within the past week, four of the number on Friday. Men of nearly every corps in the garrison and also several sailors from H.M.S. Comus, Alert and Buzzard have within the past few months thought fit to seek fresh fields and pastures new. Two gunners also are reported as being deserters.

"One Good Turn Deserves Another."

It is so easy to go through life doing good and helping to make others happy. A lady who had been ill with a complication of troubles, having been thoroughly cured and now enjoying perfect health, felt it a duty to tell her friends that the specific that brought her back to health was Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Thus, after Hood's had served her well, she felt it deserved a good turn at her hands. Thousands tell the same story of blood purified and health restored. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses merit peculiar to itself.

Sick Headache—"For a long time I was troubled with sick headaches. Different medicines failed to give me relief. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my husband having been cured of salt rheum by it, and soon it made me feel like a new woman." MRS. ROBERT MCAVEE, Deerhurst, Ont.

Impure Blood—"My wife suffered with pain and distress from an affection of the throat caused by impure blood. She was almost in despair when she turned to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Six bottles of this medicine completely cured her." JOHN WECKNAR, Galt, Ont.

Back Ache—"My mother had severe pains in her side and back. She was obliged to give up work. A friend persuaded her to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon she was able to do her work, free from pain and had a good appetite." MAGGIE MORGAN, Nassonworth, N. B.

No Strength—"My whole system was run down. I was weak and could hardly get around to do my work. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and after using five bottles I found that my strength had returned and appetite much improved." MRS. KELLEY, 318 Dufferin Street, Toronto, Ont.

Nerve Food—"My wife was stricken with nervous prostration. She suffered from headaches. She became weak, low-spirited and her appetite was poor. I am glad to state that Hood's Sarsaparilla has completely cured her of all her ailments." G. BELLAMY, 321 Hannah St., Hamilton, Ont.

REDISTRIBUTION.

The government has announced that its promised Redistribution Bill will be brought down this week, and no little interest attaches to it, as the means of removing from the statute book the monstrously unfair gerrymander act of 1882 and the "amending" act of 1892. This combined "gerrymander" represents the most iniquitously unfair legislation, intended to juggle with the franchise ever perpetrated in Canada, except, possibly, the outrageous Franchise Act passed by the Conservative Government, which is happily now a thing of the past, as will be the gerrymander acts referred to when the present redistribution bill becomes law. The Franchise Act was, as all know, a disgracefully unfair and partisan measure, intended to strangle expression of Liberal electoral opinion. Under it the lists were subject to the manipulation of the party in power, who appointed the revising officers, at whose disposal all the powers of the government were placed with, to take the most charitable possible view, the intention, as indeed was the effect, to handicap the Liberals in the preparation of the lists, and this, combined with the iniquitous distribution of constituencies constituted a condition that made it possible for the Conservative Government to play the game of a general election with loaded dice. It required a tremendous revulsion of public feeling to overcome these tremendous handicaps; but it was done and one of the first acts of the Liberal Government in taking power was to wipe out the franchise act, which no Conservative in later days had the hardihood to defend, and place another act on the statute book constituting Provincial voters' lists the basis of the Dominion franchise lists. The Provincial lists, being prepared by municipal officers, under no government control, and perfectly free to do justice in the preparation, are as fair and impartial as it is possible to obtain. The reform implied in the redistribution of the constituencies was naturally the complemant of the removal of the Franchise Act. Heretofore county boundaries were ignored and townships or parts of townships detached from their proper counties, to strengthen an adjoining riding and make the Conservative element strong enough to make it practically a pocket borough. Or a strongly Liberal township, and often townships, would be detached from a constituency which was strongly Liberal and added to another strongly Liberal riding — a process which was known as "hiving the grits"—an achievement which the baser sort of the late Sir John Macdonald's admirers gave him great credit for. Thus in a large number of constituencies the Conservatives had things "fixed" so that they could defy public opinion and elect followers of their own leaders. County boundaries were boldly ignored in fixing this slate, and it will be the aim of the new redistribution bill to restore these county boundaries and bring about a return of the status quo ante, 1882. We all know what peculiar and bizarre boundary lines and combinations, resulted from the system of dealing with constituencies. Take East and West Peterborough as examples and a contrast. West Peterborough under the present scheme of redistribution of constituencies, consists for Dominion purposes of Peterborough, town, and the four townships of Smith, Ennismore, North Monaghan, and South Monaghan, the latter township belonging municipally to another county. West Peterborough is about forty miles long with an average breadth of about ten miles. Then take East Peterborough, a riding of immense proportions, stretching from Hastings and Rice Lake on the south to Haliburton on the north and Victoria on the west. The riding as at present constituted consists of twenty-seven townships with the villages of Ashburnham and Norwood. The townships are Otonabee, Douro, Dummer, Ashphodel, Belmont, Methuen, Harvey, Cavendish, Austruther, and Chandos, belonging to Peterborough county, and Glamorgan, Monmouth, Cardiff, Dysart, Dudley, Harcourt, Guilford, Harburn, Bruton, Havelock, Eyre, Clyde, Livingstone, Lawrence, and Nightingale belonging to Haliburton. A riding of this extent, stretching from Hastings to Haliburton, no candidate can canvass and no representative visit, with any hope of covering the chief part of it in either case. In effect Peterborough town is nearer Toronto than some of the electors of East Peterborough are to their fellow electors in the other parts of the riding. This striking contrast and arrangement of the county should, it is pretty certain, be remedied by the new readjustment—leaving Peterborough intact as a county, with the municipally separate townships set off and apportioned to the counties where they belong for municipal and school purposes; and the same principle will apply throughout the Dominion. The Liberals want no undue advantages, they do not want to "strike below the belt;" they therefore repealed the iniquitous franchine act which gave the party in power such fearful advantages and substituted a fair simple mode of preparing Dominion voters lists on the basis of provincial lists prepared under strictly non-partizan conditions. In the Redistribution Bill to be introduced this week the Government will present a measure that will wipe out the infamous gerrymanders of 1882 and 1892 and restore a fair equitable and national plan of constituency boundaries, of representative balance.

MARK STREET CHURCH NOTES.

The tenth anniversary of the E. L. of C. E was celebrated Sunday throughout Canada and the United States. Dr. Couch, who was announced to preach, was professionally detained at Warsaw, consequently the pastor, Rev J. E. Moore, Ph.B., officiated, taking for his text, Acts.II., 17-18, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your sons shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; and on my servants, and on my hand-maidens I will pour out, in those days of my spirit and they shall prophesy." The speaker prefaced his sermon by referring to the origin and growth of the Epworth League. The first society was organized in the city of Cleveland on May 15th, 1889, by the amalgamation of five societies which had existed some years in the Methodist Episcopal church. In the United States now there are 20,250 chapters, with a membership of 2,150,000. The C. E. societies have a membership of 3,000,000. In Canada there are 1,974 000. In Canada there are 1,947

"Look Up! Lift Up!" constitute the watchwords of the organization of the Epworth League. The strongest points are loyalty to Christ, enthusiasm for missions, practical or applied Christianity. Missionaries and Education will command the attention of the enjoying life of Methodism during the next decade. The first league in Canada was organized by the Rev. R. N. Burns, B.A., in Barrie, which is still in a flourishing condition. Speaking to the text Mr. Moore said, "the last days signify gospel times, because it was the dispensation of God's kingdom among men. We need look for no other, for this is to continue to the end of time. There is to be a more plentiful effusion of the spirit than has ever been in the past. The Spirit shall be poured out upon all flesh, Jews and Gentiles alike. It is the Spirit of prophecy, or the ability to preach. This is without distinction to sex. Your sons and daughters shall phophecy. The prophecy is concerning the coming judgments of God to punish those who pour contempt upon the Gospel and who refuse to submit to the power of God's grace." The Mark street League was the first society organized in the county of Peterborough. The young people are doing a good work. The singing was excellent and all were deeply interested.

TOBACCO SMUGGLERS SENTENCED.

They Were Tried at Rochester and Were Residents of Hamilton, Ont.

Rochester, May 15.—The Federal grand july has been in session here during the past week before Judge Cox. Among the more important actions for the court was the hearing of John S. Johnson, Mrs. Mary Oliver and the latter's daughter, Queenie, charged with smuggling leaf tobacco over Suspension Bridge from Canada. Mrs. Oliver pleaded guilty and escaped with a fine of $50. Johnson stood trial. On being brought up for sentence, after the jury had returned a verdict of guilty as charged, Johnson made a statement admitting that it was the second time that he had been convicted of smuggling and endeavoring to exculpate the woman, but it was too late, for she had already pleaded guilty and had been sentenced. He was sentenced to two years in Auburn Prison and fined $50. The court dealt leniently with Queenie Oliver on account of her youth and dismissed the indictment against her. All the parties are residents of Hamilton, Ont.

Is This Britain's Scheme?

London, May 15.—Twelve million dollars is the sum paid annually in Great Britain for cablegrams to British colonies and America. There is a scheme to connect all existing land lines, by which it is thought this outlay could be reduced 75 per cent. By building a short line across Afghanistan a complete land line can be established between London and Bombay at 11c a word cost, as against $1 by cable. Only 850 miles of land line is necessary to connect London with Melbourne.

Amongst the many useful and meritorious articles manufactured for home money saving, Diamond Dyes are certainly first in the estimation of all women.

The beautiful and charming colours produced by Diamond Dyes satisfy the most critical of women. Let the season be spring, summer, autumn, or winter, the woman of taste can select suitable and fashionable colours when she decides to renew her old and faded dress, skirt, blouse, jacket, shawl, hose or ribbons, or her boys' or husband's faded and dingy looking suits.

The Diamond Dyes work wonderful and truly delightful transformations in every line of old material, from the silk dress to rags for the making of home-made carpets and rugs. The colours are always bright, full and never fading.

Chemical science has proved that a dye which produces a brilliant and lasting colour on animal fibres or all-wool goods cannot give as good results on vegetable fibres or cotton goods.

To insure perfect success in home dyeing the manufacturers of Diamond Dyes prepare two special dyes, one for colouring silk and all-wool goods, and one for colouring cotton and mixed goods. No other make of dyes can boast of the same scientific achievements; no other make of dyes can so well protect the interests of home dyers.

Successful home dyeing therefore depends on the use of Diamond Dyes at all times. Never allow your dealer to sell you untried or imitation dyes. Insist upon being supplied with the Diamond Dyes.

NEGLECTED THE FIRST WARNINGS OF AN OVER-BURDENED STOMACH.

Dyspepsia Seized Him in its Vice-like Clutch—Took Warning too Late—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets would Have Saved Him.

"It's a great mistake," said the man on the stool at the lunch counter to his neighbour. "It's a great mistake to let the lesser symptoms of Dyspepsia, like Headaches, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Foul Breath and Wind in the stomach run on, and think they will cure themselves. These symptoms mean that the stomach is tired and cannot digest the food into blood. Consequently, the blood being poor cannot strengthen and renew the stomach."

"Then you've got to give the stomach a rest some way, eh?" said his friend.

"Exactly. Now Smith, my old partner, used to be that way. Didn't think it mattered much if he had a bilious headache or heartburn after eating. Let it grow on him—ended up with Chronic Dyspepsia. Then when he found he had that, he started to starve himself, because eating hurt him. Got as thin as a rake and as bloodless as a screen door. First thing he knew consumption had him. Died last spring.

"It is true then that Dyspepsia causes Consumption?" "Why, it's a generally acknowledged medical fact" said the first speaker. "Now, what I advised Smith to do, though he never would take my advice on private matters, was to take Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are the only sensible cure for dyspepsia. You see they digest the food for the stomach, which thus gets a chance to recuperate. They're a good thing for any man to take after meals because then you can eat what you like best without fear of consequences."

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale at all druggists, at 50 cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or will be sent on receipt of price by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

Mr. McInnes' Proposal for a Mint for the Dominion.

MR. FIELDING NOT FAVORABLE.

Members' Day in Parliament Was a Very Busy One on Monday - The People's Representatives Obtain Much Information and Press Their Legislation Forward—Questions and Replies by Ministers.

Ottawa, May 16.—Members made the best use of their opportunities yesterday in forwarding private bills and in obtaining information from the Government and orders for returns of various kinds. A number of questions were asked in reference to matters relating to the Yukon, mostly by Sir Hibbert Tupper, and numerous returns, correspondence, etc., were brought down. An interesting debate took place upon Mr. McInnes' motion favoring the establishment of a Canadian mint, which was not favored by the Finance Minister, who explained at some length that it was inexpedient at the present time for the Government to adopt the suggestion.

Questions and Answers.

Sir Louis Davies, for the Minister of Public Works, informed Col. Prior that the English representatives of the Northern Commercial Telegraph Company had communicated to the Government the readiness of their company to commence forthwith the construction of the Skaguay and Dawson telegraph line under their charter, but not until after a construction party had been sent out by the Public Works Department to commence the construction of a Government line

Mr. Fielding informed Mr. Foster that no order-in-council had been passed reducing the rate of interest paid on the debt owed by the province of Ontario to the Dominion.

The Immigration Question.

In answer to Mr. Clarke, Mr. Sifton said:

1. The Government has not built houses or done any sending for the Doukhobors or any other foreign immigrants. In cases where there was urgent necessity for assistance being given to provide for the immediate wants of newly-arrived immigrants a small amount of assistance has been given. It is the policy of the Government to extend this assistance to all, English, Irish and Scotch immigrants, as well as others.

2. The only difference in inducements offered continental immigrants and British immigrants is that the arrangement made by the late Government respecting continental bonus has been continued and the continental bonus to booking agents is, under that arrangement, larger than the bonus to British booking agents.

The reason for this policy was and is that it is necessary to meet the bonuses paid by other countries to continental booking agents. In the case of the Doukhobors no bonus was paid to booking agents, but in lieu thereof a special bonus of $4.86 per head was agreed upon and paid to the English committee for the Doukhobors, because the committee were prepared to give us a very large number of desirable agricultural immigrants, with no expense whatever to the Government, in so far as inducing the immigration was concerned, except the bonus. The Government is prepared at any time to make a similar arrangement with any persons who may be in a position to furnish a large body of desirable agricultural immigrants from Britain.

Mr. Marcotte was told the Government had no information as to the number of Canadians repatriated from the States; that no specified amount was paid to agents per head, but a commission; that there were 15 regular agents in the United States, drawing $15,200 a year, and 13 in Europe, drawing $20,825

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper was informed that the Government intends to appoint a second judge for the Yukon district.

A number of motions for papers were passed.

A Canadian Mint.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, continuing the debate on Mr. McInnes' motion, said he could well understand that hon. members who only thought out this subject as they listened to Mr. McInnes, would believe the establishment of a mint desirable, but there was another side to the question they should be willing to hear. He was not prepared to hold that under no circumstances should they establish a mint in Canada, but, whatever they might do in the future, it would not be well to take that step at present. It would necessitate the enlargement of our metallic currency, and perhaps there was no department of our public affairs against the disturbance of which they should more strenuously guard themselves than that of the alteration of our currency system. Our currency was, practically, a gold currency, and he was afraid Mr. McInnes' proposition would bring about some financial disturbances which would not be to the advantage of Canada. Mr. McInnes had said there would be a profit on minting silver and copper, but he had very properly pointed out that there would be no profit on gold coining. If we could absorb an unlimited amount of silver and copper coinage, we might make much money in minting silver and copper coinage, but there was a limit to the amount of silver and copper coinage that the country could take; but if they exceeded the amount the country could take, the coinage would be depreciated. It was only by keeping within that necessary limit that we kept our silver and copper coinage from deteriorating. If they adopted Mr. McInnes' principle they would lose a very considerable amount per annum if we attempted to run a mint of our own, and the net result would be that, instead of enjoying a handsome profit, the Government would have a loss. Under his system they would pay much more than by the present system, because Canada could not absorb a sufficient amount of that coinage to keep the mint in operation for more than one month out of the twelve. They did not need a gold coinage in Canada to any considerable extent. Except from a sentimental point of view, it was unnecessary that they should mint gold. Gold would displace the note currency, which was practically a loan from the public to the Dominion of Canada, without interest. They would, therefore, lose in the minting: they would have a more expensive mode of manufacturing coins than at present, and they would displace our present currency, and be obliged to go on the market and borrow money, which, under the present system, the public were disposed to give to the Government to-day without interest. The people of Canada did not want gold; the note system was a much more convenient form of currency.

The debate was then adjourned.

A number of motions for papers were passed, amongst them one by Mr. Martin for correspondence, telegrams and other documents with reference to the carrying of the mails for Prince Edward Island between the Intercolonial at Cape Tormentine, on which there was a long discussion, and after that motion was carried the House adjourned at 11 p.m.

TROUBLE AT KOWLOON.

Chinese Troops Again Invade the Hinterland - British Troops Sent to the Spot - China Disturbed.

Hongkong, May 16.—The native opposition to the occupation by British forces of the new territory, Kowloon, opposite Hongkong, has suddenly been renewed. About 900 men of the Hongkong Regiment, with machine guns, left yesterday, while the volunteers have been warned to be in readiness for any emergency. The British second-class gunboat Swift, accompanied by three other gunboats, is proceeding to sea under sealed orders. These warships have 500 men on board.

The territory back of the hinterland is also disturbed, and Chinese troops have been sent there.

A later despatch says: In all, 1,850 infantry soldiers, 100 artillerymen, 50 engineers and 500 marines have gone to the Kowloon hinterland. The greatest secrecy is observed as to the plans of the British authorities, and nothing is definitely known regarding the actual destination of the troops. The gun vessels engaged in the operations have been provisioned for eight days. Troops are patrolling the European quarter of Kowloon. It is reported that rebels from Tungkung invaded British territory on Sunday evening, and that two armed gangs robbed the city of Kowloon. Hongkong itself is quiet.

Anxiety at Pekin.

Pekin, May 16.—The Russian demand for a new railroad concession, connecting Pekin with Tientsin's present railroad system in Manchuria, is still exciting the gravest anxiety there. The chief Chinese officials are having constant consultations with the Dowager Empress. The Germans and Japanese are particularly uneasy on the subject of this unexpected move upon the part of the Russians, and there is a feeling among the prominent Chinese that the moment has come to make every effort in the direction of securing British sympathy and aid.

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1896 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

WHO ARE THESE TRAMPS?

ONE OF THEM HAD STANDARD BANK BILLS.

The Police Arrested Them Yesterday, and they are being held for Investigation into their Case.

Yesterday evening the Chief of Police, P. C. Stewart, and P. C. McGinty arrested three doubtful looking characters in the vicinity of the Bridge Works, and their capture arouses particular interest in view of the fact that when arrested they had about thirty dollars in bills, fifteen of which was made up of three five dollar Standard Bank notes.

Late in the afternoon word was received at the police station of the fact that three strangers under the influence of liquor were lurking around the Bridge Works property. The above mentioned officers accordingly started to investigate matters and soon closed down on their victims. The capture was an easy one as the prisoners were very much under the influence of liquor.

When brought to the police station the subjects gave rambling statements, as to who they were, where they were from and how they came to meet. One of them gives his name as James Dean, an iron worker, and says that his home is in Toronto. He claims that he is an Englishman coming from London, Eng., and that he is married. He is a strong looking individual and of sandy complexion.

The second man gives his name as Wm. Ryley, 26 years of age and claims Ottawa as his home. He is single.

Wm. Brooks is the third man. He gives his age as 30 and his home as Cornwall. He claims to be single.

The arrest of three strangers naturally created much excitement around town and the police station was visited by many this morning in order that they might learn what they could concerning the prisoners and the possibility of connecting them in some way with the Standard Bank robbery at Bowmanville last week. Owing to the absence of Magistrate Dumble from town, however, the prisoners were not brought up for a hearing at the usual hour this morning.

$2,000 in Standard Bank $10 notes.
$4,350 in Standard Bank $5 notes.
$1,058 in Canadian silver.
$400 in gold.
$2,000 in Dominion of Canada $1 and $2 notes.
$1,285 in notes of other Canadian banks.

County Crown Attorney Wood appeared for the prosecution, while the prisoners were undefended.

Ryley and Dean were charged with vagrancy and having no visible means of support, while Brooks, on whose person the money was found, was charged with being drunk and disorderly.

Crown Attorney Wood asked that they be remanded for a week, to which Mr. Davidson agreed.

Opening of Victoria House.

The Victoria House summer resort at McCracken's Landing, Stony Lake, will be opened for the season on Monday next. Marks Bros. Company.

The company met with a very cordial reception upon their return date at the Opera House last evening. The four act drama, "Only a Country Girl," was rapturously received by the large and fashionable audience present. The leading roles were taken by Miss May A. Bell as Ruth Hedges, and Frederick H. Wilson as Josiah Hodges. The plot has a strong melodramatic turn at times. May A. Bell looked and acted well, and Mr. Wilson preserved his droll personality. The others made the best of their opportunities. To-night "Myrtle Ferns" is the play—a five act comedy-drama. Wednesday night is the company's last appearance here this season at the Opera House. Rip Van Winkle is the bill.

THE BENSFORT BRIDGE MATTER IS SETTLED.

AN AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT OF THE SUIT.

The Plaintiff is to Receive $160 from South Monaghan — The United Counties and Peterborough will Each Pay One-half for Future Maintenance.

A special meeting of the County Council was held this (Tuesday) morning with Warden Hawthorne in the chair and the following members present: Messrs. Pearce, Buck, Peck, Anderson, Eastland, Shaw, Fitzgerald, Forster, and Crowe.

The Warden explained the object of the meeting by briefly stating that the case of Smith vs. the Counties of Northumberland and Durham, the Townships of South Monaghan and the County of Peterborough had come up for trial before a special sitting of the County Court on May 2nd, when the counsel for one of the defendants had raised the point that the sitting court had no jurisdiction in the case. The Judge had ruled that the point was well taken, and the case would now be taken before the High Court on June 12th. After this disposition of the case had been made the defendants had held a consultation amongst themselves with the object of ascertaining if the case could not be amicably settled.

Mr. W. A. Stratton then stated that at the consultation two propositions had been made. The County of Peterborough's representatives stated their willingness to assume two-fifths of the cost of maintenance, provided the remaining three-fifths was borne by the united counties and the Township of South Monaghan. This offer was refused by the other defendants. A proposition was then made by the United Counties to the effect that they would bear half the cost of future maintenance if the County of Peterborough would assume the other half, leaving the amount at present owing the bridge tender to be paid by South Monaghan.

On motion of Messrs. Pearce and Eastland the matter was referred to the Roads and Bridges Committee, consisting of the whole Council.

At 2 o'clock the Roads and Bridges Committee met the representatives from South Monaghan, consisting of Reeve W. H. Hutchinson, and County Councillors John Buchan and J. J. Heron, with their solicitor, Mr. Geo. Edmison. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun was also present, representing Mr. Smith, the bridge tender, who is the plaintiff in the suit.

Mr. Edmison stated that the deputation from South Monaghan was authorized by the Township Council to offer $150 as their contribution towards settling the case out of court. This was the extreme limit the Township could go in the matter, as they expected to get off with paying Mr. Smith's claim of $116.

Mr. Pearce explained that this offer differed a great deal from the former one made by South Monaghan. They offered then to pay Mr. Smith's claim and $5 a year for five years. The speaker understood that Mr. Smith's "claim" would include the costs.

Mr. Edmison held that the question of costs had not come up.

Mr. Dennistoun said that Mr. Smith's costs would amount to about $120. As the claim for salary was $116, he was prepared to accept $200 in settlement and withdraw the case from the courts.

Mr. Anderson, who was in the chair, suggested that Mr. Smith and South Monaghan "split the difference" between $150 and $200.

Mr. Dennistoun offered on behalf of his client, to adopt this suggestion.

Reeve Hutchinson stated that the Council had only given the deputation from South Monaghan permission to offer $150. He suggested that the counties concerned pay the difference.

Warden Hawthorne explained that Peterborough County had already made a considerable concession in raising their offer from contributing two-fifths of the maintenance to one-half. As the United Counties would pay the other half, South Monaghan was relieved from all future expenditure in connection with it. The matter now lay, in his opinion, between South Monaghan and Mr. Smith. He urged that an effort be made to settle the matter amicably.

Mr. Dennistoun then consulted with the South Monaghan deputation, when the latter agreed to raise their offer to $160, which Mr. Dennistoun accepted, urging at the same time that the United Counties and the County of Peterborough take into consideration the placing of Mr. Smith's salary on a par with that of the other county bridge tenders, viz., seventy or eighty dollars per annum.

The committee then passed the following resolution which was afterwards confirmed as the committee's report by the Council on motion of Messrs. Shaw and Buck:

"Your committee recommend that this County assume one-half of the future maintainance of the bridge over the Otonabee River, commonly known as the Bensfort Bridge, thumberland and Durham assume one-half of such future maintenance and provided the Township of South Monaghan settle the suit of Smith vs. Monaghan, including the plaintiff's costs.

This proposition is made without prejudice to the position of the county of Peterborough, that they have no liability whatever with respect to the maintenance of this bridge.

WM. ANDERSON,
Chairman.

After the adoption of the report the Council adjourned.

BROCKVILLE CATHOLIC LIBERALS

Decline to Recognize the Convention.

Brockville, May 12.—(Special).—A meeting of Catholic Liberals was held here to-night to take action regarding the proposed convention of Liberal Catholics at Toronto on the 23 inst. All those who were requested to take charge of the organization for this riding were present. After discussing the matter it was unanimously decided that in the opinion of these gentlemen such convention was inopportune and unnecessary and called without authority and not in such a way as to insure proper representation, and they, therefore, declined to take action in this matter. The meeting passed resolutions expressing confidence in both the Dominion and Provincial Governments.

Gananoque Opposed to Convention.

Gananoque, May 15.—At a meeting held on Saturday evening by Catholic Liberals of the Town of Gananoque it was moved, seconded and unanimously carried: That we are not in accord with the Catholic Liberals of Toronto in calling a meeting on the 23rd to discuss the political disabilities under which our people are labouring. We have no doubt of the sincerity of those promoting the present movement, and while there may be some grounds for dissatisfaction at not being recognized according to our numbers in Ontario, we feel an agitation of this kind, exclusively Catholic, would not bring about the desired effect. Resolved, that we stand side by side with our Protestant friends, composing the great Liberal party, with every confidence in the Hardy and Laurier administrations, to do what is right by all denominations.

Dundas County is Opposed to the Convention.

Morrisburg, May 13. — At a meeting of the Catholic Liberals of Dundas County, called to discuss the advisability of sending delegates to the proposed convention of Catholic Liberals at Toronto on May 23rd, after discussion by gentlemen present, the following resolution moved by Geo. A. Begy, seconded by Charles D. Maguire, was adopted: "That we, the Catholic Liberals of the County of Dundas, in meeting assembled, having read and discussed the circular sent by the joint Secretaries of the proposed Catholic Liberal convention to be held in Toronto on the 32rd inst., inviting us to select delegates to attend such convention, consider that the time and method of calling the convention are inopportune and ill-advised, and do not meet with our approval, as we do not consider that there is any subject or matter requiring such a convention, and that consequently no delegation be sent from this County." The Secretary of the meeting was authorized to publish the resolution.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE, ETC.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—We must be either a very ignorant or a very long suffering people if we can stand and look on all that has taken place and listen to all that is written in the papers and not offer any protest.

It is bad enough to have a terrible tragedy enacted in our midst and to listen to the wailing of broken-hearted friends, but to have to read letter after letter in the papers, from those, who in the opinion of many were most responsible in a vain attempt to shirk responsibility is more than ordinary mortals can bear.

Why do these writers in defence of Christian Science go and convince the friends of the victims that their teaching had nothing to do with the tragedy. This would occupy them to better advantage for some time to come.

Not only are the friends fully persuaded that Christian Science teaching had much to do in developing an abnormal state of mind in the unfortunate man, but the poor victim himself felt it to be true and deplored the fact that it had gained such control over him.

Some may be disposed to attribute the sad event to a physical ailment with which it is said he was troubled for some years, but this he had borne like many others similarly afflicted without showing any sign of lunacy until he came in contact with Christian Science, so called.

The author of the science, Mrs. Eddy, admits that her doctrines are contrary to common reason and that the ordinary mind cannot accept them. Her doctrines are expressed in four fundamental propositions by herself.

1, God is all; 2, God is good; good is mind; 3, God is spirit, being all, nothing is matter; 4, Life, good, God, Omnipresent, deny death, evil, sin, disease, there is no matter; therefore there is no sickness—mind is good, therefore there is no evil."

She further says—"The dream that matter and error are something must yield to reason and revelation. Then mortals will behold its nothingness and sin and sickness will disappear to their vision."

Still further she says—"The truth is, food does does not effect the life of man, but it would be foolish to stop eating until we gain more goodness, and a clearer apprehension of the living God. In that perfect day of understanding we shall neither eat to live or live to eat." So according to this the time will come when man on earth will not require even to take food to sustain life. Compare this with the words of Jesus, who said, 'Your Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things."

With one sweep of her hand this woman blots out all evangelical doctrines, concerning the guilt of sin, the suffering of Christ and the mercy of God.

How can anyone with well balanced mind make such statements, as the above, and how can anyone accept them and still retain an intelligent grip of life and its conditions.

He must cut himself loose from every anchorage which has held him fast to truth, and send himself adrift into the mists and uncertainties of the silliest speculations.

When one this is done we need not be surprised at anything else that happens.

The cure Christian Science offers to the afflicted ones of earth is simply to believe that sin and disease do not exist—simply deny both and lo they are gone.

Is this the Saviour's cure for sin? Where is the atoning blood; a pardoning God, or a sanctifying spirit?

What do you think of this for a prayer offered to the Holy Reality by a C.S. "We know, Father, and "mother of us all, that there is no "such thing as a really diseased "stomach. Lord, help us to believe "that all evil is utterly unreal; that "it is silly to be sick, absurd to be "ailing, wicked to be wailing, atheism "and denial of God to say, 'I am "sick.'"

Some days ago one of the writers in favour of Christian Science said he had given Mr. W——— three treatments and he was improving. Unfortunately for the writer his statement is contradicted both by the friends of the deceased and by the doctor who treated him successfully.

The facts are simply these, the man was taken to the hospital to save his life and to get out of the hands of Christian Science.

While I am on this subject permit me to say, we are particularly unfortunate in Peterborough in that we have two sets of teachers in our midst whose teaching, if we judge by what we hear and see, has the effect of unbalancing the mind and destroying domestic felicity.

The marriage vow is broken, the unkindest thoughts are entertained, the strongest denunciations are uttered, and this too is the name of the meek, lowly charitable One. Strangely enough these teachers also pretend to practice the healing art and to cure all diseases, of the body except a diseased tooth which they skillfully treat in the ordinary way.

In speaking of the ministers of the churches the unkindest things are said from their platform. The ministers are represented as falling stars to be obliterated from the moral horizon of the world, and they themselves to be the bright lights which are to illuminate future generations.

I have an old Book which states that without charity, no matter what other qualities a man may possess, he is simply nothing as a religious man, so that charity is the one word which expresses the religion of Christ.

If a man is lacking in charity, that settles the whole question for him. When I hear a man speaking from from either pulpit or platform in denunciations of the faith of the churches which has been the comfort and hope of tens of thousands through all the generations, I feel sorry for him, and to me at least it is proof that he has not received a commission to preach the gospel of peace.

If a tree is known by its fruit then there are trees taking root in Peterborough that I do not intend to eat the fruit of.

I want to live and die in my right mind.

I have written these lines without the slightest feeling of unkindness but with a deep sorrow that anyone should have the foundations of their faith or of their mind, disturbed by these winds of doctrine.

OPENED THE SAFE

Mr. James English of Town Worked the Combination at Keene

Mr. James English, of town, went down to Keene yesterday, for the purpose of endeavouring to open the safe belonging to Mr. McNeil, of that place.

The safe had, it will be remembered, been tampered with on Friday night last by burglars, who tried to blow it open.

Previous to Mr. English's visit to Keene, many attempts had been made by local experts to obtain an entrance to the inside of the safe without success, but in less than five minutes after Mr. English commenced his talk, he was successful in working the combination and opening the door.

As might naturally be expected Mr. English's feat somewhat startled the inhabitants of the little village.

The burglars had not been successful in their attempts to open the safe door and the contents were, therefore, untouched.

To the chairman of the Peterborough Public Library Committee:

Sir,—We hereby submit the results of the examination papers and term's work in 1898 and 1899, in the machine drawing class of the Peterborough Public Library.

As you will see the percentages are higher than last year, and we find the classes of a much higher standard, some of their drawing being very good, while the whole are very creditable to themselves, as well as their instructor. In the senior class Peter Gillespie stood highest and in the junior class, W. D. McClennan.

H. S. GREENWOOD, T. FERGUSON, Member Can. Soc C. E. B.A.S.C.

The instructor's report was also submitted and adopted.

Dr. Burnham was appointed to act for the board on a joint committee to consider the advisability of establishing a Free Library.

A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Greenwood and Thos. Ferguson, who so kindly acted as examiners.

Early Accidents

Cause Lifelong Suffering.

A Case that is Causing Talk.

When a lad about eight years of age I fell into a cellar a distance of ten feet, striking on my head, and causing concussion of the brain. I was taken to a London, Eng., Hospital, the first seven days not recovering consciousness. I am now 35 years old and from the time of my accident until I began taking Dr. Ward's Pills five months ago I had been subject to fainting spells, never being more than two weeks without an attack of fainting. As I grew older these spells became more frequent, lasted longer, and left me with less vitality. I was weak, had no strength or stamina, always very low-spirited and down-hearted; imagined that every thing and every person was going against me, and life only had a dark side for me. My appetite was poor most of the time, but I am now happy to say that, since taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, I have only had one fainting spell, shortly after I began taking them, so I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Ward's Pills cured me. Before taking these pills I always looked for a fainting spell not more than two weeks apart; now, I would be greatly surprised at a recurrence of these spells. Life is now bright—the constant, morbid, down-hearted feeling is gone, being replaced by a contented, hopeful feeling. I feel like working. My appetite is good, and in every respect I have experienced the health and strength restoring properties of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. They certainly have proved a great blessing to me. Yours truly, (Signed), Thomas Stanton, Brighton, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.00 at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Doctor Ward Co., Limited, Toronto.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

RISKS ABOARD SHIP.

TASKS WHICH ENDANGER LIFE THAT SEAMEN MUST FACE.

One Disagreeable and Hazardous Job For Which Lots Are Always Drawn. Odors That Sicken and Fumes That Stifle the Sailors.

"There are dangers to seamen about which landsmen never think," said the captain of one of the Baltimore fleet engaged in the Rio coffee trade. "You wouldn't consider the apparently simple process of weighing anchor a risky one, yet there is a part of the job so disagreeable, not to say dangerous, that the men always draw lots to see who shall perform the duty. In the ship's bow there is a compartment hardly big enough to hold two persons comfortably, and here the anchor chain is stowed. The seaman who is to do the stowing and the underofficer who is to oversee the work reach the place down a little ladder through an aperture scarcely large enough for a fellow to squeeze himself. It is so dark there that you can't see your hand before your face, and a lantern has to be taken along. The odor at this time is bad enough, but when the chain begins to come in it becomes almost unbearable. Some of the harbors in the tropics, indeed most of them, are filthy, and there are brought up from their bottoms all sorts of disagreeable souvenirs of your visit. When I was first before the mast, on more than one occasion I almost succumbed to the frightful odor, and I have known finicky young tars who actually had to leave the ship because they could not perform this part of their duties without fainting.

"But of the real danger. Each link has to be carefully placed in its proper position as the chain comes slowly in, for otherwise when it came to dropping anchor again the whole side of the ship might be torn out. Sometimes through the carelessness of the men on deck the windlass is allowed to slip, and the chain begins to run out at a great rate. Then a fellow has to be quick, or he will be dragged up through the shoot and his life crushed out. He is warned of the danger by the metallic rattle and the smoke arising from the friction as the fast moving chain comes in contact with the shoot, and he presses as far back as he can from the iron mass, for he knows too well that a terrible death awaits him if his clothing should become entangled in the chain at such a moment. Only a few voyages since on my ship a man was caught in this way. The mate, who was by his side, managed to rescue him, but in doing so was himself carried along with the chain and had his life squeezed out. I had a pretty close call myself once. While stowing away the chain I accidentally kicked over the lantern, and the light was extinguished. Of course I could not stop in my work to let those above know what had happened, for the misplacing of a single link, as I have said, might result in disaster, and the mate unfortunately was not then near at hand.

"To be alone in the darkness and the horrible stench was far from pleasant, but of a sudden I heard a sound that filled me with terror—the rattle of the chain as it began to swiftly pay out. Some one had blundered, and there I was in that black and loathsome hole, the victim of the blunder. I shrank back, pale and trembling, for it was only a few months before that a poor devil had met the same fate that it seemed awaited me. Remember, I was only a few inches removed from that rushing, rampant mass of iron and there was no little likelihood that in some vagary of motion it might insnare me in its toils. The awful noise, the stench, the odor of the smoke, the sparks as the chain strained against the shoot, all these had their effect upon me, and my mind became a blank. When the mate came for me with a lantern, I had swooned and fallen across the compartment where the chain had laid a few moments before. The chain had run its course before I fainted, else I should have been ground to pieces.

"Sometimes the cargoes brought from the hot countries play havoc by the fumes they give forth. On one voyage the sugar we had aboard made every one sick. Matters finally became so bad that we could not live below deck. I chased a big Newfoundland dog out of its kennel aft and used the place as a berth, while the crew threw themselves around the deck at the imminent risk of being washed overboard.

"The cook had to go into the hold occasionally for provisions, and when he did so he tied a piece of cloth over his mouth and nose. After several such hurried visits he was overcome, and two other men, similarly protected, went down and secured him with ropes, and he was hauled out. The hatches could not be battened down for fear the cargo would spoil, so we had to put up the best we could with the fumes until we reached port.

"The usually pleasant aroma of coffee becomes sickening indeed when a man has to sail for weeks in a ship loaded with the grain. Pine lumber is worse, and petroleum as bad as pine lumber. You taste the stuff in everything you eat, and meat and bread are the same, so far as your palate is able to distinguish, all savoring strongly of whatever your cargo happens to be. Under the influence of the tropical sun these fumes get to be simply terrible. Once we left port with our drinking water in pine casks. We had been out only a few days when the water began to taste resinous, and from day to day the taste became more disagreeable. At last we were forced to stop drinking altogether and make for the nearest port, which happened to be in the island of St. Helena. There we changed the wooden receptacles for others of a material not so easily affected by heat, but in the meantime we had suffered cruelly for our ignorance."—Washington Star.

Full of His Subject.

The Homiletic Review says: "At the close of the forenoon session of a ministerial conference, in announcing the opening subject for the afternoon session, the presiding officer stated that Elder H—— would present a paper on 'The Devil,' and added, 'Please be prompt in attendance, for Brother H—— has a carefully prepared paper and is full of his subject.'

"Imagine his chagrin when an uproar of laughter reminded him of the unhappy witticism he had blundered into."

An Enterprising Firm.

There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than J. Lynch, druggist, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in their line for their many customers. They now have the agency for Dr. King's New Discovery, which surely cures Consumption, Coughs and Colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is now producing so much excitement all over the country, by its many startling cures. It absolutely cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Nausea, and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. You can test it before buying, by calling at the above Drug Store and get a trial Bottle free, or regular size for fifty cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure, or price refunded.

Was It Consumption?

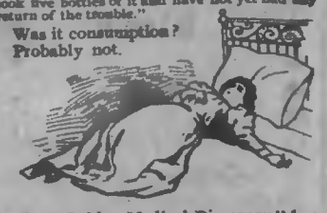
Doctors are often wrong.

The local doctor is an overworked individual. He hurries from a case of scarletina to a case of diabetes and from that to the amputation of a leg. He must act quickly—sometimes hurriedly. It is not strange that he makes an occasional mistake. But mistakes are dangerous and should be avoided.

Mrs. G. E. Kerr, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, recently had some experience. She says:

"Last spring I was taken with severe pains in my chest, and was so weak I could hardly walk about the house. I tried several physicians and they told me I had consumption. Before I had taken the first bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, I was very much better. I took five bottles of it and have not yet had any return of the trouble."

Was it consumption? Probably not.



The "Golden Medical Discovery" has been said to cure consumption. It surely and infallibly cures all bronchial and throat troubles. It strengthens weak lungs and cures lingering coughs. It is a healer and builder of tissue. It cleanses and enriches the blood—regulates the heart action—puts the whole body in tune with nature.

Mrs. Kerr's trouble was probably bronchial. It was painful—dangerous if let run—dangerous in the hands of an incompetent doctor. Don't take a local doctor's word for everything. Write to Dr. Pierce. Tell him your symptoms. For over thirty years he has been chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Consultation with him will cost you nothing.

SENATOR BOULTON IS DEAD.

Sketch of the Interesting Career of a Canadian Military Man.

Russell, May 16.—A despatch dated May 15, says: Senator Boulton died this morning at 1 o'clock of congestion of the lungs, brought on by a drive from Elkhorn in the late snow storm. He was ill eight days. The funeral will likely be on Wednesday.

Brief Biography.

Lieut.-Colonel Hon. Charles Arkoll Boulton was the son of Lieut.-Colonel D'Arcy Boulton of Cobourg, Ontario, and was born in that town Sept. 17, 1841. He was educated at Upper Canada College. In 1858 he was gazetted ensign in H. M. 100th Regiment (Royal Canadians); was promoted to lieutenant in 1861, and, after serving in various parts of the world, retired from the army in 1868. In the same year he was appointed major of the 46th Battalion, V.M., and soon afterwards went to Red River, now Manitoba. At the outbreak of the rebellion under Riel in 1870 he took an active part on the side loyal with the late Sir John Schults, and was one of the Canadian party arrested and imprisoned and sentenced to death by the conspirators.

Returning to Ontario after the restoration of peace, he engaged in lumbering operations in Lakefield, and was elected reeve, serving for three years. He became brevet lieut.-colonel in 1873 and retired with that rank in 1881.

In 1880 he again became a resident of Manitoba, and then devoted himself to farming at Shellmouth. Elected warden of the County of Russell, he filled that office for three years, and was subsequently chairman of the Judicial Board of the Western Judicial District.

He raised a corps of mounted riflemen known as "Boulton's Scouts," and commanded the same throughout the Northwest Rebellion, 1885, for which he obtained a medal. He was an unsuccessful candidate for the representation of Birtle in the Manitoba Assembly at the general election in 1879, and for Marquette in the House of Commons at the general election in 1887. He wrote an interesting book, "Reminiscences of the Northwest Rebellion."

He was called to the Senate by Lord Stanley in 1889 and has since acted generally with the Liberal party in that chamber. In 1897 he accompanied Sir Wilfrid Laurier to England as a member of the staff sent to represent Canada at the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. He favored a commercial unity of the Empire upon a free trade basis. In 1898 he introduced a motion favoring an international peace tribunal.

The late Colonel married Miss Latter. His daughter, Miss C. H. Boulton, has displayed ability as a writer for the periodical press, and edited a newspaper in Manitoba. In religion the Senator belonged to the Church of England.

BRAIN FAG

Is the result of Overwork and an Exhausted Nervous System. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food creates New Brain and Nerve Tissue.

Business and professional men, accountants, stenographers, teachers, students and all brain workers know only too well what it means to have the brain so tired out that concentration of thought is almost impossible.

One-fifth of all the blood in the human body is found in the brain, and unless the blood is pure and rich the brain becomes exhausted for want of proper nourishment.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Blood Food creates new brain and nerve tissue, and produces rich red blood, "the vital fluid" of the body.

All brain workers quickly recognize the merits of this great food cure, and after a few doses enter on their work with new energy and ambition.

Brain fag is unknown to persons whose brain and nerve have been invigorated by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which is for sale by all dealers at 50c. a box.

Jail Officials Got a Scare.

Winnipeg, May 15.—Guscsak, the condemned Galician murderer, who is to be hanged a week from Friday next, gave the jail officials a scare yesterday. When they went to his cell in the morning it was empty. The murderer had sprung the lock. He was in hiding in the jail building, however, and was soon secured.

The probability is that Czuby, the other Galician murderer, will be reprieved, as he shows signs of insanity, and is supposed to have been a mere instrument in the hands of the other murderer.

Doctors said Incurable

But the Notary, Mr. Lemire, was cured of Kidney Disease in two months by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is only when thoroughly convinced of the superior merit of a remedy that public men will give their sanction.

Mr. E. H. Lemire, Notary Public, 169a Notre Dame Street, Montreal, tells of his remarkable recovery from a severe attack of kidney disease. When doctors had failed, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills saved his life. He writes: "I give this statement, first because it is only just that the merit of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills should be made known, and again in order that others may profit by my experience. For years I suffered with kidney disease which doctors pronounced incurable. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which I have used for two months, I am completely cured. They helped me from the first, and the cure is now perfect."

A SOUVENIR.

I found them in a book last night,
These withered violets,
A token of that early love
That no man e'er forgets.
Pressed carefully between the leaves,
They keep their color still.
I cannot look at them today
Without an old time thrill.

Ah, me, what tricks does memory play!
The passing years have fled
And hopes that lived in vigor once,
Alas! have long been dead.
And this is all that I can say,
When all is said and done,
Those flowers remind me of some girl—
I wish I knew which one!

AN AMANA ROMANCE.

What led Herr Schweppe to join the Amanites no one knew but the elders. The Amanites did not gossip about it. They were not given to gossiping about anything. Work, duty, God—these were all their thoughts. But the visitors to the close lying Amana villages seldom failed to notice that Herr Schweppe was a gentleman and to wonder how he came to join the Amanites, with their plain clothes and their lives of toil. The mystery was hid in the books of the elders. There was once a visitor who claimed that he had had a glimpse of the page and saw "Bismarck" written twice on Herr Schweppe's record. The name was "Von Schweppe," too, this visitor said, though it was only Schweppe now.

Be that as it may, Herr Schweppe's daughter Annie bore the traits of noble German birth. She was a dark haired, dark eyed maid, appearing among the other girls of the community like a bit of Sevres ware surrounded by pieces of useful but homely plain white china. Little did the thrifty, godly Amanites care for such beauty. In Amana a yard of blue calico was accounted as worth far more than a dimple.

The sorrows of exile killed Herr Schweppe when Annie was a child, before she had grown so beautiful. Annie had never seen a mirror, and no one told her of her beauty. Her mother gloated over it in secret. She loved Annie far better than the elders would have sanctioned, but when the child was near she was silent and cold. The life of repression had had its effect on poor Mother Schweppe.

In Amana the elders discouraged lovemaking. Men and women entered the church by different doors, and a line of sawdust box cuspidors marked off the men's side of the house. But among the girls at the Amana gasthaus were two persons who did not have the law of Amana in their hearts. They were not Amana girls, but came from outside, for no Amanite would have permitted his daughter to be subjected to the gaze of the strangers in the gasthaus. It was Madge and Nora, alas, who put all the mischief into Annie's mind.

June moonlight was falling over the yellow wheatfields, and the fragrance of grapevine blossoms on the wall half intoxicated Annie as she leaned out of the small, square window next the slanting roof of her mother's cottage. It was while Annie was still thinking of the land that might lie outside of Amana that Madge and Nora came along and asked her to go with them to their party. And Annie stole away and went.

A ghostly little party it was, of Madge and Nora and Annie and only three others in the hotel kitchen, but as they sat in the glare of the oil lamp reflector it seemed to Annie the wildest dissipation. Two sheepish young Amanites slouched on the bench at one side of the kitchen, nervously pulling their straw hats over their faces if any one glanced at them. The third young man was entirely unlike these. Annie, big eyed and timorous, gazed at him in wonder. He wore such clothes as fitted him. His ruddy hair was brushed back from his ears, not over them, in the fashion of the Amanites. His face was clean shaven, his figure lithe and sinewy, and his merry eyes roved hither and thither while he regaled the company with music. It was a mouth organ which he played, but no matter. To Annie it was heavenly. She had never before heard music of any kind, for the Amanites attached a penalty even to whistling. Suddenly Annie was trembling and sobbing, and the player, conscience smitten, ceased his melody.

He was not a great stranger to her, as Annie had thought. He had not so very many years ago worn the blue jean and straw hats of the community. He was none other than Hermann, the son of Herr Tappan, whom Annie had often seen in church when a child. The community had permitted Herr Tappan to send his son away to a college, for Hermann was to be the physician of the community, their Herr Doctor, as they called him.

Hermann understood the timidity of Annie. He, too, had once been restrained till all his thoughts were sadness. He bade the girls take her at once to her mother's cottage, and he watched them all till Annie had disappeared through the window.

But why should the young Herr Doctor come to Mother Schweppe's cottage next day, asking for her famous wine for his patients?

"Knowest thou not I have disposed of it long before this time?" cried Mother Schweppe.

"I thought perhaps thou mightst be making it again," faltered Hermann.

"Make wine in June? What sort of a man!" And Mother Schweppe laughed loudly and unmelodiously, much as one of her cabbages might have laughed.

And while her dull eyes were closed in mirth Hermann crushed into Annie's hand a bit of paper, and Annie, child though she was, hid herself among the grapevines before she dared to open it.

"Thou art most beautiful! I love thee." That was all.

After that it was easy for Anile to climb down by the grape vine from her window, and once she went alone with Hermann, far down the solitary railroad track. But Madge loved Hermann, too, in her way, and being jealous, she told Annie's mother.

The next day the elders came to Mother Schweppe's house. No one smiled, and the interview was full of long silences. Annie was taken down the street, an elder in front of her and an elder behind her. They put her in a house, far away from her mother, and gave her a double portion of work. Hermann, too, was taken to a cloister, though he went laughing.

Six months' seperation, six months' fasting, prayer and hard work was required, and if after that ordeal the two still wished to be married the elders would consider the matter.

A week passed. Hermann and Annie had sat in their places at the morning service, and it chanced that they, with meekly folded hands, emerged from the two doors of the church at the same moment. Suddenly each one advanced to the other; they met and walked away together. The elders were so astounded that for a moment no one could speak. There had never been such an audacious breach of the rules. Even the most venerable members of the community were dumfounded.

The whistle of an approaching train awoke them all to action. "Disobedience!" the chief elder cried, and all the elders hurried down the street to the railway station. Here they found Hermann and Annie, impenitent and defiant. There was a brief storm of angry words.

"We give you but one year to consider," said the long faced chief elder. "You may never show your faces here again if you come not back within the year."

"Thou, Hermann, leavest thy aged father, and thou, Annie, thy mother," said another, more kindly.

Annie looked down at her blue calico gown and her rough shoes. "What have they done for us?" she cried.

They ascended the steps of the car. "Give them goodby!" called Hermann petulantly. "We come back no more." And the train pulled away.

"All the world loves a lover," said Herr Tappan to Mother Schweppe sadly, "but the lover loves no one but himself and his sweetheart."

So Hermann and Annie went to the city. They were happy, and there seemed to be no ghosts at their fireside. "Father and mother think more of their carrots than they do of us," they would say merrily when they spoke of Amana at all.

In May their baby was born. He was a beautiful child, and Hermann and Annie never tired of watching him. Hermann could scarcely tear himself away from baby to attend his patients. Contagious diseases he refused to treat. Baby might catch them. Annie's face grew softer as she looked at the child. For hours they would amuse themselves watching him clasp a lead pencil in his chubby fingers. They cut off a lock of his baby hair and saved it in the Bible.

"Whom does the baby look like, Annie?" asked Hermann carelessly one day.

"Like you did when you were a baby, I suppose," answered Annie gayly. Suddenly a startled look came into her eyes. The thought came to Hermann at the same moment. He dropped on his knees before the child. "Did they think of me as we think of our baby?" he whispered. Annie was sobbing. "God may yet forgive us," she cried. "The year is not ended. We may still return."

* * * * * * *

The good God had not ended Mother Schweppe's life. Herr Tappan, too, was still trudging among his vegetables when Hermann and Annie came back.

"It would have been a year tomorrow already," Herr Tappan said stolidly, but his withered lips went trembling, and he embraced Hermann and Annie and blessed them.

And Mother Schweppe paddled back to her cellar with a sly smile, returning full handed. "I have all this time since last autumn kept six bottles of wine for thee, Hermann," she said.—Julia Crawford Underwood in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

ETERNAL VIGILANCE.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." It is the price of everything worth having. It is the price of life itself. A man needn't be always looking for danger, afraid that something will happen to him; but a wise man will form a habit of care about the important things of life. It isn't half so much trouble to take care of yourself as it is not to. A man who follows regular, healthy habits, feels good all the time. Life is worth living to him. But a man who "don't want to bother" with taking care of himself has more pain and misery crowded into one day than a good healthy, hearty man who lives right would ever know of in a whole year.

When a man's stomach is out of order, and his digestion don't work; when his liver gets to be sluggish and won't clear the bile out of his blood, it is time for him to look out for himself. He gets no nourishment out of his food. His blood gets thicker and thicker with impurities. His nerves get irritated. He loses energy and fighting force.

He may say, "I can stand it, I will feel better to-morrow;" but the chances are he will feel worse to-morrow and worse still next day. He ought to put himself right at once. He needs Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is made for just this condition. It rouses up the digestive and nutritive organs, and gives them power to extract from the food all the nutritious elements and transform them into rich, nourishing blood. It enables the liver to cleanse out all bilious impurities and pour into the circulation an abundance of highly vitalized blood, full of the life-giving red corpuscles which build up healthy flesh, muscular strength, and nerve-energy. It does not make flabby flesh. It is the only suitable tonic and strength-builder for corpulent people because it does not increase the weight above the normal standard.

"RACKED WITH PAIN."

"For fourteen years I have been a sufferer from many ailments peculiar to women," writes Mrs. M. G. Bearden, of Stogner, Carroll Co., Georgia. "I had liver complaint, indigestion, and many other afflictions. Had been for two years so ill that I was able to do but very little; part of the time could do nothing. After reading your medical pamphlet I resolved to try your medicine, although with but little hope of relief. I had become so feeble I was sick all the time, and racked with pain. Could eat but very little. I only slept about four hours in the twenty-four. There was no rest for me anywhere. I began taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery' which gave me immediate relief. I was better the next day, and in a short time I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription.' I have continued to gain in health and strength, having taken in all four bottles of 'Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and one vial of your 'Pleasant Pellets.' My weight has increased from 90 to 134 pounds under your treatment."

SAVED HIS LIFE.

"I am happy to say that through your skillful treatment I am once more a well man," writes J. N. Arnold, Esq., of Gandy, Logan Co., Neb. "I cannot find words to express my gratitude. I suffered for years and could not find relief until I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and his 'Pleasant Pellets,' as you prescribed in my case. I suffered for years with constipation and torpidity of the liver which caused irritation of the prostate, and in the end resulted in inflammation of the bladder. I had only taken one bottle when I found great relief and the second bottle made me feel better than I had felt for years. I took six bottles, and I think the medicine has effected a permanent cure, as it has been two months since I stopped taking the medicine and I have no symptoms of its returning. I think you have been the means of saving my life."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser has had a great sale. 1,008,000 with 300 illustrations. This great book in paper covers, is now offered FREE to whoever will send 21 one-cent stamps to pay for mailing only. Cloth binding 50 stamps. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

New and Original Advertising.

It is interesting to watch the new ideas to be found in the advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The present line of advertisements is especially unique, each beginning with a familiar proverb and leading up to the good qualities of this famous medicine. The argument in every case is clinched by condensed testimonials from peopel the medicine has cured. It is gratifying to see the continued success of an article of genuine merit. While other preparations come to the surface and after a short time disappear, Hood's Sarsaparilla has steadily maintained its place in public confidence.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

The Drummond County Railway—The Senate Obstructions—Sir Charles on Lord Aberdeen.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Ottawa, May 13.—The tactics adopted by Sir Charles Tupper on Tuesday when he attempted to further delay the discussion upon the Drummond County Railway resolutions were not of a character to excite the confidence of his supporters or the admiration of the country. The Government proposal to purchase the Drummond County Railway as an extension of the Intercolonial into Montreal is one of the most important measures now before parliament. It has been before the country for the past two years, and was as thoroughly investigated last session as the ingenuity of the Opposition could devise, for upon the apparent principle that it is impossible for a transaction of that character to take place without some attendant crookedness, the Opposition set out to discover who was getting "the boodle," which they unhesitatingly declared was being secured by some one in connection with the proposal. They did not hesitate to talk flippantly of the "steal," both in Parliament and in the country, but when the Government forced the investigation to a finish and compelled the following up of every rumour, insinuation and inuendo, the whole fabrication tumbled to pieces like a house of cards, and at the closing session of the investigating committee, Mr. Haggart, ex-Minister of Railways, was compelled, in specific terms, to withdraw every charge, which he did in the words, "We never made any charges of corruption," to which Mr. Powell, the Conservative member for Westmoreland, N.B., added, "Candidly I never heard anything in the House about corruption." It was a sorry retreat for responsible members of Parliament.

A Policy of Obstruction.

Owing to the obstruction of the Senate the proposal to secure the road two years ago was defeated, and to carry out its policy of making the Intercolonial a national asset instead of a national liability, the Government was compelled to lease the road in the meantime. More satisfied than ever that the project to purchase it was upon sound business lines, the Government has once more brought the matter before parliament, and several attempts have been made to bring on the discussion, but the matter was delayed each time at the instance of Sir Charles Tupper, who upon one pretext or another secured a postponement. When on Tuesday it was found no longer possible to delay the matter, the Opposition leader raised an absurd quibble upon a mere technicality, and wasted the whole afternoon and part of the evening sitting also, in talking upon every imaginable subject that could be made to have reference thereto. The obstruction failed, however, to accomplish anything save an unwarrantable waste of public time and when at length Mr. Blair was allowed to present the resolutions, he did so in an exhaustive exposition of the Government policy which placed the whole matter clearly before parliament and the country.

The Road Will Pay Well.

He showed that the proposal to purchase the road for $1,600,000 was a reasonable one ,and would put the country in possession of a valuable addition to its property at considerable less cost that it could be otherwise secured. He showed, moreover, that the statement that has been freely made that the Intercolonial had been losing money in the past was misleading, for its position had been steadily improving of recent years, until the result of the present year's operations would show a larger surplus than there had ever been in the history of the road, a surplus indeed which would be larger than all the surpluses that had ever been obtained, and he asked the House to draw the very natural inference that this was due to the fact that a very productive section of railway had been added to the system. He predicted that the Intercolonial was only on the threshold of its business development, and now that the agreement by which the railway had in the past been compelled to transfer all its through business to the C. P. R. was being terminated, the restrictions which had militated against its success were disappearing That the removal of these restrictions were being so strenuously opposed by the Opposition, warranted the Minister of Railways in contending that there was strong suspicion that Sir Sir Charles Tupper and his followers were more concerned for the interests of the C.P.R. than for the interests of the country, and it might be suggested to the venerable baronet that there is considerable danger of the electorate coming to the same conclusion.

Opening an Old Sore.

The truth of the old adage that whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad was further exemplified on Monday afternoon when Sir Charles Tupper consumed considerable time in once more discussing the question of the action of Lord Aberdeen in 1896 in refusing to confirm a large number of appointments which the Conservative Government made after its defeat at the polls and immediately before it resigned office. Each session since, matter has been discussed in the House and Sir Wilfrid Laurier has explained that he had the authority of the Secretary of State for the Colonies for stating that he approved the principles upon which the Governor General acted, as based upon the facts set forth in the letter of His Excellency to Sir Charles Tupper. The Opposition leader, however refused to accept this statement and demanded that all correspondence be laid on the table of the House. He was well aware that the rules governing official correspondence, would make it impossible to comply with this request, but he imagined that the necessary necessary refusal of the Premier to comply therewith would give some appearance of truth to his contention that the Governor-General had not the authority which he claimed to possess. Such an attitude towards the Queen's representative is probably unprecedented in the history of the Empire, but no man cares less for precedent when it suits his purpose to ignore it. The Canadian electorate however is not so easily cajoled as Sir Charles appears to think, and apart from the question of a strict interpretation of constitutional practice, the country is well satisfied that Lord Aberdeen acted properly in refusing to allow a defeated and discredited government to exercise powers which the country had so emphatically refused to continue. Sir Charles now threatens to carry the matter to the Imperial Parliament; it is hard to imagine that he can seriously contemplate anything so exceedingly foolish, but as I observed just now whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad.

Kidney Disease, Man's Deadliest Foe—Dodd's Kidney Pills its Only Cure.

Toronto, May 15. — "Yellow fever and smallpox combined do not kill as many people as Kidney Disease does." was the assertion of a prominent physician, recently.

The assertion is fully borne out by facts, and were it not that there is a means of checking and curing Kidney disease the number of its victims would be trebled.

But the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills keeps the death rate from this complaint quite low compared to its former height.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were used in every case of Kidney Disease there would be no deaths from it.

A SUGGESTION FROM THE SOUTH END.

Mr. Editor.— It is the sincere hope of the residents of the south end of the town that the attempt now being made to force upon them the stock yards will be promptly suppressed. To permit such a thing will be to proclaim our town a place where all sense of justice in regard to the rights of communities has been smothered.

Instead of establishing cattle yards to pollute the air with its offensive odours and disturb the rest of the labourer with its bawling occupants, it would be more fitting if those in authority would provide and maintain a park in the south end where those who are shut up in the heated workshop all day could breathe a breath of fresh air, and perhaps enjoy the music of one of the bonused bands one evening each week. I am sure, Mr. Editor, that there is no part of the town where a park is more needed than in the south end, and I am equally sure that it would be deeply appreciated by a large number who are too tired in the evening to walk to the uptown parks.

SOUTH ENDER.

Pure and Clean Temples.

Now is the Time to Cleanse and Tone the Body.

Paine's Celery Compound Rebuilds and Strengthens Broken-down and Weakened Physical Frames.

On the street, in assemblies and where men and women do most congregate, the quick and critical eye can discern weakness, decay and disease.

The cruel signs of disease and death are not confined to any particular class or age. There are prominent victims in youth and full age, and this is truly the season when the army of diseased people shows up in full strength.

The faces of men and women in the month of May are the true indicators of health or disease. Pale, sallow faces, cheeks bloated and full of pimples and nasty eruptions, nervous twitching of the limbs and unsteady gait, all tell of weakness and growing disease.

In the great majority of cases poisoned blood is the prime cause of all trouble. For such as suffer from blood and skin diseases, Paine's Celery Compound is their true rescuer —their only salvation. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers known to medical men; its marvellous cures are the truest and best proofs of its efficacy.

For nervousness, dyspepsia, headaches, biliousness and liver complaint that so quickly wear out nervous energy and life, Paine's Celery Compound stands far ahead of all other medicines as a curative agent.

It is just now that Paine's Celery Compound can best show its power over disease and weakness. A bottle or two used before the hot weather comes on, will certainly effect a most blessed change for every man and woman whose blood is foul, impure and sluggish.

Uitlander Prisoners Arraigned in the Pretorian Court.

REMANDED FOR A FORTNIGHT.

Troops Sent to Natal—Statement of the Case Sent to the Transvaal Government's London Agent—All Sorts of Rumors Concerning the Alleged Conspiracy — Kruger to Meet Milner.

Pretoria, Transvaal Republic, May 18.—The seven alleged revolutionists, who presented the appearance of ordinary loafers, were arraigned yesterday morning in court and were charged with the capital offence of high treason. They were remanded for a fortnight.

Sworn affidavits alleged that 2,000 men have been enrolled for military service, and that it was intended to arm them in Natal, to return them to the Rand and at a given signal to seize and hold the port of Johannesburg for 24 hours pending the arrival of British troops.

The Press says the Government regards the matter as "an unfortunate local incident which will not affect the general political situation."

The Government also confirms the report that the arrangements between President Kruger and the Governor of Cape Colony and high commissioner of South Africa, Sir Alfred Milner, for a meeting at Bloemfontein, capital of the Orange Free State, are nearly completed. The President's proposed reforms will be presented to the Raad (Legislature) prior to the meeting.

TROOPS SENT TO NATAL.

Three Batteries of Artillery Ordered Out in a Hurry.

London, May 18.—Three batteries of field artillery have been ordered to South Africa and will leave England next Monday. Their destination is the National Arsenal in the Transvaal, near the Boer Republic. Although the dispatch of these troops is part of a plan to strengthen the British forces in South Africa, the hurry orders under which they move make their departure significant. Their arrival in Natal will give England six strong batteries at that particular point, which is easy of access to the Transvaal.

High Treason Charged.

The consul of the Transvaal here has received the following telegram from his Government, dated Pretoria, May 16.—"Richard Nicholls, describing himself as a colonel; George Patterson, a captain; Edward J. Tremlett, Charles Ellis and John A. Mitchell, lieutenants, and Fries and Hooper, were arrested yesterday morning on the sworn declaration of three Englishmen, on the charge of high treason, in connection with the alleged object of enrollment of troops to create a revolution, seize Johannesburg fort, and hold possession of the town until British troops from Natal could come to their assistance.

"One of the prisoners alleges that he was acting under instructions from the British War Department."

Were the Charges Trumped Up?

A representatives of the Associated Press saw a number of prominent South Africans connected with the leading concerns of Johannesburg yesterday. They all declared that they had not received a word from their own agents in Cape Colony, indicating, they added, that the affair was "trumped up by the Boer police," and that in any case the men arrested were irresponsible nobodies with fictitious military titles affixed by the Boers with the object of discrediting the British in the eyes of the continental powers. It is now believed that Tremlett was formerly a captain of volunteers in Cape Colony, and he is now a mining agent; Patterson is described as a butcher and labor agitator; Mitchell is said to be a storekeeper; Hooper is classed as a carpenter; Ellis is alleged to be a private detective, and the occupations of Fries and Nicholls are unknown.

What a Uitlander Says.

A prominent Uitlander said to the representative of the Associated Press: "My own view is that a few unknown and irresponsible people met together to discuss means of defence in case the necessity of such action arose. Those who are acquainted with Johannesburg know that such precautions are necessary. There was the greatest unrest and ferment there when I left. But the statement that there has been a conspiracy during the past four months and that the South African League was connected with it is untrue. No Uitlander is allowed to possess a rifle, yet at every corner are policemen armed with rifles and revolvers.

"It is a significant fact that the men arrested are practically unknown, showing that the feeling which in 1895 was limited to the capitalist class, has now gone lower down and has reached the ordinary working class of shopkeepers of Johannesburg."

Too Absurd for Refutation.

In response to inquiries on the subject made in Government circles, the correspondent here of the Associated Press was told yesterday that the statement that the men arrested at Johannesburg had acted under instructions from the British War Office, was "too absurd for refutation."

A corrected description of the prisoners says that Tremlett is a civilian, Fries a Danish subject and all the other British ex-non-commissioned officers.

LAID A CORNER-STONE AT 80.

Her Majesty Queen Victoria at the Victoria and Albert Museum.

London, May 18.—Queen Victoria laid the foundation-stone of the Victoria and Albert Museum yesterday. She drove through the streets lined with troops from Buckingham Palace, the royal carriage being escorted by a detachment of the Life Guards. Her Majesty was accompanied by several princes and princesses, and other royal personages met her at the museum, where a raised dais was reserved for them. The ambassadors, members of the Cabinet and the leading state officials occupied a pavilion at the site of the museum.

Crowds of people gathered along the route from early morning, and an enormous number had gathered at the time the Queen started from the palace at 4.15 p.m. The houses along the route were decorated, and there were strings of flags across the roads. The sun shone brightly. A gaily-dressed assemblage witnessed the ceremony, which the Queen performed without leaving her carriage, and amid much enthusiasm. Her Majesty afterwards took the train to Windsor.

A Miniature Jubilee.

The ceremonies resembled a miniature jubilee. Inside the museum the scene recalled the spectacle at St. Peter's Cathedral upon the occasion of the Jubilee. The Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Rosebery, all the Cabinet Ministers and the diplomatic corps were present, nearly all of them wearing brilliant uniforms. The arrival of the Ministers, in splendid equipages, with footmen, was very picturesque.

Her Majesty looked remarkable. She was dressed in black, except for a white plume in her bonnet. She took the greatest interest in the mechanical part of the stone-laying, talking lengthily with the Prince of Wales on the subject. The Queen was seated in a four-horse open carriage, with Scotchmen on the rumble, and escorted by outriders.

The National Anthem was sung by pupils of the Royal College of Music, and, afterwards, a madrigal, specially composed by the poet laureate, Mr. Alfred Austin, was sung to music written by Sir Alexander Mackenzie, principal of the Royal Academy of Music. The Archbishop of Canterbury, primate of all England, read the prayers.

Russia Will Not Accept Refusal.

London, May 18.—The Pekin correspondent of The Times says:

"M. de Geirs, Russian minister to China, declines to accept the refusal of the Chinese Government to grant the railway concession to connect Pekin with Russia's present railroad system in Manchuria. He will insist upon the grant. Unless supported by some other power, China will yield to Russia. She is surrounded with calamities brought upon her by Italy, France and Germany, while England's hands are tied by the Anglo-Russian convention."

Honored the Boy King's Birthday.

Gibraltar, May 18.—In honor of the birthday of the King of Spain, who was born May 17, 1886, the land batteries here and the American cable steamer Hooker, which arrived May 15, from New York, yesterday fired salutes and the vessel was dressed with bunting.

Robert H. Haines Sent for Trial.

Chatham, Ont., May 18.—Robert H. Haines was given a preliminary hearing at Ridgetown on Wednesday, charged with criminal assault. He was committed for trial and brought to jail here yesterday morning.

JOINT COMMISSION.

The Washington Negotiations Will Not Be Broken Off.

STATEMENT FROM WASHINGTON

A Conference at the Foreign Office in London Between Lord Salisbury, Sir Julian Pauncefote and Ambassador Choate—The Alaskan Boundary Question May Be Submitted to Arbitration.

Washington, May 18.—As the result of a conference at the Foreign Office in London, between Lord Salisbury, Sir Julian Pauncefote and Ambassador Choate, it can now be predicted that the high joint commission to adjust issues between the United States and Canada will be re-assembled during the coming summer or early fall. This outcome is not positively assured, but Mr. Choate's report of the exchanges at the Foreign Office certainly convey great encouragement to the officials here, and warrant the expectation that negotiations may be again taken up with some prospect of reaching an agreement.

It can be stated that if the commission reconvenes it will only do so on a complete abandonment of the old basis, which proved to be unsuitable to the erection of a complete agreement, and the United States Government will have some sort of assurance in advance of the nature and degree of the concessions that may be expected from the other side, the lack of which, it is said, caused the failure of the first negotiations.

Have Taken a New Turn.

The negotiations have taken a new turn by the suggestion that the Alaskan boundary question be submitted to arbitration, independent of the other issues involved, thus leaving the commission free to resume its work on the many other pending questions.

SAN ISIDRO TAKEN.

Gen. Lawton in Possession at the Second Rebel Capital—There Was Only Slight Resistance.

Manila, May 18.—General Lawton's advance guard, under Col. Summers of the Oregon troops, took San Isidro, the second insurgent capital, at 8.30 o'clock yesterday morning.

Col. Summers' command, consisting of the 22nd Infantry on the left, the Minnesota Regiment in the center and the Oregon and North Dakota Regiments on the right, preceded by scouts and accompanied by Scott's battery and artillery, advanced from Balurte at daylight. The troops first encountered the enemy two miles from San Isidro, the rebels retiring when our artillery opened fire. Just outside the town a rebel force, estimated to number 2,000 men, was entrenched. It made a slight resistance, but evacuated its position when the American troops turned its right flank.

The enemy's loss was 15 men killed and 20 wounded. Our troops also captured three prisoners and many rifles. On the American side, one soldier of the Oregon Regiment and one of the Minnesota Regiment were wounded.

WORSE THAN EVER AT BUFFALO.

Firemen of Lake Boats Threaten to Go Out—Vessels Leaving Port.

Buffalo, N.Y., May 18.—The strike situation here was further complicated last night by the action of the firemen on the lake boats deciding to go on strike at noon to-day if the other strikers had not secured a settlement of their grievances with the Buffalo Union, and if they go out it will prevent the movement of boats either in or out of the harbor.

Anticipating this latest move the owners of several vessels ordered their boats away from Buffalo yesterday and these boats are now making for Cleveland and other ports in an endeavor to get rid of their cargoes.

OPENING PROCEEDINGS.

The Opening of the Czar's Peace Conference—The Program Contemplated—M. de Staal the Chairman.

The Hague, May 18.—All the delegates to the international peace conference have arrived. Yesterday was spent in a general exchange of visits.

The city is brilliantly decorated with foreign flags, denoting the various national headquarters.

The reporters will only be admitted to hear the inaugural addresses of M. de Beaufort, who is excluded from opening the discussion of the Czar's project.

Three commissions will then be named to arrange programs for discussion.

The first relates to restrictions of armaments and military expenditure, the second deals with the laws governing civilized warfare, and the third with the mediation and arbitration.

M. de Staal will open the conference by summarizing the objects of the gathering and expressing the confidence of Emperor Nicholas that the powers will support the beneficent work of the conference. After the appointment of the commissions the conference will adjourn for a week.

Will Sing Before the Queen.

London, May 18.—Wagner's "Lohengrin," without the second act, will be produced at Windsor Castle on the Queen's Birthday, with a cast including Jean and Edouard de Reszke, Mme. Nordica, Mme. Schumann-Heink and David Bispham. The conductor will be Signor Mancinelli.

Turkish Traitor Must Die.

Moscow, May 18.—News has been received from Constantinople that the Sultan has signed the death warrant of Col. Aziz Bey of the Turkish general staff, convicted by court-martial of having sold to a foreign power the secret information and military plans of the Turkish War Ministry.

SHIRT WAISTS

Are as good a test of a store as any other one thing. They are a better test than most things. It is easy for a dealer with slip-shod methods to get ill-fitting Shirt Waists, of poor patterns, and last season's shapes. They generally do the easy thing.

Some makers are famous for the Style and Fit they get into every Garment they make. It costs them no more to turn out such goods than to produce the sloppy, slouchy sorts. It really costs them less—they waste less. These are the makers we hunt out. It is is THEIR work we show you here. Their economies may be your gain—more than a money gain too.

Here are SHIRT WAISTS of English Cambrics, American Percales, French Muslins, Anderson's Scotch Zephyrs, American Dimities, Manchester Piques and Swiss Muslins; in stripes up and down and around about, checks straight and bias. Floral Stripes relieved from their set designs by dainty Frills and Insertions, others by white Tucked Yokes and Valencience Lace; most of them have the Newby round Collar and Cuffs of the same material, others have the white rounded Collars and Cuffs—when you think of the stuffs these Blouses are composed of, and the work on them, and the style that is cut and sewed, and ironed into everyone of them, you will be convienced that the prices are right, and the character of Shirt Waists you had hoped to find are here.

"Cheerful looks" depend just as much upon physical well-being as upon natural disposition and temperament. If the blood is disordered, the brain is starved, and no "dish is a feast," for the reason that the vitalizing elements do not reach the proper spot.

A step in the right direction is to purify the body by the use of a natural remedy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is Nature's remedy. It acts upon the blood, and whether the seat of the disorder is brain, stomach, liver or kidneys, the purifying process of this medicine is equally sure and successful. It never disappoints.

Great Builder—"Have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion, constipation and finds it builds up the whole system and gives relief in cases of catarrh." WILLIAM E. WELDON, Moncton, N. B.

Sour Stomach—"My system was out of order. I suffered from headache and sour stomach. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my health improved and I gained 18 pounds." MAXWELL D. SHANGRAW, Colebrooke, Ont.

Bad Cough—"My sister was troubled with a cough which caused pain in her left side. She was confined to her bed. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few weeks she was able to sit up in bed, her appetite improved and the cough and accompanying pain disappeared." LILY WALKER, 24 Cottingen Street, Halifax, N. S.

Dyspepsia—"My husband suffered with dyspepsia. Physicians did not benefit him. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved him. My husband's father and our little boy have been wonderfully benefited by this medicine." MRS. O. F. CHAMBERLAIN, Glen Sutton, Que.

Run Down—"My system was run down. I could not sleep nights and my appetite was poor. Hood's Sarsaparilla restored an appetite and strength and has made me feel like a new woman." MRS. S. E. DEYDES, Amherst, N. S.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Dr. Platt, ex-M.P. for Prince Edward County, has been appointed Warden of Kingston Penitentiary, in place of Mr. James H. Metcalf, who is compelled to retire through illness.

Canada's prosperity can be more fitly ascribed to Providence than to the present Government.—Toronto News.

Just so. No one, says the London Advertiser, should be fool enough to argue that any Government can create prosperity, but a Government can at least help the country to take advantage of it by removing the clogs from industry, and lightening the tax burdens. It does seem, as if though Providence was on the side of the Liberal party just now.

A writer in the Brantford News suggests the possibility that class distinctions may be accentuated through the introduction of the savings banks system into the public schools. In comment the Expositor, which has special knowledge on the subject, says that experience with 100,000 such banks in Europe, and with a large number in the United States, shows that such fears are absolutely groundless. All classes make use of them, and they have been particularly beneficial to those people whose savings are necessarily small. Furthermore, deposits are made in such a way that there need be no disclosure of the amount to any child's credit.

The Stratford Beacon says:—"A charge of nepotism is laid against Sir Richard Cartwright, founded on a number of his relatives being in the service in the Dominion and Provincial Governments, nearly all of whom were there before Sir Richard entered the Cabinet. Some of them, distant cousins, have held their offices over a quarter of a century, while his sons, who are in the Mounted Police or in the permanent militia corps, earned their promotions in the regular way, the same as others who enlisted. Indeed, instead of Sir Richard being a factor in their advancement, it is well known that his position as a Liberal leader worked to their disadvantage under the late regime. Sir Richard Cartwright is so well known not to be influenced by monetary considerations in the discharge of public duties that this attack will have little effect with the country."

On the very important question of future railway policy The Ottawa Journal says—"The duty of the hour is to make the best of the matter and by keeping an eye on all future railway bills make sure that no charter is passed which allows a railway to run at its own will and to snap its fingers at the Government. As the purchase of the railways by Government is out of the question at present, even were it desirable, the theory and practice should be adopted that in no particular is any railway free from the inspection and monitory advice of the Government, and that power is reserved by the Railway Committee to put such pressure on the managements that the advisability of complying with the Government's demands will be apparent to the meanest railway intelligence."

At the Conservative gatherings in this city on Saturday last, says the Brantford Expositor, the usual charge was made against the Ontario Government that it is constantly robbing the municipalities of revenue that is rightfully theirs. Yet, on the following Monday evening, Ald. Elliott, one of the gentlemen who subscribes to these sentiments, and was present when they were uttered, made a motion in the City Council for the appointment of a delegation to wait on the Ontario Government and solicit assistance towards dealing with the Grand River floods. A deputation from Mr. Carscallen's home city was in Toronto the other day and asked and obtained a promise of aid toward a technical school project in Hamilton. And so it goes on. The Ontario Government is appealed to for support to all kinds of projects. It aids the most deserving, so far as it can do so, and in this way, as well as in the large sums annually expended in the maintenance of public institutions and for educational purposes, relieves the municipalities of much expenditure which they would otherwise have to be responsible for. It will be found, on a review of the whole situation, that if the Ontario Government "robs" the municipalities, it is a very generous robber, in that it returns a good deal more than it takes.

POURING INTO CANADA.

More parties of Doukhobors and Gallicians have arrived in or are en route to Canada, but those who look askance at this class of settlers should remember that it forms only a small portion of the great volume of immigration into Manitoba and the Northwest. The Toronto Globe's correspondent at Edmonton, N.W.T., writes:

"For the last three weeks immigrants continued to pour into this district at an unprecedented rate. Special trains with immigrants and effects continue to arrive almost every day, besides the regular trains being heavily loaded. Most of the people are from Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Missouri, Iowa, and Kansas. They are mostly people of means, and are purchasing C.P.R. or other lands as near town as they can get suitable locations. The emigration buildings at the station have been found insufficient, and others have been opened up on the north side of the river, and the employees of the Immigration Department are kept very busy attending to the comforts of the new comers. This is by far the greatest rush of immigration that this district has experienced, and at this rate the country will not be long in filling up."

The Alberta Plaindealer also congratulates the Minister of the Interior in bringing to the Edmonton district so many excellent settlers of 'our own race and language," from every corner of Anglo-Saxondom. "It is gratifying," says the Plaindealer, "to see the trainloads of valuable effects these people bring with them, and the well-bred cattle, horses, hogs and poultry they have brought us.'

On Wednesday last, the Detroit Tribune, under the heading, "The Canadian Northwest Booming," described a party of 50 hardy farmers from Ohio and Michigan, who passed through Detroit en route to the Northwest to take up land. This is a common occurrence. British official reports also show that Canada is getting a larger proportion of emigration than ever before. The Western Mail newspaper, of Cardiff, Wales, in a recent issue announces that emigration to Canada has set in with vigour this year. Small parties of agriculturists have been leaving since February, and in one week in April, Carmarthen, Gower, Abergwnff, Blackwood, Llandyssul, Beaumaris and Carnarvon each yielded their quota. The Mail says:

"If the present rate of immigration from the principality continues, certain portions of Canada will become more or less an appanage of 'Gallant Little Wales. • • • It is sad in one sense to witness the best men of the country going abroad, never to return, but emigration is the only remedy for the evils which spring from over-population, and the public should feel thankful that such a fine country as Canada throws its doors open to receive them."

Canada should have no better settlers than the Stalwart, liberty-loving Welsh. Population is at last flowing to the Dominion, and it remains for our legislators to make the conditions of life in the Great West as easy and attractive as possible.—London Advertiser.

Are you Bilious?

A sluggish liver fails to filter the bile from the blood, and when the poisonous matter goes through the body in the circulation, the whole system is tainted and deranged. This is called billiousness and can be completely cured by Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which act directly on the liver, making it healthy and active. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. The cheapest medicine in the world.

WOOL AND HIDE MARKET.

There is little or no change to report in the hide market this week and prices in hides of all kinds remain unchanged. Wool is still quoted at 8c for unwashed and 12 1-2 to 13 for washed.

Messrs. Brightman & Co. on Wednesday shipped to the States one car load of calf skins, making 6000 lbs.

The CHARM OF BEAUTY

Not in the Features so much as in the Grace and Vitality of a Healthy Body--Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve and Blood Pills make Women Beautiful.

There's a certain charm of beauty in the graceful, elastic movement and clear complexion of a healthy woman in which the features do not play an important part.

The pale, sallow complexion and dull leaden color of the skin, dark circles under the eyes, headaches, pains in the back and sides, dull eyes, weakness, nervousness, despondency and low spirits are symptoms of weak, watery blood and improperly-nourished nerves.

No woman can be beautiful until the blood is enriched and the nerves strengthened. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food is a food for the blood and nerves.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food restores the energy and strength to a run-down system. Note your weight before using them, and the increase week by week as the brightness returns to the eyes, the color to the cheeks and the form rounds out with firm, healthy flesh, the natural result of rich, pure blood and a healthy nervous system.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOOMBE PIANOS write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager':—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

It Hangs On

If it was only health, we might let it cling.

But it is a cough. One cold no sooner passes off before another comes. But it's the same old cough all the time.

And it's the same old story, too. There is first the cold, then the cough, then pneumonia or consumption with the long sickness, and life trembling in the balance.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

loosens the grasp of your cough. The congestion of the throat and lungs is removed; all inflammation is subdued; the parts are put perfectly at rest and the cough drops away. It has no diseased tissues on which to hang.

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster

draws out inflammation of the lungs.

A BUSY MEMBERS' DAY

A Great Number of Questions Asked and Answered.

WELLAND CANAL DISCUSSION.

Mr. McCleary Originates the Debate by a Motion Looking for the Improvement of Port Colborne Harbor—Mr. Blair's Statement—The Harbors and the Canal Already Provided For.

Ottawa, May 18.—The time of the House on Wednesday having been practically wasted, members settled down yesterday to make the best use of the time allotted to private members for the advancement of legislation other than that promoted by the Government, and for making inquiries of the Government, and obtaining orders for papers and returns of various kinds. Replying to a question, Sir Wilfrid Laurier intimated that the Government did not intend to depart from the plan recommended by the Imperial commission three years ago for the construction of the Pacific cable. Mr. McCleary's resolution calling for the improvement of the Welland Canal, and Mr. McMullen's motion for the second reading of his bill respecting the civil service of Canada, which aims to abolish special payments to civil servants in excess of their regular salaries, were both productive of interesting discussions.

When the order was reached for the introduction of bills Mr. Fortin asked that the notice for the introduction of his bill respecting insolvency be dropped from the paper.

Mr. John McMillan (South Huron) introduced a bill amending the Weights and Measures Act, which provides that a dozen of eggs shall be a pound and a half in weight.

Questions and Answers.

Mr. Mulock informed Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper that the Canadian mails to Dawson were forwarded by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company.

Mr. Blair, in reply to Mr. Macdonald, said that 1,245,548 tons of freight had been carried by the Intercolonial during the year ending March 1, 1897, and the receipts were $1,748,835; in the year ended March 1, 1898, the quantity of freight had been 1,652,231 tons, and receipts $2,198,000.

Mr. Paterson informed Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper that there had been further correspondence in relation to the enforcement of the coasting laws of Canada on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts, and copies of the papers would be brought down.

Sir Richard Cartwright, in answer to Mr. Clarke, said that a design for the Canada general service medal had been approved of by the Canadian authorities on Nov. 22, 1898. The obverse will be the effigy of the Queen, and will be similar to that now borne on the India (1895) medal. The reverse will consist of a wreath of Canadian maple, with the Canadian flag, and a ribbon of scroll bearing on it the word, "Canada." It was forwarded to the Imperial authorities on Nov. 22, 1898, and approved by a letter from the War Office, dated 25th February, 1899. An order for the execution of the design was given to the Royal Mint on Feb. 22, 1899. No funds had been remitted to the Mint to pay the expense of striking the medal, and no demand for any funds had been made by the Imperial authorities.

Mr. Paterson stated, in reply to Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, that instructions had been sent to Commissioner Ogilvie to inquire into the alleged undervaluation of United States vessels entered at Dawson for Canadian register.

Mr. Fortin, in moving for copies of all papers, plans, maps, reports of fishery officers, correspondence and other documents relating to the existence of a dam across River Jesus near the town of Terrebonne, and the construction of a fish way therein, according to the requirements of the law, referred to the decision of the Privy Council with respect to the fisheries, and said that in his opinion that decision had not relieved the Dominion Government from the duty of preserving the inland fisheries. The motion passed.

The Welland Canal.

Mr. McCleary moved a resolution looking to the improvement of the harbor at Port Colborne. In support of his resolution, he spoke at considerable length on the necessity for inspiring the St. Lawrence route in preference to searching for new routes.

Hon. Mr. Blair agreed with the mover as to the importance of improving the Welland Canal, not only by deepening the entrance at Port Colborne, but in modernizing the canal itself, so that greater facilities may be afforded for operating it. The Government had shown that it recognized the necessity for this by placing a large sum in next year's estimates for deepening the entrance at Port Colborne and other improvements. As to the breakwater referred to by Mr. McCleary, that was a matter under the control of the Minister of Public Works, and he had no doubt but that when the supplementary estimates came down it would be found that the Minister had not forgotten this. With reference to the building of elevators, he did not think that was a matter for the Government to undertake, as it would be best to leave that to private enterprise.

Mr. Bennett spoke at some length in favor of the Parry Sound route to the seaboard. He thought that the best route from the northwest to Montreal was from Fort William to Midland or Collingwood by water, and from there to Montreal by rail. Even if the 14-foot route were completed, it could only accommodate vessels carrying 60,000 or 70,000 bushels of grain, whereas the trend of the carrying trade was toward large vessels, and a great portion of the trade to Buffalo was now done by vessels carrying 200,000 to 250,000 bushels.

Mr. Ives spoke of the rapid development of trade at Montreal, pointing out that it had increased so suddenly that it had outgrown the shipping facilities of the port, and urging upon the Government the necessity for improving the harbor.

On the suggestion of Mr. Blair, the debate was adjourned.

The Banque du Peuple Bill.

After recess, the hour devoted to private bills was spent in committee on the Banque du Peuple bill, which now stands for third reading, on the understanding that the Premier will, before the third reading of the bill, obtain from the Minister of Justice an opinion as to the competency of the Dominion Parliament to pass the act.

Civil Service Bill.

Mr. McMullen (North Wellington) moved the second reading of an act to amend the act respecting the civil service of Canada, which provides that any deputy officer or employe asking for or accepting any extra salary or additional remuneration other than a permanent increase of his salary, shall be held to have thereby vacated his office.

After a lengthy discussion, the debate was adjourned, and the House rose at 10.35 p.m.

Notes From the Gallery.

Hon. Mr. Mulock last night gave notice that the redistribution bill would be introduced on Friday.

The Drummond County resolution will be gone on with to-day, the debate being resumed by Mr. Haggart.

A crowded meeting of the Parliamentary committee on banking and commerce was held yesterday to consider the bill respecting the Canada Life Insurance Company. This is the bill presented by the company, not the one presented by the shareholders. After a long discussion, the preamble of the bill was adopted without a division. Mr. Wood of Hamilton moved the reinsertion of the clause restricting the maximum number of votes to be cast by any one shareholder to 40. It being 1 o'clock, the committee adjourned until this morning

The Senate met last night and sat for an hour and a half, the time being occupied in the delivery of eulogies of the late Senator Boulton by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. David Mills and others.

London, Ont., May 17.—Dr. John R. Flock, coroner for the city of London, died at his residence at noon yesterday.

Take B.B.B. This Spring.

'Twill purify the system—Give you strength and energy.

Very few people escape the enervating influence of spring weather

There is a dullness, drowsiness and inaptitude for work on account of the whole system being clogged up with impurities accumulated during the winter months.

The liver is sluggish, the bowels inclined to be constipated, the blood impure, and the entire organism is in need of a thorough cleansing.

Of all "Spring Medicines," Burdock Blood Bitters is the best.

It stimulates the sluggish liver to activity, improves the appetite, acts on the bowels and kidneys, purifies and enriches the blood, removes all poisonous products, and imparts new life and vigor to those who are weak and debilitated.

7 Big Boils. Mr. Wm. J. Hepburn writes from Centralia, Ont.: "I can sincerely say that Burdock Blood Bitters is the best spring medicine on the market. Last spring my blood got out of order, and I had seven or eight good sized boils come out on my body, and the one on my leg was much larger than an egg. I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and inside of six days, when only half the bottle was taken, there wasn't a boil to be seen. I have recommended B.B.B. to different people in our village, and all derived benefit from it. I wish B.B.B. every success, as it is indeed a great medicine for the blood.

Every Spring. Mrs. Aggie Barnes, Lunenburg, N.S., writes: "I have taken B.B.B. every spring now for some years, to purify my blood and keep my system in good order, and can honestly say that I do not know of its equal anywhere."

INJUNCTION CONTINUED.

The Deadman's Island Case Before Chief Justice McColl.

Vancouver, May 18.—Yesterday before Chief Justice McColl, Attorney-General Martin applied for the continuance of the Deadman's Island injunction until the 26th inst., with a view to bringing the Dominion Government in as a party in the case.

Theodore Ludgate's solicitors read an affidavit made by Ludgate, who swore if the injunction were continued it would prevent his building the mill this year and cause him great damage.

Mr. Martin said that it was the desire of Mr. Ludgate, and also of the people, to have the Dominion taken into the case. He would urge the Dominion to take the same action and that would make a suit that would settle something. The present suit would settle nothing.

His lordship said he would adjourn the case until the 26th. He could see no objection to a few weeks' delay, as the matter would not be one to be settled in British Columbia, but would go to Ottawa or perhaps to England for settlement.

CAHILL'S TRIAL.

The St. Thomas Magistrate Adjourns the Case Until July 11.

St. Thomas, May 18.—Martin Cahill, the St. Catharines reporter who acted as deputy returning officer in polling subdivision No. 11 at the bye-election of January last, under the name of Joseph B. Montgomery, and who was arrested on May 10 by Special P. C. Wesley Graham on a charge of forgery and despoiling a poll-book, appeared before Police Magistrate Davidson yesterday for trial. The charges were read and the prisoner pleaded not guilty, electing to be tried summarily.

Mr. Donahue, Crown Attorney, stated that the prosecution was not in a position to proceed without the poll-book, which was now in the possession of the Clerk in Chancery. The trial would be a farce without the poll-books. He did not expect he could get them in less than ten days.

The magistrate set the date for July 11, and the prisoner was admitted to bail at $2,000, the prisoner for $1,000 and two sureties of $500 each. Alf. Sinclair and David Gardner were accepted as bondsmen.

An Englishman Killed.

Ottawa, May 17.—Richard Jones, an Englishman, 50 years of age, was crushed to death yesterday by the collapse of a building on which he was working. The deceased was engaged in tearing down the structure, and was on the roof when it gave way, and he was buried in the debris.

BROWN IS NO MORE.

Hanged at London for the Murder of Policeman Toohey.

London, Ont., May 18—Marion Brown yesterday morning, at one minute past 8 o'clock, was hanged, because on June 24 last he shot Policeman Toohey to death while the constable was endeavoring to arrest him. Brown got away, and was only caught at North Yakima, Wash., on Sept. 24. From there he was brought here, tried and convicted.

Brown's last night on earth was spent in prayer and devotional exercises, in which several members of the Salvation Army took part at the convict's request.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston took a great interest in the culprit, and went to Ottawa to intercede for him, arriving back only at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Dr. Johnston called the reporters together yesterday morning, and said: "I wish to make a protest against the overstraining of British justice in the case of this man, against whom the crime of murder, as described by any statute in the British law, has not been proved. In attending him this morning, I look upon him not as the subject of justice, but as the victim of persecution, and his execution as the culmination of cruelty and not the administration of British law. Though he die strong and unrelenting, justice will be required at the hands of those who are responsible for his death."

Only 20 people saw the execution.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

Marvels in Millinery.

The superiority of the headwear and millinery novelties shown by Miss Delaney is more distinguishable every day as the summer styles appear. Her popular-priced walking hats and dress hats are striking examples, and so are the untrimmed sailor hats, which are actually retailing at 25c. Some were as low as 15 and 10 cents each. 1w2d

A Rare Medal.

Mr. Kelsey Hall, one of the most enthusiastic and well-informed numismatists in the province, has come into the possession of a rare and interesting war medal. It is of silver, a little larger than a half-dollar coin, and was given for services in the war of 1812 to a member of the Canadian Militia. The legend, "Fort Detroit" on the bar indicates that the particular service intended to be signified by the medal was that in connection with operations that led to the capitulation of Fort Detroit. The date of the medal was in 1848 nearly half a century after the services were rendered.

Picture and Frame.

A frame should set off the picture as well as protect it. If the moulding is properly selected and the frame carefully made, it will double the pleasure. Nothing but service will show the quality of a frame and the framer. Both have made our frames popular. Oaks, greens, golds, silvers, whites, and other fancy woods for mouldings and combinations of the very newest and nicest patterns. Our prices—well, you'll wonder where the profit is for the Peterborough Bookstore.

For years we have taken first place as clothiers and each succeeding season our easy leadership became more strikingly in evidence, this year, more so than ever. It is best shown by our magnificent stock of Mens', Boys' and Childrens Suits, which at every point of comparison easily discount anything you may find outside this store in Peterborough. RECEPTION AT ST. PAUL'S.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Torrance Welcomed Home.

The reception which was given last night by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's church, to Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Torrance, was a most successful affair.

The Sunday school room which was used for the occasion, was most elaborately decorated with flowers and draping, whilst the chairs had been removed from the room, and in their places were substituted many small tables, upon which refreshments were served by the young ladies of the congregation.

The affair was exclusively for the members of the congregation and a very pleasant evening was spent in social intercourse.

BODY NOT YET FOUND.

The Body of Joseph Wall still in the Otonabee River.

The body of little Joseph Wall, who so unfortunately lost his life in the Dickson's Co's. dam yesterday afternoon, has not yet been recovered. Ever since the deplorable accident occurred, a great number of people have been busily engaged grappling in the river for the body but so far their efforts have proved fruitless.

Owing to the very swift current in the Otonabee just now, it is thought that the body may be carried a considerable distance down the river.

A MISCHIEVOUS PRACTICE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I regret to see that many of our citizens are taking a position in regard to the temporary and accidental condition of the city water that is not conducive to the interests of the town in view of its tendency of giving it a bad name abroad. Feeble witticisms founded on hastily assumed conclusions, can have no good result and will certainly result in harm in the manner I have pointed out. The ladies of the mock parliament, with characteristic aptitude of the sex for jumping at conclusions, introduced into their proceedings disparaging references and inuendoes respecting the city water. It strikes me that they were badly advised. Our city water is not so bad. The peculiar taste due to the high water flooding swampy reaches not usually touched, a taste that prevails throughout all the northern water, indeed as far north as Balsam Lake, will disappear—as it has now largely disappeared—when the normal level is reached and we shall then have in every respect, as we have always had water as pure, as wholesome, as sweet, as tasty as that of any waterworks system in Ontario. The exaggerated reports and flippant talk that has been indulged in serves no purpose but to indulge a propensity for small wit and give the town a bad name over a purely accidental, merely temporary condition.

Yours, etc.,
STAND BY THE TOWN.

FELL OVER THE BANISTERS.

Two Ribs were Broken and Death was Caused by One of Them Penetrating the Lung.

The funeral took place this afternoon from the family residence, No. 297 King street, of the late S. Hiscock, aged 86 years, whose death took place on Tuesday last.

The deceased was an Englishman, but has resided in Peterborough for many years. His death was the result of an accident, he having lost his balance while ascending the stairs and fallen over the banisters. Two ribs were broken by the fall, and one of them penetrating the lung, was the cause of death.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

LACROSSE.

If the weather is fine every player should be out to practice to-morrow night, as there are only two more days to train before the matches on the 24th.

The Junior team leave on the 5 o'clock train next Wednesday morning for Lindsay. The names of the team will be decided on Monday evening and published in the Tuesday issues of the papers.

The lacrosse club at Hastings has been granted the following certificates: H. Quigley, Harry Dodd, Fred Scriver, Bill West, H. Doonan, Bob Morrison, Bert Stevenson, Jim Welsh, Bill Donavon, Frank Lynch, Sam Walsh, Tom Learworth, Bill Clapper, Henry Scriver and Eddie Wilcox.

Another good practice was held last evening, the whole senior team being out with the exception of two or three players. The Juniors also showed up strongly.

During the past week the boys have turned out to practice in earnest. Quigley, Clapper and Morrison of last year's defence are showing up in great form, while Welsh and Stevenson who each played a game last year will figure at this end during the season. Wilcox, the star point player of last year, has not been out yet, though it is hoped he will and be in shape to don the garnet and grey on the 24th. Scriver, McNichol, H. and F. Dodd and Doonan, the home players, are practising hard and show that they have not forgot what they knew last year. A number of last year's juniors, Lynch, Learmouth, and Scriver, and West, who played two years ago, are also on the field and any vacancies will be filled with these. The holiday is only a week from to-day and the boys will have to do their prettiest to beat Peterborough. A large number intend going up to cheer the boys on to victory. The train will leave here as usual in the morning at 6.55, and a train will leave Peterborough at 9 a.m. Marmora is trying to come Orangeville on the Hastings team. Tommy Graham is already there and H. Doonan has been offered a job in that place. But "Louie White" knows a thing or two and intends to stay with this year's junior champions.—Hastings Star.

Y.M.C.A. ATHLETICS.

Association Football is fast becoming a very popular game with the Y.M.C.A. men. Although the game is new to the majority of the players, they are rapidly falling into line and kicking well. In Captain A. W. McPherson the team have an excellent coach and a very strong centre half back. Every practice has been well attended, the men turning out in large numbers, and all willing to see the popular game grow in our town. The first game will be played Saturday evening on the oval in Nicholls Park. The crack eleven from Norwood High School will arrive here on the 1.45 train, the game to commence at 5.30 o'clock.

The local line up will be:

Goal—Richard Day.

Backs—Fred Edwards and B. Simpson.

Half backs—Harley Goldy, A. W. McPherson, captain, and Evy Hall.

Forwards, centre—F. W. Waldron. Left wing, Percy Campbell and Ira Snellgrove. Right wing, J. M. MacLeod and Art Noble.

Mr. Hollingshead will referee the game.

WHEELING.

The Canadian General Bicycle Club's road race which was to have taken place on Saturday afternoon, has been postponed for one week, owing to the bad condition of the roads.

THE PRISONERS LIED.

Details Concerning themselves which they Gave the Local Police Proven to be False.

The Chief of Police has been investigating the stories told by the tramps which were taken prisoner on Monday, and the answers he has received regarding two of the gentry are of a character to throw a great deal of suspicion on their statements.

William Brooks stated that he had been working on the canal at Cornwall, which place he had left two weeks ago, receiving from a contractor named Cleveland $150 in wages, of which sum the Standard Bank bills found on his person were a portion. A communication received from the Chief of Police at Cornwall states that there is no canal work going on there, that no man named Cleveland has a contract on the canal, and that though work is going on near Cardinal and Iroquois, none of the contractors pay their men with Standard Bank money, none of it being used east of Kingston.

Wm. Reilly's story was that he was a painter, married, and living at No. 46 Ontario street, Ottawa. The Chief of Police at Ottawa states that there is no Ontario street in Ottawa, and that none of the principal painters in that city ever heard of Reilly.

The fact of the men lying about such small matters when arrested has thoroughly aroused the suspicions of the police, and a strong effort is being made to connect the prisoners with the burglary of the Standard Bank at Bowmanville.

NORTH WATERLOO BYE-ELECTION.

On Tuesday were held the nominations of candidates to contest the representation of North Waterloo in the Ontario Legislature, in the bye-election, caused by the unseating of Dr. Lackner, the member elect, for corrupt practices by agents. Mr. L. J. Breithaupt was nominated as Liberal candidate, and Dr. Lackner, on behalf of the Conservatives. This election will arouse considerable interest, from, among other reasons, the political history of the riding. North Waterloo has been a Liberal constituency since 1867, having had only four individual representatives in all that time. Up till the elections of 1896, the representatives were always Liberal. In 1896 Dr. Lackner aspired to be the political family physician of the riding. He was so anxious for the position, and so sure, apparently, of being selected, that he began "treating" his patients before he was elected, in consequence of which he was not elected at all, as the courts decided. Whatever elements other than these disclosed at the election trial, entered into the departure of the riding from its Liberal traditions, it is pretty plain that the verdict was not pronounced upon the merits of the case and that side issues were largely responsible. North Waterloo has been Liberal since Confederation and on May 23rd, Mr. Breithaupt, the Liberal candidate, will celebrate Empire Day and his victory together. The cry "It is time for a change" was disposed of in March last by the electors, and the present contest will be fought out upon the merits of the candidates, that is, the decision will be as between the claims of the Opposition without a policy and those of the Government with its aggressive and public-spirited policy and its splendid administrative record. Dr. Lackner, the Opposition candidate, in his speech at the nominations struck the key-note of the issues he will urge during the contest. He made the sympathy appeal, and deplored the result of the election trial, which had unseated him and brought on a contest to disturb the harmony of the riding. He intimated that he was unjustly unseated and that the judges did not know their business. But not a word of the policy of the party he supports, or of the claims they have upon the confidence of the electors of North Waterloo. Dr. Lackner will not win on such a platform. He will have to show that the Opposition, which he would, if elected, vote to put into office, would apply a better policy and give a better administration than the present Government is giving and has given. He did not attempt to do so, at the first opportunity he had, neither will his leader, Mr. Whitney, in the four addresses he will deliver in North Waterloo this week. On the other hand, the candidature of Mr. Breithaupt is buttressed by the record and policy of the Government so recently endorsed by the people and there is very little, if any doubt of North Waterloo again falling into line with the majority of the province by sending to the Legislature, a supporter of the Liberal Government.

VETERANS' MEDALS.

A Large Number of Them will be Presented on Dominion Day.

Special to The Examiner.

Ottawa, May 18. — The long-looked-for general service medals for the veterans of the Canadian militia are at last in sight. Yesterday Hon. F. W. Borden, Minister of Militia, cabled the authorities at the Royal Mint, asking for an explanation of the causes of the delay in forwarding the medals. This afternoon an answer was received, in which it was stated that the working force at the mint is at present greatly rushed, as, in addition to the Canadian medal, those for the Soudan and Chitral campaigns are being manufactured. The mint authorities state also that there is necessarily great delay in the work of manufacturing the medals, as the dies are exceedingly friable and frequently break, rendering it necessary temporarily to stop operations. Dr. Borden was informed that if he so elected the mint authorities would be able to send a consignment of a portion of of the total number of medals every two weeks until the whole order is filled. The Minister of Militia immediately cabled an order to do so, and the first consignment will be despatched to Ottawa by next Saturday's steamer. By the first of July it is expected that there will be a large enough number of the medals in the Dominion to make it possible to present them on Dominion Day to those entitled to them in Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, St. John, Halifax, Hamilton, London, Victoria, Vancouver and Winnipeg. It will take about three months under the present arrangement to secure the entire order from the Royal Mint.

HER LOOK.

Time may set his fingers there,
Fix the smiles that curve about
Her winsome mouth, and touch her hair
Put the curves of youth to rout,
But the "something" God put there.
That which drew me to her first,
Not the traps of pain and care,
Not all sorrow's fiends accurst,
Can kill the look that God put there—

Something beautiful and rare,
Nothing common can destroy,
Not all the leaden load of care,
Not all the dross of earth's alloy.
Better than all fame or gold,
True as only God's own truth,
It is something all hearts hold
Who have loved once in their youth.

That sweet look her face doth hold
Thus will ever be to me:
Joy may all her pinions fold,
Care may come and misery;
Through the days of murk and shine,
Though the roads be foul or fair,
I will gaze through love's glad eye
That sweet look that God put there.

THE LOST VIRGIL.

The trainboy entered the car. "New monthly magazines! This week's comic papers—Puck, Judge, Owl"—

The boy was just passing on when his glance fell on a worn, dog eared copy of Virgil, which the schoolboy in the seat in front of me was busily studying. The trainboy stopped. "Say, young feller, will you let me see that Virgil a minute?"

The schoolboy looked up with some surprise, but silently handed over the book. The trainboy turned the leaves quickly till he came to the last few pages, which he looked at more carefully; then he passed the book to its owner with a disappointed air. "Thanks, 'tain't the one." He went on his way through the car. "New monthly magazines! This week's comic papers—Puck, Judge"—

At the next station the schoolboy left the train. A few minutes later the boy with the papers entered the car again. As he was passing my seat I stopped him. "Will you tell me why you wanted to look at the Virgil?" I asked.

"I thought it looked like a second-hand copy," said the trainboy, "and I never can see a copy of Virgil without wanting to know if it could be the one I used to have. I'd give a good deal to get hold of one I lost."

"How is that?" I asked.

The boy hesitated. "Well, it's 15 minutes to the next station. I shall have time to tell you about it if you care to hear it."

He sat down beside me. "If I could get my old Virgil," he said slowly, "in the same condition it was when I lost it, it would be worth $50,000 to me."

He paused a moment to note the effect of his words. The commercial traveler in the seat across the aisle laid down his magazine and began to listen. I silently offered the boy a cigar.

"Thanks," he said; "I'll smoke it later."

Then he began his story:

"Three years ago I was at a boarding school in Connecticut, and Uncle Sandham was paying the bills. He wasn't really my uncle—wasn't any relation at all, in fact, worse luck—but ever since my father and mother died he had sent me to school, paid all the bills and given me plenty of pocket money. Uncle Sandham, as he liked to have me call him, was a rich old bachelor, who spent most of his time traveling. I guess he must have been a kind of queer chap. He told me once that he was a bachelor because my mother had said 'No' to him 20 years before.

"Well, one day in March three years ago Uncle Sandham turned up at my boarding school, told me he was going to be in Boston for a few days, and I might have a week's vacation and come up with him. I had been getting very low marks in my studies for some time, and the principal of the school made it a condition of my being allowed the vacation that I should work out a number of problems in algebra and do a certain number of pages of Virgil during the week.

"Well, coming up in the train, Uncle Sandham talked with me for awhile and then went into the smoking car. I got out my Virgil and began to work at it. I had promised to do a certain number of pages, and I knew that my uncle would insist on my doing it, so I thought I'd get some of it done on the train and so have more time to myself in Boston. After half an hour or so I got tired of it and went into the smoking car to find my uncle. He was swapping yarns with two drummers. Pretty soon they began to talk of a great will case that was in the papers that day. Some disappointed heirs of a millionaire had contested his will, and it had been set aside.

"'I tell you,' said my uncle, puffing at his cigar, 'there isn't much use nowadays in a man's making his will. If any of his relatives or step relatives are dissatisfied with their share, all they have to do is to break the will. Any respectable lawyer ought to be able to draw up a will that no one could break.

"My uncle went on smoking. 'I've never made a will,' he said—'there's plenty of time for that yet—but when I do I think I shall be able to do it without calling in any fool of a lawyer. It won't take long to write my will. I mean to leave all I have to that boy there,' nodding at me; 'that is—if he behaves himself.'

"He puffed at his cigar for a few moments in silence and then said, 'Just to show how easy it is, I'll write a will now.' He took a fountain pen from his pocket. 'Let me have your book, Sandy.'

"I handed over the Virgil, and my uncle, turning over to one of the back fly leaves, wrote a few lines. 'There!' he said. 'I think that will would stand.' He read it aloud. As nearly as I remember it, it was worded like this:

"March 17, 189—.

"I hereby give, devise and bequeath everything of which I die possessed, both real estate and personal, to Alexander Sandham Schwarzenberg, son of the late John and Rachel Schwarzenberg. ALEXANDER SANDHAM.

"'There!' said my uncle, passing the book to one of the drummers. 'Do you see anything the matter with that?'

"'That's no good!' said the drummer.

"'It isn't?' said Uncle Sandham. 'I'd like to know why it isn't!'

"'It isn't witnessed,' replied the commercial traveler.

"'Oh!' said my uncle. 'Well, you two fellows just put your names down as witnesses.'

"They did so with some joking, and then my uncle called a brakeman who was sitting near and who had heard the talk. 'Just put your name down there, Johnnie,' he said. 'We might as well do the thing in style and have three witnesses.'

"The brakeman signed his name, and then Uncle Sandham, closing the book, handed it over to me. 'Take care of that, Sandy, my boy,' he said. 'There's your fortune in a Virgil.'

"The drummers began swapping yarns again. After awhile the smoke in the car began to make me sick. I was only a kid then, you know, and wasn't used to it. Well, I got up to go in one of the forward cars. The smoking car was the last on the train. It was snowing, raining and hailing by turns, and the wind was blowing a gale. As I crossed the platforms from one car to another my foot slipped on the icy boards, and a great gust of wind carried away my hat and nearly made me lose my balance. I threw up my arms to save myself and the Virgil slipped from my hand and disappeared beside the track. I was afraid of what my uncle would say when I told him of my carelessness. So I went forward into the farthest car from the smoker and sat down in a corner."

The boy stopped as if that were the end of his story and idly rolled the cigar in his fingers.

"Well," said I, "go on. Was your uncle so angry that he disinherited you?"

"No," replied the boy slowly. "I hadn't been in the forward car 20 minutes when there was a terrific crash that smashed the windows and threw me against the seat in front.

"An express train had come up behind us and smashed into us, telescoping the two rear cars. Uncle Sandham and the two drummers were among the killed. The brakeman who had signed the will escaped with only slight injuries.'

"Well," I said, "that is quite a yarn."

"The day after the funeral," the trainboy went on, "I went back to the nearest town to the place where the book had been lost and walked up and down the track for miles looking for it."

"You never found it?" I asked.

"No, but three months later I was there again, and I could not help looking along the side of the track as I walked, although of course I didn't really expect to find it. I met a small boy, who asked me what I was looking for. I asked him if he had ever heard of any one who had found a book near there. He said 'Yes,' he knew a boy who had found one there early in the spring. I gave him a quarter and made him take me at once to the boy's house. The boy was at school, but I saw his mother. She said yes, Tommy had found a book beside the track, a queer book that none of them could read. I asked her if she would let me see it. She said she had sold it to a peddler for paper rags a day or two after it was found. She had never seen the peddler since, and I was never able to trace him. The book may have been used up in some paper mill, or it may possibly have found its way to some secondhand bookstore. I never pass a secondhand bookstore without going in to ask if they have an old copy of Virgil.

"Uncle Sandham had left no other will. He had never legally adopted me, so I had no legal claim on his money. It was divided up among some cousins whom he had not seen for years.

"The brakeman who had witnessed the will got me the place to sell papers on the cars.'

Just then the train stopped at a station, and a number of passengers got on.

"I must go through the cars again,' said the boy. He picked up his pile of magazines and went off. "New monthly magazines! This week's comic papers!"

I looked at the commercial traveler across the aisle. "Do you suppose it's true?" I asked.

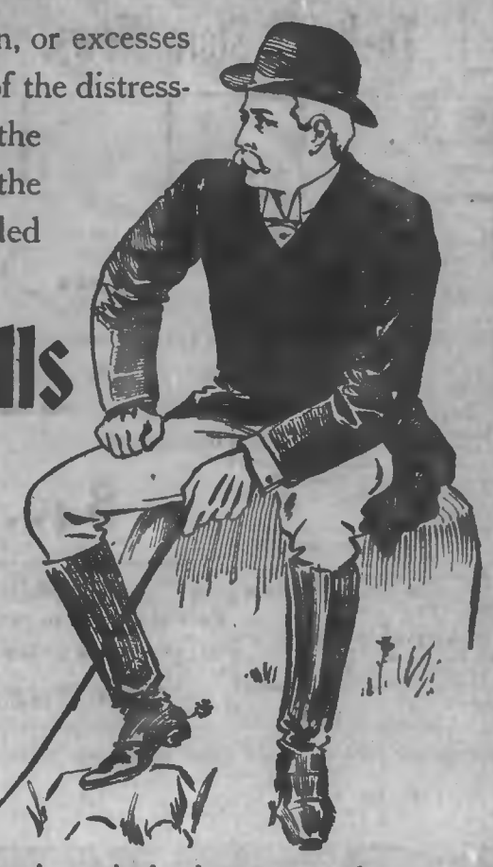
"Give it up," he replied. "If it's fiction, that boy will be writing for the magazines some day instead of selling them." Then he opened his book and buried himself in its pages.—I. Kenniston in Owl.

IT ENDED HER TROUBLE.

"I never coveted newspaper notoriety, yet I am not afraid to speak a good word for your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' Over a year ago I suffered terribly for nearly four weeks with prolapsus and weakness. After using one bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Pellets,' I was a well woman. I have taken no medicine since and have had no symptoms of my former trouble."—Mrs. L. A. Bender, Keene, Coshocton Co., Ohio.

Nervous Debility

may be caused by over-work, worry, mental strain, or excesses of almost any nature. Very frequently it is one of the distressing after effects of la grippe. But whatever the cause a debilitated, nervous system means that the nerves lack nutrition. Feed the tired and jaded nerves and life will renew its joys for you.



Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

is the best nerve food and most valuable tonic known to science. Merit, and merit alone, has given these pills a larger sale than any other medicine in the world. Through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills hundreds of thousands of tired, and jaded, despondent men and women have been made bright, active, work-loving people. But you must get the genuine—imitations are always a source of disappointment, and a waste of money.

WEAK AND NERVOUS.

Mr. Austin Fancy is a well known blacksmith living at Baker Settlement, a hamlet about ten miles from Bridgewater, N. S. Mr. Fancy is well known in the locality in which he lives. He is another of the legion whose restoration to health adds to the popularity of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Fancy related his story of illness and renewed health to a reporter of the Enterprise as follows:—"During the last winter, owing I suppose to overwork and impure blood, I became very much reduced in flesh, and had severe pains in the muscles all over my body. I felt tired and nervous all the time, had no appetite and often felt so low spirited that I wished myself in another world. Some of the time, necessity compelled me to undertake a little work in my blacksmith shop, but I was not fit for it, and after doing the job, would have to lie down; indeed I often felt like fainting. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using a couple of boxes, I felt a decided relief. The pains began to abate, and I felt again as though life was not all dreariness. By the time I had used six boxes I was as well as ever, and able to do a hard day's work at the forge without fatigue, and those who know anything about a blacksmith's work will knew what this means. Those who are not well will make no mistake in looking for health through the medium of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The First Smokers.

Unquestionably smoking had already been practiced by the Indians for centuries when Columbus first reached these shores. It was with them to a great extent a form of religious ceremonial. Dr. Daniel G. Brinton, the famous ethnologist, thinks that it had its beginning in the blowing tube of the medicine man. Ignorant savages are disposed to regard the human breath as possessing magical properties, and it may be supposed that burning leaves were introduced into the tube for the purpose of making the breathing visible. The Indians smoked many kinds of plants, such as sumac, red willow bark and the leaves of the kinnikinic or bearberry, and tobacco doubtless was a discovery resulting from a selection of the fittest.—Science Siftings.

OBSERVING WASPS.

They Use Landmarks to Guide Them Back to Their Prey.

There can be no doubt whatever that wasps have landmarks by which they are guided in their expeditions. Here is an exceedingly interesting account by Mr. Belt, one of our contributors, of the manœuvers of one of these wonderful creatures:

"A specimen of Polistes carnifex (i. e., the sand wasp) was hunting about for caterpillars in my garden. I found one about an inch long and held it out toward it on the point of a stick. It seized it immediately and commenced biting it from head to tail, soon reducing the soft body to a mass of pulp. It rolled up about one-half of it into a ball and prepared to carry it off. Being at the time amid a thick mass of a fine leaved climbing plant, it proceeded, before flying away, to take note of the place where it was leaving the other half. To do this it hovered in front of it for a few seconds, then took small circles in front of it, then larger ones round the whole plant. I thought it had gone, but it returned again and had another look at the opening in the dense foliage down which the other half of the caterpillar lay. It then flew away, but must have left its burden for distribution with its comrades at the nest, for it returned in less than two minutes and, making one circle around the bush, descended to the opening, alighted on a leaf and ran inside.

"The green remnant of the caterpillar was lying on another leaf inside, but not connected with the one on which the wasp alighted, so that in running in it missed it and soon got hopelessly lost in the thick foliage. Coming out again, it took another circle and pounced down on the same spot again, as soon as it came opposite to it. Three small seed pods, which here grew close together, formed the marks I had myself taken to note the place, and these the wasp seemed also to have taken as its guide, for it flew directly down to them and ran inside; but, the small leaf on which the fragment of caterpillar lay not being directly connected with any on the outside, it again missed it and again got far away from the object of its search. It then flew out again, and the same process was repeated again and again.

"Always when in circling round it came in sight of the seed pods, down it pounced, alighted near them and recommenced its quest on foot. I was surprised at its perseverance and thought it would have given up the search, but not so. It returned at least half a dozen times and seemed to get angry, hurrying about with buzzing wings. At last it stumbled across its prey, seized it eagerly and, as there was nothing more to come back for, flew straight off to its nest without taking any further note of the locality. Such an action is not the result of blind instinct, but of a reasoning mind, and it is wonderful to see an insect so differently constructed using a mental process similar to that of man."—Our Animal Friends.

HONEY FOR CHILDREN.

Better Than Butter and Nature's Cure For the Candy Habit.

It would be greatly for the health of the present generation if honey could at least be partially restored to its former place as a common article of diet, says What to Eat.

In many cases it may be a matter of real economy to lessen the butter bill by letting honey in part take its place. A pound of honey will go about as far as a pound of butter, but if both articles be of the best quality honey will cost the less of the two. Often a prime article of extracted honey (equal to comb honey in every respect except appearance) can be obtained for half the price of butter or less.

We all know how children long for candy. This longing voices a need and is another evidence of the necessity of sugar in our diet.

Children should have all the honey at each mealtime that they will eat. It is safer and will largely do away with the inordinate longing for candy and other sweets.

At the present day honey is placed on the market in two forms—in the comb and extracted. "Strained" honey, obtained by masming or melting combs containing bees, pollen and honey, has rightly gone out of use. Extracted honey is simply honey thrown out of the comb in a machine called a honey extractor.

The silly stories seen from time to time in the papers about artificial combs being filled with glucose and deftly sealed over with a hot iron have not the slightest foundation in fact. For years there has been a standing offer by one whose financial standing is unquestioned of $1,000 for a single pound of comb honey made without the intervention of the bees. The offer remains untaken and will probably always remain so, for the highest art of man can never compass such delicate workmanship as the skill of the bee accomplishes.

New and pleasing ideas in advertising always interest. Nothing has appeared for years which is so attractive as the Hood's Sarsaparilla advertisements, utilizing proverbs and wise sayings as headings, each followed by a little homily cleverly connecting the proverb with the subject. Besides this, the quaint Jensen Italic type for the preliminary sentences, finishing with a script slogan, "Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints," adds to the effectiveness. All this work is running in over 7000 papers.

Famous Laughing Plant of Arabia.

The seeds of the laughing plant of Arabia produce the same effect upon persons as laughing gas. The plant attains a height of from two to four feet, with woody stems, widespreading branches and bright green foliage. Its fruits are produced in clusters and are of a yellow color. The seed pods are soft and woolly in texture and contain two or three black seeds of the size of a Brazilian bean. Their flavor is a little like opium, and their taste is sweet; the odor from them produces a sickening sensation and is slightly offensive. The seeds, when pulverized and taken in small quantities, have a peculiar effect upon man. He begins to laugh loudly, boisterously; then he sings, dances and cuts all manner of fantastic capers. Such extravagance of gait and manners was never produced by any other kind of dosing.—Ladies' Home Journal.

WERE SUPPLYING AGUINALDO.

The Filipino Chief in One of the Island's Inaccessible Mountains From Which He Will Direct the Campaign—A Canadian and an American Released by the Insurgents.

New York, May 17.—A Berlin despatch to The Staats Zeitung says that word has been received from Hongkong that the members of the American firm of Smits & Company at Hongkong have suddenly left the city upon it being discovered they were supplying Aguinaldo with arms and ammunition.

Canadian and American Released.

Manila, May 17.—Messrs. Carrick and Holmes, the American and Canadian civilians captured at the Calumpit rice mill, have been released by the rebel general Luna, who saw them through his lines with several Englishmen, who received 48 hours' notice to leave rebel territory.

General Lawton's advanced force has left San Miguel and is moving in the direction of San Isidro. A rain storm impeded the progress of the troops and severed the line of communication when the force was within seven miles of its destination.

First Washington, Beware!

Seattle, Wash., May 17.—Major Weinsenberg, commanding volunteers in the Philippines, writes that the Filipinos have offered a special reward to those who succeed in killing either an officer or private in the First Washington.

Say Aguinaldo Is All Right.

London, May 17.—The Filipino Junta here informs the Associated Press that on receipt of the news saying all foreigners had been ordered from the Filipino lines, a cable message of inquiry was sent to Aguinaldo, who replied that the announcement was due to the statements of Mr. Higgins, the manager of the railroad, on his return to Manila, after several months residence in the Filipino lines. The Filipinos, it is added, ridicule the statement that Aguinaldo is a fugitive, and declare his retirement to the Carballos Mountains is part of his strategic plans, as the mountains are almost inaccessible, are inhabited by savages who use poisoned arrows, and that it is absolutely impossible for the Americans to follow him there.

Spaniards to Evacuate.

Madrid, May 17.—General Rios, in command of the Spanish troops remaining in the Philippine Islands, has cabled to the War Office here announcing that he has entered into an agreement with Major-General Otis, the American commander, for an immediate Spanish evacuation of Zamboanga and Jolo. Consequently, the despatch adds, the steamer Leon XIII. has started with American troops, who will occupy Jolo and render honors to the Spanish flag on the departure of the Spanish troops.

WORSE THAN YELLOW FEVER

Kidney Disease, Man's Deadliest Foe—Dodd's Kidney Pills its Only Cure.

Toronto, May 15. — "Yellow fever and smallpox combined do not kill as many people as Kidney Disease does." was the assertion of a prominent physician, recently.

The assertion is fully borne out by facts, and were it not that there is a means of checking and curing Kidney disease the number of its victims would be trebled.

But the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills keeps the death rate from this complaint quite low compared to its former height.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were used in every case of Kidney Disease there would be no deaths from it.

Montreal Moulders' Strike.

Montreal, May 17.—There are indications that the moulders' strike may be terminated to-day. It is also stated that the Grand Trunk Railway had made arrangements by which between 40 and 50 moulders will be brought from England to take the places of its striking moulders. These men, who are skilled workmen, will, it is stated, be guaranteed work for a certain length of time after the expiration of which, if they so wish, their passage back to England will be paid by the company.

Hon. Senator Villeneuve is very low, and his recovery is doubtful.

Vipond Has Been Punished.

Bracebridge, Ont., May 17.—Joseph Vipond was brought here yesterday from Barrie Jail to be tried before Justice Ferguson on a charge of seduction. He is the first prisoner that has been confined so long in Barrie Jail without trial. There was no Assize Court here last fall, but there was in Barrie, and the general jail delivery there was only a supposition, for Vipond was not dealt with. This kind of British justice is being criticized about here just now.

Horrible Cruelty.

Atlanta, Ga. May 17.—Winnie Roosh, a mulatto woman, came near being lynched by a mob of negroes last night. The crime with which she and her husband were charged was brutally burning their four children nearly to death by igniting paper saturated with kerosene, with which their bodies had been wrapped. One of the children had all the flesh burned from her legs in several places, and will die. The other three are badly burned.

"GRIPPY" COUGHS

If neglected, often end in Pneumonia, Bronchitis or Consumption.

Be on the safe side—Take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and cure the cough at once.

Plenty of people in their graves now, who might have been alive to-day if they had cured the cough and cold associated with Grippe at the outset. It's an easy matter to do with such a remedy as Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It has a healing, soothing action on the air passages, and at the same time acts as a disinfectant of the respiratory organs, destroying the germs that produce serious lung complications.

Mrs. Alonzo H. Thurber, Freeport, N.S., says: I had a bad attack of La Grippe and my cough was so severe that I had great difficulty in breathing. After taking two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup I was completely cured.

There are plenty of "Pine" preparations on the market trying to live on the reputation and merits of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so always insist on the genuine. Price 25c. at all dealers.

Wanted to Sell Family Heirloom.

London, May 17.—Lord Francis Hope, brother of the Duke of Newcastle and husband of May Yohe, the American actress, applied to the Chancery Court yesterday for permission to sell a family heirloom, a blue diamond, weighing 44¼ carats and estimated to be worth from $85,000 to $125,000. Counsel for the Duke of Newcastle and Lady Beatrice Lister-Kaye, the eldest sister of Lord Hope, opposed the sale, which the court eventually refused to sanction.

Belleville Catholics Repudiate the Proposed Convention at Toronto.

At a meeting held Tuesday evening of the Catholic Liberals at Belleville, it was moved, seconded and unanimously carried:

"That we are not in accord with the Catholic Liberals of Toronto in calling a convention for the 23rd inst., at Toronto, for the purpose of discussing the questions referred to in the circular sent out by the joint secretaries of the proposed convention, and consider that the time and method of calling the convention are inopportune and ill-advised and do not meet with our approval, and that consequently no delegation be sent to Toronto from West Hastings.

"Resolved, that we as Liberals, have every confidence that the Laurier and Hardy administrations will do what is right by all denominations."

SPRING FEELING.

WHY DO WE FEEL LAZY IN THE SPRING?

An Interview with a Man who Knows —His Idea of it—Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 17.—Do the generality of folks know what's the matter with them in the spring? They call it "tired feeling" and spring langour, and if they're too young to resist their mothers give them nasty sticky stuff to "cool" their blood. But do you know what is really occurring inside you when you have that "tired feeling?"

A reporter interviewed an authority and asked him what it was that made him (the reporter) want to quit work and go and lie down under a tree somewhere.

"Your blood," said the authority, "is composed of two elements, a heating element and a building one. They can only be distinguished separately under a microscope. During the winter a great part of the food you eat is converted into the heating material. In the spring when the weather is warmer the blood does not need to keep the fire up. So a great part of this heating material has to be thrown off. This is easy if the kidneys are in order. If, however, they have suffered from cold during the winter, or from any other cause they fail to do this, then this unnecessary matters clogs up or remains in the blood. It is then forced to escape through the skin, and boils, pimples and eruptions of various kinds is the result. The blood is overloaded, becomes less brisk in its work and we feel correspondingly languid. In this case the kidneys should receive attention, for theirs is the work of straining the blood. For toning and wholesomely stimulating the kidneys, Dodd's Kidney Pills is the only medicine that can be relied upon."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are for sale by all druggists, at 50 cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

DEANERY MEETING.

Held Last Week in the Village of Hastings.

As the Rural Deanery of Northumberland has not met in Hastings for a number of years the event seemed to those interested a specially important one.

The beautiful weather and the central situation of Hastings caused the meetings to be very well attended, only two clergymen of the deanery being absent.

Those present were: The Rev. Rural Dean Webb, of Colborne; the Rev. Canon Spragge, of Cobourg; Rev. A. French, of Grafton; Rev. G. Scott, of Warkworth; Rev. A. Gadd, of Gore's Landing; Rev. Mr. Bushel, of Keene; Rev. H. Symonds, of Ashburnham; Rev. Mr. Davidson and Rev. Mr. Armitage, of Peterborough; Mr. W. Creswick, of South Burleigh; Rev. R. J. Curzon, of Havelock; Rev. Mr. Cooper, of Campbellford; and Rev. R. L. Weaver, of Hastings.

A very interesting public meeting of the Deanery was held in St. George's church on Monday evening, when an address was given by the Rev. A. Gadd on "How to keep the older scholars in the Sunday school" and by the Rural Dean on "The parents part in Sunday school work."

On Tuesday evening the Holy Communion was administered by the Rev. Canon Spragge, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Weaver.

After the Rural Dean had opened the meeting with prayer, a short time was taken up with the discussion of Church business. A paper was then read by the Rev. Mr. Armitage, of Peterborough on "Sick Visiting," which was full of suggestions drawn from practical experience.

An account was given by Rev. Canon Spragge of Canon Gore's new book on the Ephesians. During the discussion on this work that followed the Rev. Mr. Symonds, while speaking most highly of much to be found to be found in Canon Gore's exposition, gave it as his opinion that Gore unintentionally read into Ephesian's views of church organisation that belong to a much later period, and thought Hart's book on the same epistle much more free from a one-sided view of things.

The Rev. Mr. Creswick gave an interesting paper on "Church work in South Burleigh" which recalled incidentally the self-denying work of the Rev. Mr. Hartley in the neighbourhood of Young's Point, and showed that Mr. Creswick was seeking earnestly to build on the foundation laid by his predecessor.

The clergymen in leaving Hastings expressed themselves as much pleased with the meeting and grateful for the kind hospitality of those who had entertained them.

WORLD'S FEDERATION

Peace Conference Opens Its Session at The Hague.

AT "THE HOUSE IN THE WOODS."

The Momentous Congress of Twenty-Four Nations Constituted—Opening Proceedings Characterized by Dignity and a Scrupulous Observance of All Forms of Courtesy—Message Congratulating Czar.

The Hague, May 18.—The peace conference called by the Czar of Russia was opened at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the hall of the Huis Ten Bosch, or the "House in the Woods," two miles from The Hague.

M. de Beaufort, president of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Government of the Netherlands, delivered the inaugural address and welcomed the delegates.

M. de Beaufort spoke of the high honor of the choice of The Hague as the meeting place for the conference and extolled the noble initiative of the Czar, saying this would be a red-letter day in the history of the century, and expressing the hope that His Majesty would be able to look back at to-day as the most glorious day of his life. He concluded with calling attention to the allegorical group over the doorway of the hall, Peace entering to close the Temple of Janus, and said: "I trust this beautiful allegory will be a good augury of your labors, and that after you have completed them you will be able to say that peace, whom art introduced into this hall, left it to spread its blessings among the whole of humanity."

Telegram to the Czar.

The delegates decided to send the following telegram to the Czar:

"The peace conference lays at the feet of Your Majesty its respectful congratulations upon the occasion of your birthday and expresses its sincere desire to co-operate in the great and noble work in which Your Majesty has taken a generous initiative and for which it begs you to accept its humble and profound gratitude."

De Staal Made a Nice Speech.

M. de Staal, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain, and head of the Russian delegation, in formally assuming the presidency of the conference, said his first duty was to express to M. de Beaufort his sincere gratitude for the noble terms in which he had referred to his august master, adding that His Majesty would be deeply touched as well by the spontaneity with which the high assembly had associated itself therewith. Continuing, M. de Staal said: "Though to the Czar is due the initiative of the conference, we owe much to the Queen of the Netherlands for inviting us to her capital. It is a happy augury of success that we have met under the auspices of the young sovereign, whose charge is felt in a wide circle, whose heart is open to everything great and generous, and who has displayed such sympathy with the cause which brings us here. It is on the historic soil of the Netherlands that the greatest political problems have been discussed. Here is the cradle of science and international law."

After a reference to the historic peace treaties concluded at The Hague and expressing regret that M. de Beaufort had not accepted the presidency of the conference, M. de Staal said in conclusion: "I cannot consider my election otherwise than inspired by my position as plenipotentiary to the Emperor—who was the initiator of the conference. On this ground I accept with deep gratitude the distinguished honor, and I shall use every endeavor to justify your confidence. But I am perfectly aware that advanced age is, alas, a sad privilege and a weak auxiliary. But I hope that it will at least constitute a claim upon your indulgence."

Compliments to the Young Queen.

After making his address, M. de Staal, in behalf of the conference, telegraphed to the Queen of the Netherlands as follows:

"The members of this conference, assembled for the first time in this beautiful Huis Ten Bosch, hasten to lay at the feet of Your Majesty their best wishes, praying you to accept their homage and gratitude for the hospitality you have so graciously deigned to offer them."

The reading of the message was warmly applauded.

M. de Beaufort was appointed honorary president and the leading Dutch delegate, A. P. C. Van Karnebeek, D.L., former Minister of Foreign Affairs and Deputy, was appointed vice-president.

Sessions Will Be Secret.

After the appointment of nine secretaries M. de Staal's proposal that the sessions be secret was adopted. The next session will take place on Saturday, when the delegates will arrange a program and appoint committees. The conference then adjourned. The session yesterday lasted only 25 minutes and the apparent unanimity displayed was considered to augur well for the outcome.

Kaiser Toasted the Czar.

Wiesbaden, Prussia, May 19.—At a luncheon given by Emperor William yesterday, in accordance with his custom, in honor of the birthday of Emperor Nicholas, the Kaiser toasted the Czar in the following terms:

"With the toast to the Czar's health, which I propose every year with heartfelt sincerity, I would to-day couple my hearty good wishes upon the opening of the conference at The Hague, which owes its origin to His Majesty's initiative."

May Have Been Murdered.

Wiarton, May 19.—It now transpires that William McGarvey, an old man, who was found near McNeill's spring on Wednesday of last week, with a bullet through his brain, owned a farm in Lennox County and had money on deposit in the Dominion Bank at Napanee. He had sent to Napanee for money, and if he received it it had been taken from his person, as not a single cent was found in his pocketbook. A relative of the dead man is making inquiries, and if he finds the circumstances require it, he will demand an inquest.

Canada at Paris in 1900.

Ottawa, May 19.—Great activity is being displayed in the Geological Survey in preparing and packing the exhibits for the Paris Exhibition next year, and there is a great deal of rivalry amongst the employes as to who will be the lucky ones to be sent in charge. Dr. Dawson is devoting a great deal of time, care and attention to the selection of specimens, and it is believed that the geological exhibit at Paris will be by far the best and most complete ever sent from Canada.

"Welcome, Evil, If Thou Comest Alone."

One evil that cannot come alone is impure blood. If this is allowed, it is attended by kindred ailments galore. This condition means that every vein and artery of the body, instead of carrying to the organs a health-giving flow of life, is laden with a slow and impure fluid that is harming instead of healing.

It is unfortunate when there is "bad blood" between people. It is worse when it is inside of you. Hood's Sarsaparilla will not make enemies friends, but it will make "bad blood" good blood, and blood should be of the best quality. Hood's never disappoints.

Pimples—"My face was covered with pimples and blackheads but after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a short time, I was entirely cured, and my skin left smooth and clear. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla very highly." MAY RYAN, North Street, Chatham, Ont.

Erysipelas—"I would strongly urge the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla for erysipelas or any scrofulous disease. I have received great benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla for the former complaint. It is an excellent blood purifier." MRS. H. D. WEST, Church Street, Cornwallis, Nova Scotia.

Tired Feeling—"I had no appetite and experienced a tired feeling. Different medicines did not help me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a short time I was enjoying perfect health. Since then we always take Hood's Sarsaparilla when we need a blood purifier or tonic." MRS. S. KINCH, Beatrice, Ont.

Stomach Trouble—"I had pains in my sides and kidneys. Stomach and liver troubles caused my distress. I had doctored without avail and used many medicines unsuccessfully. My sister advised Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a short time it cured me. I am now stronger and sleep better. I shall never be without Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house." MRS. PARE AND WEIR.

How George Lied about the President of La Banque Ville Marie.

The Montreal Star contains a photo and appreciative biographical sketch of the honoured President and General Manager of La Banque Ville Marie, Mr. William Weir, who will be presented with a mammoth oil painting of himself by the branch managers in commemoration of the fact that it is now half a century since he entered the career of banking. Mr. Weir, in the days of Francis Hinks, laid the foundation of the currency system, and in recognition of this the merchants of Canada presented him with a sterling silver tea and coffee service.

Mr. Weir was the Bank President who was accused by George Edward Pare, present address unknown, of plotting with him to rob La Banque Ville Marie. The truly penitent Geo. Edward, full of remorse for past offences, confessed to the Warden of St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary, while in temporary retirement there several years ago, Mr. Weir, himself and a pal planned to rob the bank. Mr. Weir, he said, allowed him to go through and examine the locks of the different safes and vaults, and everything was ready for the coup when poor George was arrested on an old charge and sent to St. Vincent de Paul. "Let me find my chum, Solon Green," declared Pare, "and he will corroborate all I have said."

As Pare in his confession displayed some knowledge of the interior of the bank building, the Board of Directors thoroughly investigated the "confession," and proved Pare to be a most unmitigated, cheerful, unblushing liar.

The point we now take is: If Pare lied about Bank President Weir, would he not lie about Bank Clerk Ponton? If he could not gain enough knowledge of the interior of this great Montreal bank building to give plausibility to his lie, could he not secure enough knowledge of the interior of a little country building to give a faint flavour of truth to his "confession" implicating Ponton? In our opinion no man in the possession of his senses would punish a dog on the testimony of such a perfured rascal, much less convict a man whose reputation is untarnished.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

CANADIAN FRUIT.

LACK OF CARE, LACK OF SKILL, LACK OF HONESTY.

Serious Condition Revealed by Prof. Robertson before the Agricultural Committee.

Ottawa; May. 16. — Prof. Robertson told the Agricultural Committee this morning that the Canadian apple trade in Great Britain is not in a good way, owing to lack of care, lack of skill and lack of honesty in packing the fruit, and to damage sustained by the fruit in its carriage across the Atlantic. Representations have been made to steamship agents for proper ventilation of holds in which apples were carried, but up to the present time few ships have been so equipped.

In proof of the deception practised in packing, Prof. Robertson read a letter from ex-Mayor Warne, of Yarmouth, N.S., where the salvaged cargo of the Castillian was sold. Mr. Warne expressed disgust at the way in which the barrels were packed, with windfalls in the centre. He sent on two samples of top rows and fillings, which Prof. Robertson showed the committee. The latter were a miserable specimen, not one-sixth the size of the apple which was used at the two ends of the barrel. Prof. Robertson said that he had considerable evidence of the form of dishonesty which was going to injure the Canadian apple trade if it was not stopped.

Several members suggested that inspectors should be placed at the different ports in order to prevent badly packed or dishonest shipments, but Prof. Robertson pointed out that this was a difficult question to settle. If the fruit growers would only realize the injury they were doing themselves they would give up the practice.

Mr. Grindley, the special agent of the department in Britain, pointed out how the Nova Scotia and California apples had made a place for themselves by being of uniform quality and size, and of one or two varieties, although the so-called Canadian apples were of far better quality. But these latter were of so many varieties and so badly packed that they were not wanted on the London market and were sent down into the provinces. A model packer was Mr. R. W. Shepherd, of Como, who shipped Famuese apples to the Prince of Wales and the Army and Navy stores in boxes with a pasteboard compartment for each apple, and these arrived in excellent condition. Mr. Grindley spoke strongly on the necessity for proper packing and grading, and packing fruit in a cool state. He was glad to know that the steamship companies were going to provide ventilated compartments for apples.

Hon. Mr. Fisher stated that thousands of Ontario apples like those shown by Prof. Robertson had been sent to England last year, to the great disgrace of Canada.

Mr. Grindley gave much good advice regarding growing, grading and packing.

Hon. Mr. Fisher went over some points of interest to shippers and growers. He had for a year past received so many letters that he felt it was necessary to investigate statements. The committee had taken exception last year to the spreading abroad of statements regarding dishonest packing, but the reports were such that he was satisfied that the matter must be faced. Hundreds of barrels had been sent of such a sort that the trade would be ruined if something was not done. The English people wanted an honest apple, and if they did not get it from Canada, this country's trade would be gone. The question of inspection had been brought to his notice, but there was great difficulty in the way. The only way to thoroughly inspect apples was to empty a whole barrel out and the fruit could not be packed without loss. Besides, when it was remembered that in a few weeks in autumn over 100,000 barrels were shipped from Montreal, it would be seen how impossible it would be to inspect all the shipments.

But something could be done to obtain good conditions on the steamer and the department would continue its efforts to have the company provide properly ventilated holds. This season, if he got the vote he asked for, he would have officers at Montreal, St. John and Halifax to specially look after the shipping and loading of apples. The difficulties in the way of Government inspection were numerous, and he preferred to bring all the facts of the matter before the public. As to the quality and grading of the fruit, the growers and shippers had the matter in their own hands.

LETTER FROM ANDREE.

Was Found Early in April on Northwest Coast of Iceland.

Leith, Scotland, May 19.—The Norwegian ship Viking has brought news of a letter written by Prof. Andree, which was found in a bottle early in April near Rifetang, on the northeast coast of Iceland, by a farmer named Johann Magnusson. The letter was then in a bottle, addressed to the Polar Expedition at Gooteberg and bore Andree's own stamp, with the request that it be placed in the nearest postoffice. Magnusson, it is added, gave the letter to a merchant, Sveinn Einason, at Thintilford, who mailed it, and it is expected to arrive at its destination in the course of a few days. The letter brought by the Viking was addressed to an Icelander now in London, describing the finding and forwarding of Andree's letter.

THE PARIS POSTMEN.

2,000 of Them Demand More Wages and Quit Work—Government Considers and Will Punish Leaders.

Paris, May 19.—Owing to the refusal of the Senate to vote the bill providing increased pay for postmen, recently passed by the Chamber of Deputies, about 800 postmen refused to go to work early yesterday morning, and later the whole force, numbering 3,000 men, went out on strike. As a result there were no mail deliveries yesterday morning. Even the embassies have not received their letters. The men are standing in groups outside the postoffice.

Later the postmen held an open-air meeting around the postoffice and were addressed by the Under Postal Secretary, M. Mougeot, who vainly urged them to return to work. The strikers responded by demanding an increase of pay.

The postoffice was besieged by business men, who demanded their letters. M. Mougeot arranged for a delivery during the afternoon. The sorting was done by clerks who have been placed at the disposal of the postoffice authorities by the commercial houses and banks. They are under the direction of the auxiliary sorters. The mail was delivered by soldiers, conducted by policemen. The absence of a regular mail delivery has caused great disturbance in business circles.

Leaders to Be Punished.

The Cabinet met yesterday, considered the strike and decided to severely punish the leaders. M. Mougeot ordered the postmen to instantly return to work under pain of dismissal, but the strikers refused to do so and attacked a post wagon manned by repentnan guards. The police beat the strikers off after a fight in which several policemen were hurt and a number of strikers arrested.

In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday there was great animation. The Minister of Posts and Telegraphs said the regular delivery would be resumed last evening, adding that the public service should not be allowed to lie at the mercy of the few officials, nor could the latter be permitted to impose their will upon Parliament and the Government.

Premier Dupuy said the state of the employes was not such as to allow of them going on strike, and if the postmen did not resume work they would be replaced by others. The Government would yield to no such intimidation.

A vote of confidence in the Government was passed. The Socialist minority shouted and cheered for a general strike.

Irrevocable Dismissal.

M. Mougeot and the Paris profect of police have issued a circular to the postmen individually, announcing that all who fail to return to duty to-day will be irrevocably dismissed.

WORSE THAN YELLOW FEVER

Kidney Disease, Man's Deadliest Foe—Dodd's Kidney Pills its Only Cure.

Toronto, May 15. — "Yellow fever and smallpox combined do not kill as many people as Kidney Disease does." was the assertion of a prominent physician, recently.

The assertion is fully borne out by facts, and were it not that there is a means of checking and curing Kidney disease the number of its victims would be trebled.

But the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills keeps the death rate from this complaint quite low compared to its former height.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were used in every case of Kidney Disease there would be no deaths from it.

A Drummer Arrested.

The Government's Proposition for Redistributing Seats.

A COMMISSION OF JUDGES.

Hon. Mr. Mulock Will Introduce the Bill After the Queen's Birthday Holidays—The Drummond County Railway Bill Debate—Mr. Haggart Repeats His Old Criticism—Other Proceedings.

Ottawa, May 19.—The redistribution bill which Mr. Mulock is to introduce in the House after the Queen's Birthday adjournment will be of an exceedingly simple character. The Government's adherence to the system of adopting county boundaries as the limits of constituencies will be shown, and in the provinces affected a commission of judges will be appointed to arrange the division of the counties entitled to more than one member. Thus, while the House will arrange the number of members, to the judiciary will be delegated the duty of apportioning the representation within county lines, and the very shadow of party advantage will be done away with. Anxiety to score by "stocking the cards" in the redistribution has made no appearance in the deliberations and the decision of the Government. The present gerrymander, with its many amorphous monstrosities in the shape of electoral divisions, is doomed, and will soon be a thing to be remembered as being in the same class as the family compact and the double majority system in the Parliament of old Canada.

Bills Introduced.

After routine, Sir Henri Joly introduced a bill to amend the Adulteration Act. Mr. Ellis introduced a bill to amend the Act Respecting Canned Goods.

In answer to Mr. Moche, Sir Louis Davies said the cost of the last Hudson Bay expedition was $40,142. It was not the intention of the Government to take any action on the information gained by the expedition.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper explained the circumstances out of which arose the statement that "Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's law partner was also an applicant for a Yukon liquor permit." Mr. Peters was a Liberal and before passing his final examination and becoming Sir Hibbert's law partner he asked his old friend Sir Louis Davies for a liquor permit in the Yukon.

That Washington Commission.

Mr. N. Clarke Wallace called the Prime Minister's attention to the Washington despatches yesterday returning to the joint high commission.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied: "I have only to say that the report is evidently astray. The question is to-day in the same position that we left it at Washington when we stated on the floor of the House, and I can repeat now, that substantial progress had been made on most of the questions submitted to the commission, with the single exception of the Alaska boundary. On that question, as the House knows, we could not come to an agreement. We could not agree to accept the terms which were laid down by our American fellow-commissioners, and we referred the matter to the two Governments interested, which have had it in hand ever since."

In answer to Dr. Montague, Hon. Mr. Fielding said that the friendly societies' bill would not be proceeded with this year, because some of the societies wish to consider it, and also because the question of its constitutionality had been raised.

Stranding of the Gallia.

Mr. Bergeron drew attention to the stranding of the Gallia in the St. Lawrence, and said the buoying of the channel had not been well done during the last two seasons.

Sir Louis Davies denied that the channel had been neglected. The work of laying and carrying the buoys was to be done this season by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, under the superintendence of the chief engineer, Col. Anderson.

The Drummond County Bill.

Hon. John Haggart resumed the debate on the Drummond County Railway bill, and spent four hours in a reiteration of his expressed belief last year that the arrangement "savored of corruption," although at the last sitting of the special committee on the matter the former Minister of Railways stated that he made no charges of corruption against anybody.

Mr. Aulay Morrison of New Westminster analyzed the evidence given before the special committee, showing that Mr. Haggart had given his testimony in a very evasive manner in regard to the proposals of the Conservative Administration to purchase the road. Any judge in Canada, Mr. Morrison said, hearing similar evidence from a witness, would have ordered him out of the box. He contrasted Mr. Haggart's inept effort to criticise on the one hand and to justify on the other with Mr. Blair's statement to the committee of his action in respect to it. He quoted from expert testimony to show that the value of the road was greater than the price which the Government paid.

Mr. Borden, after speaking an hour, moved the adjournment of the debate, which was agreed to.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier withdrew the notice he had previously given concerning the Queen's Birthday adjournment, and substituted one that when the House adjourns to-day it stands adjourned until Thursday next, and that when it adjourns on Friday night it stand adjourned until Saturday.

The House adjourned at midnight.

Notes of the Gallery.

The special committee to which was referred Dr. Douglas' bill for the establishment of warehouses, known as "flat" elevators, in the Northwest, threw out the first clause on a vote of 44 to 7. This virtually kills the bill.

Premier Greenway and Col. McMillan had a long interview with Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Sifton last evening in regard to handing over to the province the school lands and proceeds therefrom.

The Canada Life Insurance Company's bill was reported by the committee on banking and commerce yesterday. Power is given to hold the annual meetings in Toronto, and the 40-vote clause was overwhelmingly lost.

In the Senate yesterday Hon. David Mills said it was not the intention to this year increase the salaries of judges of Superior or County Courts of the Dominion.

THE CROW'S NEST PASS.

Brief Summary of the Report of Mr. Clute, the Government Commissioner.

Ottawa, May 19.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday afternoon laid on the table of the House the report of Mr. R. C. Clute, Q.C., the commissioner appointed to inquire into the circumstances of the death of Fraser and Macdonald during the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway. It is stated in the commission, a copy of which is attached to the report, that the inquiry was to be conducted with a view to establishing whether there was criminal negligence on the part of any person or persons resulting in the death of the men.

Mr. Clute appears to have made a very thorough examination, and his report, with the evidence taken, and his findings and recommendations, cover over 400 typewritten pages. He says that he visited the works, examined about 60 witnesses, whose evidence is given, and which gives the details of the men's illness and death, pretty much as it was given in the press at the time, and was brought out in the House last year.

The conclusions he arrives at, briefly summarized, are, that the medical system on the Crow's Nest Pass Railway down to the time of the death of Fraser and Macdonald were absolutely inadequate, on account of the lack of hospital accommodation and the enormity of the distances to be covered by doctors to attend the sick men; that in the case in question the men ought not to have been removed from camp to Lethbridge, but that one of the two doctors attached to the works should have been called.

He considers that the means employed to remove the men were insufficient, and that the want of stimulants, nourishment and proper care was without excuse; that during the stoppage of 28 hours at Bull's Head there was ample time to call a doctor, and that the dangerous condition of the men was so apparent that there was no excuse for their being neglected and the journey continued.

He also condemns the inhuman treatment received by the men during their stay at the fifth siding.

The suggestions made in the report are that on works of the character of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway the Government should appoint an engineer and a chief medical officer, and that when the work is situated at a distance from the cities, in unsettled districts, then there should be established a thoroughly-equipped field hospital for accommodation of sick men, and that provision should be made for their isolation in cases of contagious or infectious diseases.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.

No One Can Remain Well, No Chronic Disease Can Be Cured Unless the Stomach is First Made Strong and Vigorous.

This is plain because every organ in the body depends on the stomach for its nourishment. Nerve, bone, sinew and blood are made from the food which the stomach converts to our use.

How useless to treat disease with this, that and the other remedy and neglect the most important of all, the stomach.

The earliest symptoms of indigestion are sour risings, bad taste in the mouth, gas in stomach and bowels, palpitation, all-gone feeling, faintness, headaches, constipation; later comes loss of flesh, consumption, liver and heart troubles, kidney diseases, nervous prostration, all of which are the indirect result of poor nutrition.

Any person suffering from indigestion should make it a practice to take after each meal one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing it to dissolve in the mouth and thus mingle with the saliva and enter the stomach in the most natural way. These tablets are highly recommended by Dr. Jennison because they are composed of the natural digestive acids and fruit essences which assist the stomach in digesting all wholesome food before it has time to ferment and sour.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists, full sized packages at 50 cents. They are also excellent for invalids and children. A book on stomach diseases and thousands of testimonials of genuine cures sent free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practising. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. ARE THESE THE MEN?

ORONO BUSINESS PLACES WERE ROBBED ON WEDNESDAY.

The Tramps Caught here are Suspected of being Implicated in the Burglary.

Special to The Examiner.

Bowmanville, Ont., May 19.—Opinion here respecting the tramps under arrest at Peterborough is that they had nothing to do with the Standard Bank burglary here on Saturday morning last, but that they are possibly the burglars who operated in a number of business places in the village of Orono, 8 miles distant some time during the Wednesday night previous. The places entered were J. Gilfillan's drug store, the front of which was forced open and some small change from the till and the telegraph company's funds, amounting in all to about six dollars stolen.

The North American Hotel, where the bar till was robbed of five dollars in change, Foster's carriage works, and Lunton's foundry, which were entered apparently in search of drills as only a brace and bit were missing from the latter place, and Cornish's bakery, where the burglars helped themselves to a liberal supply of cakes.

The back window of the harness shop was raised, but this place was not entered. The work was generally credited to local men, but some are of the opinion now that the suspects under arrest at Peterborough are the culprits. The Standard Bank bills and the liberal quantity of small change in silver, found on these men seem to confirm this view.

PRESENTATION TO MR. FRANCIS

Mr. W. J. Francis was agreeably surprised at his residence on Dennistoun avenue last evening by the members of the Public Library Drawing Class.

Mr. P. Gillespie read an address expressive of the members' high appreciation of Mr. Francis' character and ability, and at the same time Mr. C. D. Mathias handed him a valuable ink stand, and presented his son Edward with a silver mug.

The address was as follows:

Mr. W. J. Francis,

Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Friend—Believing that sentiment is part of the world's best wealth, and that a sincere manifestation of sentiment is always productive of good, we have gathered this evening to give expression to our feelings of regard for you in the dual capacity of class instructor and friend. Our relations during the winter just passed have been of the pleasantest character, and the interest you have taken in us has commanded our respect. We realize that you spared no pains in our behalf, and we heartily thank you for it.

As a slight token of our esteem and good fellowship we ask you to accept this ink stand. To your promising son Edward we wish to present this drinking cup, realizing that if he does not now altogether comprehend the spirit that prompted the giving, he will at least understand the purpose it is intended to serve. We extend to you and your family our best wishes for a happy and useful life.

Signed on behalf of the Drawing Class of '98-'99.

Mr. Francis replied, thanking the class for their attention and industry. Some members might have done better, but, everything considered, he was quite satisfied with the result of the term.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING.

The Kennedy Cattle Yards Question and the Commissioners' Action in Relation Thereto to be Considered.

Strong protests have been made to members of the council respecting the establishment of Kennedy's proposed cattle yards. The Mayor has called a special meeting of the Council for Monday evening next, to consider this matter, as well as the serious action on the part of the Commissioners in over-riding the decision of the chosen and responsible representatives of the people, with a view of dealing with such action in the present and preventing its recurrence.

FIRE AT STONY LAKE.

Isaac Hoskin's Saw Mill at South Bay Badly Scorched—Loss $2,000.

One day last week, South Bay, Stony Lake, was the scene of a serious fire. It is at this point that Mr. Isaac Hoskin has a substantial steam saw mill, and has been cutting lumber for some time past under the superintendence of Mr. John Todd, of Lakefield.

On Saturday at noon, when the men were at dinner, a spark from the smokestack ignited a pile of lumber, and before the fire could be subdued, about 125,000 feet of basswood and oak lumber was burned.

Mr. Hoskin was in Peterborough at the time of the fire, and was considerably surprised on his return home, to find what had occurred.

The loss on the lumber will be about $2,000, as it is understood there was no insurance.

CHILDREN'S AID MATTERS DISCUSSED.

MISS CLARKE WILL RETAIN THE SECRETARYSHIP.

The Matter of Appointing an Inspector to Visit the Wards Which are Placed at Homes in the Country.

A special meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held in the Council Chamber last night, when the following members were present: Mr. J. J. McBain, president, in the chair, and Messrs. J. H. Burnham, Dr. Burnham, E. A. Peck, Rev. D. O. Crossley, Rev. S. J. Shorey, Rev. J. C. Davidson, F. W. Millar and Mrs. Kendry, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. E. A. Peck, Mrs. Birdsall, Mrs. J. W. Garvin and Miss Gow.

The chairman explained that the meeting had been called for the purpose of considering Miss Clark's resignation as secretary of the society, which had been tendered at the last meeting.

Mrs. Beck suggested that Miss Clark be asked to retain her position as secretary as long as she remained in town and she accordingly moved to this effect.

Mr. J. H. Burnham volunteered the statement that Miss Clarke did not intend leaving town at as early a date as was first thought. He seconded Mrs. Beck's motion.

A discussion then ensued regarding the onerous duties that rested upon the secretary, and Rev. Mr. Shorey, while not in any way opposing the above motion suggested that Mr. J. H. Burnham be in some way associated with the secretary in order that her duties might be somewhat lightened, and in the event of Miss Clark's going away the work could be carried on without interruption.

Mr. Burnham expressed himself as willing to assist in any way he could in the matter, but pointed out the difficulties a man would have to contend with if he were to assume all the responsibilities of secretary.

Mrs. J. W. Garvin supported Mr. Shorey's idea.

Mr. Crossley expressed himself as in favour of the original motion, but suggested that there might be embodied in it the provision that Mr. Burnham be asked to act as corresponding secretary and Miss Clarke attend to all the other duties as secretary.

Mrs. Beck's motion was then amended and carried.

On motion of Mrs. Beck, seconded by Mrs. Garvin, Miss Clarke was asked to continue her sewing class.

The chairman brought up the matter of inspection in respect to children placed in homes. He did not consider that the official appointed for this purpose gave sufficient attention to the matter.

Mr. J. H. Burnham coincided with Mr. McBain. He termed the inspection a farce. It was expected that an inspector should visit societies' wards every six months and inspect the books, but a rigid inspection was not made. The Ontario Government gives each municipality the power to appoint three people, who are supposed to act as a committee and keep a check on the Children's Aid Societies. This Committee, he asserted, never meets and never does any work. He referred to the way the Barnardo Home people kept an eye on their children, and the same should be done by the wards of the Children's Aid Society.

Mr. Burnham moved, that in the opinion of the Children's Aid Society of Peterborough it is necessary for the department at Toronto to adopt a more rigid system of inspection, so that Children's Aid Societies may not be compelled to assume a responsibility which properly belongs to the department in Toronto in order that the wards of the society may be properly taken care of and kept in the eye of the proper authorities by means of government superintendance.

Mr. Shorey in seconding the motion, expressed the belief that if the provincial authorities did not provide adequate inspection, the local societies should take action in that direction themselves. The motion was carried.

Mr. McBain thought that it would be wise to have an officer of the local society inspect the wards. It would not cost much.

On motion of Messrs. Shorey and Burnham, it was decided that some officer of the society should visit the wards within the county every three months and report to the society.

The matter of having the children photographed when taken into the care of the society, for future consideration was discussed.

A large committee was appointed to wait on the County Council at its next session for the purpose of having the annual grant increased. The work of the society outside of the town of Peterborough has been quite extensive this year and it is felt that the county council ought to deal liberally with the society. The Clergy and the President and Secretary were appointed as the persons to speak on the matter when the committee interviews the County Council.

The meeting then adjourned.

A MODERN STORE.

Messrs. Sutcliffe & Sons have Completed their Improvements.

Messrs. J. Sutcliffe & Sons, 389 George street, Peterborough's hustling new merchants are determined to keep apace with the times and make their store as attractive and up-to-date as possible. They have just completed improvements which not only give them more room, more light, etc., but also places it among the first of Peterborough's modern business houses. A lovely new floor of maple has been put down, which considerably brightens the lower region of the store, while the ceiling and walls have been newly papered and the woodwork attractively painted. A very good way in which to obtain additional shelving space may be seen at Sutcliffe's. All the shelving has been made considerably wider, so much so in fact, that four times as much goods can now be shelved than previous to the present. An additional window in the rear admits of much more light and gives ample means for showing up the fine assortment of goods always on hand. But the improvements have not all been confined to the interior of the store. The front of the premises have also been freshly painted and an elegant new sign in front is enough to attract any person's attention. A fine new awning, the work of Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons, also adorns the front of the premises and altogether Messrs. Sutcliffe & Son have a store that is a credit to the town.

The painting and paper hanging was done by Mr. Fred Cook.

ALDERMAN DAVIDSON RESIGNS.

He Loaned the Stone Crusher to Corry & Laverdure but his Order was Countermanded

The town stone crusher or a greater portion of it, lies stranded at the top of the Ashburnham hill, in front of Mr. Wm. Collins' store, as the result of a difference in opinion amongst the aldermen.

It appears that the crusher was hired to Messrs. Corry & Laverdure by a member of the council and after being taken apart a portion of it was loaded on a big truck with two teams of horses attached. Other members of the council objected to the loan of the crusher and the Town Engineer was instructed to prevent the removal of the machine. He overtook Corry & Laverdure's men at the top of the Ashburnham hill and on explaining the matter the horses were unhitched and the truck left standing where it was until the question was settled. In order that the crusher would not be moved back without authority from the proper source, the contractors' men removed the nuts from both front wheels. When a couple of corporation teams, therefore, went over to bring the crusher back to town, they found their purpose blocked.

Later in the afternoon the crusher was brought back to town by Corry & Laverdure's teams.

Ald. R. S. Davidson, on whose authority Corry & Laverdure took the crusher, has sent in his resignation of his seat at the Council Board. A meeting of the Council to consider the matter was summoned for to-night, but afterwards called off. The entire details of the question will be discussed at Monday's meeting of the Council. When giving his permission in regard to the crusher, Alderman Davidson was under the impression that the loan had been sanctioned by a majority of the council, which, it appears was not the case.

In Connection with All Saints' Church held Last Night.

The annual tea and sale in connection with All Saints' church, took place yesterday afternoon and evening, and proved to be the most successful in the history of the church.

Throughout the afternoon the sale took place and tea was served at five o'clock. An excellent programme in the evening concluded the affair.

The programme in the evening was taken part in by Rev. Arthur Gadd, of Gore's Landing, who gave a number of splendid recitations. His selection from Tennyson of "The Children's Hospital" was exceptionally well rendered.

Instrumental music was furnished by the Misses English, and Messrs. Pigeon, Patterson and Finney.

Vocal music was rendered by Mrs. Stapleton, Miss Mills and Miss Bullen and Rev. Mr. Armitage, Mr. G. W. Mulligan and Mr. Kingscote.

The accompanists for the evening were Miss Brown and P. W. Owens, of St. John's church.

The piano used for the occasion was a beautiful Heintzman instrument which was very kindly loaned by Mr. G. W. Mulligan.

The entertainment was under the auspices of the Senior Girls Guild. The executive committee, in whose hands all arrangements were carried out, was composed of Misses M. Brown, M. Bullen, and K. Green, and Mrs. Gilbert.

WAS IT HUSBAND OR WIFE?

Suit of Assignee Tew Raises a Question as to Purchaser.

Mail and Empire.

Judgment was reserved Tuesday by his Honour Judge Morgan in an action of Richard Tew, the Front street assignee, for the recovery of $200 from Mrs. C. B. Routley, of Peterborough, for rent paid by him which he claims she had previously agreed to pay. C. F. Kutzbach assigned to Tew on January 24th, 1898, and the latter disposed of the goods to Mr. Routley, whom he claims was but an agent of Mrs. Routley, agreeing to pay the rent up to February 4th, when the purchaser took possession. He claims however, to have been obliged to pay the rent up to July 1st, 1898, a total sum of $644 out of the estate, of which amount $322 should have been paid by Mrs. Routley. He relinquished his claim to all over $200 in order that the action might be tried in the County Court.

Mrs. Routley acknowledged that the goods had been bought with her cheque, but claimed that her husband acted solely for himself. She disclaimed all liability in connection with the transaction.

THE DEADMAN'S ISLAND INCIDENT.

The Big Row a Peterborough Boy has Raised.

Commenting on the arrest of Ludgate, the lumber company's representative at Deadman's Island, the Chicago Tribune says: "After the Provincial police had knocked him down and held his face in the mud awhile and put irons on him he reconsidered his determination, and the City of Vancouver registered a triumph as against the might of Canada, the Government of Great Britain and Ireland, and the almighty dollar hailing from Chicago. At last accounts a British gunboat was hastening to the scene. An Irish wake isn't a circumstance to Deadman's Island when it gets under way. The dead man who is supposed to own the island may have company before this insular affair is settled.

DR. WARD'S BLOOD & NERVE PILLS

DR. WARD'S BLOOD & NERVE PILLS

READ THE PROOF!

GENTLEMEN,—I have for a long time needed something to make blood and build up my system. My blood was watery and thin, lacking strength and vitality. Last January a friend said:—"Why not try Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills? They will supply the oxygen your blood needs and give you health and strength." I told him I was very skeptical as to any benefit that could be derived from any proprietary medicine and had no faith in them. There the matter rested until four months ago, when reading so much about what Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have done for so many people with impoverished blood, I concluded to give them a trial. I have taken four boxes and my unbelief so far as Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are concerned has been entirely removed. They are a splendid blood builder and strength restorer, and an invaluable medicine for weak, enervated people. This has been my experience, they having given me strength of body and strong healthy blood.

A FRONTIER FIGHT.

How Jim Bowie's Band of Eight Stood Off Five Hundred Comanches.

In Texas James Bowie put his hand to another sort of fighting. In 1831, with his brother Resin, six other men and a boy, he set out upon a trading and exploring expedition through the heart of the Comanche country. At six days' travel from possible succor he found his party assailed by 500 mounted warriors, Comanches all, who rode like the wind, yet shot with deadly aim. Resistance seemed hopeless in the face of odds so great. Bowie took the one desperate chance left him and won the game.

He divided his forces, stationing three in one skirt of woods, with the pack animals, and scattering the rest about a more considerable arborage. Each was fully armed—had rifle, knife and pistols. Powder and lead were plenty; also wherewithal to eat and drink. Each grove had a spring in it. Close about the waters the white men lay or crouched, resolved, "if they must die, to take at least 100 redskins with them."

Five days the fight went on. Swooping in clouds, the red riders dashed round, round, ever nearing the devoted marksmen and sending toward them in whirring flight arrows and bullets thicker than hail. But the wheeling ended in rout when it came within fair rifle range. The men crouching in cover made every missile tell. Man and horses went down in struggling heaps as the sharp crack of their weapons, and they were so swift to load and fire that the chiefs easily persuaded themselves their enemy was a hundred strong. But the attacking went on until threescore braves were dead and as many more disabled, to say nothing of the ponies. Bowie had one man dead, whom he buried reverently; one desperately wounded, whom he took away to safety, although the attempt appeared to promise destruction to all the band.—Martha McCulloch-Williams in Harper's Magazine.

Remarkable Cures.

Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure is performing wonders. Reports are coming in from all parts regarding its efficacy in all cases of rheumatism. It is taken internally. Mr. William Gillespie, Light House Keeper, Wolf Island, was afflicted with Muscular Rheumatism for two weeks. Two doses of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him. 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

Hare Hunting.

Hare hunting is undoubtedly a more antique sport than the chase of the fox. Xenophon pursued it with delight in ancient Greece, and in Britain the hare was for centuries looked upon as a far more worthy quarry than the fox, which, until the time of Queen Elizabeth and even later, was regarded as mere vermin. Nicholas Cox, author of "The Gentleman's Recreation," a work on sport, published in 1677, writes thus enthusiastically: "As of all chases the hare makes the greatest pastime, so it is a great delight and satisfaction to see the craft of this little poor beast in her own self preservation." And it is to be admitted that in those shifts and expedients which afford to lovers of hounds the true delights of hunting the timid hare is at least as fertile as any known beast of chase in any part of the world.

An Answer and a Comment.

The inquisitorial magisterial inquiries have elicited some humorous answers. An old sailor of 75, who reminded the magistrate that he had helped to work the ship that took Sir George Grey and Bishop Selwyn to England, was asked had he ever been in prison.

"Not to my knowledge," was the reply of the ancient mariner.

The court smiled again when in answer to the query whether he had ever deserted his wife the ancient mariner indignantly retorted, "I never had no occasion to."

"Some do it without any occasion," dryly observed the magistrate.—London Chronicle.

Proof Against Wasp Stings.

Mr. Murray, a Scottish naturalist, in a recent paper on the habits of wasps tells how a blackbird will stand at the side of a hanging wasps' nest and deliberately tear it in pieces in order to get at the larvæ, apparently undisturbed by the swarm of angry insects, whose vicious stings instantly put to flight the human curiosity seeker who ventures near to watch the demolition.

A SHOOTING STAR.

What It Really Is and Where It Comes From.

Sir Robert Ball, who is the world's greatest living astronomer, told a London audience recently some interesting facts about meteorites and shooting stars. In describing the origin of meteorites he said that millions of years ago, when the earth was an infant at play and volcanoes were giants, the meteors were thrown upward in infant convulsions. Some of the earth's discarded rocks returned at once, but those which were flung upward at a rate greater than seven miles a second passed beyond the earth's gravitating influence and sought paths of their own, no one could tell whither.

And then, after millions of years, they once more came within the reach of the world, and old Mother Earth resumed her sway, took back the rocks to her bosom and the astronomers said a meteorite had fallen.

Sir Robert asked his hearers to imagine a wrapping of some hundreds of miles of air round the earth's surface. Now just in the same way that a gimlet, boring its way into wood, becomes warm, so a bullet going 20 miles a minute would become extremely warm in boring its way through 20 miles of air.

And in the same way that a bullet became warm, so a meteorite traveling 10,000 times as fast as a bullet, traveling at this speed perhaps for hundreds of years through realms of space whose paralyzing cold was indescribable and finding itself at last plunging through the warm bath of the air, became hotter and hotter and hotter.

It glowed, it became white hot, it melted, it dissolved in a burst of gaseous splendor, and observers on the earth cried, "Why, there's a shooting star!"

AN ARCHITECTURAL PUZZLE.

Monasteries Built In a Wildly Inaccessible Locality.

The famous monasteries of Meteora crown the summits of vast rock pinnacles rising from the plain of Thessaly.

By what strange means the first cunning architects of these airy perches succeeded in reaching the scene of their labors is a matter wreathed in mystery. The cliffs are far too smooth and perpendicular for any man to climb by hand and foot, and history guards jealously the secret of the monasteries. All that is known about them is that the monks and wandering friars of the middle ages found sanctuary here when first the crescent and scimiter ran red with Christian blood. Visitors to the monks' abode announce their presence by shouting until some one far above looks out and lets the net, which is worked by a windlass, come down.

The sensation of the ascent is distinctly novel. Seated on the ground in the center of the net, the meshes are one by one looped on to a large iron hood. As the rope becomes taut the cords press uncomfortably hard upon various points of one's body, and with a strong wind blowing it swings to and fro and bumps its human load against the cliff. The rope, as it slowly winds on the drum up in the monastery, kinks occasionally, and the jerk gives one the impression that the rickety concern is giving way.

The journey, however, ends safely 170 feet above the ground, where the monks promptly extricate the visitor and give him a pleasant welcome.

The Caroline Islanders.

As a rule the Caroline islander is fairly honest. Once lay his suspicions to rest and win his confidence, and he will prove himself a faithful friend and an excellent host, courteous and just in all his dealings, as I have very good cause to know. On the other hand, when dealing with his enemies, he calls into play a talent for intrigue, lying and chicanery that would delight a Machiavelli.

In his private life he is unselfish, frugal and economical, a man of careful, small habits. Like all folk of Melanesian admixture, he is liable to fits of dangerous sullenness when he considers himself slighted in any way. He is inclined to be revengeful and will bide his time patiently until his opportunity comes. Yet he is not implacable and counts reconciliation a noble and princely thing. There is a form of etiquette to be observed on these occasions—a present (katom) is made, an apology offered, a piece of sugar cane accepted by the aggrieved party, honor is satisfied, and the matter ends.

Apt Quotations.

Proverbs, axioms and wise sayings have been uttered by Confucius and other wise men from time immemorial, but few people realize how many there are of them. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, have over two thousand and they have originated the ingenious plan of serving them up in delectable shape in thousands of newspapers with each one neatly turning a point as to the merit of their well known medicine. The extensive use of these proverbs is original and creditable to Hood & Co.

A London burglar was set upon by a pet orang-outang in a house he was robbing, and was so badly bitten and mutilated that he died.

Most of the so-called protections against burglary, do not protect any more than most of the so-called "remedies" protect from the burglary of the "house of this body" by the crafty burglar—Disease. Like the regular burglar, disease works with as little disturbance as possible.

You think you have that jewel of health you possess in perfect safety. But little disturbances if they were heeded would show the burglar at his work. Loss of appetite precedes loss of flesh. Then comes weakness followed by the more disturbing symptoms of lingering cough, sore throat, bronchitis and bleeding at the lungs. When any or all these symptoms appear, begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best of all medicines. It is non-alcoholic. It helps the stomach and separates the good parts of the food from the bad. It supplies thin, impoverished, run-down blood with the needed rich red corpuscles. It makes solid flesh—the sort that strong people have. If you value your health, don't allow the dealer to sell you something else. Insist upon having Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"I must say Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the most wonderful medicine I ever used," writes Geo. S. Henderson, Esq., of Deansad, Lee Co., Florida. "I had a bad bruise on my right ear, and my blood was badly out of order. I tried several doctors but with no good results. Finally I wrote you the particulars in my case and you advised your 'Golden Medical Discovery' which I began to take. From the first bottle I began to feel better and when I had taken eight bottles the sore was healed up."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation and biliousness. They never gripe.

LIGHTNING KILLED HIM.

Duncan Greenless of Plympton Was Struck by a Bolt.

Forest, Ont., May 18.—While Duncan Greenless, aged 17, son of Mr. Angus Greenless of Plympton Township, was returning to the house yesterday, after doing the morning chores, he was instantly killed by lightning. His mother was within a rod of him at the time, and saw him fall. The body is without a mark of the cause of death, save a little singeing of the hair and a slight mark on one leg. A black felt hat which he wore was torn, his watch chain was burnt, but the watch was uninjured. A hole was torn in his shirt, opposite where the watch chain fastened to his brace. Both shoes were torn off his feet and thrown a considerable distance.

IN LIQUIDATION.

Steamships of the Canadian-Australian Line Are Put Up for Sale.

Montreal, May 18.—A Star special cable from London says: The liquidator of Mr. James Huddart's Canadian-Australian Steamship Company offers for sale by tender, in one lot, as a going concern, the steamships Miowera, Warrimoo and Aorangi, and all the business, goodwill and property of the company. Enquiries show that this is a mere formal stage in the reconstruction of the company, and is not likely to affect the continuance of the service.

Lightning Fired the Barn.

Chatham, Ont., May 18.—During yesterday's heavy storm the barn of Charles Wilkinson, Chatham Township, was struck by lightning and completely destroyed. A team of horses, a colt, several calves and cows were killed. A large quantity of grain and farm implements were burned with the building. Mr. Wilkinson was rendered unconscious by the stroke, but recovered sufficiently to escape. The loss will be about $8,000.

Hamilton Man's Leg Broken.

Galt, Ont., May 18.—James Dick, an employe of the Hamilton Bridge Company, working on the new C.P.R. bridge here, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon. While at work, a heavy beam rolled over upon his leg and caused a severe fracture. The bones were set and he was taken to the hospital.

Happy Thoughts.

To please attract and give people something to talk about is an art in writing a prosaic advertisement. Hood, of Sarsaparilla fame, is the originator in an extensive sense, of the idea of using proverbs and wise saws as a prefix to a pleasant introduction to the well known virtues of America's Greatest Medicine. These quaint quotations often fit the news of the day with startling directness and the moral is easily drawn, with natural good to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Picked Up a Live Wire.

Kingston, Ont., May 18.—Last evening a lad named Elijah Veale picked up a live wire through which was passing 2,000 volts of electricity. He was severely burned about the hands and his body badly twisted and swollen. Two men went to his rescue, but were thrown to the ground. The machinery at the power house had to be shut down before the boy could be released. He is in a critical condition.

Who Caused His Death?

Vankleek Hill, Ont., May 18.—A young man named Ward Leavitt, about 16 years of age, living two miles from Caledonia Springs, came to an untimely end yesterday afternoon. His mother and half-brother came to Vankleek Hill to do some shopping, and on returning home found him dead in the house, having been shot. An inquest is in progress.

People who suffer from Nervous Depression and Exhaustion frequently look healthy and strong. They alone know the thousand distressing symptoms which make their lives miserable.

With these symptoms there is usually melancholy and fear of death, which tends to increase nervousness, but there is every reason to be hopeful if the right treatment is used. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food contains all the nutrition required to create new brain and nerve tissue. It imparts to the nervous system that life-giving principle which sends a thrill of new strength and vigor through the system.

Tortured by Itching

Women are almost driven insane.

Instant Relief in Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

One of the most distressing symptoms imaginable is the almost unbearable itching which is an accompaniment of Leucorrhea or whites. The nerves are irritated by the poisonous discharge, and the result is an itching which is only rendered more excruciating by rubbing or scratching.

Especially at night, when the body is warm, the patient is tormented beyond the powers of human endurance. Sleep or rest is out of the question. Nervousness, irritability and despondency are a natural result.

In these offices there are on the file thousands of letters from grateful women who have found in Dr. Chase's Ointment a quick and certain cure for this itching to which women are subject.

During the expectant period many women suffer similar agony from itching of the parts, or itching piles, which are absolutely cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The first application of this great discovery of Dr. A. W. Chase will afford prompt relief. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

TRIED TO ESCAPE.

She stood leaning against the deck railing of the steamer Priscilla. For some moments she had been listlessly watching the last of the baggage bundled on to the boat by the burly freight handlers, and now she gave a little sigh of intermixed relief and suppressed excitement as the big hawsers that held the boat to the wharf were loosened and flung into the water. She waited until the men drew in the wet rope; then she turned to the scenes about her. What a labyrinth they seemed to be passing through! Tugs, pilotboats, ferries, all seemed to be crossing and recrossing in a most reckless manner as the Priscilla plowed along independently, as if the whole river were clear of obstructions.

The sun was just setting, and New York's tall buildings shot skyward, black against the pink glow. There were familiar domes and spires, but she turned hastily from them and cast a glance at Liberty, silent and impassive with her upstretched arm.

A slight frown rose to her face as she recalled that day they had landed there from the yacht, and she bit her lips in vexation at the reflection. "At any rate, it is all right now," she said to herself, while a peculiar light stole into her eyes. "This is the end of it all. I couldn't do better than to go at once and not let him know where. It will save all fruitless discussion. And—and I hate a scene."

She stared steadily at the buildings on Blackwell's island. They were very misty and indistinct, and she passed her hand rapidly over her eyes.

The deck was filling with passengers, and she moved to a more retired spot, where she sat back and watched the shore grow dark and the lights come out one by one. She pushed up the veil she had worn and looked about her. It was a curious crowd, it seemed to her. She had never traveled this way before. What a mixture of refinement and vulgarity! There were a man and a woman eating out of some brown paper bags, and just beyond them a man and wife apparently of her own set.

Well, she could go to her stateroom early and so be by herself. She would go down to dinner now. Alone? It gave her a peculiar sensation to think of it. Well, it was part of the penalty of running away, as it were.

She rose to go.

"Am I just in time to take you down?" a familiar voice said close beside her.

Her hand grasped the back of the camp chair. The motion, together with a swaying of the boat, made her stagger for a moment, but a strong hand held her firmly. "I shall be very glad if you will go down with me," he repeated.

She sat down again suddenly. "Did you get my note?" she demanded.

"Of course," drawing a chair and speaking in a low voice as he readjusted the wrap that had slipped from her shoulders. "But you didn't suppose I would obey, did you?" He smiled as he spoke.

"It was horrid of you," she replied, giving her shoulders a shrug so that the wrap loosened again and fell to the deck, where it lay unheeded. "perfectly horrid."

He made no reply to the charge.

"You knew we couldn't keep on this way," she continued in a grieved voice. "It was misunderstanding, misunderstanding, all the time, and of course that wasn't—wasn't love." She hesitated and glanced quickly at the figure beside her. His eyes were on the passing landscape.

"And I didn't want any scene. It's horrid and common to make a scene." She swallowed hastily. "And so I wrote the note and ended it all, and just came away, so as to get rid of all this. And now you've followed me." She spoke indignantly and beat a tattoo on the deck with her foot.

He looked at her gravely for an instant, then turned again to the darkness outside. "I don't think you can realize what it is," he said, his eyes on a distant revolving beacon, "to ask a man to give up what is more than life to him."

The light from the powerful lens blazed full upon them, rested for a moment, and then left them in darkness once more.

"I couldn't give you up that way," he went on, his hand impulsively stealing out and taking hers. "For if I did it would be for all time, and so I was bound to make one more fight. When I found that you were gone I just risked the chance of it being this way, because you had always insisted on never going by this line, and so, being a woman, I thought you'd take it now."

The hand in his made a feeble attempt to withdraw, but he held it close.

"It wasn't nice of you," she said suddenly, as if a new thought had struck her, "because I'm alone, you know, and if any one we know should see us together"—

The darkness covered his smile. "Nice women can travel alone," he replied, "but then, I thought that perhaps we might turn this into sort of an antewedding journey, you know. We can get off at Newport—the boat touches at 6—and be married early and then keep on to the mountains. In fact, I wired to your aunt to meet us—and Bennett too."

There was a moment's pause.

"I thought this looked like you," a woman's gay voice broke in. "Dear me, how nice and secluded you are. I've been trying to convince Richard that it was you." She turned and beckoned to her husband on the other side of the deck.

"Awfully jolly to find you two, don't you know," Mr. Clifford rejoined as he drew up a seat for his wife and handed Miss Wentworth her fallen wrap. "The Browns are back there and the Folsomes in the saloon. Lots of people we know."

"Your vacation, Elton?"

Mrs. Clifford's next question precluded an answer. "Your aunt is inside, I suppose?" she queried. "It is damp out here, and I suppose she likes to prove a lenient chaperon." She smiled teasingly.

Miss Wentworth's face flamed a vivid scarlet, and she half turned to her lover.

"Yes," he responded quickly for her. "We—that is in fact, Mrs. Ashley is not with us."

His eyes dropped, and a peculiar smile played about the corners of his mouth. Miss Wentworth moved uneasily and gave a little gasp under cover of the darkness.

Mrs. Clifford broke into a sharp little laugh. "Of course," she said. "How lovely, and how dreadfully stupid of me not to think! It is your wedding journey, and you didn't want any of us to know."

"Yes," replied Elton, with a suppressed thrill in his voice as he boldly took again the white hand that he had dropped in confusion. "Only if you'd as lief not say anything about it. We didn't mean any one to know of it yet."

"It was unexpected and rather unconventional," said her aunt as she kissed the bride the next morning. "But, then, young people are strange creatures sometimes when they're in love, and I must say you two do seem to be dreadfully so. You've really been engaged a long time and not a single quarrel!"

She smiled approvingly at her new nephew.

"It was perfectly lovely," the bride said impulsively. "Ever so much better than if we had planned"— She stopped, bit her lip and glanced hastily at the others.

Bennett was handing her aunt into her carriage and appeared not to hear. She settled back into the seclusion of her own carriage.

"I think so, too," her husband replied as he bent and kissed her.—Springfield Republican.

How Byron Proposed.

Byron's proposal to his wife, Miss Milbanke, was made after sordid discussion and study and lacked all impulse. Lady Melbourne, who stood in his confidence, observing how cheerless and unsettled his mind and prospects were, strenuously advised him to marry. She suggested a certain lady, but Lord Byron fancied the idea of marrying Miss Milbanke.

"No," said Lady Melbourne; "Miss Milbanke will not suit you. In the first place, she has no fortune now, and you want money immediately. In the next place, you want a person who will have great admiration for your genius; she has too great an admiration for herself."

"Well," said Byron, "as you please."

And, sitting down, he wrote a letter to the lady recommended by Lady Melbourne. He received a refusal.

"Now, you see," said he, "Miss Milbanke is to be the person after all. I will write to her."

As soon as he had finished his friend, still remonstrating, read the note and observed:

"Well, really, this is a very pretty letter. It is a pity it should not go."

"Then it shall go," exclaimed Byron, and, so saying, he sealed and sent the fiat of his unhappy fate.

COLD CURE

ODD COSMETICS.

Existed Long Before Modern Invention Made Them Complex.

Even in the unhappy ages when people knew nothing of the bath and its rejuvenating properties noted beauties found out the secret of preserving their loveliness by ablutionary aids. Isabeau of Bavaria heard that chickweed was good for the skin and had enormous decoctions brewed thereof and bathed in them daily. Diana of Poitiers was another of the cleanly coquettes and plunged into a tub of rainwater every morning.

The eighteenth century beauties likewise believed in bathing, says Woman's Life, but they put all sorts of odd infusions into the water to improve the skin, such as the bouillon in which veal had been boiled, waters distilled from the honey extracted from roses, a preparation of almonds, melon juice, the milky juices of green barley and linseed distilled with Mexican balm dissolved by the yolk of an egg. These remarkable decoctions were freely used by the ladies who sunned themselves at the court of Louis before the revolution.

Queen Marie Antoinette made liberal use of a "tub," putting into the water wild thyme leaves, marjoram and a little sea salt.

Marie Czetwertynoska, a Russian beauty who exercised great influence over Czar Alexander I, used to bathe in Malaga wine.

The Marechale Davout, Princess Eckmuhl, was at 85 renowned for her queenly carriage, superb eyes and beautiful color, her skin being so white as to rival the snow of her abundant locks. She had never used anything but pure water on her face, and she always kept to a very simple diet, even when her table was loaded with good cheer for her guests.

She remained equally attractive to her last hour, although in her youth she had been one of the prettiest women of her time. Her daughter, Mme. de Blocqueville, lived to be just such another white haired beauty and was noted in her old age for dressing with consummate taste and elegance.

Cromwell and England's Navy.

Under Cromwell England for the first time felt the power of a strong navy to build up a great nation, says Samuel Harden Church in The Atlantic. It is true that Queen Elizabeth had repelled and destroyed the Spanish fleet, but she assembled her ships only to resist invasion, and her important maneuvers were on the defensive. Cromwell built the first fleet that England had yet seen created for the purpose of crushing her enemies and striking down the oppressors of free religion.

Spain, still aiming at universal empire, received her first staggering blow when Cromwell, daring to throw away the traditional policy which England had hugged for four centuries, allied himself with France and made war on Spain. His enemies said then and for long afterward that he destroyed the balance of power in Europe. But Cromwell cared nothing for political maxims when they stood in the pathway of that human liberty of which he was the champion. Holland sent out her fleets, more terrible than the old Spanish armada, but Cromwell's generals, acting on sealed orders penned by his own hand, beat the Dutch admirals and sent their ships to the bottom.

A HARD ROAD.

Cut in the Solid Rock at a Cost of $120,000.

"The most difficult road to construct and, I believe, the most expensive wagon road in the United States is that connecting the mining towns of Silverton and Ouray, in the San Juan mining district of my state," said Mr. J. L. McNeil, a prominent Denver railway and mining man, at the Cochran last night. "One piece of this road is cut into the side of a mountain of solid rock for a distance of seven miles, and to construct it four years of hard work were consumed. To begin with, there was absolutely no foothold from which a start could be made, but the only practical way of getting a road was by cutting through mountains. The point selected for the start was 500 or 600 feet below the top of the stone cliff, and men were let down in baskets suspended by ropes, and from such shaky stations they drilled holes in the rock and filled them with charges of powder. After more than a month of blasting a ledge was cut into the rock large enough for the men to work on, and a splendid road, 16 feet in width, was constructed along this precipitous ledge.

"The bed is solid rock and is used mostly by wagon trains and pack animals, carrying ores and supplies to and from the mining camps in the mountains. For a distance of more than 500 feet straight up is a wall of solid rock, and over the edge is a precipitous fall of several thousand feet, so that it is necessary for the owners to have a steady footing while traveling this road. Seven miles of road cost $120,000, but the tolls, which have been regulated by the state, have never been sufficient to pay the owner 1 per cent on his investment. Several years ago the state offered $45,000 for the road, which was declined, and another offer has just been made for it, which the owner will probably accept. This strange road is the only means of communication between Silverton and Ouray, and there is no probability of another being built, as the only available route for cutting the cliff was taken by the engineers who constructed the remarkable stone path around the mountain ledge."

IN SPITE OF ANYTHING THE DOCTORS COULD DO FOR HIM.

Remarkable Case of Mr. Otis Kinne, Edgett's Landing, N.B., who was Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

The number of people who desire to tell of health and strength restored through the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is rapidly on the increase. Never were there so many who were weak, run down, nervous, anaemic, suffering from heart disease in some form or another, proclaiming the merits of the "little life savers," as there are at the present time.

One of those who undoubtedly owes his restoration to health to this remedy and this alone, is Mr. Otis Kinne, Edgett's Landing, Albert Co., N. B. The picture we give above is a very fair likeness of him, and the statement of his case by his wife is as follows:

"I feel it my duty to let you know what a benefit your Heart and Nerve Pills have been to my husband. He has been failing in health for some years and took weak and blind spells at times.

"He seemed to have no strength to work and could not walk up hill.

"Last fall he had to give up work altogether, and remained poorly, gradually growing worse, as the doctors could not do anything for him.

"I was visiting my uncle in Moncton, N.B., and he told me he was taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they were doing great things for him.

"I got a box of these Pills and brought them home with me and gave them to my husband.

"After he had been taking them about three days he began to feel an improvement. He continued their use for some time and now he can walk up hill without any trouble, and works all the time.

"His bowels used to be so constipated that he had to take liquorice power every night, but now that trouble has entirely gone.

"I consider I owe a debt of gratitude to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for the good they have done my husband."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure palpitation, skip beats, dizzy and faint spells, nervousness, sleeplessness, weakness, pale and sallow complexion, St. Vitus dance, partial paralysis, dyspepsia, female troubles, general debility, after effects of Grippe, and any condition arising from disordered nerves, weak heart or watery blood.

Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto. See that the red heart is on every box you buy.

LACROSSE.

The Torontos play in Markham on Saturday.

The Markham Sun claims that Snell will play with the Markhams this season to a certainty.

A special practice of the Peterborough Juniors is called for Saturday evening. In order not to interfere with the baseball players, the sticks will be in the opposite end of the field.

The following names have been forwarded to Secretary Hartley on the C.L.A. certificates of the Victoria Lacrosse Club of Lindsay: W. Logan, B. Menzies, W. Henders, H. McKay, W. E. Bunting, J. Gilloghy, H. Burke, O. Dusty, F. Farbert, F. Stanton, B. Paton, H. White, W. Crawford. J. Harley, W. J. Burns, E. Dorgan, S. Shannon.

The Lacrosse Club will take advantage of the Farmers' Institute excursion to Guelph on June 8th and will play a couple of games in the west. The Tecumsehs may be given a game, going or returning, and negotiations are now on with Galt, Guelph, Waterloo and Woodstock. The team will only be away two days. King, Bogart, McWilliams and Snell will join the team at Toronto.

GOLF.

The competition for the prizes offerred by Mr. McHarrie, open only to golfers who did not play the game before 1st of September last year, continues to excite much local interest. Everyone thinks that he is as good as another, and some say that the old players might watch the game with advantage, because the young men have taken hold with a vim that must assuredly upset the calculations of the older heads. It is the opinion of the golfers that these handsome prizes will go to E. H. D. Hall, A. St. A. Smith, or G. W. Hatton. Others again say that Fred Hall, H. Ritchie, or C. Poussette should win. There may be dark horses, and it is the opinion of many that the field will provide a winner.

E. H. D. Hall beat A. S. Houston by 1 hole.
R. C. McHarrie beat C. J. Rogers by 6 holes.
J. H. Carter beat S. Ray by 4 holes.
E. W. Lamprey won by default.
A. St. A. Smith beat A. G. Parker by 1 hole.
C. Poussette beat F. B. Francis by 1 hole.
H. Ritchie beat E. H. Skill by 1 hole.
G. W. Hatton beat C. Bell by 3 holes.
Fred Hall beat J. W. Garvin by 4 holes.
I. Holst beat H. D. Burnett by 5 holes.

Second Draw.

E. W. Lamprey vs. A. St. A. Smith.
G. W. Hatton vs. I. Holst.
Fred Hall vs. J. H. Carter.
E. H. D. Hall vs. H. Ritchie.
C. Poussette vs. R. C. McHarrie.

KENNEL.

At a meeting of the dog show committee yesterday afternoon, the secretary-treasurer submitted a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the recent show. A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. C. B. McAllister for his kind offer of assistance in connection with the existing deficit. An informal discussion took place regarding the feasibility of holding a show in connection with the Peterborough Central Exhibition in the fall. It was suggested that a large tent could be secured and a one day show held which would not necessitate the erecting of benching for the dogs. The committee will confer with the directors of the Peterborough Central Exhibition in regard to the matter.

THIS FOR THE DOUBTER.

Remarkable Success of a Manufacturing Concern which Spent $100,000 in Advertising.

One of the most remarkable and quickest of returns from advertising is afforded in the case of the Uneeda Biscuit manufactured by the National Biscuit Company, the advertising of which was in the hands of N. W. Ayer & Son, of Philadelphia. Early last fall the manufacturers arranged with Ayer & Son to place about $100,000 in advertising, it being stipulated that publicity should not begin until the new year. This was done in order that the agency might have ample time for preparing the advertising matter, as well as to place judiciously the same, and also to enable the manufacturers to get ready to fill orders.

The first advertisements covering Chicago and the Northwest appeared January 9th. The first advertisements appeared in New York papers March 6th. In this incredible short time orders for the biscuits have come in so rapidly that ten days ago the company was 480,000 packages behind on its New York business alone. The company has been compelled to temporarily suspend its advertising and to refuse positively to take any business outside of the advertised territory until after it gets up with its work. Reasons for this extraordinary result may be seen in part. In the first place the biscuit was better than other goods selling for the same money. It is put up in an attractive and unique air-tight package. Good goods are a prerequisite to success of this kind.

Then Ayer & Son did their part of the work admirably. They selected newspapers which their past experience told them would be likely to bring good results. Ordinarily plays upon words are not found profitable in advertising, but "Uneeda" broke this rule all to pieces. Large space was taken and few words were employed. The type was plain and easily read. The effect was immediate. In addition to newspapers, posters and billboards were employed, but the words upon them were duplicates of those contained in the newspaper advertising. It has been conceded that large results come only of time and persistence. In this case there was no waiting and the results have been overwhelming in their magnitude.—Newspaper Maker, April 6th.

OTONABEE.

PATHMASTERS RULES.

Provincial Road Instructor Campbell has promulgated the following short rules for pathmasters:

1. Carefully plan and lay out the work before calling out the men.
2. When preparing plans, keep the work of succeeding years in view.
3. Call out for each day only such a number of men and teams as can be properly directed.
4. In laying out the work, estimate on a full day's work from every man, and see that it is performed.
5. See that all the gravel hauled is clean.
6. Every wagon box should hold a quarter of a cord of gravel.
7. Specify the number of loads to constitute a day's work.
8. Properly grade and crown the road before putting on the gravel.
9. A fair crown for gravel is one inch to rise to each foot of width from the side to the centre.
10. Give the roadway on hills a higher crown than on level ground, otherwise water will follow the wheel tracks. One and one-half inches to the footfrom side to centre will be sufficient.
11. Spread the gravel evenly over the road, and keep it raked or scraped into the wheel or horse tracks until consolidated. A road roller should be used for compacting the gravel.
12. On all gravel roads crown the roadway by cutting off the sides, putting new material in the centre. Do not cover the old gravel foundation with earth from the side.
13. Make the width of the road as uniform and grade as easy as possible.
14. Remember that good drainage is absolutely necessary.
15. Whenever water stands on the roadway, or by the side of the road, or whenever the ground is seen to remain moist, better drainage is needed.
16. See that drains are free from obstruction, that they have a good fall and proper outlets.
17. Surface water should be disposed of in small quantities. Great accumulations are hard to handle, and are destructive. Obtain outlets into natural water courses as often as possible.
18. Instead of having deep ditches to underdrain the road, use tile.
19. Give culverts a good fall and a free outlet, so that water will not freeze in them.
20. Make early arrangements for having on the ground when required, and in good repair, all machinery and implements to be used in the performance of statute labour.

EMPIRE DAY.

Inspector Hughes Outlines a Programme for May 23rd.

A circular of suggestions has been issued by Inspector Hughes, of Toronto, for guidance of trustees and teachers in the celebration of Empire Day, on May 23, in the Public Schools: Among the things suggested are the following: The flag is to be raised on each school; pupils in all classes to have the construction of the Union Jack from the crosses of England, Scotland and Ireland carefully explained to them, and should be taught to draw the Union Jack, Ontario coat of arms, maple leaf and the beaver; between 11 and 12 o'clock the time to be devoted to special Canadian subjects in all classes. In the senior classes such subjects as will show the nature and extent of the resources of Canada, the relation of Canada to the British Empire, and the events of special importance in Canadian history would be appropriate. In junior classes stories of heroism of Canadian men and women should be told and some of the most interesting events in Canadian history described in simple language.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon general exercises of a patriotic character might be held, consisting of essays, recitations, songs and addresses, to which the parents and general public will be invited. Classes may be combined, but the pupils are not to be diamissed before 3 p.m.

Although the little fellow's effort was unsuccessful, the bravery of the action can only be understood by those who have looked upon the, mad whirl of waters below the dam.

PRINCIPLES OF THE LIBERALS

Faithfully Adhered to in the Redistribution Bill.

THE BILL'S FEATURES

Adherence to County Boundaries and Commission of Judges.

The Fair Measure for a Fair Franchise Is Met With a Torrent of Invective by Sir Charles Tupper, Who Calls Everything Bad — Premier's Introduction and Reply.

Ottawa, May 20.—The long-looked-for redistribution bill was brought down yesterday afternoon by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He explained that the measure was designed to remove the worst features of the gerrymander bill, and that the county and municipal boundaries are to be restored. The division of counties into ridings is to be left in the hands of a commission of judges. Sir Charles Tupper denounced the measure most unsparingly and provoked from the Premier a most vigorous response.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER

Introduces the Long-Expected Measure of Redistribution of Seats.

The Prime Minister, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in rising to introduce the redistribution bill, said: "My hon. friend and colleague, the Postmaster-General (Mr. Mulock), being unavoidably absent today, I have undertaken, with the view of expediting business and in order not to disappoint the very legitimate impatience of the public with regard to the measure which stands in his name, to present it to the House. I may say at once that the object we have in view in presenting this bill is not to make a total redistribution of the electoral districts under which the House of Commons is now constituted. We deem that it would not be expedient at this time to do that; but undo so far as we can the more glaring violations of a principle which we have always held and which has always been universally held by public opinion in this country to be a fundamental principle of representation in this country.

"We think it is a principle which will commend itself universally to public opinion that the basis of representation in this House should be the municipal county organization. It is in the recollection of all the members of this House that this principle was to a large extent interfered with by the Redistribution Act of 1882. That act was a violation of the principles which had prevailed up to that time, and maintained, not alone by the Liberal party, but by the Conservative party as well. There are many well-known reasons why the municipal county organization should be preserved as the basis of representation, and I can't do better upon this point than to quote the language of Sir John A. Macdonald, when the first redistribution act after Confederation was introduced in 1872. Sir John A. Macdonald at that time went over the question very fully and gave in graphic language the reasons, to which there was no dissent expressed at that time, why the municipal county organization should be laid down as the basis of representation."

Sir John Macdonald's Opinion.

It is desired, as much as possible, to keep the representation within the county so that each county that is a municipality of Ontario should be represented and if it becomes large enough that it should be divided into ridings. That principle is carried out in the suggestions I am about to make. That rule was broken in 1867 in three constituencies, namely, Bothwell, Cardwell and Monck, and I do not think on the whole that the experiment has proved a successful one. I do not think it was unsuccessful as far as the representatives of those new constituencies themselves were concerned, as they are well and ably represented by the gentlemen who now hold seats for the constituencies, and I hope that if I am returned again to the next Parliament I shall meet those honorable members. But it is obvious that there is a great advantage in having counties elect men whom they know. Our municipalities give an admirable opportunity to constituencies to select men for their deserts.

We all know the process which happily goes on in Western Canada. A young man in a county commences his public life by being elected by the neighbors, who know him, to the township council. If he shows himself possessed of administrative ability he is made reeve or deputy reeve of the township. He becomes a member of the county council, and as his experience increases and his character and ability becomes known, he is selected by his people as their representative in Parliament. It is, I think, a grand system that the people of Canada should have the opportunity of choosing for political promotion the men in whom they have most confidence and of whose ability they are fully assured. All that great advantage is lost by cutting off a portion of two several counties and adding them together for electoral purposes only. Those portions so cut off have no common interest, they do not meet together, and they have no common feeling except that once in five years they go to the polls in their own township to vote for a man who may be known in one section and not in another. This tends towards the introduction and development of the American system of caucuses, by which wire-pullers take adventurers for their political ability only, and not from any personal respect for them. So that, as much as possible, from any point of view, it is advisable that counties should refuse men whom they do not know, and when the representation is increased it should be by sub-dividing the counties into ridings.

Continuing, Sir Wilfrid said: "Now, from the wisdom of these remarks nobody will dissent. It is true that the redistribution bill of 1882, which was introduced while Sir John A. Macdonald was in office, was not drawn upon these lines, but while the principle was departed from on that occasion, Sir John A. Macdonald did not, so far as my memory goes, express any views at all differing from those he had expressed on the previous occasion, I think the country at large will be prepared to come back to the adoption of these views. I may say at once that this is the guiding principle which we have adopted in proposing the modification which we intend to propose to the Redistribution Act. As I said a moment ago, we do not intend at this time to undo the old representation act; we intend to deal with it only so far as is necessary in order to do away with the most glaring violations of the principle which was laid down as a cardinal and guiding principle in 1872.

"There is another principle which, we think, ought to prevail whenever a redistribution of constituencies is to be made. According to the Constitutional Act it becomes the duty of Parliament, after every new census, to make a redistribution. If it were simply an optional duty there would not be so much force in the contention which I intend to advance, but as it is a mandatory, an imperative duty imposed upon Parliament by the constitution itself, it became all the more important that we should adhere to the well-known principles hitherto laid down and accepted, when it becomes the duty of Parliament to interfere in any way with the representation of the House of Commons. The first principle that we lay down, as I said a moment ago, is that municipal county organization should be the basis of representation, and the consequent principle of this one is that county municipal organization should not be interfered with, and that boundary lines should not be interfered with.

"If the population of a county should become so small, according to the development of the population in other counties, as to no longer justify it to be represented by one man on the floor of the House of Commons, then we hold that county should not be separated piecemeal, but that it should be annexed to the neighboring county, as was done in several instances in this House in Cornwall and Stormont, Niagara and Lincoln, Three Rivers and St. Maurice, Chambly and Vercheres, Napierville and Laprairie, St. John and Iberville. In all of these cases the population of these counties had the privilege of sending one member to the House of Commons, but the population had become so small, relatively to the population of other counties, it was thought advisable to deprive them of the privilege that they had up to that time of sending each one member to the House of Commons.

"In these cases county lines were not interfered with, but these counties were combined together to form one single electoral district. We have thoughts that when such a case arises, this is a precedent which we have already closely adhered to. This is a case which I believe is not likely to arise very often—a case that is more likely to arise where the population of a county may become so large that it will be entitled to more than one representative. Under such circumstances, it is provided that a county may be divided into ridings, on the principle we want to lay down, and which we do act upon, which is, that whenever counties have to be divided into ridings, whenever a county which up to that time is entitled to one member becomes entitled to two or three members, the division should take place by judicial decision and authority. This is the principle upon which we base the bill that we introduce to this House now.

Character of the Bill.

"After these preliminary observations as to the guiding principles upon which we have acted, I will now proceed to give to the House that character of the bill which we have introduced. I may say at first, keeping in view the main observations with which I started, that it is not our intention to have a general redistribution, but simply to undo certain wrongs that we think were done to the people, and certain of the more glaring violations which took place in regard to the principle we hold as sacred.

"It is not the intention to have any disturbance at present in the following constituencies: Ottawa, Carleton, Addington, Durham, Frontenac, Glengarry, Grenville, Halton, Hastings, Kingston, Lanark, Leeds, Lennox, Nipissing, Northumberland, Peterboro, Prince Edward, Renfrew, Russell, Stormont and Cornwall, Victoria and Waterloo. These remain undisturbed.

"In the remarks which I quoted a moment ago, Sir John Macdonald said that county lines had been interfered with in three instances at Confederation—that is to say, in the cases of Cardwell, Monck and Bothwell. The House, it seems, agreeing with Sir John Macdonald, has already caused Monck to be redistributed. It is proposed on this occasion that Bothwell, Cardwell, West Ontario should disappear. It is proposed, also, that Middlesex, which now returns four members, shall only return three for what is now the four constituencies, which at the same time shall be replaced by giving representation to the County of Dufferin and the electoral district of Parry Sound, and two additional members for Kent, Ontario."

Mr. Bergeron—That will be three members for Kent?

The Prime Minister—Yes; that takes out part of Bothwell. The bill proposes to restore county lines to the following counties: Brant, Bruce, Elgin, Grey, Haldimand, Huron, Kent, Lambton, Lanark, Middlesex, Norfolk, Ontario, Oxford, Peel, Simcoe, Welland, Wellington, Wentworth and York.

"To give these representation, the details would have to be as follows, taking the changes which I have just indicated: The electoral district of the City of London shall consist of the City of London, and shall return one member. The electoral district of the City of Hamilton shall consist of the City of Hamilton, and shall return two members.

"The electoral district of the City of Toronto shall consist of the City of Toronto, and shall be divided into four electoral districts, each of which shall return one member.

"The Counties of Dufferin, Haldimand, Lincoln, Peel, Welland and Wentworth, and the territorial districts of Muskoka and the territorial district of Parry Sound, shall each be an electoral district, and shall each return one member.

"The Counties of Brant, Elgin, Lambton, Norfolk, Ontario, Oxford and Perth shall each be divided into two electoral districts, and will each return one member.

"The Counties of Kent, Huron, Bruce Grey, Middlesex, Simcoe, Wellington and York shall each be divided into three

"Like Diamonds Raindrops Glisten."

Drops of Hood's Sarsaparilla are precious jewels for the blood which glisten in their use, and, like the rain, disappear for the good of humanity. Each dose when taken is in a very short time thoroughly mixed with the blood and actively getting in its work of purification. Hood's never disappoints.

Running Sore—"My mother was troubled with rheumatism in her knee for a number of years, and it broke out into a running sore. She took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now well. Hood's Olive Ointment helped to heal the eruption." MRS. JOHN FARR, Cloverlawns, Ancaster, Ont.

Dyspepsia—"My wife suffered from rheumatism, dyspepsia and pains in her stomach. She had medical attendance but did not get relief. She read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and tried it. Three bottles entirely cured her. She is now a well and hearty woman." T. W. COVERT, Cape Sable Island, N. S.

Eczema—"I was run down with complaints peculiar to my sex. Large sores broke out on my body head and limbs. I could not do any work on account of the itching. My trouble was termed eczema and I doctored for it for a long time. I then tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and several bottles effected a cure." MRS. J. G. BROWN, Brantford, Ont.

Swellings—"I had a swelling on my chest. It caused me great pain and many sleepless nights. Physicians advised an operation but my daughter urged that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla instead. I did so and after using six bottles, the swelling went away and I have not had any more pains." MRS. J. W. C. CRONKWRIGHT, 432 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

Organs Affected—"I was run down in health and had spells of coughing which left me prostrate. My lungs, heart and kidneys were affected. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla upon advice and soon felt better. I continued the treatment and now feel like a new woman." MRS. SUMMERVILLE, 217 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

CROW'S NEST PASS INIQUITY.

The report of Mr. R. C. Clute, appointed by the government a commissioner to investigate the scandals in connection with the deaths of two men, Fraser and Macdonald, employed in the construction of the Crow's Nest Railway, reveals the most shocking inhumanity and cruelty of treatment of employees, and shows how the accursed greed of gain in its ambition to make money will not stop even at the sacrifice of human life and the infliction of human suffering. It is fair to assume that the treatment of the men generally was similar to that under which probably the weakest only succumbed—that is the men, taking Fraser and Macdonald as types, were worked like slaves, housed worse than the most slovenly farmer houses his stock, and utterly neglected when they fell ill; and there can be no doubt that this neglect, inhuman and and heathenish as that practised in heathen lands, where the sick are thrust into a thicket and left alone to fight the battle with disease, caused the death of these two men. The report recommends that on such contracts, remote as they are from the conveniences of settled civilization, the Government should appoint a medical officer and provide a fully equipped field hospital. What would be better would be for the Government to hold contractors responsible for the proper housing and treatment of these men when at work, and for proper medical attendance when they are ill. The Government might insist on this, for it does not seem a part of the duty of the Government to provide means that contribute to and increase the contractor's profits. Again, if a road is built by the aid of a Government subvention, the subsidy should be subject to cancellation where abuse and neglect like that revealed in Commissioner Clute's report is shown to have been practised. The report in question does not fix the responsibility for the inhuman cruelty practised. Somebody is responsible, somebody is practically guilty of the murder of the two young men in question, and that responsibility should have been fixed by Mr. Clute's report, or at least information furnished for prosecution. Condemnation of cruelty in the abstract will not deter contractors whose anxiety to make money permits them to practice such cruelties as it is known were inflicted in connection with the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway. Disgorgement by way of fine of a large portion of the blood-stained booty, coined from the toil, suffering, sickness and death of the victims would be a light penalty. Imprisonment at hard labour, something like employees were driven to by their taskmasters, would be poetic justice, and would give greedy contractors some practical idea of what they exacted of their men.

SAME OLD SONG.

Mr. Whitney, the leader of the Ontario Opposition, cannot be considered a great originator. He has been unable to, or at least has failed, to originate a policy, and he seems also to be unable to originate any new argument to enforce his claim upon the confidence of the electors. In his North Waterloo election address he uses the same threadbare sophisms that have done duty on a hundred platforms, and have done duty in the house and wherever and whenever he has attempted to make a general address on political questions. This statement may be modified if one regards the sympathy dodge he is playing on behalf of his candidate in the bye-election. Dr. Lackner may be entitled to sympathy on the score of being unseated, but it is yet to be shown that being unseated by the judgment of trial judges, confirmed on appeal, constitutes a valid ground of appeal to the confidence of the electorate. Elections as a rule must be fought out on their merits. Dr. Lackner must show that he has qualifications as a representative superior to those of his opponent; this he cannot do; he must show that the leader he supports has a better policy than Premier Hardy; this he cannot do; he must show that the party he represents can give the province better government than the present administration; this he cannot do; he must show that the people are prepared to vote from sympathy rather than conviction. He cannot do this, or any of these things, and he will not be elected next Tuesday.

UNEXPECTED ENCOURAGEMENT.

"French capital to the value of something like $60,000,000 is to-day embarked in the gold mines of the Transvaal. We hasten thus to adventure our savings there because we believe that under the London convention we could do so with perfect security. Under that convention, signed by England and the Transvaal, England should be a shelter from every kind of injustice and is bound to defend our interests. But what is the actual state of affairs? The Transvaal Government resorts to the most illegal expedients and England does nothing to prevent her . . . If England is incapable of exercising the suzerainty let her abandon it. Either she is suzerain or she is not. If she is suzerain let her prove it by obtaining justice for us there. If she is not, let her abandon pretensions which do but block the way to reform. To hasten one or the other of the solutions French capitalists have only to make commom cause and combine for common action, and they would soon bring to an end the present intolerable state of things—a state of things which not only Mr. Kruger but Mr. Chamberlain also has contributed to create.

When from a French source comes a call upon England to take action that must result in her territorial aggrandizement and moral reinforcement, the state of things in the Transvaal must be a very serious one. President Kruger is rapidly reaching the end of his tether. His rabid racial provincialism cannot be allowed to stand in the way of progress.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Hon. John Costigan having had a change of heart, has had in succession a change of seat in the House of Commons. A change in the place of campaign generally involves a change of base.

The approved designing of the Canadian service medal will bear an effigy of the Queen on the obverse, similar to that on the Northwest rebellion medal. The reverse will bear a maple leaf, and on a scroll the word "Canada." The order for their execution has been placed with the Royal Mint.

In reference to the Czar-proposed peace conference, now meeting in Holland, the Montreal Witness says: It is certainly the greatest anomaly of modern times. It was proposed, and that honestly and enthusiastically, by the best and most criminal ruler of our day, the ruler of perhaps more fighting men than all others put together, the ruler whose subjects are fleeing from his empire because he persecutes them for holding peace doctrines, who protected the Sultan in exterminating the Armenians, who since he initiated this peace movement has broken his oath to the Finns and driven them into revolt because among other things he wants more soldiers from them. It is to be participated in by the great powers of the earth, every one of which has, since it accepted the Czar's invitation, added more to its permament armament than it ever did in a like time before. These circumstances give it the aspect of being the most gigantic hypocrisy ever perpetrated.

THE HAMILTON END GETS A THROW DOWN.

Passing of the Canada Life Bill.

The action of the Banking and Commerce Committee of the House of Commons on Thursday morning in respect of the Canada Life bill possessed the unusual characteristic of being as nearly unanimous as any committee's course could be. It is true that for weeks past in committee room and lobby a fierce fight and a contentious discussion were prophesied and looked for by the gentlemen who are authorities on all matters Parliamentary, but the event showed that the stipulations of the bill, which triumphantly passed to-day, commended themselves to an overwhelmis not all with the victors. Never was committee. The glory of the result is not all wtih the victors. Never was a losing battle in a committee of the House of Commons fought more cleverly and resourcefully than by Mr. Wood of Hamilton, who was the advocate of the policyholders' or opposition measure, and who also showed an excusable degree of local patriotism in combating the proposed removal from Hamilton of an institution that he has seen grow up and prosper on lines parallel with his own advancement in the world of commerce. The efforts made by Mr. Wood were not successful, but they were none the less creditable to himself. Perhaps a serious mistake was made by the opponents of the measure in shouting the warning cry, "Beware of one-man control." The opening that they gave the advocates of the measure was not passed by, and eloquent tongues were not wanting to show up the fallacy of believing that a man who has had the business ability necessary to carry out a well-planned transaction would not be particularly anxious to make the continued success of the enterprise as great in the future as it has been in the past. The objection of the proposed amendment, limiting the number of votes to be cast by any one member to forty, was strenuously combated, and when the division was called the yeas were in a small minority. The clause to compel ten of the directors to reside within 100 miles of Toronto, the new home of the company, was unanimously condemned, Hon. Mr. Fielding appositely pointing out that the properly qualified citizen of Winnipeg or Vancouver, had quite as much right to a say in the management of the company as the man who lives in Ottawa. The expected fight on the petition of removal to Toronto did not materialize, and, while the meeting was not unanimous, it was so nearly so that within two minutes of the close of the meeting the hatchet of controversy between pros and cons and antis was deeply buried.

CAPTURED WITHOUT BLOODSHED.

British Forces Took Possession of Saamchun, Opposite Hongkong.

Hongkong, May 18.—Saamchun was occupied yesterday without any casualties and without resistance. The British troops found the gates of the town open. The boundary of the new British territory was not otherwise extended. The villagers along the route welcomed the troops and seemed peaceable. There is an unconfirmed report that the rebels are occupying Sunon City. Saamchun and Sunon are situated in the hinterland of Hongkong.

DISCHARGED TO DIE.

But Mrs. Fitzpatrick didn't Lose Hope—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Accomplished what the Physicians Couldn't.

If the thousands of people who rush to so worthy a remedy as a last resort would go to it as a first resort, how much misery and suffering would be spared. Mrs. John Fitzpatrick, of Gananoque, after being treated by eminent physicians for heart disease of five years standing was discharged from the hospital as a hopeless incurable. The lady procured Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, she declared as a last resort. One dose relieved a very acute spasm in less than half an hour, and three bottles cured her. Sold by H. S. DYSPEPSIA, TYRANT OF BODY AND SOUL.

THE DISEASE OF THE DAY AND HOW TO CURE IT.

Dyspepsia, though Widespread, is being Slowly Stamped out by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—They Form the Only Immediate Relief and are the only Radical Cure.

No disease is more common than Dyspepsia.

It exists in more or less severe form in nearly every man, woman and child you meet.

How many people do you know who never had a headache?

How many people do you know who never had a Bilious attack.

How many people are there who were never rendered miserable by Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Water brash?

Have you any idea of the extent of Catarrh of the Stomach in this country?

Indigestion — Dyspepsia — that's what all these symptoms mean.

It may be in the case of Headache [illegible] only temporary, but it is very miserable while it lasts.

It may mean even in those symptoms if they are frequent, that the lining of your stomach is out of order, which is Dyspepsia.

In the case of Catarrh of the Stomach it means that permanent inflammation has secured a lodgment there.

But it all comes up to the same thing—Dyspepsia.

The stomach fails to secrete the juices which digest the food.

The food ferments and makes the inflammation worse.

The blood lacks nourishment gained from the food, and cannot repair the stomach.

And so it goes in a circle, and the sufferer gets worse all the time.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets digest the food.

They give the stomach a holiday.

They keep the blood fed.

The blood repairs the stomach.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are 50c a box.

All druggists sell them.

TRIFLES BY LYTAS AYR.

"Do you know anything about golf?" asked Lytas, as we were wheeling towards the Auburn Links for afternoon tea on Wednesday. "They say in England it is first a game, then an advocation, then a tyrrany. What is it here?" "You may see for yourself in about ten minutes," I answered. "You are so apt in summing up a situation, and I value your opinion so highly I prefer it should be unbiassed by any opinion of mine. It is a very ancient game, it's third season in Peterborough, it has been played during the last four hundred years."—

"Ha, I did not think you were that far behind the times," laughed Lytas, "but tell me something about its origin. I have heard that Mary, Queen of Scots, was much criticised for playing at golf on the fields at Seaton the day after Darnley's murder, and Charles I was interrupted in the middle of a match at Leith when news was brought him of the Irish rebellion. How long ago was that?"

"Don't ask me, Lytas, I was not there, and hastily changed the subject by adding, in Holland old prints and tiles are still extant which prove that balls and clubs very like the modern wooden driver were in use then, but the game was called kolf and was played in doors, the object being to send the ball against a post and back again. Then in Belgium it was played in the open air and called chole, not aiming the ball for a hole as we do, but still having a post for the goal."

"Oh, but that is not golf at all. I know a better tale," said my lady, "and it happened in Scotland."

"It will be worth telling then," said I, "for the Veres are of Scottish descent."

"All my stories are," retorted Lytas. "It is not my habit to mouth out nothings."

"Well, proceed. I suppose, once upon a time—"

"Yes," she continued, "once upon a time there was a shepherd and his name was—was"

"Oh, call him Sandy," I suggested.

"Thank you," she assented, "Yes, his name was Sandy, and while he was tending his sheep he often chanced on a round pebble, and having his crook in his hand he would strike it away."

"Perfectly natural," I interrupted. "It is as inevitable that a man with a stick in his hand should aim a blow at any loose object in his path as it is for him to breathe. Your theory is good, continue."

"Oh, this is not original, I read it," she corrected. "Then Sandy next rolled one of these round stones into a rabbit scrape. Marry, quoth he, I could not do that again if I tried."

"And so instinctive is ambition that he was nerved again to make the attempt," I finished to help her out.

"Yes, my clever cousin, and as man cannot long persevere in any arduous undertaking, he hailed a brother shepherd, who thought the task easy, but failed in the attempt, but reasoned it would be easier to drive the ball in if they moved farther from the hole. Then they told other shepherds, and organized a game which they called putty."

"I suppose because they tried to putt the ball in the hole," I asked.

"Exactly, your discernment is wonderful," she answered, "but don't interrupt me or I can't finish my story before we reach the links. When the sheep strayed the shepherds had to go after them, and this proved a very irksome interruption, so they hit upon the very ingenious device of making a circular course, which enabled them to play and herd at the same time, and they marked the holes, which were many and far apart, by a stick on which was hung a tag of wool from the sheep, then they called the new game 'go off' or golf."

She paused and I inquired, "is that all?"

"Yes, is it not enough," she asked.

"It is," I agreed, "there you have given the scientific name of golf in its embryo state."

"Is it really scientific? I thought you said the sole aim and object of the game was putting little balls into little holes with instruments very ill adapted for the purpose," questioned Lytas.

"Pshaw! I must have made that remark on one of my off days," I remonstrated. "When you consider that the little holes are very far apart and have many hazards between, and that the little balls have a peculiar propensity for getting into them."

"What, getting into the holes," she laughed, "I thought that was the hard part?"

"So it is," I answered, "but the hazards are the hardest; and you would certainly think the game scientific if you saw some of the men getting the ball out of them."

"And heard them, too," she questioned, but we were now riding beneath the elms, and the red flags were visible fluttering far over the green, and I did not deem it necessary to reply, for the next moment we dismounted at the links' gate. The hour was late, and many had finished their round and were discussing the game near the starting point. "Ye gods and little fishes," quoth Lytas as she by their costumes distinguished the real golfer who had come from the tee, which was kept in the wooden boxes on the links, from those who were merely looking forward to the steaming beverage, which erstwhile had reposed in a caddy. The men looked like ordinary bicyclers for the most part, but the ladies had adopted the time honoured uniform of all golf clubs and wore red blouses, others even going so far as to add a red complexion, but generally our pretty damsels looked as cool and unruffled as if they had been pacing the pavement on George street. Lytas was surrounded by a bevy of them and carried off to tea by a number of gallant cavaliers, while I followed more slowly with one of the anticipating and thirsty little fishes she had pointed out to me on our arrival at the links. When I saw her again I asked, "Well, my dear, is it a game, an advocation or a tyrrany on these links?"

"I am going round to-morrow and can tell you better then, but I really think it is only a fad—only a fad, my cousin."

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS, the only positive, never-failing cure, on earth, for all Kidney diseases.

YOU MUST DIE.

Said his Physician South American Kidney Cure Gave the Doctor the Lie—It Cured Bright's Disease.

La Grippe will leave its brand on the weakened spot. A bright young man in a Western Ontario city, son of a well-known lumberman, found that the influenza epidemic had developed in him the most fatal of all kidney troubles — Bright's Disease. Local physicians treated, but to no purpose. He consulted specialists, only to be told that his life hung on a slender thread, and that recovery was impossible. But he pinned his faith to the old adage, while there's life there's hope. He began using South American Kidney Cure, and in three months from the day he commenced using it, the same physician who said he must die, pronounced him cured. Sold by H. S. BUFFALO STRIKE WORSE.

Winnipeg, May 19.—A general strike of bricklayers and masons of this city is threatened, in sympathy with the carpenters, who are still out, demanding a minimum wage of 30 cents per hour. Building operations, of which an enormous quantity is contracted for in this city this year, are at a standstill, and the situation is serious. The conractors and bricklayers held conferences last evening.

Just Out of Sympathy.

Buffalo, May 19.—The marine firemen at this port went on a sympathetic strike at noon yesterday. As the vessels arrive the firemen will quit work and remain out until the dock troubles are settled.

Going From Bad to Worse.

Buffalo, N.Y., May 19.—The strike of grain shovellers, freight handlers, ore dock men, elevator machinists and coal-heavers has developed into a struggle between Bishop Quigley and the strike leaders. Wednesday night the Bishop secured a promise from all of the men who are on strike that they accept the concessions that he had secured for them, and would return to work when he gave them the word. Yesterday, however, the men repudiated their agreement with the Bishop and last night the prospect of a settlement of the trouble was more remote than ever. A public investigation into the cause of the strike is being made by the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration.

Messrs. Hood & Co. are using these proverb advertisements on a very broad scale, and they are attracting discussion and favourable comment everywhere.

MURDER AT SOREL.

Cuthbert Olivier, a United States Army Pensioner, Slew His Second Wife With a Pair of Scissors.

Sorel, Que., May 19.—Cuthbert Olivier, United States army pensioner, stabbed his wife with a pair of scissors yesterday morning, and then quickly walked away and gave himself up to the police. In passing the priest's house he handed over the key of his house, saying that his wife had attacked him and that he had stunned her. He is cut about the face and the house bears evidence of a hard struggle.

The murderer was married to this his second wife, Angeline Pelouquin, from Ste. Ann, last fall. They have lived apart most of the time. He was always cranky and very jealous. Angeline Pelouquin, the victim, lies on the floor half naked, with an old Union Jack thrown hurriedly over her body, and with a deep but narrow wound on her right temple, a pair of large scissors held clumsily in her right hand, as if placed there by her husband. The prisoner has wounds and scratches on his face, indicating that the murder was not committed without resistance.

The coroner's inquest began at 7 o'clock last night. Mr. Plamondon, Crown Attorney for Richelieu, has wired the provincial authorities for instructions.

BRITAIN'S COAL.

Her Supply will have a Great Effect on her Future in the Next Fifty Years.

London, May 15 — Mr. Forster Brown, president of the Mining Association of Great Britain, has just delivered a lecture on the available sources of the coal supply of Great Britain, and its bearing upon the future prosperity of the country. He said that the best of the coal resources, at a moderate depth of 2,000 feet, and of the best quality, cheaply worked, would last about 50 years, but there would still remain unexhausted the best seams at great depth and seams at shallow depths sufficient to maintain a supply of coal of 250,000,000 tons a year for 250 years.

The statesmanlike course to meet the increased cost of coal due to natural causes, such as depth, temperature, and so forth would be for the government to acquire the internal means of communication, such as railways and canals, and pay off all the municipal loans for water, lighting, sanitation and other public purposes, thus providing for a continuation of the prosperity of the country till the coal was absolutely exhausted.

If some such action was not adopted we should begin to feel the pressure of circumstances and gradually disappear as a wealthy nation soon after 50 years. It was extremely improbable that any other source of power would be discovered as cheap as coal, but if it were it would be common to other countries, and in those circumstances it would be greatly to the advantage of Great Britain to have paid off the capital during the prosperous period.

A MAN OF BACKBONE.

J. H. LOGHEAD TELLS HOW HE BECAME STRONG.

Suffered with a Pain in his Back for Years and Nothing Relieved it Until he Took Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 19.—A man of backbone is a rare specimen in these degenerate days. But few as they are the world could not get along without them, for they do the greater part of the world's work the part that requires firmness of purpose and unchangeable resolve. The pity is that so many men suffer from weak backs—in the literal sense. A man of brains with this physical advantage is terribly handicapped. A man that works with his muscle is rendered totally helpless. It is safe to say that if the sufferer from weak back understood that the trouble lay in his kidneys, he would not suffer another day. Pain in the back, back ache, and general weakness of the spinal column are symptoms of Kidney Disease.

Mr. J. H. Loghead, 191 Richmond street, west, says: "I have suffered for years with severe pains in the back. I could get nothing to help me. Everything I ever took seemed to make me worse. I heard of your Dodd's Kidney Pills. I tried them and after I had used one box all pains were gone. I can highly recommend them to any who may be troubled with this disease."

Lame back is but one symptom of Kidney Disease. It has a score of others. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout, Heart Disease, Paralysis, Dropsy, Stone in the Bladder, Urinary Troubles, and Female Complaints, may all be called symptoms of Kidney Disease, as they are all due to impure blood. Healthy Kidneys filter the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills make the kidneys healthy.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are for sale by all druggists, at 50 cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

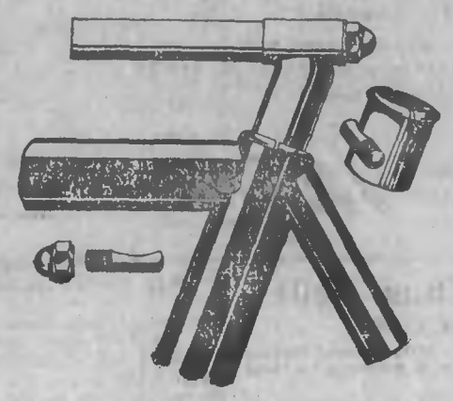
A Seat Post Feature

Found on Only the Peerless Red Bird:

In the Seat Post, as in the other features of construction, the Red Bird Special, Model 51, differs radically from any other bicycle on the Canadian market



The working principle of this seat post fastener is shown in the accompanying illustration. The cotter key, milled away on one side to fit over expanding ring, is tightened so as to give the friction required to hold the seat post securely.

When found necessary to raise or lower the seat post, a turn or two of the blind nut at end of cotter key allows the ring to expand, and all friction is off.

It is simple, safe and so neat in appearance as to attract the admiration of critical riders wherever shown.

It will be evident to the congregation that largely increased contributions will be necessary, if it is decided to have free pews.

Bradburn's Opera House.

The Victoria Stock Company will open a two night's engagement here Wednesday, May 24th. It is a most expensive and well-balanced company, and has been most successful. The company has just closed a four week's engagement at Ottawa. They have received most eulogistic press criticisms, stamping them as a clever and able organization. A strong repertoire will be produced and choir specialties are included that are calculated to please the cultivated taste. The company is exceptionally strong in caste, being composed of well and favourably known artists, among them Miss Ida May Park, Miss Lillian Elayes, Mr. Jos. J. DeGrasse, Mr. Neil Twomey, Mr. John Ross, Miss Endres, Miss Ollie Thomaine, Mr. Jos. Damery, Mr. Wm. Gerald, and Mr. Edric Taylor.

With a strong company of clever artists in the greatest recognized successes, coming well recommended, the Opera House should be crowded for high class plays ably produced ought to appeal to the Peterborough theatre goers.

A MUSICAL TREAT IN THE MARKET HALL.

THE 57th BATTALION BAND DELIGHTS ITS FRIENDS.

It Appeared before a Large Audience Last Night, and has Obtained Great Proficiency—Bandmaster Gliddon Warmly Congratulated.

The third concert which has been given by the 57th Battalion Band under the capable leadership of Prof. R. Gliddon, took place in the Market Hall last night.

To say that it was a great success is putting matters rather mildly, for it is seldom indeed one is privileged to listen to such a musical treat as that which was given last evening.

The two previous concerts had so aroused the musical enthusiasm of the people of Peterborough that everyone has been anxiously awaiting the next appearance of this popular organization. The other entertainments had been given free of charge, and when the management on this occasion decided to ask a silver collection at the door, the immense crowd which thronged the Market Hall, and the receipts of over sixty dollars is ample justification of the statement that the talents of our local battalion band are most highly appreciated.

The occasion brought together a large and fashionable assemblage, which well represented the musical community. The hall in fact was uncomfortably crowded and many were compelled to stand throughout the entire programme.

The band was about thirty strong, while its playing was such that no one can doubt in the least the fact that Prof. Gliddon has brought this ganization to a high state of proficiency, and has a band that will reflect credit not only on himself and the 57th battalion, but on the town of Peterborough as well.

It would be difficult indeed to attempt to in any way particularize the playing, as the beauty in tone of every section is one of the 57th Batt. band's great merits, and is as conspicuous in the brass instruments as in the reeds. The result is that in the softest playing there is no predominance of any one section, but a general harmonious blending of all the parts.

It was somewhat after eight o'clock when the programme commenced with a march, "Vanguard," which was composed by Bandmaster Gliddon himself. It is a taking piece and contains much originality of thought.

What was one of the richest selections on the programme was an overture, the second number on the programme, entitled "Nebuchadnezzar," by Verdi. This was a selection in which the various leading instruments took prominent parts at times. Its rendering was distinguished by an excellent balance of tone, and by the clearness with which the solos or leading parts were brought out.

The waltz, "Jolly Fellows" is an old favourite and is played greatly by the celebrated Dan Godfrey's band. A very unique part in this is where the solo is taken by certain of the players whistling, being accompanied very softly at the same time by a few of the lower instruments.

A number on the programme which was most enthusiastically received by the audience, was the cornet solo, "Concert Polka," by Bandmaster Gliddon. The remainder of the band furnished a nice accompaniment, while the execution and triple tonguening by the soloist completely captured the audience, and he was compelled to respond once more. The Intermezzo from "Cavalleran Rusticana," by P. Mascagni was a very pretty selection. It is soft and slow throughout, but there can be no difference of opinion as to the beauty of the slow movement in this piece.

The selection of the evening, however, and a selection the idea of which is something entirely new around here, was the descriptive piece, "The Night Alarm." It was realistic in the extreme. The synopsis was as follows:

A calm and peaceful night—10 o'clock—lights out—all in bed—"chorral"—the alarm—fire, fire, box 32, horses run out, hitch up and off—the gallop to the fire—engines at work, etc.—fire out—recall—march home—chorus, Home Again.

The audience went wild with delight over the selection and the band was obliged to repeat it.

"Bay State March," was the last selection before the national anthem was rendered. It is a march full of life from start to finish.

After the programme concluded, Bandmaster Gliddon was the recipient of many flattering congratulations by the musical people of the town, and by the citizens of Peterborough in general.

LOVE AT PLAY.

Have you forgotten how we used to weave
Our childish fancies for the coming years?
I in my pride would have you then believe
That life meant love, and love could hold no tears.
We built our castles in the shifting sand;
I crowned you with the flow'rs that fastest fade:
We wandered through an all enchanted land;
We loved the sun and never dreamt of shade.
Shall we again be children and forget
How once we parted and how dark our night?
In that fair pathway let our feet be set
Which leads us back into the land of light.
We'll weave fresh garlands on that golden shore,
But—do you whisper something in my ear
While upon mine your heart beats close once more?
Why play at love, you say, when love is here?
—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE BLACK PEARL.

"The heroine of my story," said the dealer in precious stones, lighting a cigarette, "is a pearl, a beautiful full black pearl of extraordinary size and rare luster. It is difficult to express its value in figures." And this is the story.

It is just about 20 years ago when one morning a young woman entered a large jewelry store in Budapest. Every inch of her dress bespoke the backwoods; her bonnet was a composition of glaringly, disharmonious colors; in one hand she held a parasol of old, large flowered, faded silk. Every one of her motions betrayed the country girl. Any salesman of experience who had watched her entrance into the store would have thought at once, "Ah, she wants a cheap plated bracelet, with the word 'Souvenir' engraved on it, as a memento of this her first visit to the city." And under ordinary circumstances he would have been about right in his conjecture, but this time he wasn't. She appeared so simple and artless, in spite of her handsome, vivacious black eyes and the dimples in her red cheeks, that the salesman attending to her omitted offering her a seat.

The young girl, however, did not seem to notice this slight, and uninvited dropped down on a small red plush fauteuil, principally used by the noble customers of the store. She opened the reticule hanging on her arm and drew out a small package carefully wrapped in tissue paper. After she had peeled off layer after layer of the envelope she took out the nucleus, beckoned to the owner of the establishment and exhibited to him something she held between her thumb and index finger.

"What is the value of this?" she asked in a melodious voice.

The jeweler started visibly and took the object from her hand.

It was the above mentioned pearl, of such beauty and size that he hardly trusted his eyes. At one place it had a barely noticeable flaw, which might have been done by a former setting.

"The pearl has one defect," the jeweler said.

"Indeed!" the stranger answered, bending forward to inspect the small spot.

The jeweler "sized up" the girl. Her astonishment was genuine, artless. It was not tinged with the shadow of hypocrisy.

"Where did you get that pearl?" he asked.

"That is perhaps an irrelevant question," she answered smilingly. "But to give you some sort of satisfactory answer I will say I carry on a little pawnbroker business, out in the country, inherited from my father. A nobleman desires to pawn his pearl with me, but demands much money. Please tell me what it is worth, and I will pay for the trouble."

"I cannot appraise it," said the jeweler, regarding it with an admiring eye.

"Why not? Why can you not fix its value?" the girl rejoined in a vexed tone.

"Well, well," the man said appeasingly. "I only desired to express thereby that the pearl is beyond appraisement because of its great rarity. Its value belongs among the 'fancy prices.'"

The young girl pondered a moment then, regarding the jeweler attentively she asked:

"Can I advance 2,000 florins on it?"

"Most certainly."

"And 5,000?"

"Also 5,000."

"And 10,000?"

The jeweler smilingly repeated, "And 10,000."

The country beauty evidently became feverish. Perspiration showed in her face, and her youthful black eyes glittered with a fire superior to that of the costliest diamonds in the store. She asked for a glass of water. The formerly inattentive salesman rushed to get it.

"And will you pay me 10,000 florins for the pearl if I feel disposed to sell it? I am also authorized to sell it," she said, with a certain show of suspicion, fearful lest the jeweler was simply hoaxing her.

"No"—

"Ah," she exclaimed, "I divined you were hoaxing me!"

"Oh, no! God forbid," the jeweler responded evasively. "It is simply because I have no use for the pearl. There is only one firm in Austria that would buy it—the jeweler for the court."

"Would you please furnish me with his address?"

"Willingly."

He wrote the address on a piece of paper, which he handed to her; she inclosed it in her reticule, drank the glass of water courteously offered by the salesman, and, in spite of protests, placed a 5 florin piece on the counter to pay for the appraisement and went out.

Twenty-four hours later the same young woman, dressed, if possible, in a more glaring suit, entered the store of the jeweler of the court. The suit of stores are situated An den Graleen, the most fashionable street of the capital, Vienna. I (the reciter of this occurrence) received her. I was the principal business manager. She showed me the pearl. The attire of the woman was out of keeping with the value of the jewel entirely.

"Before taking any other steps, miss, it will be necessary for you to go with me to the chief of police and explain in what manner the pearl came into your possession."

Her eyes darted fire. "And if I refuse to do it?" she exclaimed passionately.

"Your refusal would compel me to call in a policeman," I rejoined dryly.

"All right," she said. "I go along with you, if this is the custom in Vienna when storekeepers are dealing with their customers. Please call a carriage."

"You must pardon me," I said apologetically, "but this is really an extraordinary case. A jewel of such value"—

The girl appeared to me entirely above suspicion and to be quick witted. A long acquaintance with crooks of all kinds permits me to quickly distinguish between the hypocrite and the honorable, and I was indeed not mistaken in my diagnosis. Arriving at police headquarters, she was asked who she was, whence she came and whence the pearl. She gave her name and residence. Her father, she stated, had at his death bequeathed her a modest pawnbroker shop in a small country town, which had often been visited by a young farmer, who had pawned various articles with her. He was very poor, she said. One day she accidentally passed near his miserable hut and heard a noise in the yard. Well knowing the man, she entered and learned that all his possessions were being distrained for a debt of 18 florins. The young man called her aside, secretly showed her the pearl and asked for a loan of 20 florins on it to pay the debt. He said the pearl was an old keepsake with which he parted most unwillingly. Moved rather by pity than by the value of the collateral, she advanced the sum desired, although she knew from general experience that if the pearl was genuine it must be quite valuable, but she thought it to be an imitation only. It is barely worth while to add other data. The telegraph was called into requisition and the truth of her statement established.

The history of the pearl was as follows. The father of the young farmer had been a chamber valet of Count Louis Batthanyi, the minister president of the revolutionary government of Hungary, in 1848. The count wore the pearl as a cravat pin, and a few hours before his death—as is known he was shot in Pest by order of a military court martial—he presented it to his faithful servant, who under no circumstances ever parted with it. At his death his son took the pearl out of the setting, which he sold, keeping the pearl and parting from it as recited.

The pearl itself had been stolen about 150 years ago out of the English crown, which had contained three of them. Two large diamonds went with it at the same time. The English government had been looking for it for 150 years, but to no avail. Nothing was ever heard of it until this accident. In what manner it drifted into Count Batthanyi's possession will doubtless remain a secret forever. He had most probably bought it of some antiquarian.

The English government redeemed the pearl, paying for it the offered reward of £2,500, a handsome sum, which the girl divided with the farmer—but not divided, because the history of the pearl says that the two concluded to keep the money together—best done by getting married.

"Yes," added my gray haired informant, "many jewels and pearls have had their eventful history, and during the many years that I have been engaged in dealing in precious stones a good many of their ups and downs and mishaps—theft, arson, murder and all the crimes on the statute books—have come to my knowledge. I propose to write a book about these adventures sooner or later, and I assure you it will contain entertaining and startling reading matter."—Jewelers' Circular.

Walking Sticks.

The sixteenth century is that in which the walking stick became not merely a useful implement, but an article of fashion, dignity and luxury. In the seventeenth century it was gold headed and made of rare woods. It was a sign of leadership.

For a long period there was little variety among Englishmen in the material used for the majority of walking sticks. The "oaken towel," as it was pleasantly termed when an enemy was to be "rubbed down," shared popularity with the crab tree cudgel, which, among rural folk especially was much valued and classic from the conflict in "Hudibras," when

With many a stiff thwack, many a bang
Hard crab tree on old iron rang

Classic, too, is that stout oaken stick which sturdy Dr. Johnson who, like Knox, "never feared the face of living man," provided himself with when he went to the pit of the little theater in the Haymarket in full view of Foote, who had announced his intention of "taking him off" on the stage—an intention which, in view of the stick, he did not carry into effect.—Gentleman's Magazine.

EDWIN BOOTH'S APOLOGY.

He Made a Handsome One When He Discovered His Error.

During the early sixties, relates J. H. Rogers in the New York Times, I occupied rooms, or, to be strictly truthful, a room, in the old Studio building, on Tenth street. It swarmed with artists of all descriptions, and a more delightful set of good fellows never got together under the same roof. There was not a single discordant element, and the gatherings held from time to time in the different studios will remain with me among the most valued memories of a somewhat eventful life. On these occasions people from the outside world frequently dropped in; other artists, literary men of the Bohemian sort, with perhaps an actor or two on the off nights, all men whose presence gave an additional flavor to the mixture, until it came to be like the old "Century club punch," a joy to be remembered, and too subtle to be analyzed.

One evening Edwin Booth was present and, finding the company congenial, made himself so agreeable that I was very sorry when an engagement took me away at a comparatively early hour. The next evening I dropped into the Century club for a little gossip and found Mr. Booth there. He was the center of a group of men with whom I was on such terms of intimacy that I did not hesitate to join them. The usual greetings were passed until I came to Booth, when I received a look that went through me like cold steel. Supreme contempt was never so expressed before or since. Just one look, and then, without further notice, he turned his back on me and began to talk to the other members of the group. Of course there was nothing to be said, and I got away as soon as possible. Presently, however, I began to be angry. This is not simply a cut, thought I, but a premeditated insult. I became furious and was ready for an explosion then and there, but just at that time Launt Thompson came up and took me one side.

"How in the name of common sense," said he, "did you come to play a practical joke on Booth?" Now, of all disagreeable creatures, I detest most heartily the practical joker, a creature to be kicked out of any respectable community. I resented even the implication and refused to stoop so far as to deny that I had been guilty of such a thing, expressing in good set terms my opinion of those who believed it. It seemed, as it came out afterward, that during the previous evening's entertainment, which took place in Thompson's studio, a man about town who had been dining heavily, thinking to get a joke on both of us, took the opportunity offered by my departure to play a shabby trick on Booth and throw the blame on me.

The upshot of the matter was that in a day or two came a note from Booth asking me to accept his box at the Winter Garden for a certain night and meet him in his dressing room between the third and fourth acts of "Hamlet." Of course I accepted the invitation, and in due time appeared at the door of the little dressing room on the left of the stage at the Winter Garden theater. On entering I found, to my surprise, all the members of the group that had witnessed the scene at the club. Booth, who had just come off the stage and was in full costume, made an apology so handsome that I blushed as I received it and went away full of admiration for the man who knew so well what was due to himself and when the necessity came could make an apology so ample that it left the recipient in his debt.

The Pygmies.

I lived two years near one of the pygmy settlements near the town of Dombi, in the remote Upper Kasai country. Their characteristics are clearly marked. They subsist solely by the chase. They never cultivate the soil at all. Those near me sold their game for farinaceous food to the dominant tribes. They say that they never did dig for food.

Before the big people came they got their food from game and various roots, yams and nuts in the bush. They lived in the country before the big people (Bantu) came and destroyed most of their forefathers. Some of them were taken captive by the Bantu and kept to hunt for them; others took refuge in the great forests. They are of very small stature, a man with a family being no larger than a 10-year-old boy.

I know one case where a girl's age, by incontestable record, was nearly 20, and I have her photograph, and she was positively not more than three feet in height. They have a distinct language, which is the same for all the entire country between Tanganyika and the west coast. It is a very guttural tongue, and the other natives rarely speak it.—Spectator.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. NEW MONEY FOR OLD.

AN EXCHANGE FOR MUTILATED AND WORNOUT BILLS.

Uncle Sam's Redemption Bureau and the Work of Its Experts—Rules of the Department and Schemes For Cheating the Government.

There are several experts employed by the government to inspect the currency offered for redemption In fact every person employed in the bureau is in some degree an expert, because each one of them has to pass on the genuineness of the money presented for redemption, and this is a difficult task Remember that this money comes to the treasury, as a rule, only when it is so badly worn that it will not pass current This dirty, torn, greasy, ragged money the experts have to handle and decide whether it was issued by the government and should be redeemed at its face value or whether it is the work of counterfeiters and should be rejected It is not at all to the discredit of the experts of the bureau that some bogus money has got past them and been detected in one of the offices to which the pieces of the money go for further examination This does not occur often

The peculiar province of one expert is not to detect bad money—though she is an expert at that—but to put together torn pieces of money sent in for identification and redemption These pieces of money come from all parts of the country and arrive under most extraordinary conditions This is not surprising in view of the fact that they come from experiences with fire and water and gastric juices and many other powerful agents A not infrequent accident to money is to be left in a stove, whence it is taken in a sadly charred condition, with only ashes to represent the greater part of it Often it is used by rats to make their nests, or, buried in the dampness of a cellar, it rots away, or, swallowed by a cow, it is rescued from her stomach a slimy mass of paper

Here are the rules of the treasury for the redemption of mutilated money For a piece of currency greater than two-fifths and less than three-fifths of the original note one-half the face value of the note is given For a piece as great as three-fifths the whole value of the note is given For a piece two-fifths in size of the original nothing is given But this last provision is limited by the law, which gives discretion to the treasury department to give full value for a note if the owner can prove to the satisfaction of the authorities that the note, or the missing part of it, was destroyed This last provision opens the door to possible fraud, and many are the efforts made by dishonest persons to take advantage of it.

The fragments of money which come to the treasury are turned over to one of the experts and sorted out under the microscope for identification. They are picked apart, and each tiny piece is assigned to its place like a part of a puzzle This is usually done on glass, and the fragments are eventually put between pieces of glass to hold them together while they are measured to see whether there is two-fifths or three-fifths of the note identifiable or whether it is so little that the owner can recover nothing Sometimes it is a very serious matter to the owner, but the poor are not the only applicants for assistance to recover damaged money. At the time W K. Vanderbilt's beautiful home at Newport was burned Mrs. Vanderbilt sent in about $1,000 in mutilated currency, out of which the expert was able to identify for redemption all but a fraction of the sum

It it is not alone mutilated money that comes to the treasury, but dirty and worn money of all kinds, to the extent of nearly $500,000,000 a year

Sometimes counterfeits get past the experts in this bureau and are caught in the other bureaus to which the halves are sent when the packages of old notes have gone under the knife and been divided up for counting and identification before they are destroyed. But this is not the most frequent form of attempted fraud. The mutilated money offers the easiest path to this sort of crime.

Some of the experiences of the redemption division with would be thieves are interesting One man in Kansas sent to the treasury the halves of some small bills with the edges nicely charred, accompanied by an affidavit from the sender that he had put the money in his pocket, hung his coat on a fence and that the coat had been burned, to the destruction of part of the notes It happened that the treasury had redeemed the other halves of these notes just two and a half years before for a money broker on the Bowery, in New York, and thinking the case suspicious, had kept an eye out for the possibility of attempted fraud. The Kansas man was a person of good business standing, and his bankers threatened the treasury officials with dismissal if they questioned his affidavit They put the case in the hands of the department of justice, and eventually the man pleaded guilty and was fined $1,000

A bank in Alabama received from a depositor a fragment of a $10 bill, and the treasury people paid $5 for it. Later came a claim accompanied by the other part of the bill, a little charred, with an affidavit saying the sender had burned the remainder of the note by mistake.

A Chicago man sent in fragments of two $20 bills and one $10 bill with an affidavit telling how the other halves had been destroyed, and in the same mail the other halves of these notes came in from a Chicago bank. A special agent caught the maker of the affidavit, who proved to be the tool of some swindlers, and he was sent to prison for a year and a half.—Washington Star

IT WAS NOT TOO LATE.

A Story of European Diplomacy and Our Civil War.

The Outlook gives an interesting story of the Spanish administration, when, during our civil war, the Emperor Napoleon formed the ingenious plan of uniting European nations in a change of the international law governing blockades. The admiralty law of the world at present extends the jurisdiction of any nation for one marine league from its shores. If, therefore, any blockade runner could get within three miles of Jamaica, Cuba or Porto Rico, he was safe from any interference from our blockading fleet.

Napoleon proposed that, instead of one league, the limit of local sovereignty should be extended to three leagues from shore, and he persuaded the Spanish minister to come into his plan.

Such an extension of neutral limits would have greatly hindered the operations of our blockading fleets. All the negotiations were conducted with great secrecy, but orders were sent from Spain to the West Indies, instructing authorities there to extend threefold the range of their dominion over the sea. These orders had already gone when Horatio Perry, the American secretary of legation, got wind of the treachery of our ally.

Mr. Perry told his wife. She told the Duchess of Montpensier, who hated Louis Napoleon, and the duchess told her sister, the Spanish queen. Then the queen sent for Mr. Perry and asked what it was all about.

"You are injuring your best friends," said he after explaining the matter, "at the solicitation of this intriguer whom you have reason to believe is your enemy."

The queen regent sent for her prime minister and interrogated him. He replied that her majesty had signed the order on such a day.

"But no one told me what it meant," said Queen Isabella. "No one told me that this is a heavy blow to my American allies."

No one had told her! The minister was sorry if her majesty disliked it, but it was too late to help it. Why was it too late? Because a steamer had gone to the West Indian fleet with the orders which changed one league to three.

Then said Isabella, "It is not too late for me to accept your resignations."

But the senor don did not want to resign, and the other senores dons did not want to resign. So they found a fast steamer to take out orders rescinding the other orders, and the blockade was maintained for the next year

RUNNING A THEATER.

The Big Salary Account That New York Houses Must Meet.

The salaries of actors and actresses vary so much that no fixed prices can be quoted. It may suffice to say that the salary list of a stock house for performers will not come to less than $1,000 a week, and is often considerably more.

The salaries in the "front" are about as follows: Business manager, $60 to $75 a week; box office man, $30; assistant, $15; two doorkeepers, $8 to $12 each; head usher, $8; other ushers (three or four), $7; lithograph men (two), $15; night watchman, $10.

The salaries of the attaches of the stage are all fixed at union rates. Furthermore, the manager must employ three men on a side—that is, three stage hands on each side of the stage, including the stage carpenter and his assistant—and two flymen, men who work the curtain and drops up in the "flies," the regions above the stage.

The union rates are as follows: Stage carpenter, $30 a week; assistant, $25; electrician, $25; assistant, $15; property man, $25; assistant, $15; back doorkeeper, $7; stage hands, $1.50 for each performance, $3.50 per day for putting on a play, 50 cents an hour for rehearsals and 62½ cents an hour for all labor half an hour after the fall of the final curtain. Orchestra leaders get $40 to $50 a week, and the union rate for musicians is $25, except in operettas, when it is $4 a performance.—"The Business of a Theater," by W. J Henderson in Scribner's.

Melancholy Thought.

When a man really gives his thoughts up chiefly to eatables and drinkables, he generally ceases to think of anything else after awhile. It is related in an old book on French cookery that Fontenelle, a French author of the early part of the eighteenth century belonging to the school of the precieuses, or literary exquisites, was found one beautiful morning lying at ease on the slope of a hill.

In the valley was a large flock of sheep. They skipped about daintily, waiting for their guardian to take them home. A friend of Fontenelle surprised him gazing meditatively upon these sheep.

"Aha!" said the friend. "The amiable philosopher ponders without doubt upon the vicissitudes of life."

"Y-yes," said Fontenelle. "I had been carefully looking over this flock, and I said to myself, 'It is possible that among these 200 sheep there is not one tender leg of mutton!'"

Paine and Washington.

At the close of the American Revolution it became a proverb that independence had been achieved equally by the sword of Washington and the pen of Paine, writes Moncure D. Conway in The Arena. Up to January, 1776, Washington had protested his loyalty to the crown. On the 10th of that month Paine's "Common Sense" appeared; on the 31st of that month Washington wrote from Cambridge to Joseph Reed of the "sound doctrine and unanswerable reasoning contained in the pamphlet 'Common Sense.'" The die was cast.

The Commissioners meet on Saturday next to consider the transfer of Wm. Clancy's license to John Conroy, at Norwood.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. Ned Flaherty's Truck Smashed by the C. P. R.

Ned Flaherty, Peterborough's well known carter, met with an accident yesterday at the C.P.R. station, which might have proved more serious than it did.

While crossing the track on George street, he was not aware of the fact that a freight train was in the act of backing across the road, and when Flaherty's horse and truck were half way across the track, the outfit was violently smashed into by the rear end of the freight train. The entire outfit was carried a considerable way down the track and the horse was finally separated from the wagon.

The most miraculous part of the accident is the fact that Mr. Flaherty escaped uninjured, whilst the rig is a complete wreck.

A Truck Smashed.

This morning as Mr. George Kingdon was unloading a large vat at the Matthews Co's. factory, he had his rig badly smashed. Mr. Kingdon had backed his vehicle over the new siding to unload the vat on the platform, when the gravel train in backing up came in contact with the hind part of the rig.

LAKEFIELD PICNIC.

Father Fitzpatrick has made every preparation to make the Lakefield picnic on the 24th a great success, and it promises to eclipse all preceding efforts which have made such a name for the Lakefield Queen's Birthday picnics.

The programme for the day is a varied one. In the morning a lacrosse match is the principal attraction. The Peterborough Shamrocks will play the Maple Leafs, of Campbellford.

In the afternoon the Young's Point football team will play a picked eleven from the county. This is followed by a list of athletic sports for which most valuable prizes are being offered. Dancing will be in progress all the afternoon, the music being furnished by Miss Lottie Bell and Miss Maggie McCabe. At 4 o'clock the speech making will begin. Amongst those taking part being Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General; J. R. Stratton, M.P.P.; James Kendry, M. P., Dan O'Connell, J. W. Fitzgerald, and J. B. McWilliams.

This does not end the day's programme by any means, as in the evening a grand concert will be held in the Lakefield Town Hall. The following well-known artists will contribute to the programme: Misses Lillie Simons, Carrie White, Jennie Reilly, Lottie Bell, Maggie McCabe, Nettie Lewis, and Messrs. Dick Simons, Oscar O'Shea, Harry Kearney, Charles Cavanaugh, and considerable local talent. The admission fee has been placed at 25 cents.

Besides the regular train service there will be special trains from Peterborough, leaving at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. A special train will return from Lakefield at 7 p.m. The return fare has been reduced to 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

Special Music.

At the Service of Song in George street church Sunday evening, the following numbers will be rendered by members of the choir: Solo, baritone, "Fear not ye oh Israel"—Bach; anthem, 'Hallelujah, He is risen,"—Simper; solo, soprano, "Rejoice Jerusalem and sing,"—Jackson; dust, (by request) entitled, "He knows."

SUSPENDED CRUISE OF STONE CRUSHER

LEADS TO ALDERMAN DAVIDSON'S RESIGNATION.

A Slight Conflict of Authority over the Loan of the Stone Crusher to Messrs. Corry & Laverdure—A Plain Statement of the Case.

Yesterday the town stone crusher, like the army of a certain King of France, "went up the hill (at Ashburnham) and then went down again." Considerable interest was taken in the apparently aimless journeying of the steel-jawed mechanical giant. It appeared that owing to misleading representations as to the attitude of the other aldermen, the chairman of the Board of Works loaned the crusher, and while it was in transit to the canal works, other aldermen whose consent had not been given as represented, vetoed the further removal and the crusher was stopped on its voyage and brought back to town. As a consequence of the complication Alderman Davidson sent in an explanatory letter and therewith his resignation as alderman. A special meeting of the Council was called for last night to deal with the situation, but subsequent developments led to the recall of the meeting.

The Mayor Explains.

It appeared that Messrs. Corry & Laverdure, Trent Waterway contractors, represented to Mr. Alderman Davidson, chairman of the Board of Works, that he (Corry), had seen a majority of the councillors and that they had consented to the loan of the town stone crusher to the firm for a few days. Thereupon Alderman Davidson consented to the loan and Corry & Laverdure sent men and a team to the town yards, and with a good deal of labour loaded the crusher and had proceeded to the works as far as Collins' grocery, Elizabeth street, Ashburnham, when a veto was put upon the continuation of the journey. When the Aldermen who, as a matter of fact, had not, as represented, consented to the loan of the crusher, learned that it was on its way to the canal works, a majority of them protested to the Mayor against the loan of the crusher after it had been decided by the Board of Works, to whom the matter of the application of the Dickson Company for the loan of the crusher had been referred with power to act, that the application should be refused on the ground of establishing a bad precedent, although the company offered to pay for its use. Thereupon, the Mayor directed Mr. Hay, Town Engineer, to arrest the progress of the crusher. The Mayor communicated with Mr. Corry, who was willing to return it, and it was brought back and placed on the market square, to remain till some decision was arrived at. The Mayor saw a majority of the Aldermen, who refused to consent to any modification of the decision of the Board of Works not to loan the crusher, which was accordingly restored to its position in the town yards, where it now stands, the innocent cause of a little ripple upon the usually serene surface of aldermanic relations.

Mr. R. S. Davidson on being asked if he would explain in detail his reasons for tendering his resignation of his seat at the Council Board, stated that he had nothing to say outside of the facts mentioned in his letter to the council which is appended:

May 19th, 1899.

To the Mayor and Council of the Town of Peterborough.

Gentleman,—Under separate cover I hand in my resignation as Alderman for the town of Peterborough and I think it only fair to the council to give my reasons for doing so.

Some days ago, Mr. Laverdure, of the firm of Corry & Laverdure, called on me and asked me if the council would hire our crusher. I answered him saying that it was impossible for us to do so, as we expected to start working on a granolithic walk and we would require our crusher at once. He went away very much disappointed and since that time circumstances have somewhat changed. The steam roller arrived the next day and I instructed the clerk to wire the Harrisburg firm, "Roller arrived, send instructor at your earliest convenience." They answered back, "Instructor will be in Peterborough Saturday." Now as the committee agreed that we should take power from our road roller engine for crushing stone for our crushing machine, it is evident that we would not want the stone crusher for 10 days, as our instructor was to remain with us for 8 or 10 days. Mr. Corry on Thursday called on me and stated that it would be a great favour if we could hire the crusher for four days, as they were in a peculiarly unfortunate condition, as the sides of the canal were being washed away at the Warsaw road and it was imperative that they should have the concrete done at once. He stated to me that he would not bother his own about the matter, if it was at all possible to get a machine elsewhere but both had tried to negotiate with the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co. to buy a machine and the answer was that they could not have one ready inside of 30 days. They then tried Ottawa and the answer was that they could neither rent or sell a crusher in a reasonable time. I said to Mr. Corry to go and explain the circumstances to the members of the council and the only opposition he received from the members that he interviewed, was from Mr. Denne. It is only fair to say that some of the council were out of town and some he could not see. Now there is a difference between accommodating an individual and granting a favour.

Messrs. Corry & Laverdure were in the position that they had exhausted every means to procure a crusher, and as a last resort applied to the town, giving a bond (which is attached) for the return of the crusher in as good a condition as taken away, and that Mr. George Munro should be the judge. Now I say without prejudice that the firm of Corry & Laverdure have some claim for consideration on the ratepayers of Peterborough. Since they started business on the canal some two years ago they have expended annually over one hundred thousand dollars, and I think that any reasonable man will admit that they have some reasonable claim on the town of Peterborough, as they never imported a labourer or purchased anything abroad "that they could get in Peterborough, and in looking over the matter, as chairman of the Board of Works, I have endeavoured to conduct the affairs of that department as I would do my own, and I think it is a small piece of picayune economy not to grant such a reasonable request.

I have the honour to be,
Yours truly,
R. S. DAVIDSON.

P.S.—Since writing the above I am informed by Messrs. Corry & Laverdure that it will throw out of employment one hundred men, and I think it will be rather a serious matter at this season of the year, when there are no public works going on and unfortunately very little doing on the corporation sewers or walks.

R. S. DAVIDSON.

The following letter was received by the Mayor from Messrs. Corry & Laverdure on Thursday in reference to the matter, and would have been brought before this evening's meeting of the Council:

Peterborough, May 18, '99.

To His Worship the Mayor:

Dear Sir—Owing to the fact that we have been delayed on account of high water to make as much progress as we expected on our works at Little Lake this spring, and as we presently have a large gang of men at Warsaw Road Bridge, we find ourselves obliged to stop these men for want of a stone crusher, but we understand that your municipality have one which you are not presently using.

We respectfully beg to have same for four or five days so as to enable us to keep our men at work. We will also pay you the sum of $40 for rental, and will return same in perfect order and subject to inspection by Mr. Geo. Munro.

Hoping that your Council will see its way clear to oblige us, and in so doing give employment to nearly 100 men.

Yours truly,
CORRY & LAVERDURE.

Attached to the letter were the negative answers from a number of firms to whom Messrs. Corry & Laverdure had applied for the purchase of a crusher.

It is probable that the matter, though virtually settled, will be brought up again in connection with Alderman Davidson's regrettable resignation.

OFFICE CHANGES.

The People's Coal Company Move their Office to the Coal Yards.

The Peoples Coal Company are this week engaged in fixing up a new office at their coal sheds near the Grand Trunk Railway station. For some time the local office of the company has been at No. 200 Charlotte street, where a large trade has been built up, but it is felt by the company that to have their office at their coal sheds facilitate matters considerably and place them in a still more desirable way to attend to the wants of their customers.

An elegant new office is being fitted up in the most up-to-date manner and Mr. A. J. McClelland, the hustling young local agent expects to move into his new quarters sometime next week.

WAKE THE COUNCIL UP.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir—Inquiry is often made as to what disposition the Council intends to make of a communication received from Mr. L. B. Fetcher to the effect that Her Majesty's Veterans, of Toronto, could easily be induced to make Peterborough the objective point of their annual outing.

No expense is entailed in issuing such an invitation, as all the Veterans ask is that they be furnished, free of charge, with a parade ground on which to execute a few manoeuvres. The statement made to the effect that this outing is participated in by eight hundred or a thousand people should make the members of the Council anxious to attract such a crowd to the town, but the matter, it seems, has been referred to a committee composed of the mayor, Ald. Langford and Lt.-Col. Bell, by whom it has not even been discussed.

It is tritely said that no value is set on that which can be had for nothing, but a matter of this kind is worthy of consideration, and Her Majesty's Veterans should have been in receipt of a hearty invitation the very day that the letter was received intimating their willingness to come to Peterborough.

Everyone has heard of these annual outings of the Veterans, and that they are largely attended is shown by the fact that the C. P. R. issues tickets free to the Veterans themselves. It would hardly pay the company to do a thing of this kind unless the old soldiers had a big following.

If the Council is still dilatory I would urge the Board of Trade to take the matter up.

Yours truly,
CITIZEN.

Note—For the information of our correspondent we might state that Mayor Davis is now in correspondence with the Veterans and Secretary J. R. Gray and Drum Major Bone are expected in town next week to make arrangements for the trip.

electoral districts; each of these districts shall return one member.

The Judicial Decision.

"In the three following sections, which we have inserted in the bill, are the provisions in regard to the judicial division of the counties into ridings:

Where, under the foregoing provisions, any county or city is to be divided into more than one electoral district, such divisions shall be made by a Board of Commissioners, consisting of at least three persons, being Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, who, for the purpose, shall be appointed by letters patent under the great seal and who shall divide the City of Toronto and each such county into the number of electoral districts by this act assigned to them, respectively.

The letters patent appointing the commissioners shall request the commissioners in making the divisions to consider the distribution of population according to the last Dominion census, the public convenience, and such divisions as appear to them best calculated to the substantial justice.

In case of the death or resignation or refusal of any one or more of such commissioners to act, a successor, or successors, shall in like manner be appointed.

The commissioners shall complete such divisions within a time to be limited by said letters patent, and shall report such divisions to the Secretary of State, making a separate report as to each electoral district so set apart by them, and shall set forth in such report the boundaries of the electoral districts to which such reports refer, and the municipalities comprised therein, and assign and appropriate designation to the electoral district in question, and upon receipt by the Secretary of State of the reports of the commission completing the divisions aforesaid the respective territories by such respective reports described as constituting the respective electoral districts into which the said city of Toronto and the respective counties shall have been divided, as aforesaid, shall, subject to the provisions of section 18 of this act, become and be electoral districts, as if the same had been so set apart and established as such by this act.

"Let me say this, that section 18 is simply to provide that this bill shall not come into force so long as the present Parliament continues, but shall come into force only at the dissolution of this Parliament."

Sir Charles Tupper—The last portion?

The Prime Minister—The whole of this bill. This is section 18:

Nothing herein contained shall operate as to change the constitution of the electoral districts as they now exist until the dissolution of present Parliament.

Sir Charles Tupper—But the judicial arrangement applies to this bill.

The Prime Minister—Yes, it is a part of this bill. Each report shall be signed by the commissioners, or, in case of disagreement, by a majority of the commissioners, which shall be the report of the commission. Each separate report shall be published in The Canada Gazette forthwith after its receipt thereof by the Secretary of State. These are all the provisions in regard to this point.

"In regard to the Province of Quebec, it is not proposed to make any alterations in the representation as it exists today, except in so far as is necessary to bring back the different municipalities which had been transferred in the Redistribution Act of 1882 from one county to another. Thus the parish of Lavaltrie, which for the purposes, municipal, judicial and otherwise, belongs to the County of Berthier, but which by the act of 1882 was transferred from Berthier to L'Assomption, will be restored to the County of Berthier. The same applies to the Indian village of Caughnawaga. The Indian village and reserve of Caughnawaga is transferred from the electoral district of Caughnawaga to the electoral district of Laprairie and Napierville."

Mr. Bergeron—What about Caughnawaga; under the new Franchise Act the Indians have no right to vote?

The Prime Minister—They have no more right to vote, and I do not think it affects the case one way or another. But, in order to be consistent, we place Caughnawaga where it belongs. At present it is immaterial whether it is Chateauguay or Laprairie, or anywhere else, because the Indians have no right to vote.

"The parish of Lacolle, together with the islands situated in the River Richelieu, opposite thereto, is transferred from the electoral district of Missisquoi to the electoral district of St. Jean and Iberville. The parish of Lacolle, for all purposes, municipal and judicial, belongs to the County of St John, and ought to belong to it.

"The parishes of Notre Dame de Stanbridge and Ste. Anges de Stanbridge, together with the island situated in the River Richelieu, opposite thereto, are transferred from the electoral district of St. John and Iberville to the electoral district of Missisquoi.

"The parish of St. Pie is transferred from the electoral district of Rouville to the electoral district of Bagot.

"The parish of St. Marcel is transferred from the electoral district of Bagot to the electoral district of Richelieu.

"The parish of St. Eugene de Grantham, now in the electoral district of Bagot, is transferred to the electoral district of Drummond and Arthabasca. It belongs to Drummond County for all purposes judicial, municipal and otherwise.

"The parishes of St. Nazaire and St. Christine as municipally constituted shall be included in the electoral district of Bagot, and that electoral district as re-constituted shall consist of the town of Acton, the village of Upton, and the parishes of St. Andre d'Acton, St. Ephraim d'Upton, St. Helene, St. Hughes, St. Liboire, St. Pie, Ste. Rosalie, St. Simon, St. Theodore d'Acton, St. Dominique, St. Nazaire and St. Christine.

"The parishes of St. Guillaume d'Upton and St. Bonaventure d'Upton are transferred from the electoral district of Drummond and Arthabasca to the electoral district of Yamaska. That is done for all purposes, except for Federal electoral purposes. They belong to the County of Yamaska.

"The parishes of St. Eulalie and St. Samuel shall be in and form part of the electoral district of Nicolet. All that part of the township of Stanfold, too, with the 13 lots in the three first ranges of the said township which formed part of the parish of Notre Dame de Lourde, are transferred from the electoral district of Drummond and Arthabasca to the electoral district of Megantic. All this for the same reason.

"Now, coming to the Province of Prince Edward Island, sub-section 6 of section 2 of chapter 11 of the statutes of 1892, which refers to P.E.I., is repealed and the following substituted so as to provide there, as elsewhere, county lines.

"In the Province of P.E.I. there shall be three electoral districts, designated as follows:

"The electoral district of Prince, which shall consist of the County of Prince, and shall return two members.

"The electoral district of Queen's, which shall consist of the County of Queen's, and shall return two members.

"The electoral district of King's, which consists of the County of King's, and shall return one member.

"With regard to the Province of New Brunswick, no changes are contemplated, with the exception of the City of St. John, which, as everybody knows, is in a peculiar condition. An elector in the City of St. John has two votes. He votes first for the City of St. John, and then he votes for a member for the City and County of St. John. It is proposed to do away with this anomaly and to have two electoral districts, one for the City of St. John and one for the County of St. John. Section 5 of the statutes of 1892 is hereby repealed and amended by striking out sub-section B and substituting the following:

The electoral district of the County of St. John shall consist of the County of St. John only.

Nothing herein contained shall operate so as to change the constitution of the electoral districts as they now exist until the dissolution of the present Parliament.

"These, Mr. Speaker, are the provisions of the bill which we intend to propose. I hope they will recommend themselves to all sides of this House and above all to the country, and I therefore move the first reading of this bill."

Mr. MacDonald (King's, P. E. I.)—Might I ask the leader of the Government if it is the intention to have two members for Prince, P.E.I., and two for Queen's, P.E.I., running together as formerly and one for King's, P.E.I.?

The Prime Minister—Yes.

A TORRENT OF INVECTIVE.

Sir Charles Tupper's Speech in Reply to Sir Wilfrid.

Sir Charles Tupper said it was quite impossible to deal at any length or minuteness with a bill introduced in this way, and which is presented for the first time to the consideration of the House. He had expected that his right hon. friend, in introducing this bill, would have drawn the attention of the House to the Constitutional Act providing for a decennial census, and have intimated why for the first time in the history of Canada the course outlined in that act should be departed from in regard to this measure. The Act of Confederation provides that a redistribution bill shall be passed at a particular time, and, as he understood that constitution, it not only makes no provision for a redistribution at any other time, but, so far as a law can do it, it suggests that the time, and the only time, for dealing with the change in the distribution of the seats of Canada shall be at a particular period, and only then. While the constitution does not expressly state that it cannot be done at any other time, the very fact that provision is distinctly made as to the time leaves the inference that it can only be done after a decennial census, an inference that has been respected by every Government of Canada and by every party in Canada from Confederation down to the present hour. There has been no redistribution bill introduced by any Government or by any party during the more than 30 years of life of this Confederation, and this House had a right to expect from his hon. friend that before he resumed his seat he would give some reason for this unusual and unprecedented and slightly unconstitutional proceeding of providing for a redistribution act at the present moment.

Was his right hon. friend afraid to go back to the electorate who clothed him with power? He obtained power under very exceptional circumstances. His party obtained power without having obtained a majority of this country upon one single great question at issue between the two parties in this House. He regarded this measure as a confession from the right hon. gentleman that he was afraid to go back to the electors of Canada, from whom he, under very exceptional circumstances, obtained power.

The right hon. gentleman obtained power on the great issue that was put before the people of Canada on the occasion of the last general election in regard to what was called the coercion of Manitoba. Would his right hon. friend venture to say that the electorate of this country gave him a majority on that question? He knows that he cannot. Then, sir, take the question of free trade, which he had been agitating for 20 years in this House and out of it. The hon. gentleman will not dare to say that upon that question he obtained a majority of the electorate of Canada to support him or his views. Under these circumstances, we find, first, that the leader of the Government has adopted a change in the franchise of the country. What was that change? To deprive this Parliament of the power of controlling the electorate from establishing the franchises under which the members of this House of Commons should be elected. That was the first move. It was to adopt the most corrupt, the most indefensible, the most scandalous system of obtaining a majority, by local action.

Sir Charles then devoted some time to alleging widespread corruption obtained under local laws, instancing New Brunswick, West Huron, Brockville, but the things done therein were not enough and now the cry was "change the franchise."

The constitution of Canada provides when and how and where such an act as this can be passed, and that is after the decennial census. Does the hon. gentleman mean to say that there is any principle in this bill which he has introduced? The great sovereign principle recognized by the constitution of Canada and in its administration down to the present is the principle of representation by population. Does the hon. gentleman dare say he has any regard for that in this bill? Why, what has happned? His hon. friend from West York told him that one important feature in that part of his bill relating to Ontario was the utter abandonment of the principle of representation by population. They take from East and West York 35,000 of a population and add them to Toronto, and keep Toronto down to four members, the same as now.

What now do we find? The bill does not make any material change in the Province of Quebec. The hon. gentleman leaves Quebec pretty much as he found it. Why? Because Quebec gave him an overwhelming majority, but when he turned to Ontario he tore that to pieces. Why? Because Ontario did not give him a majority at all.

Under the methods established by hon. gentlemen, an honest election was now impossible in Canada, and he instanced as a proof of this contention the case of the County of Bagot, which, won in a bye-election by purchase, after six months' disfranchisement, would not stand by him in the general elections.

Sir Charles closed with these words:

I challenge him in the face of this House and I challenge them in the face of the country, to name one single act, one single public principle ever professed as the principle of that party, that he has not trampled underfoot since they obtained power. I challenge them to quote one single promise by means of which they obtained power to misgovern this country, that they have not violated. I have given that challenge before, and it remains unmet. No attempt has been made to show a single principle that they have professed, that they have not utterly violated, or a single pledge on which they obtained the confidence of the electorate of Canada, that they have not trampled under their feet.

Of course, we cannot take up this bill in its present shape. It will be printed and placed in our hands, but I undertake to say that the more closely it is examined the more probable will it be that I have not misunderstood the objects and the aims that the hon. gentlemen have in view, putting this measure before the House.

Sir Wilfrid's Reply.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in reply, said he was not shocked and horrified at anything the hon. gentleman said, scandalous as it was and always is. He said Sir Charles could not any longer discuss, only abuse, and the record showed that they had carried 30 bye-elections since 1896, but notwithstanding all the corruption alleged, they had never attempted to prove their reckless charges in the courts. He then took up the various points of the speech and concluded by saying that all the Government desires was a fair appeal to the people.

Read a First Time.

Messrs. Foster, McNeill, Clarke, Wallace, Clancy, Tisdale, Henderson, Montague, Dr. Sproule, Bennett, Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Hibbert Tupper continued the debate, after which the bill was introduced and read a first time.

The House adjourned at 12.35 till Thursday next.

HYPNOTISM

Some men are said to possess such wonderful animal magnetism that they can put other persons to sleep by passing the hands before the eyes. This is called hypnotism—an influence about which very little is known—and it is not a difficult matter to find a few people who have been put to sleep in this manner. You can find hundreds and thousands of women, however, whose sleep has been made peaceful and restful by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It soothes the nerves by curing the disorders commonly called "female troubles." It is indorsed by an army of women in every State in the Union, who have been brought back to health after suffering untold misery from disagreeable drains upon the system, irregularities, prolapsus, backache, "bearing-down" pains, nervousness, despondency and hysteria. "Favorite Prescription" is a vegetable medicine, and contains no alcoholic stimulant or dangerous narcotic to create morbid cravings. Its action is confined altogether to the distinctly feminine organism, which it heals, soothes and strengthens. It helps to make existence pleasant before baby comes, and on the occasion of the little one's advent, danger is avoided and the pain reduced to almost nothing.

Mrs. Anna Willy, (Michigan House), of Northville, Spink Co., S. Dak., writes: "I am enjoying good health, thanks to your kind advice and valuable remedies. I suffered very much with female weakness and other ailments for more than two years, when I wrote to you for advice. After carefully following your advice and taking six bottles each of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' I am now a well and happy woman. I have also taken several vials of your 'Pleasant Pellets' which did me a great deal of good."

Accept no substitute, which a dishonest dealer may urge as "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

WEAK AND.... PUNY CHILDREN

Become Strong and Healthy by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

Children are frequently left weak and sickly as an after result of measles, scarlet fever, etc., and in this state are easy prey to nervous disorders, rickets, spinal disease, or consumption, diseases which do not affect robust, healthy children.

The blood is weak and watery and the nerves improperly nourished. Feed the blood and nerves with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, and the pale, pinched faces will soon become rosy and plump, and tiredness and weakness will give way to strength and animation.

Mr. E. W. Day, 62 Close Avenue, Toronto, writes: "My eldest daughter, aged eight, became very much run down. Her fretful, nervous, sleepless condition greatly alarmed her parents. She was taken from school, and in spite of the best nursing, the thin, weakened, bloodless face grew painfully worse. Fortunately we used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. An improvement became apparent in a few days, it continued, and in a few weeks she returned to school built up anew, and greatly to our joy fully restored to health."

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

Why Wood Crackles.

Wood crackles when it is ignited because the air expanded by heat forces its way through the pores of the wood with a crackling noise. Green wood makes less snapping than dry because the pores contain less air, being filled with sap and moisture, which extinguish the flame, whereas the pores of dry wood are filled with air, which supports combustion.

CHINOOK JARGON WON.

A Lawyer Who Made His Plea in a Tongue the Jury Could Understand.

Every old timer in Tacoma, or, in fact, in the state of Washington, either remembers or had a personal acquaintance with Attorney Frank Clark. Clark has been dead some years, but during a conversation between attorneys his name came up, followed by the narrative of this incident in his career:

"Many years ago," said the lawyer telling the story, "Clark had as a client a man arrested on the charge of cutting timber on government land. The United States was represented by two federal attorneys, brought from a distance, either Portland or San Francisco, if I remember aright. When these lawyers came into court, there followed behind them a porter who unloaded upon the table fronting the judge's bench armful after armful of books. Clark strode in with three volumes of law under his arm. The jury was composed entirely of loggers and ranchers. Opening the case, the imported lawyers delved deep into the tomes of law before them and cited decision after decision bearing on the case on trial. Then, using language one-half of the words of which were too extensive for the jury's understanding, they launched into their argument.

"As the United States attorneys finished Clark arose, picked up one of his law books, and, without opening the volume, threw it aside. The next book shared the same fate. The third was opened only to be cast aside. Clark then squared himself to the jury.

"'Nesika tillicums!' he commenced, and then in a flow of Chinook jargon went on to plead his client's cause. There was not a man on the jury but what understood every sentiment Clark conveyed, whereas the high flown language of the imported attorneys had been utterly lost to them.

"In vivid Chinook Clark painted a word picture of the trials and tribulations of the settler in the wilds of a Washington forest; of the desperate effort necessary to maintain wife and babies. And because his client had hauled a wagon load of cordwood to the village store to trade for food he had been arrested and his family deprived of his support.

"There was possibly not one in the jury box but who had at some time been in the position Clark pictured. Every sympathy in them was aroused. Tears trickled down their rugged cheeks as Clark's Chinook flowed on.

"The lawyers from afar were awake to the disadvantage they were being placed under. An objection was entered to Clark's use of Chinook or any other language which the opposing counsel could not understand.

"'Your honor,' answered Clark, 'the jury here is to decide this case. The eminent gentlemen for the prosecution have used language so grandiloquent that not one of the jury has understood its purport. I am speaking to them in the simple talk of the western frontiersman, understood alike by both Indian and white man who traverse and have been instrumental in the development of this northwest. My language, call it jargon if you wish, explains to the jury, and if I mistake not, also, your honor, the situation. I have but a few words more to say, and, with the court's permission, will continue in Chinook.'

"The permission was granted and Clark's client acquitted without the jury leaving their seats."

The Cigar Smoker.

When you see a man grip a cigar between his teeth and hold it fast, careless of whether it burns or not, you can set him down as an aggressive, calculating and exacting individual.

If a man smokes a cigar deliberately, just enough to keep it lighted, and delights in taking it from his mouth and watching the blue smoke from it curl upward, he is likely to be an easy going man, good natured and honest.

There is another fellow who smokes intermittently, takes a puff and then rests and fumbles his cigar about. He is apt to have little decision of character and to be easily affected by circumstances. A man may be nervous and fumble his cigar a good bit, and in this event he is a would be swell, vain and frivolous.

He invariably tilts his cigar upward, while a sensible, level headed fellow will hold it straight out from the mouth. When you see a man chewing upon an unlighted cigar and twisting it about, he is nervous, but of great tenacity.

A man who cannot keep his cigar alight has a whole souled disposition. He has a lively nature, is a hail fellow well met, glib of tongue and usually a good story teller.

Mrs. J. H. Harte, of 223 Church street, Toronto, wife of Dr. Harte, suffered severely from rheumatism for five years. For four years she could not walk without the use of a cane. At times the pains were intense, and she suffered tortures. No remedy or treatment gave any relief. She was induced to try South American Rheumatic cure. She used four bottles and to-day is free from pain, and she closes her signed testimony by saying: "I am entirely cured and can move about as blithely as ever in my life." Sold by H. S. There Is a Great Difference.

"Evidently you did not grasp the import of my answer," was the conciliatory reply. "I did not say it was not written by a poet. I merely said it was not poetry."—Chicago Post.

The Great Unknown.

It was many years before the "Great Unknown" was identified. At the publication of the "Lay of the Last Minstrel," "Marmion," "Lady of the Lake' and finally of a novel called "Waverley," popular curiosity was excited, and the whole of England rang with the fame of the "Great Unknown," as Scott was called.

The secret was well kept. Sir Walter Scott, who all his life had been storing material and training his mind to such concentration that he could work in the midst of interruptions and was able to turn out volume after volume with a rapidity, two a year, that made his readers doubt their very senses. His incognito was all the more perfectly preserved in that he kept open house at Abbotsford, devoting much of his time to entertaining his guests and visiting. It was not until the embarrassment of his publishers occurred that the identity of the author of the "Waverley Novels' was discovered.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum.

HE HAS NEVER HAD ANY RETURN OF THESE DISEASES SINCE.

The triumphs of Burdock Blood Bitters over diseases that other remedies and even doctors' treatment seem powerless to cure, render it without doubt the grandest and greatest medicine of the times.

The cases being recorded from day to day show how thorough and far reaching are the cures B.B.B. makes and no case illustrates this more satisfactorily than that of Mr. Edward White of Victoria Corners, N.B.

We will permit Mr. White himself, together with his friends and neighbors, to amply verify the statement made on behalf of B.B.B., that when it cures you, you're cured to stay cured. This is the letter Mr. White wrote in 1894:

"For twelve years previous to the past few months I have been a sufferer from the worst kind of Salt Rheum. I tried twelve different doctors, besides many patent medicines, but received no benefit. Last January I was advised to try B.B.B. by the Postmaster here. I soon perceived a decided change for the better and it only took six bottles to make a complete cure."

EDWARD WHITE.

MR. EDWARD WHITE.

At the same time Mr. E. H. Cox, a neighbor of Mr. White, wrote the following:

"I know Mr. White and am aware that he has suffered for about twelve years from Erysipelas and Salt Rheum and has tried many doctors but all have failed to cure him.

"I had the opportunity of examining his arms, shoulders and breast, and found them covered with sores, but after using one bottle of B.B.B. they had healed up so that large scabs and scales fell off. I advised him to keep on using B.B.B.

"His face was fairly baked and so rough and sore that the skin cracked open. The itching and burning were almost unbearable.

"He continued the use of B.B.B., until now every symptom of the disease is gone.

"I write this in justice to B.B.B. as the facts are true in every respect."

E. H. Cox.

Then Mr. White's wife corroborated his story, she wrote:

"I cannot express in a letter how my husband has suffered during the past twelve years. I have seen the skin all peel off his face three times in a week with that awful Salt Rheum. He has spent everything for medicines and doctors' bills but nothing did him any good until he took B.B.B. He has taken six bottles and is now cured. He used to scratch his flesh all night, but now sleeps well and is free from disease."

Backing up and endorsing all these statements made we have the testimony of three of the best citizens in the community.

We have known Mr. Edward White for the past ten or fifteen years and can certify to the genuineness of his letter and to the facts of his case as stated by himself.

J. B. BOWER, Merchant and Postmaster; JAMES W. BOYER, Manufacturer; THOS. W. LETSON, Justice of the Peace.

Now comes the proof of the permanency of this wonderful cure—and we have it in the following letter just received:

"It is now about five years since I was cured of a terrible attack of Salt Rheum and Erysipelas which afflicted me for about twelve years. I had tried almost everything including doctors' medicine, but could get no relief until I took Burdock Blood Bitters.

"Although my case was so bad it only took six bottles of the B.B.B. to make a thorough cure. Indeed, so lasting and permanent has the cure been, that during these past five years since I was cured there has been not the slightest sign of the disease returning. I believe that B.B.B. has driven it so completely out of my system that it will never bother me again.

"I always praise B.B.B. as the best remedy for any skin or blood disease, and I firmly believe that if it could cure a case of Salt Rheum as bad, and as of many years standing as mine, that it can cure sores or skin disease of any kind."

EDWARD WHITE.

And the permanency of the cure is corroborated by well known fellow citizens of Mr. White.

This is to certify that we have known Mr. E. White for a number of years past and believe his statements with reference to his cure to be true in every particular and are aware that he has had no return of the Salt Rheum since he was cured some years ago by Burdock Blood Bitters.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

LACROSSE.

Although the weather was threatening a large number of players were out at practice last evening.

Jack McCabe is showing up in great form. He seems tireless this year and is covering a great deal of ground.

The juniors have made a find in Boyle, as a goal keeper. His work was much liked last night.

McClelland is playing in great form and will make a strong bid for a place on the senior team.

Hollingshead has a cinch on the position of outside home and will, without a doubt be picked for that place on the 24th.

The Hastings team is coming up on the Queen's Birthday confident of beating out the seniors. If they succeed they will win the Junior Championship in a canter, and, if they don't, they may win it anyway.

Lindsay has a strapping big team and the local juniors will have their work cut out for them over there on the 24th.

Reports come in from Markham, Georgetown and Brampton, that the teams of those places are getting in the pink of condition for the league struggle. The Peterboroughs are also training hard and keeping good hours. Most of the boys have given up smoking for the summer and consequently should soon round into shape Everything depends upon training. The Peterboroughs now have a team fit for any company, if the members of it will but keep in shape. It does not take much to impair a player's wind and without wind he is worse than useless in a match.

Jimmy McCabe is one of the most conscientious players on the team. He takes care of himself and as a result comes off the field after a match perfectly fresh.

Joe Begley will field captain the seniors on the 24th.

It is altogether probable that Geordie Lipsett will be found at his old place at inside home against Hastings. He used to play that position to perfection a couple of years ago.

Oscar Dumble is the makings of a fast man for the juniors. He is as hard a worker as McClelland in the field.

Jack Comstock should make a good man at cover point or first defence for the Lindsay match.

It is expected that every man who handles a stick will be out to practice on Monday evening.

Hughes is fast getting back into his old form and will astonish a few of the best of them this summer. He will probably play either first or second defence.

Both teams will select their captains on Monday night and the two twelves that will play on the 24th will also be picked.

THE TURF.

Some great race horses will go out on the circuits from Peterborough this year and just now there is many an afternoon's fun down at the Driving Park, whilst the fast ones are being worked out. When the weather is fine there is not a day passes without an exciting finish taking place, although the greatest interest lies in catching the time from the quarter pole. Billy Sherin is handling Furioso and Hazel B. and both of them are stepping nicely. Only the outside of the track can be used, but it is claimed that Furioso spun off a half at a .21 clip last week. Dr. Johnston has Fleetwings, Errett and Bilma J. in his string and between the first named and Furioso there is many an interesting brush. The two latter named horses of the doctors are both green, but the mare in following up Hazel B. a few days ago, finished only a few lengths behind, whilst Hazel B. covered the distance in 2.45. Errett is a good horse and is coming on so well in his work that, although he was never in a race in his life it will take a horse who can step in .35 to beat him. Mr. Nelson is working our Cadillac and two others of which he has great hopes. A brown horse which at present has no mark and is eligible for the three minute class stepped his mile in .32 on the ice last winter, and should be able to trot in .27 before the summer is over. If he turns out well he should land more than one purse for his owner this season.

BASEBALL.

Owing to the very wet evenings this week, the advance in baseball has been somewhat retarded although a good many of the boys have taken advantage of the fine afternoons and indulged in considerable practice. Of course the boys have their work cut out for them on the 24th as the Delawares are reputed to be one of the best amateur teams in the province, and as baseball has been somewhat on the decline of late years in Peterborough, the people may have their doubts as to the result of the game. There are some dark horses among the local ball tossers however, and those who will have an opportunity of witnessing the game on the morning of the 24th, can depend on the local boys giving a good account of themselves. There have been no more challenges coming in this week but the management have enough on hand to keep it busy arranging dates for the entire season.

SCRATCHED TILL RAW

Eczema on Leg from Knee to Toe. No Rest Day or Night. Doctors, Salves, etc., Could Not Cure.

CUTICURA REMEDIES CURED

About three years ago my husband's legs, from the knee down to his toes, were red and itching with Eczema. He had no rest day or night, and would scratch all the time, so his legs would be raw. He had a good many doctors. They told him there was nothing wrong with his blood, and they gave him salve and other things to rub on. He had about a peck of bottles and boxes of salve and none of them did him any good. He worried that way about one year, and gave the doctors quite a lot of money. I told him one day the trouble was all in his blood, and told him to try CUTICURA remedies. He went that instant and got CUTICURA SOAP, CUTICURA (ointment), and CUTICURA RESOLVENT. That night he rested well, and kept getting better until he was cured, and it has not returned since.

ECZEMA ON BABY 8 MONTHS CURED BY CUTICURA

A friend of mine, Mrs. Staples, has a child two years old, whose almost entire face and head was covered with a mass of sores, which she had had for eight months. The doctors pronounced it Eczema, but did not relieve her any. She would scratch until the blood would run. I told her to get CUTICURA, and she did so, purchasing two boxes of CUTICURA (ointment) and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and the child is well now.

MRS. H. JENKINS, Box 147, Middleboro, Ky.

In all the world there is no other treatment so pure, so sweet, so speedily effective for distressing skin humors of infants and children as CUTICURA remedies, greatest of skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies. Warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, and gentle anointings with CUTICURA, purest of emollient skin cures, will afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure, when the best physicians, hospitals, and all else fail.

WORSE THAN YELLOW FEVER

Kidney Disease, Man's Deadliest Foe —Dodd's Kidney Pills Its Only Cure.

Toronto, May 15. — "Yellow fever and smallpox combined do not kill as many people as Kidney Disease does." was the assertion of a prominent physician, recently.

The assertion is fully borne out by facts, and were it not that there is a means of checking and curing Kidney disease the number of its victims would be trebled.

But the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills keeps the death rate from this complaint quite low compared to its former height.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were used in every case of Kidney Disease there would be no deaths from it.

FRED KEARNS IN TROUBLE.

He Tried to Pick a Till and was Caught in the Act.

There was considerable excitement for a few minutes on Saturday night in front of the Examiner office. About half past eight o'clock, Fred Kearns, a boy 11 years of age, but apparently much older in vice, entered the confectionery store of Mr. James Long, and while Mr. Long was engaged at the rear end of the store, young Kearns it is alleged, attempted to rob the till. In his endeavour to do so, however, he pulled the drawer out too far, letting it fall on the floor, thereby drawing the attention of the proprietor of the shop to the bold act. Mr. Long immediately started after the daring youngster, up George street, and was soon followed by a gang of boys, who surrounded the lad and tried to facilitate his escape but Mr. Long seized him and forced him into Mr. W. H. Wrighton's store, where he was detained until the arrival of P. C. McGinty, a few minutes later, when Kearns was placed under arrest. He was brought to the police station and at a special sitting of the court, was remanded by Magistrate Dumble until Friday next.

In connection with the arrest of young Kearns, Mr. Long states that a misunderstanding exists among a great many as to the real facts of the case. It had been reported on the streets that young Kearns had only stolen a stick of gum, which was the cause of his arrest. Mr. Long states that he is certain that an attempt was being made to "pick" the till by Kearns, and had it been only a matter of a stick of gum, as reported, he would have let the matter drop.

Young Kearns, it might be stated, is not a stranger in the police court, as only last winter he was up before the magistrate with a number of others for robbing a store on McDonel street. He was let go with a warning but it appears that it will require more than a warning to make Kearns mend his ways.

G. T. R. SECTION HANDS ARE OUT ON STRIKE.

THE MEN FROM ST. CLAIR RIVER EAST ARE OUT.

They Demand an Advance of 25c a Day in Wages—Rumours of the Engineers and Firemen Joining the Strikers.

At seven o'clock this morning the section gangs on this division of the Grand Trunk went out on strike, and handing in their switch keys to the local agent, Mr. F. Sandy, telegraphed the roadmasters stating that they would not resume work until certain matters had been settled between the management and themselves.

The strike is not local by any means but extends along the whole line of the Grand Trunk from the St. Clair river east.

The men have been kept constantly informed by circular regarding the result of certain interviews between a committee and the management of the road in respect to an advance in wages, and on Saturday the fiat went forth that, as the advance in wages which the men asked was refused, all the section hands should abandon work until further orders.

At present the section men and track hands receive $1 per day and the foremen $1.50. An advance of 25 cents per day is asked for each.

The final circular reads as follows:

Montreal, May 18th, '99.

Dear Brothers — One more letter and the last for this week—possibly the last till we have the pleasure of telling you that, thanks to your firm stand, we have made a satisfactory settlement with our management.

And we write this to ask that every gang fulfill their promise to see us to the end, and we hope not one man, not even the few who have not yet joined the Order, will work one hour when the morning comes to quit. Unless you get the word wired you which Chairman Pole has sent us, all will quit on the morning set.

Then on that morning let every foreman lock his tool house, and give key to the agent or operator, also his switch key, and wire his road master he is not on duty, and won't be till the Executive Committee in Montreal, at the St. James Hotel, make a satisfactory settlement with Mr. Hays. In case there is no telegraph office, write by first mail or go to next office and wire roadmaster.

Also notify any engine and train crews which are running, that we are not on duty, and will not be till Committee of Management settle the trouble, and if they run they do so at their own risk.

Having done this consider yourself a Vigilance or Picket Committee, to notify any "scabs" should any turn up, that we are out for more pay, and persuade them to turn out also. Or get the neighbours to do this for you, and if they persist in staying, let the boarding-house keepers know they are trying to hurt your chances. Also if there be any extra gang working near you, if they turn out, good, but, at any rate, advise them of the turn out, and ask them not to do section work, or take any foreman's place. We are fighting the battle of the temporary men, as well as the permanent men, and gain to us will be gain all round.

Also, Brothers, don't be misled by the reports which you will get, no doubt, and lots of them, that "You are the men off work," "So-and-So's Division are all at work." All these stories will be given in plenty, but take no stock in them. We will get daily reports from all over, and will try to convince you we are the best organized men on the G.T.R. system to-day, and each meeting tells of men joining, because they say — "We see you mean business."

Don't believe the papers either. You know many of them are in the pay of the Company, and as many of them as they can influence will work against us in the way of printing discouraging reports. Be sure of this, as long as they are trying to get you to go back to work things are going O. K. for us.

And don't go back to work any way, even if they promise you the full amount of every clause of our schedule until you are notified by your Committee — UNDERSTAND THIS CLEARLY. If you go back, say on the promise of the full 25 cents per day all round, but we have got no contract with Mr. Hays or Mr. McGuigan, then any day a letter from your roadmaster notifies you of a reduction to the old thing, and our whole trouble is lost.

Brothers, the proper thing for you to do is to resist all proposals firmly, from first to last; refer them to your Committee, and let us get the signature of Mr. Hays or Mr. McGuigan to a contract, stating not only the amount, but the term for which the contract will continue.

Brothers, we can say no more. The case is now in your own hands, and we are satisfied you will win the fight.

And in this trust of yours and our righteous cause, we say God speed the right.

We are yours fraternally,
WM. POLE, Chairman.
J. HARRIS, Secretary.
G.T.R. Executive Com.

The magnitude of the strike can be estimated from the fact that a section gang is composed of four men and a section only extends over four or five miles of track, which is constantly patrolled.

It is claimed by the strikers that if no settlement be reached by Wednesday, the engineers and firemen will go out on strike also.

Mr. F. Sandy, the local agent of the G.T.R., states that the strikers on this section are behaving in a most orderly manner. He has received no instructions from headquarters in regard to the matter.

THE OLD COBOURG AND PETERBOROUGH RAILWAY.

Some Interesting Reminescences of that Ill-Fated Undertaking.

A gentleman, whilst taking a stroll a short time since in the southern portion of Ashburnham, had his attention directed to canal navvies excavating through the embankment of the Old Cobourg and Peterborough Railway, and being in an enquiring frame of mind, endeavoured to obtain some information regarding that ill-fated and now abandoned railway. The history of that undertaking dates back for almost half a century.

Since 1860, the railway with its broad-guage track of 5 feet, 6 in., its huge embankments, its rusting irons, and emtpy and deserted station grounds, remain silent monuments of the mutability of human hopes.

According to Poole's "Early Settlement," a charter was obtained for a railway from Cobourg to Peterborough in 1852, being one of the first railway charters granted in Ontario, and the same authority says that the road was pushed through by Cobourg, in spite of all opposition, and opened for traffic in the autumn of 1854, forty-five years ago. Peterborough refused to grant the slightest aid.

A railway was also at the same time being built northward from Port Hope, this town being the objective point, but Peterborough refusing to grant any assistance to this company either, the promoters built their line to Lindsay. However, a change in the directorate of that road occurring, negotiations were set on foot to build a branch from Millbrook to this town, and thus secure some of the trade that was going to Cobourg. Port Hope subscribed £10,000 stock, and the town of Peterborough relented to the tune of £30,000. This branch was opened for traffic in May, 1858.

As is well known the Cobourg Railway crossed Rice Lake by a bridge 3 miles in length, and from the first this bridge was a source of difficulty to the company, and eventually caused the abandonment of the road. During the winters of 1855 to 1857 the action of the ice played such havock with the structure that steps were taken to put a permanent embankment across a considerable portion of the lake, but the great cost of this, some $150,000, proved too big a load for the company. The railway from Rice Lake to Peterborough was abandoned in the fall of 1860, a few months after the Prince of Wales journeyed over it and paid his memorable visit to this town.

Though the railway was in operation but a few years it had a most decided effect in the trade of the town. Peterborough at that period had a population of about 3,000, and in the advent of the iron horse, the exports exceeded the imports to such an extent as to leave a balance of trade amounting to at least half a millions of dollars a year. In lumber alone, 12 to 16 million feet were shipped yearly over the line, besides considerable quantities of flour, wheat, wood, etc.

The line from Harwood south has also had a chequered career, trains being run spasmodically over the road. At present the Grand Trunk use it as a siding for their rolling stock. Much the same may be said for the line from this town to Chemong—the spirit of misfortune apparently resting over the railway from one end to the other. The enterprise of the people of Cobourg was deserving of a better fate.

BOUND TO FIND FAULT.

The function of opposition is hardly fully understood, or at least, if so, the understanding is not acted upon. While it is proper to criticise the Government of the day, an opposition is charged with the duty of even supporting and aiding the Government in cases where the general good of the country is to be promoted. But the organs of the present Opposition in the House of Commons and many of the members act as if they held that it was the duty of the Opposition to find fault, anyway, regardless of whether any grounds exist, and to do everything possible to embarass and harass the government in its efforts to govern the country.

A notable example of this is found in the "scare heading" of the Toronto World's report of the introduction of the Redistribution Bill in the House on Friday last. The first line, in big capitals nearly an inch deep, declares: "Liberals now Juggling with Canada's Franchise." Wherein does the "juggling" consist? What the Redistribution Bill proposes is to restore the county boundaries in constituencies and place municipalities where they belong. This is simply undoing what was done by the Conservative gerrymander of 1882, when the Conservative party wrenched townships from their counties and tacked them on to others for the purpose, at least, with the effect, of giving the Conservative party a tremenduously unfair advantage by constituting ridings sure to return a Tory member and creating ridings with absurdly large proportions of Liberals voters—"hiving the Grits." The present bill simply restores the status quo. Is there any "juggling" in that? If there is it is only the undoing of the juggling perpetrated by the Conservative Government.

The next line of the World's heading says, "Sir Wilfrid Laurier springs the Government Redistribution Bill on the Commons on the eve of a Holiday." What are the facts? The announcement was made some time ago that the bill would be brought down last week, and the Liberal Government, being in the habit of keeping its word, the bill was brought down. What becomes then of the implied accusation of taking the Opposition at a disadvantage by unexpectedly "springing" the bill? It becomes what the whole trend of the World's heading is, mere buncombe and claptrap, which is further shown by the advantage of having the bill submitted on "the eve of the holiday." Members will now have several days of quiet to digest the bill, in order to give, if they so desire, intelligent criticism of it, which many of them condemned before they had time to read it, and many, as in the case of the Mail and Empire and other unscrupulous Opposition hacks, before they knew a line of its contents. This condemnation without consideration is more buncombe and claptrap.

The next line in this "big-head" says, "Many provisions are made as to honesty of elections, but the political hand deals the hat, while the judiciary will do the clerical work." The Opposition clamoured for the appointment of judges to do this work; this has been done and now this very act is made an offence. The bill defines the boundaries of ridings or at least restores the county boundaries and the judges are left the work of equalizing the representation. Where is the fault to find with that unless a contract is taken to find fault and the goods must be delivered in some shape?

"Toronto gets a bad turn-down because it is Conservative," is another line of the World's heading. The World and other organs want eight representatives for Toronto, and it is quite justified in its demand. With four representatives now, the city has great trouble in finding a member in his seat at Ottawa, and the same trouble exists in the Ontario Legislature. If the city had eight members for the Commons, it might stand a better chance of finding at least one or two members in their seats in the House working after the city's interests. Certainly Toronto ought to have eight members so that once in a while during the session the city might be represented on the floor of the House. The bill is a fair bill, an honest bill, simply doing justice, in restoring county boundaries to the position they occupied before the Conservatives gerrymandered, the province of Ontario, especially, out of shape. Whatever way the World and its political pals look at the new redistribution bill, they see nothing but wrong, all wrong and nothing but wrong in it. In effect, nothing the Government can do, no matter how much it is in the country's interest, is right. If the Government takes one course or does one thing, it is condemned; if it does not take such a course and dosen't do such a thing, it is equally condemned. In a word, the Opposition applies to the Government the spirit of the old theological saw—"you'll be damned if you do, and you'll be damned if you don't."

EDITORIAL NOTES

There may be says the Toronto Telegram, force in Sir Hibbert Tupper's objection to the way in which Hon. Clifford Sifton spent public money in the attempt to expose electoral crimes in Manitoba. There seems to be no force at all in his objection to the expenditure of public money for such a purpose. Money appropriated to the protection of the public right to an honest vote and a fair count is always wisely used. Sir Hibbert Tupper may be able to show that Mr. Sifton erred in the details of the expenditure, but the government will have no trouble at all in justifying the expenditure on principle.

The Catholic Register, strongly Conservative in sympathy, says: "Why should Sir Charles Tupper, or for that matter any member of the Conservative party at Ottawa to-day, undertake to deride Mr. Costigan as a political deserter? Both the attiude of Mr. Costigan and the ill-will of his backbiters can be fairly estimated only when this question has been answered; and answered in a manner that will find warrant in the history of the year 1895-6. Where, let us ask, did the practice of desertion from the Conservative party begin? And with whom? If we mistake not it began with Mr. N. Clarke Wallace, with whom Sir Charles Tupper to-day goes as a pal, so to speak. Mr. Wallace's methods were soon copied and improved upon by Mr. Foster, Sir C. H. Tupper, A. R. Dickey, Dr. Montague, Mr. Haggart and a few others; and the people of Canada had such an object lession in political trechery as will not soon be forgotten by them. But the point we wish to arrive at is this: "Where are the men to-day who in 1895-6 stood faithful to the Premier, who was the personal object of the conspiracy promoted by Mr. Foster? Can Sir Charles Tupper claim that any of them are Conservatives, if active co-operation with the party which he leads be the true test of Conservative fidelity?

CANADA'S GOOD FRIEND.

Kindly, thoughtful Lord Aberdeen, our former Governor-General, has evidently not forgotten Canada. During his term of office, he evinced great interest in this country's prosperity, and many of the best institutions in the Dominion owe a big debt of gratitude to Lord Aberdeen and his estimable wife. Their regime was distinguished by public and private usefulness, and their departure was the occasion for deep and earnest regret. He has recently had an opportunity to redeem his promise to remain the friend of Canada, and across the wide Atlantic comes the pleasing intelligence that in discussing the subject of the proposed Pacific cable, the former Governor-General of Canada maintained that the conditions imposed by the Imperial Government were unduly stringent, and he pleaded for greater generosity in dealing with the colonies of the British Empire. Good wishes followed Lord Aberdeen on his departure from our shores, and, at this recent proof of his regard for us, Canadians will, with one voice, express gratitude: "My lord, for your many courtesies, we thank you."

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

Breezy Items from the Otonabee and Rice Lake Ports.

The steamer Beaver, is expected to commence work next week.

The Caneo Club promoters state that they will re-organize early next week without fail.

The water in the Otonabee has taken a rise in the last day or two, owing to the recent rain.

Mr. Harry Humpries, of Ashpodel township, has been appointed Fishery Overseer for the River Trent and tributaries between Rice Lake and Trent Bridge and Mr. Samuel McGill, of Lindsay, has been appointed Overseer for the townships of Emily, Ops and Maraposa, with joint jurisdictions over Lake Scugog.

The North Star has an excursion from Hastings to Gore's Landing on May 24th, when she will bring up the Norwood football team. On June 2nd, she will bring up the Orangemen from Webb's Landing at the head of the Trent to Peterborough. George Johnston, who for many years was engineer on the City of Peterborough, has been engaged as engineer for the Star.

There is going to be a "hot old time" at Gore's Landing on May 24th, which will no doubt attract people from all along the lake. As everyone knows, Gore's Landing is one of the most attractive spot on the shores of Rice Lake and with its elegant new hotel, it has ample accommodation for the many people who take an outing there. The Queen's birthday is going to be celebrated in royal good style, with a grand football match between the Norwood boys and the Gore's Landing team. In the evening a concert will be given in aid of the football team.

The Star will very shortly undergo extensive repairs, although improvements have been gradually taking place on her for some time. She has been recently painted inside and a great many other improvements have been made. Within the course of a few weeks the Star will be hauled out of the water at Peterborough, when a grand new compound engine will be placed in her. The engine is being built by Colston, the well known marine engine maker of Toronto. New shafting will also be put in the boat and it is expected she will be the fastest on Rice Lake waters.

Dr. Willis cottage at Muskrat Landing is about completed and is the most unique thing of its kind to be found anywhere. The Doctor, who is an American, has been a yearly visitor to the Otonabee for many years and at last decided to erect a summer residence of his own. It is by no means modern in its architecture, but is built of logs, bark and all other such material that had been used by the aboriginies. It has a huge stone fireplace which cost a good deal to construct. The Doctor in selecting Muskrat Landing as a building site, chose one of the prettiest spots on the river.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. ARBITRATION.

This May Be the Civilized Method of Settling the Difficult Alaskan Boundary Question—News From London.

New York, May 22.—The Washington correspondent of The Journal says: "Ambassador Choate and Lord Salisbury have reached the agreement that the Alaskan boundary question shall be settled by arbitration. This decision has been cabled to the State Department, practically approved by it, and the President's approval, expected on Monday, is all that is required to send this question on a fair road to permanent adjudication.

"The question has been acute during the last few days, and Lord Salisbury is understood to have informed the State Department in effect that Canada's attitude was so antagonistic to a settlement by the Mother Country and the United States that a binding agreement could be expected only in some other way. It is understood that Lord Salisbury suggested the scheme of arbitration as the rational method out of the trouble.

"The plan for selection of arbitrators will presumably be the same as that in the British-Venezuelan boundary controversy. The personnel of the board will be announced when further details have been arranged."

Relieving Alaskan Soldiers.

Washington, May 22.—The War Department has turned over to General Shafter complete direction of all military affairs in Alaska. The only general instructions sent to him have been to relieve the soldiers stationed in Alaska by fresh troops, it being deemed unwise to attempt to retain men in that climate for more than a year at a time. Therefore, two companies of the 14th Infantry, now divided up among Dyea, Skaguay and Wrangel Island, are ordered to be withdrawn and sent to the Philippines. The same order is given to a detachment of the 3rd Artillery and the 18th Infantry, now stationed at St. Michael's, near the mouth of the Yukon.

The movements of troops involved in making these changes has attracted the attention of the British authorities, who are naturally sensitive as to the presence of American troops within that part of the territory, the title to which is in dispute.

Col. P. H. Ray is the officer charged with executing the details of movements in Alaska, and he will be advised on his arrival at San Francisco of the diplomatic conditions which are to govern him.

Speculation in London.

London, May 22.—A despatch from Washington, to the effect that the resumption of the Anglo-American joint high commission's sessions depends on a settlement of the Alaskan boundary dispute, has been prominently published in this city. It was added that the matter has been discussed in the most conciliatory spirit on both sides.

The newspapers here express regret at the fact that the Alaskan dispute has grown more acute at a time when the relations between the two countries are so cordial, and the news that the conference will probably be resumed in the fall has given satisfaction.

The Globe, commenting on the sending of American troops to Alaska, says:

"Pending the meeting of the conference, the first step to be taken after the preliminaries are settled will be to arrange a modus vivendi, and no time must be lost in doing this if the situation is not to be lamentably complicated by a conflict which will make the final settlement more difficult than ever."

NO LIVES WERE LOST

But the American Liner Paris Will Be a Total Wreck.

STRANDED ON THE MANACLES.

The Big Steamship, Carrying 380 Passengers, Lies Near the Scene of the Mohegan Wreck—The Ship Badly Out of Her Course—Only 900 Yards From Shore.

Falmouth, Eng., May 22.—The American Line steamer Paris, Captain Watkins, from Southampton and Cherbourg for New York, struck on an outlying ridge of the Manacles ear'y yesterday morning at a point half a mile from where the wrecked Atlantic Transport Liner Mohegan lies. The Paris, which sailed from Southampton Saturday, called at Cherbourg and picked up 50 passengers. She left Cherbourg at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. Soon after 1 o'clock yesterday morning at high tide and in a dense fog she ran ashore.

From the first there was no danger. Lifeboats and tugs were soon literally swarming around the vessel to render assistance. A majority of the passengers, who numbered 380, were brought to Falmouth, where they obtained lodgings for the night.

The first intimation of the vessel's striking the rocks was a slight grating sound, which was followed by a second and more pronounced shock. The lookout shouted that there was something looming up ahead, but before there was time to reverse the engines the ship had gone on the rocks, 200 yards from shore. Assistance was summoned by means of rockets, and the coast guards promptly telephoned to the lifeboat station for boats.

All the passengers were transferred to the tug Dragon, but beyond the clothes they wore they took nothing with them. They were landed at Falmouth shortly after 7 o'clock, the local agents of the American Line meeting them and providing them with every care and quartering them at the various hotels and the Sailor's Home.

When the Paris struck the tide was within an hour of the flood, and this proved insufficient to raise her off the rocks.

It is said that a Falmouth pilot boat showed a warning signal to the Paris, telling the captain that he would put the vessel on top of the Mohegan if he did not alter the course of the ship. The warning, however, came too late, and the Paris struck on a ridge to the westward of the Manacles.

The scene of the wreck is about five miles from Falmouth. It is stated that those in charge of the Paris were so perfectly confident that they were pursuing the proper course that the vessel was steaming 18 or 19 knots an hour when they struck.

Last night the Paris was lying in much the same position as when she struck, her bow being about 150 yards from the shore, and her stern about 200.

Plymouth, May 22.—The Admiralty has sent several fast Government vessels from Davenport to assist the Paris, which, it is reported, will probably be a total wreck. Among the vessels sent to the assistance of the stranded steamer is a gunboat, and Admiral Sir Edmund Robert Fremantle, commander-in-chief at Plymouth, has ordered a number of torpedo boat destroyers to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to the scene of the wreck at a moment's notice.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.

This is plain because every organ in the body depends on the stomach for its nourishment. Nerve, bone, sinew and blood are made from the food which the stomach converts to our use.

How useless to treat disease with this, that and the other remedy and neglect the most important of all, the stomach.

The earliest symptoms of indigestion are sour risings, bad taste in the mouth, gas in stomach and bowels, palpitation, all-gone feeling, faintness, headaches, constipation; later comes loss of flesh, consumption, liver and heart troubles, kidney diseases, nervous prostration, all of which are the indirect result of poor nutrition.

Any person suffering from indigestion should make it a practice to take after each meal one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, allowing it to dissolve in the mouth and thus mingle with the saliva and enter the stomach in the most natural way. These tablets are highly recommended by Dr. Jennison because they are composed of the natural digestive acids and fruit essences which assist the stomach in digesting all wholesome food before it has time to ferment and sour.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists, full sized packages at 50 cents. They are also excellent for invalids and children. A book on stomach diseases and thousands of testimonials of genuine cures sent free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

TWO AMERICANS WOUNDED.

The Expedition Up the Rio Grande Had No Pleasure Trip.

Manila, May 22.—The expedition up the Rio Grande River met with resistance at the outskirts of San Luis on Saturday, where several hundred Filipinos were entrenched on the banks of the stream. The rebels retreated beyond Candaba, and the gunboats steamed ahead, all the way training their Gatling guns upon the banks and dropping shells wherever uniforms appeared on the shore. The gunboats dispersed the insurgents before San Luis.

After they had passed, sharpshooters from trees across the river, a hundred yards distant, harassed the 17th Infantry, which was marching by fours along the narrow wooded road, from which the troops were unable to see the enemy. The members of one battalion laid on their faces in the road for a quarter of an hour, trying to locate the riflemen and return their fire. Two Americans were wounded.

Filipinos Called on Otis.

Manila, May 22.—The Filipino commissioners called on Major-General Otis on Saturday afternoon and arranged to meet the members of the American commission to-day, when they expect their colleagues will have arrived.

WORSE THAN YELLOW FEVER

Kidney Disease, Man's Deadliest Foe—Dodd's Kidney Pills Its Only Cure.

Toronto, May 15. — "Yellow fever and smallpox combined do not kill as many people as Kidney Disease does." was the assertion of a prominent physician, recently.

The assertion is fully borne out by facts, and were it not that there is a means of checking and curing Kidney disease the number of its victims would be trebled.

But the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills keeps the death rate from this complaint quite low compared to its former height.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were used in every case of Kidney Disease there would be no deaths from it.

FENCES BEING BUILT FOR THE STOCKYARDS.

H. P. KENNEDY GOING ON WITH THE WORK.

The Council Asks the Commissioners to Cancel the Lease and Forbid Mr. Kennedy Going Farther.

At a special meeting of the Council held on Saturday evening, there were in attendance Mayor Davis and Aldermen McWilliams, Denne, Neill, Corkery, Langford, Best and Sawers.

A deputation from the south ward was present, consisting of ex-Councillore W. H. White and C. B. Robertson and a number of others.

Mayor Davis stated that the members of the Council felt indignant at the action of the Town Trust Commissioners in overriding the decision of the council in regard to their refusal to allow Mr. H. P. Kennedy to establish stock yards on the town lot in the south end. He asked for suggestions as to any way in which the commissioners action could be nullified.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, who was present on behalf of those protesting against the stock yards, stated that as as extreme measure the council, he thought, was possessed of power to pass a by-law prohibiting the establishment of stock or feeding yards with the corporation.

Alderman Best stated that he understood the lease of the yards had not yet been signed.

Mr. Dennistoun informed the council that Mr. Kennedy had already began to fence in the yards.

Alderman McWilliams explained that there had been drawn. The first had been signed by Mr. Kennedy and not the commissioners and the second by the commissioners but not Mr. Kennedy. It was a question though, whether or not they might still be binding on commissioners. Mr. James Stevenson had agreed to call a meeting of the commissioners on Monday evening to reconsider the granting of the lease, but he had not done so. The latter had stated to some of the people in the south end that he was opposed to the granting of the lease, but that Mr. R. S. Davidson favoured it. When Mr. Davidson heard of this remark he tried to meet Mr. Stevenson with the gentlemen to whom he spoke, but Mr. Stevenson would nt meet them. The council ought to serve an injunction to stop Mr. Kennedy proceeding with the work until some settlement of the question was reached. It was a very high-handed act of the commissioners to attempt to override the wish of the council and of the ratepayers in the matter.

Two Leases

Mr. Dennistoun stated that at the recent public meeting held by the ratepayers of the south end, Mr. R. S. Davidson had said that a clause of the lease bound Mr. Kennedy to leave on three months notice. The speaker suggested that the commissioners be requested to give that three months notice now. Mr. Kennedy would hardly erect buildings if he had to leave in three months.

Alderman Neill stated that the council was unanimous in opposing the establishment of the cattle yards on that particular lot. He thought if the commissioners and the council met, the matter could be quickly settled.

Aldermen McWilliams and Neill moved, that the commissioners be requested to Mr. Kennedy of the termination of the lease, if one had been given, and if they do not comply, that they be asked to meet the council on Monday evening and that the chairman of the commissioners be requested to notify Mr. Kennedy to do no further work in the lot.—Carried.

To Give Notice

On motion of Aldermen Langford and Neill, the town will apply to the commissioners for a lease of the lot in order to avoid any further trouble.

The matter of beginning the repairs on the streets with the new road roller was then taken up and Alderman McWilliams suggested that Hunter street between the post office and the river be experimented with first, as it was in a very bad condition.

A long discussion ensued between Alderman Best and Alderman Langford as to the best method of road-making, the former stating that it was necessary to excavate and lay a foundation of unbroken stone for a foundation, whilst Alderman Langford held that the subsoil on many of the streets was composed of a gravelly substance which was firm enough to sustain a top dressing of broken stone, without a foundation being necessary.

Mayor Davis settled the matter by stating that the council did not have the necessary funds to go extensively [illegible] this year and consequently Alderman Langford's ideas would have to be followed for the present.

On motion of Aldermen Denne and McWilliams [illegible] dollar [illegible] Work [illegible] afternoon on Hunter street between the post office and the river.

On Alderman Denne's suggestion a notification will be sent to the companies owning poles on the streets where the granolithic pavements are to be laid, requesting them to move the same beyond the line of the walks.

Town Engineer Hay asked if any movement had been made in regard to passing a by-law in regard to the adoption of broad tires.

On motion of Aldermen Neill and Denne, the question was referred to the Joint Committee of the town and county council to deal with at the June meeting of the latter.

Aldermen McWilliams and Langford moved that a by-law be prepared extending the fire limits from Water street west, to the west side of lot 1, west of George street, from London street north to Dublin street. Carried.

Alderman Langford introduced the matter of the establishment of a House of Refuge and the matter was discussed to some length, the members leaning to the opinion that it would be to the advantage of the council to pay the Peterborough Protestant Home and the St. Joseph's House of Refuge, a stated sum per week for the keep of those deserving the town's charity to this extent.

A fine new building is being erected on St. Joseph Hospital grounds for the House of Refuge connected with that institution and if larger premises are secured for the Peterborough Protestant Home, the poor of the town should be well looked after. The question will take some definite form at Monday evening's meeting of the council.

THE STONE CRUSHER SITUATION EXPLAINED.

INTERESTING INTERVIEW WITH ALDERMAN DAVIDSON.

The Situation Placed in its True Light—Even the Corporation Cannot be Independent.

In connection with Mr. Alderman Davidson's resignation of his seat at the Council Board the Examiner interviewed him this morning.

"Mr. Davidson, there seems to be some misunderstanding with regard to yourself and the Council in connection with the loaning of the stone crusher to Corry & Laverdure when it had previously been refused to the Light and Power and Dickson Company. Have you any objection to explaining your position in the matter more fully than your letter to the Council defines it?"

"No; I have no objection to explaining my position, which is simply this. There seems to be an impression that the loan of the stone crusher was refused to the Dickson Company. The Dickson Company never applied for the loan of the stone crusher. Mr. Poussette, in the name of the Light and Power Company, applied for the crusher in the interests of Mr. Edward Wade, who has a contract with one of these companies. While some of the Aldermen were favourably disposed to meet the wishes of the Light and Power Company, they declined Mr. Poussette's proposition, which was that the town was to loan the crusher to the Light and Power Company conditional upon the Company supplying power for the operation of the crusher on the Dickson Company's race. The town declined this proposition largely because it required the crusher for breaking about forty cords of stone for granolithic walks, and in the grinding of the forty cords on the raceway there would be about thirty cords of small broken stone and ten cords of finer metal. The town would then have been at the expense of paying for teaming the thirty cords to the town yards, there being no streets now ready for placing them. The Council moreover, did not feel that any of the power companies had ever put themselves to any great expense or inconvenience to accommodate the town. Now, as a matter of fact, Corry & Laverdure asked me for the machine. It had been standing still owing to lack of power, the Light and Power Company being unable to supply power in face of an agrrement with the Auburn Company, and the latter being indisposed to do so on account of expense of connection —involving new poles, etc. The town's new steam road roller has about thirty horse power. It is here now with a man to take charge of it, but it requires about ten days testing upon the streets in charge of the Harrisburg Company's man before it will be accepted by the town. Corry & Laverdure only wanted the machine for four days and they were to pay $40 for its use that number of days, and they were to return the machine to the town yards or where the town required. Corry & Laverdure have spent over $200,000 in or near the town; last winter over $17,000 were spent upon teaming and sand. They also buy all their supplies in town that the town can furnish and it seems to me to be a very small matter for the town to decline the loan of a machine that was standing idle when absolute security was given for payment for its use and its return to where the town wished to have it placed in good condition, especially when the contractors had used every effort to get a similar machine elsewhere, to meet an emergency and to prevent a cessation of work and the the throwing of a large number of men out of employment, which the failure to get a crusher actually did.

"The impression seems to be in some quarters, Mr. Davidson, that you had interested motives in loaning the crusher."

"That is not the case, in the way that is meant. All the interest I had was in accommodating a firm that was employing a lot of labour and spending a lot of money near and in the town. The machine was standing idle, the contractors wanted it, they were bound to pay $40 for its use for four days and return it in good condition, and I felt that I was quite justified, as chairman of the Board of Works in loaning it. I just did what I would do in my own privaet business and I accept the responsibility, and I do not propose to shirk it and do street corner talking which does not become the responsibilities of an Alderman."

"What about the resolution of the council, refusing to loan the crusher to others?"

"There was such a resolution; but the laws of the town are not built on the plan of the laws of the Medes and Persians. Hardly any law or regulation can be made but may have to be modified by circumstances. The town is passing a non-intercourse resolution like that you speak of, should to be consistent, live up to the motto, "If I don't lend, I won't borrow.' This spring when all our culverts were frozen up and the water was flooding the streets, I borrowed the Water Co's. engine to thaw them out. The engine was willingly loaned free of charge and its use was a great accommodation to the town. This spring Alderman Langford, as chairman of the Parks Committee, borrowed a roller from Mr. Richard Hall for rolling the parks. It was given free of cost and was a great accommodation to the town, and Mr. Langford would doubtless have been very indignant if Mr. Hall had refused the loan of the roller. If the town is prepared to take the one-sided position to borrow but never lend, they had better adopt the decision of the old woman who, having used borrowed tubs all her life, after she at last got one of her own, declared, "now I will neither borrow nor lend."

THE "REVIEW" REVIEWED.

MR. McWILLIAMS FLATLY DENIES ITS STATEMENTS.

"Anything to Hurt Hardy" Won't Do When Facts are in the Way—Our Back-Door Contemporary Runs Against a Saw Log and has a Hole Punched in its Cockle Shell Concoction

Mr. J. B. McWilliams, Superintendent of Woods and Forests for the Province of Ontario, has returned to Peterborough after a visit to the north shore in connection with the operations of the new law which prohibits the export of logs in an unmanufactured condition. The Examiner interviewed Mr. McWilliams in reference to his trip, and he states that the Americans have not made any attempt to take logs across to Michigan this season, nor are they in a position to do so even if they contemplated such action. Every precaution has been taken by the Government to prevent logs being towed across in contravention of the law. Responsible men are posted at the outlets of the different rivers on which the Americans are operating. These men are posted in districts where there is little settlement, and it is proposed that power be given to customs officers and Ontario Government officers to swear in a sufficient number of assistants should it be necessary, to prevent the exportation of a single saw-log. The Government has, besides the warm sympathy of all the settlers, who will be glad to give any assistance necessary to prevent evasion or breach of the law, requiring all logs to be manufactured in Ontario, if legally called upon to do so.

"I see Mr. McWilliams, that the Review, in Saturday evening's issue, says that your visit to the north shore revealed "an utter disregard of the law by the Americans;" that "the Yankees were defying the law," that the logs were being towed into Michigan." Then this does not truthfully describe the condition you found?

Mr. McWilliams—the result of my investigation shows that not a single log has crossed the lakes this season; nor has there been any attempt to take any across; in fact there will be a raft ready for two weeks to come, as most of the logs are not yet out of the streams.

"Then the Review's statement is not according to the fact?"

"Not at all."

A SADLY SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. William McDonnell Passes away on Sunday Morning—Heart Affection the Cause of Death.

The entire community is very much grieved to learn of the sudden death of a most estimable and highly respected lady, Mrs. E. H. McDonnell, widow of the late Wm. McDonnell, of Lindsay, which sad event took place Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. Some time ago Mrs. McDonnell had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism, and one of the fatal results was to leave her with an affection of the heart, which has since troubled her with fainting attacks and in other ways characteristic of the disease. On Sunday morning her son Willie, who occupied a room adjoining his mother, heard a peculiar noise in his mother's apartment. He at once entered the the room and found his mother in a dying condition and, indeed, death came before help could be summoned and arrive. The deceased lady at the time of her death was in her forty-eighth year. She was a daughter of the late Thomas Fortye, Collector of Customs, and was born in Peterborough. About 17 years ago her husband passed away, and within a month her only daughter died, leaving one son, Willie, who resided with her in Peterborough, where she removed after the death of her husband. She leaves two brothers, Mr. Thomas Fortye, manager of the Lock Works company and Mr. R. H. Fortye.

Mrs. McDonnell was a member of the congregation of St. John's church and at the morning service, the rector, J. C. Davidson, referred in feeling terms to her sudden demise and paid an earnest tribute to her faithfulness and zeal as one of the earnest workers of the congregation, where she would be very greatly missed. Mrs. McDonnell was very much esteemed in the social circle, in which she moved, and by the community generally. Her sadly sudden death casts a gloom over them all.

The funeral takes place to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock, to the Grand Trunk Railway station, whence the the remains will be conveyed to Lindsay, where interment takes place. A short service will be conducted at the late residence, Rubidge street, this evening.

OBITUARY.

THE LATE WILLIAM LOUGH.

The death occurred yesterday of William Lough, at his residence, No. 471 Water street. The deceased gentleman, who was 78 years of age, has been ailing for some time, and his death was due to a general breaking up of the constitution.

Mr. Lough was a native of the County of Monaghan, Ireland, and came to this country when he was very young, settling in the township of Cavan, where he continued to live for many years, during which time he engaged successfully in farming. In 1892 deceased moved with his family to Peterborough, where he has lived retired until the time of his demise. Mr. Lough was married to a Miss Loucks, daughter of Mr. Wm. Loucks, of Smiths Falls, who predeceased him about 25 years ago. Six of a family survive him—one son and five daughters. These are Frederick Lough, who resides in Iowa, Mrs. A. W. Anderson of Chicago, Alice of Toronto, Mary of Boston and Annie and Hattie of town. Deceased was a devoted member of the Anglican church, being a member of St. John's congregation, and an ardent Conservative in politics.

At the morning service in St. John's Rev. Mr. Davidson referred particularly to Mr. Lough's death, which removed a highly respected and faithful member of the congregation and a pioneer in church work, Mr. Lough having had a prominent part in upholding the parish of Cavan, where he resided before his removal to to Peterborough.

SONS OF ENGLAND ATTEND WORSHIP,

HEADED BY THEIR FINELY ORGANIZED BAND.

Rev. D. O. Crossley Preaches the Annual Sermon in the Charlotte Street Methodist Church.

The members of Lansdowne Lodge, Sons of England Benevolent Society, attended divine worship last evening at the Charlotte street Methodist church in a body, where they were addressed by the pastor, Rev. D. O. Crossley.

Prior to beginning his sermon Mr. Crossley addressed a few words of cordial welcome to the members expressing his pleasure that the steps had been directed that evening to the Charlotte street church. He hoped that the service would be one of profit to them and that the memory of the evening would not be an unpleasant one.

The sermon proved to be one of great interest, the different points being illustrated in the manner for which the eloquent pastor of the Charlotte street church is noted. The text was taken from Matthew, ch. xxv, ver. 40, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." These, the speaker explained, were the words of Jesus Christ, showing to the how they can perform acts of kindness to Him in the world, down through the ages. A kindness extended even to the least, He will not forget.

Two mighty forces, he continued, are operating in the world to-day, effecting mankind. One has a centrifugal effect on men and separates them, the other is centripetal in its results and draws them together, awakening in the human breast a brotherly feeling.

These two forces are Selfishness and Charity!

The effect of selfishness is always to make man smaller and dry up all his nobler thoughts, but it will be noticed that charity has the opposite effect. It makes men large and gives them high aspirations.

The smallest and meanest man in the world is a thouroughly selfish man. There is nothing grand or Christlike in his character. The only time he blesses the world is when he dies. How different is the charitable man—the Christly man.

In the history of the world it is noticed that men cluster around certain principles.

The church stands to-day the grandest system of charity in the world. It inculcates such principles that make every Christian a benefactor to his race.

Philosophy says the world cannot be benefitted. That the present state of affairs is the

of things. Christianity, on the other hand, holds that man is in need and flies to the rescue.

That is the difference between selfishness and charity.

All are interested in each other! Christ asked, "Where is thy brother." Man has not forgotten the question. Charity is the grand foundation of the Christian structure. Jesus set the example. He was rich and became poor that we might benefit.

All benevolent societies are founded upon some principle inculcated in the word of God. The grand principles of Christianity have become divided and separated, and on some one of these principles do the benevolent societies organize. The Good Templars build upon the principle of temperance, the Orange order on the liberty of the subject and defense of the truth. The Masons grasp yet another principle in sociality which is both helpful and beneficial; the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Foresters and the Sons of England have selected yet another principle and make their societies decidedly beneficial organizations. This is particularly true of the Sons of England, which now embraces 520 lodges with a total membership of 15,000. During the past year they have disbursed in sick benefits $23,264, in medical attendance $15,036, for funerals $10,067, in beneficiaries $26,936; or a total of $75,303 disbursed in charity.

When it is known that these large sums have been disbursed, it can be imagined what an

this money brought. We are morally bound to give honour where honour is due, and tribute where tribute is due, and therefore attention can be drawn to the fact that the aims and objects of the society fit beautifully alongside the following verses from the 19th chapter of Deuteronomy:

> If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thy heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother.
> But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

It can easily be imagined that the men who organized this society did so with these verses in view.

That the objects of the society are humane and worthy none will deny. The unorganized charity of the world is too slow and cold. People would perish before it reached them. Here in the Sons of England is food and clothing, education for the family of deceased members and a home for the widows and orphans. It belongs to them by right, and is not the dribble of unfeeling charity.

The order does not profess to be a religious one. Benevolence is its work and it deals not with the world to come. Whilst the gathering of men together at the meetings draws out all that is best in them, yet it is well to have insurance in both worlds. Right along the line of the society's operations Jesus Christ has organized a scheme of benefits. In sickness He, himself, is the physician, in need He dispenses to your aid. He offers free insurance for both worlds.

It is said that some are wise for time and foolish for eternity. Many practice this deception amongst themselves. May it not be so with you! When taking wise precautions against want for your family do not forget your own spiritual wants! "Godliness is profitable unto all men." May you be Sons of God as well as Sons of England!

With these epigrammatic sentences the speaker closed an address which had held the undivided and appreciative attention of his audience during its entire delivery.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

A Company of Clever Artists will Present Up-to-Date Plays.

Commencing Wednesday, May 24th, the Victoria Stock Company will open a two night's engagement here, presenting the best recognized successes. Wednesday night the great play, "The Wife's Secret," will be produced, and Thursday night "The Bachelor's Divorce." There will be a special Queen's Birthday Matinee, that great New York success, "Hurly Burly" being presented. This is a rollicking, up-to-date comedy, replete with ludicrous situations. A refined and high-class comedy. Strong specialties will be introduced that are calculated to please the cultivated taste.

The company is composed of artists of great ability and versatility and have received most eulogistic press criticisms, stamping them as a clever and able organization. The company has just closed a four week's engagement in Ottawa. The press of that city were unstinted in their praise of the work done by them.

The Ottawa Citizen says: The Victoria Stock Company is one of the cleverest and strongest organizations seen in Ottawa for some time. The company is well-balanced and gives an artistic and pleasing production. That they do clever and conscientious work has been amply evidenced. The castes are carefully selected, each member being in most congenial roles. Having such well-known and clever artists, the personnel of the company is of the best.

With such favourable mention from the press the Victoria Company come well recommended and doubtless a good programme will be given. The company, under the management of Mr. Joseph J. DeGrasse, is exceptionally strong in caste, being composed of leading artists, including Miss Ida May Park, Miss Lillian Clayes, Mr. Niel Twomey, Mr. John Rose, Mr. Wm. Gerald, Mr. Jos. Dameny, Miss Endres, Miss Ollie Premaine and other well known artists. A well-balanced company in high-class plays.

INCALCULABLE GOOD,

AN EXPRESSION OF FAITH.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have done me an incalculable amount of good. I think they are the best, surest and quickest acting cure for nervousness, unhealthy action of the heart, insomnia or sleeplessness, anæmia or impoverished blood, loss of appetite, general debility and ill-health. For nine years, before I commenced taking Dr. Ward's Blood and nerve Pills, my heart was weak and in an unhealthy state. Its action was so much impaired that I could not walk across the street without suffering great distress, my heart fluttering and beating so rapidly that I could scarcely breathe, causing faintness, loss of strength, and leaving my nerves all unstrung. My sleep was very much disturbed, I had no appetite and there was little strength or vitality in my blood; I was always excessively nervous.

I have now taken three boxes of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills and since taking them I have not been away from my business an hour. Before taking these pills it was a frequent occurrence for me to be away from business. As a result of taking Dr. Ward's Pills my heart is perfectly healthy and strong and gives me no distress or trouble whatever. They removed all nerve trouble, made my nerves strong and gave me healthy sleep. These pills also made my blood rich and strong and gave me a healthy appetite. Dr. Ward's Pills have given me perfect health, restoring my lost strength, in place of continual ill-health, weakness, heart trouble and nervousness. In justice I cannot speak too highly of this wonderful medicine. Signed: Miss N. Millward, Walton St., Port Hope, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.00 at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by THE DOCTOR WARD CO. Limited, 71 Victoria Street, Toronto. Book of information free.

Men in Liquor Killed in New Brunswick and St. Thomas.

Fredericton, N.B., May 20.—At Green Hill, about 30 miles from Fredericton, yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, William McLean, a lumber boss for James Humble, was murdered, it is alleged, by Alfred Glover, a married man with a wife and family. Both men are said to have been under the influence of liquor, and McLean was stabbed to death.

Was a Heavy Drinker.

St. Thomas, Ont., May 20.—Albert Smith, teamster, well known in this city, fell downstairs in the Victoria Block in the West End some time during the night and was killed. He was a heavy drinker.

Weary of Experimenting.

With salves, suppositories, and ointments, and dreading a surgical operation, scores and hundreds have turned to Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment and found in it an absolute cure for piles. The first application brings relief from the terrible itching, and it is very seldom that more than one box is required to effect a permanent cure.

These sententious proverbs, or old saws, which are used as prefixes to all of the Hood Sarsaparilla advertising in thousands of papers throughout the country, are evidence of a new and original style of display advertising both pleasing and effective. The Hood firm is to be congratulated on so cleverly adapting such wisdom as has filtered down through centuries. Another charming thing about this Hood advertising is the unique type they are using.

PARLIAMENT OF MAN.

The Peace Conference Begins Work in a Hopeful Spirit.

AGAINST THE IMPERIAL IDEA.

The Australasian Colonies Agree With Canada Concerning the Pacific Cable Ownership—The Other Colonial Governments Notified by New South Wales—In Favor of the Joint Ownership.

The Hague, May 20.—Queen Wilhelmina and the Queen's mother will arrive here on Tuesday evening, and will be received in great state.

The chiefs of the different delegations to the peace conference met yesterday, under the presidency of the presidents of the conference, M. de Staal, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain, for the purpose of discussing the business to be transacted to-day.

The meeting, at which Sir Julian Pauncefote, head of the British delegation, and Mr. Andrew D. White, head of the United States delegation, were present, resulted in an agreement to appoint three committees to deal with the respective groups of questions proposed for discussion, namely, disarmament, laws of warfare and mediation and arbitration.

With a view of facilitating the appointment of the committees, it was agreed that each chief delegate should nominate those of his own delegation whom it might be desired to appoint to the respective committees, so that each nation should be represented upon all.

Probably the committees will meet next Tuesday or Wednesday to organize and to arrange their procedure.

The opinion of a majority of delegates seems to be that the general scheme to be presented to the conference to-day has been conceived in a broad and liberal spirit, and the result of yesterday's meeting of the delegation chiefs is regarded as demonstrating the good-will and conciliatoriness of all the delegates, as well as a common desire to facilitate the labors of the conference. Perfect harmony had prevailed thus far regarding all questions brought forward.

To-day's session and all subsequent sessions will be secret.

Agree With Canada.

Sydney, N.S.W., May 20.—The Cabinet here, after considering the Pacific cable proposals, has disagreed with the Imperial proposals, and has agreed with the Canadian idea, that the cable should be jointly owned, and not subsidized. This decision has been telegraphed to the other colonial Governments.

Earl of Malmesbury Dead.

London, May 20.—The Earl of Malmesbury, who was recently stricken with apoplexy, is dead. Edward James Harris, fourth Earl of Malmesbury, was born in 1842. He was a Conservative in politics, and a retired Lieut.-Colonel of the Royal Irish Rifles. He was the author of several philological works, and was employed as a diplomatist of the first rank at the courts of Madrid, Berlin, St. Petersburg, The Hague and Paris. He was formerly aide-de-camp of General Sir John Mitchell, commanding troops in Canada in 1868, and later he was aide-de-camp to the Governor of Mauritius.

Would Not Disturb Friendly Relations.

London, May 20.—In the House of Commons yesterday, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, gave the names and the identity of the men arrested at Johannesburg. All of them, excepting Trenilett and Fries, were formerly non-commissioned officers in the British army. He added that President Kruger had informed the British agent at Pretoria that there was no proof that the prisoners were British officers, and that in any case the incident would not be allowed to disturb the friendly relations existing. (Cheers.)

Rat Portage, Ont., May 20.—The report has just reached here of the drowning of Edward Mulhearn and Louis Jewell, mail carriers between Fort Frances and Wabigoon. They left the latter place with a Peterboro canoe and 500 pounds of mail and arrived safely as far as the Cascades, at Rainy Lake. Some Indians found clothing floating in the water and soon after found the canoe on the shore, with the body of Jewell tangled in some ropes that were tied to the canoe. Mulhearn's body was not found. They left the canoe and body and went to Fort Frances for assistance.

RAILROAD.... KIDNEY

A Disease Peculiar to Railroad Men, which is readily Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Did it ever occur to you that most railroad men die of kidney disease?

Such is the fact, however, and the disease is known among railroaders as "railroad kidney."

The first and most marked symptom is a weak, lame and aching back. You may think at first that you are only tired; but as this trouble increases day by day, kidney disease, with all its terrors, is fast claiming you as a victim.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over 20 years engineer on the Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says: "The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me and I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends."

WAR EAGLE DISASTER

Five Miners Dashed to the Foot of the Shaft 350 Feet.

FOUR OF THE VICTIMS DEAD.

The Accident Was Caused by a Break in the Hoisting Machinery—One of the Killed Is W. F. Schofield, Formerly of Oakville—The Provincial Government Orders an Investigation.

Rossland, B.C., May 23.—At 12.30 on Saturday morning a terrible accident occurred in the main shaft of the War Eagle mine, whereby four men lost their lives. At the hour stated Mike Crook, W. F. Schofield, H. A. Honeyford, James O. Palmer and Thomas A. Neville entered the skip at the 250-foot level. The engineer in charge, Robert Hall, started the machinery, but the seat holding the main bolt on the starting lever in some way not yet ascertained worked off and the bolt fell out, throwing Hall on his back. Control was thus lost of the hoist and it dashed down to the foot of the shaft, 350 feet.

When the rescuing party climbed down they found Honeyford, Palmer and Neville quite dead; and smashed almost beyond recognition. Crook and Schofield, the latter very badly and the former only slightly hurt, were taken out of the mine by the Iron Mask tunnel, and conveyed to the Sisters' Hospital. Schofield died at 1 o'clock from his injuries. Mike Crook, however, will be able to leave the hospital in a day or two. Superintendent Hastings said that the five men were among the pick of the mine and were all fine fellows and good workers

Schofield was an Oakville man and an old Upper Canada College boy; Crook an international Scotland-England football player; Honeyford was an active member of the Salvation Army in Rossland. Palmer and Neville came here from New Brunswick. All the men were unmarried. Schofield was sent here recently by T. G. Blackstock and put to work.

The Provincial Government wired Coroner Boers to hold an inquest and instructed John Kirkup to watch the case for them. The inquest was opened at 8.30 p.m. on Saturday, but, after viewing the bodies and inspecting the machinery at the mine, the jury adjourned until 2 o'clock on Monday. Inspector MacGregor is now on his way here, and a thorough investigation will be held. Seven men have lost their lives in Rossland camp within a month.

WOODSTOCK WONDER.

A Crippled Rheumatic Restored by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Woodstock, Ont., May 22.—Never in the social history of this town since the Birchall trial, has such great interest been shown as the "Cutmore Case" has caused.

Mr. C. J. Cutmore, 90 Main street, was crippled by Rheumatism and Lumbago during five years. He couldn't stand straight and had to be helped from his room.

To-day he is straight and strong; sound in every limb, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills. Other remedies were used, but did no good. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him.

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

Solemn Praise.

The wife of a tenor singer says that of all the tributes paid to the beauty and pathos of her husband's voice the one which touched her most had in it an element of humor despite its gravity.

She sat, at a concert, directly in front of two old ladies, whose comments on the soprano who graced the occasion were far from flattering.

"She can sing high," said one of the old ladies, "but some way I'm not moved by it, Sarah."

"I should think not," returned her friend decidedly. "The woman lacks soul."

Later, when the tenor sang, his wife listened half anxiously to hear what the old ladies would say of him.

"Oh, Sarah," exclaimed the one who had not been "moved" by the soprano—"oh, Sarah, what a sweet singer!"

"Yes, and what a voice for a funeral!" exclaimed Sarah. "If we could have secured him for father's funeral, it would have made a beautiful occasion."—Youth's Companion.

She Could Write Too.

Professor L. T. Weeks of Southwest college wrote a poem which he thought was all right and which he offered to The Century Magazine for publication. His wife, Ida Alsborn Weeks, made fun of his literary aspirations and kept telling him about the fall which lay in wait for his vanity. In due time, however, an acceptance came from the magazine, accompanied by a check for $10, and then that man began to lord it over the woman.

Finally she got mad and declared that she could write better poetry than he with one hand tied behind her, and, to prove it, she indited a piece and sent it to The Century. Almost at once she got back an acceptance, accompanied by a check for $20, and then she made life such a burden for her $10 husband that he was sorry he ever wrote poetry.—Kansas City Journal.

Who, the Dog?

An Irish daily prints the following indignant protest from "A Cyclist:"

"While cycling on the road near Healy's bridge a foxy terrier dog stole on me unperceived and bit me on the calf of the leg, from which I am now suffering. The dog, I understand, belongs to a magistrate who resides in the neighborhood and is allowed to wander on the road unmuzzled, and yet sits on the bench in judgment on others."

ALREADY EVEN WITH HIS HONOR.

A Lawyer's Confession to a Judge After an Adverse Decision.

Judge J. M. Hurt tells a story on a couple of members of the Dallas legal profession which goes in this wise:

They were on a hunting and fishing expedition to Wynne's lake. On the day of their arrival one of the heroes of the story, who was at that time a district judge, found a canoe that had been buried in the mud. He excavated it and found it to be in pretty good shape. He washed off all the mud and calked a few holes in the bottom, and it was a good boat. It was a long, narrow affair and was evidently never intended to be built for two.

However, when the judge started out to fish in his canoe, his lawyer friend insisted on going with him. The judge was sitting in the end toward the lake, where the water was about six inches deep and the mud about four feet.

"Now, keep out of this boat," exclaimed the judge. "You will turn it over, sure, if you try to get in it."

"That's all right," said the lawyer. "I am an old boatman and have fished in a dugout many a time, and you know a man has to sit mighty level in a dugout."

With that he stepped into the canoe, and it capsized instantly. The lawyer saved himself by a quick spring for the bank, but the judge, who was about 15 feet off shore, was thrown in the shallow water and mud. He crawled out like an old hog coming out of its wallow, and when he reached the bank he delivered his opinion of the lawyer in anything but judicial language and wound up in italics, punctuated with dashes and exclamation points, saying that he hoped the lawyer was satisfied. The lawyer apologized profusely and assured the judge that there was nothing intentional about it; that it was purely an accident, and to show that he was sincere he divided what clothing he had with the judge and helped wash his wet and muddy suit. Peace was thereby patched up, and all went well.

At the next term of court the lawyer had a case in which he was very much interested to come up in the judge's court. He worked on it very hard and thought he had it perfected. All during the trial he sat up nights studying every point. He made a long and very exhaustive argument and thought to himself that he had a sure thing, but the judge decided in favor of the other fellow. It was a great disappointment to the lawyer, and after court had adjourned he called the judge to one side and said:

"I told you out at Wynne's lake that I turned that boat accidentally, but I want to tell you here and now that it was intentional, premeditated and done with express malice aforethought." — Dallas News.

Our Coal Production.

"Not many people," says a coal miner quoted by the Washington Star, "are probably aware that the coal mined in the United States annually is worth more than three times as much as the gold mined here. The product of the anthracite fields alone exceeds in value the output of the gold mines of this country. Canada and Alaska, which last year amounted to over $50,000,000. East of the Rocky mountains there are 192,000 square miles of coal lands, and the yearly output is nearly 200,000,000 tons."

In the Paris morgue 695 bodies were exposed last year. Of these 347 had been fished out of the Seine.

FOOTBALL.

The first association football match of the season took place on the Nicholls Park grounds on Saturday afternoon, when the celebrated High School team of Norwood defeated the local Y.M.C.A. eleven by a score of 3 goals to 2.

Association football has been somewhat dead in Peterborough of late, but the enthusiasm with which the Y.M.C.A. boys are going into the game, and the excellent material they produced in Saturday's match argues favourably for the future of association football in town.

Of course everyone expected Norwood would win, such expectation being based no doubt upon their reputation as chasers of the pig skin but the close game the local men gave them surprised not a few. Norwood certainly has some fine players. They kick well, and play the game as it should be played. Rutherford was, perhaps, the star of the lot, in Saturday's game, but he had good support. He put one of the goals through while Matthewson scored the other two.

The local men have a good half-back in McPherson, who played a steady game throughout. Campbell, on the forward line is a very promising man and to his credit may be given the two goals which Peterborough scored.

The teams lined up before the referee, Hal. Burnham at half past five as follows:

Norwood High School—
Goal, D. Pettigrew; backs, B. Fife and C. McLaughlin; half-backs, D. O'Brian, J. Weir and E. Moore; forwards, B. Hampton, Mike O'Leary Devitt, F. Rutherford and C. Matthewson.

Y.M.C.A.—
Goal, Dike; backs, Simpson and Art Noble; half-backs, E. Hall, A. W. McPherson and H. Goldy; forwards, P. Campbell, I. Snellgrove, F. Walden, J. McLeod and P. Doughty.

The local men had the assistance of a stiff wind in the first half and made the visitors hustle. When half time was called the score was two all. In the second half the game at first began to go very much in favour of Norwood, who managed to add another goal to their credit. Towards the finish however, the local men went into the game with a determination to win and came very nearly scoring on more than one occasion. In this half Pettigrew, the Norwood goal keeper was badly knocked out and Doughty went off to even up.

After time was called the usual cheers were given.

Most of the Norwood boys remained in town until the midnight train.

GOLF.

The result of the third draw in the Golf Tournament was as follows:

C. Bell, 12, beat J. H. Burnham, scratch, by 2 holes.

G. W. Hattou, 18, beat A. S. Houston, 18, by 3 holes.

E. H. D. Hall, 9, beat R. Max Dennistoun, scratch, by 4 holes.

E. W. Holst, 18, beat Fred Hall, 6, by 3 holes.

Fourth draw, to be played off before Saturday, 27th, inclusive.

E. W. Holst, 18, vs. C. Bell, 12.

G. W. Hatton, 18, vs. E. H. D. Hall, 9.

A match has been arranged for the 24th of May with Orillia, to be played upon these links. The team that will represent the local club will be as follows: Messrs. R. Max Dennistoun, Peter Campbell, Fred Hall, H. Y. Ritchie, F. C. Napier.

A MOTORMAN'S VICTORY

Over Diabetes, Gained by the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, May 8.—In a large city like Toronto, there is always much sickness, kidney disease largely predominating. The street railway employees, exposed as they are to all the inclemencies of the weather are particularly liable to kidney disease. But they all know how to conquer this enemy.

For instance; Mr. T. H. O'Reilly, 27 Niagara street, motorman, No. 624, was for three years a great sufferer from Diabetes. Every remedy failed to help him, till he began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him.

It is cases like this, where the patient and the cure are equally well known, that are the test of a remedy, and Dodd's Kidney Pills have always stood it successfully. They cure all kidney complaints.

WHAT THE U.S. OFFERS

Outline of the President's Proposals to the Filipinos.

FIRST A GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

The Governor-General to Appoint a Cabinet—The President to Choose Judges—A General Advisory Council—Filipinos Had No Definite Proposition Except for Cessation of Fighting.

Manila, May 23.—The United States Philippine commission has submitted to the Filipino commissioners a draft of the form of government the President is prepared to establish. The following written proposition has been submitted to the Filipinos: "While the final decision as to the form of government is in the hands of Congress, the President, under his military powers, pending the action of Congress, stands ready to offer the following form of government:

The Proposals in Detail.

"A Governor-General to be appointed by the President, a Cabinet to be appointed by the Governor-General, all the judges to be appointed by the President, the heads of departments and judges to be either Americans or Filipinos or both, and also a general advisory council, its members to be chosen by the people by a form of suffrage to be hereafter carefully determined upon. The President earnestly desires that bloodshed cease and that the people of the Philippines, at an early date, enjoy the largest measure of self-government compatible with peace and order."

The United States commission prepared the scheme and the President cabled his approval of the form of the document.

Filipinos Propose Nothing.

The Filipinos have made no definite proposition except for a cessation of hostilities until they can present the question of peace to the people. Prof. Schurman told the Filipinos they had no means of gathering the people together, as the Americans control most of the ports. He also reminded them that a liberal form of government was offered them, and pointed out that it was better than the conditions existing under Spanish rule.

Gozaga, president of the Filipino commission, replied that nothing could be worse than Spanish rule, and admitted that the form of government proposed was liberal.

The civilian members of the Filipino commission have declined to co-operate with the other members of that commission, as the former consider Aguinaldo's latest demand to be preposterous, after Major-General Otis' refusal of an armistice, referring to his wish for time in order to consult the Filipino Congress. After a conference to-day with the United States commissioners the Filipino commissioners will lunch with Prof. Schurman, and will afterwards visit the vessels composing the American fleet.

Military Operations Continue.

In spite of the presence of the Filipino commissioners in Manila, the military operations continue with unabated rigor. No troops are left in the northern provinces. They were all drafted south after the outbreak of war. The villages on the west coast are almost deserted. It is added that the only Filipino troops now left are 7,000 men, under General Luna at Tarlac, and about 4,000 under General Pio del Pilar. Even these are demoralized and short of arms and supplies. Many of their rifles are disabled, and the Filipinos are unable to repair them, owing to the lack of mechanics and materials for so doing.

A coasting steamer which has arrived here reports that the Spanish garrison at Zamboanga, Island of Mindanao, is holding the rebels in much the same manner as the Americans held them while they were in the vicinity of Manila. Every night the Spaniards are subjected to an ineffectual fusilade, and if they are not soon relieved they will be reduced to the condition of the Spanish garrison at Iloilo just previous to the evacuation of that place.

Disintegration the Story Now.

Washington, May 23.—The War Department has received the following cablegram from General Otis: "Conditions as follows: In Bulacan Province troops maintained at Quinga, Balinag, San Miguel; Lawton proceeding down Rio Grande River from San Isidro; has driven enemy westward from San Antonio, Carlao and Arayat, where he was joined yesterday by Kobbe's column; will reach Santa Anna and Candaba to-day. MacArthur still at San Fernando and will occupy cities south and westward; insurgent forces disintegrating daily. Luna's forces at Tarlac much diminished; has destroyed several miles railway in his front; number of officers of rank have deserted Luna, and few have entered Manila for protection; in Pampanga and Bulacan inhabitants returning to homes, only fear insurgent troops; south of Manila insurgent disintegration progressing, though large force still maintained; conditions improving daily; send battalion troops and gunboat to Negros to-morrow to allay excitement in southern portion of island and west coast Cebu. Have denied request of Aguinaldo commissioners for armistice. (Signed) Otis."

ONE FINED AND THE OTHERS GO TO GAOL.

They Acknowledge Having Lied to the Police about their Place of Residence.

The three strangers who a week ago Monday were arrested in the vicinity of the C.P.R. station, and who it was thought for a time, might have had some connection with the recent bank robbery at Bowmanville, were brought before Magistrate Dumble this morning to answer to the respective charges which had been preferred against them.

William Brock, charged with being drunk and disorderly, pleaded guilty, and was fined $5 and costs or 20 days in jail with hard labour. He paid the fine.

James Deane and William Reilly were both charged with vagrancy and having no visible means of support. They were found guilty and sentenced to one month in jail at hard labour.

Reilly's case was the first one taken up. He is a young, intelligent looking fellow and made a big fight for his freedom. He pleaded not guilty. Chief Roszel went into the box and told about finding Reilly in the vicinity of the Bridge Works on Monday evening, the 15th inst, the worse of liquor and having no money on him. He had told the Chief that his home was in Ottawa at 46 Ontario street, and that he was a painter by trade. Since that time the Chief had communicated with the authorities at Ottawa and the reply was that there was no street in the city by that name, and that inquiries among the painters could elicit no knowledge of a painter of Reilly's name.

Reilly went into the witness box and told a very plain story. He maintained that he belonged to Ottawa originally, but had been living in Detroit all winter. He had money on his person when he came to Peterborough, but very foolishly spent it in liquor. He frankly admitted that he had lied to the Chief about his proper address, which he said he did owing to his relations, who were very respectpeople, and whom he did not wish to put to such humiliation. He admitted beating his way down from Toronto on a freight train by way of Lindsay. He met Brooks in Toronto for the first time, and knew nothing of Deane until he met him here. He had about four dollars about him when he came to town, had paid for anything he got while here, asked nothing from anyone, and had no right to be charged with vagrancy.

James Deane, to the same charge, pleaded not guilty. The Chief and P. C's. Stewart and McGinty explained the details of Deane's arrest in the vicinity of the Bridge Works, where he was lying dead drunk with his coat over his face. He was in such a drunken condition that he was loaded into a wagon and carted to the police station. He had no money on his person and indulged in the most profane and abusive language. In August last he was arrested here on the same charge and served one month in the county jail with hard labour. He was liberated on September 9th and re-arrested on the following day on the same old charge and given a few hours to leave the town, which he did.

Prisoner went into the box and explained that he had come to town expecting to get work on the Matthew's siding, but got drunk shortly after coming to town. He had money when he came to town, and had a few dollars yet, which the Chief had failed to discover on him. He spent in the neighborhood of $8 in the town, buying a new hat, shirt and other stuff. He admitted being the same person who served one month in jail here last summer, and doing faithful work on the jail sewer excavation. He maintained that he should not be locked up on a charge of vagrancy when he had money about him.

Magistrate Dumble found them both guilty and sentenced them to one month in the county jail with hard labour.

GRAND TRUNK STRIKE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir — I see by the report in your morning contemporary that the G.T.R. can run over the road for two months, as they claim the road is in first class condition. Mr. White ran over the road on a train running perhaps 40 or 50 miles per hour. I consider he would know very little about what condition the road was in going at that rate. If he went over the road as trackmen do he would see what condition the road was in. Trackmen are required to go over their section every day to keep their curves spiked in to guage, as the ties are so rotten in many places that they will not hold the rails to guage.

There has not been any trackmen on duty since May 20, and we consider it our duty to ward the travelling public of their lives.

Commercial travellers, instead of travelling by the G.T.R. are hiring rigs, as they consider that their lives are not safe, as there are no trackmen on duty. The G. T. R. officials can't be sure that the road is in first-class condition for two months, as they are trying to hire outside men to take the place of the trackmen. The trackmen hope that the outsiders will consider the matter and stand by them, as they are only fighting for their rights.

Yours truly,
THE TRACKMEN.

TUESDAY MAY, 23, 1899.

HER MAJESTY'S BIRTHDAY.

To-morrow, Wednesday, May 24th, 1899, is the eightieth anniversary of the birth of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, the best of the long line of sovereigns that have ruled Great Britain and the vastest empire, the greatest empire the world has ever known. It is natural then, that the occasion should be loyally celebrated as it will be celebrated in every quarter of the globe the sun shines on; and no more loyally than in Canada the greatest of the colonies, that enter into the outworks, so to speak, of the empire; Canada, where the people have the greatest reason to rejoice over the conditions that have come to the country and to them under the rule of our noble queen, whose birthday, we celebrate to-morrow. To-day there is every promise of "Queen's weather" and the people will have a splendid opportunity for the enjoyment to which the day is devoted. A "Twenty-fourth never dawned upon Canada, with brighter natural sunshine, nor with brighter and more effulgent glow of the sunshine of prosperity beating upon its broad and beautiful expanse stretching from ocean to ocean and from the great lakes of the south, to the Arctic seas. Never has a "Twenty-fourth" dawned upon more harmonious relations between Canada and the Mother Isles. Never has Canada felt the buoyant thrill of national life bounding through her veins that is felt to-day. Every wheel of every industry is a-whirr, every avenue of commerce is crowded with bustling competitors and peace, prosperity and progress in every department of national activity, are the watchword and condition of the hour. We rejoice in one of the most extensive territories in the world with a climate, taking it all in all, the best in the world, the most varied and salubrious; in the best civil institutions in the world, the best administered; in the sturdiest, most intelligent, most progressive, and most law-abiding people in the world, in the most equable social conditions; in the most even distribution of wealth and poverty, and in every circumstance contributing to the prosperity and happiness of the people and the developement of the magnificent resources of the country unsurpassed in their extent and variety. Under such circumstances the favourite colony of Her Majesty, which enjoys all these things under her sway, protected by, and loyal to "the bloomin' old rag overhead," has every reason to celebrate loyally and enthusiastically the eightieth birthday of Her Majesty and can, and will and does sing "with heart and voice,

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN."

NORTH WATERLOO.

To-day is polling day in North Waterloo bye-election, and, as the Ambitious City wrested the Queen's golden guineas from the Conservative representative of North Waterloo, so will the the Ontario government wrest the stolen sweets of temporary representation from the Conservative candidate of the Ontario Opposition. It looks very like it; especially if there is any force in portents —"When Rome falls then falls the world." When Seagram is thrown down on the turf it is a bad omen for the Opposition cause he espoused in North Waterloo. Much as his heart was set on the Queen's Plate, he is credited with preferring an Opposition victory in North Waterloo to landing Her Majesty's guineas at the Woodbine. Seriously the fight is over in North Waterloo, the cause of both sides presented, to-day the verdict will be given, and there is every indication that North Waterloo, that was decoyed temporarily from her Liberal allegiance last March a year ago, will, to-morrow, return to her old love. The Government's splendid record, its well defined agressive and progressive policy will doubtless commend themselves favourably to the electors of North Waterloo to-morrow.

CHURCH CHIMES.

At the close of the service at Bethany Tabernacle Sunday evening six persons were baptised.

At the evening service in the Murray street Baptist church four Sunday school scholars were baptised.

Rev. O. C. Elliott will go to Toronto on Wednesday to attend the annual Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec.

The ninety-sixth annual meeting of the Baptist Convention of Peterborough will meet in the Park street Baptist church on the 20th, 21st and 22nd days of June.

Mrs. Dr. Scott rendered a solo very effectively, "The Home Land," in the morning at the Murray street Baptist church. After the sermon in the evening the choir sang "Fol-All Way."

Rev. Mr. Bastow, E. B. Edwards and John Roszel will attend the Baptist convention in Toronto as representatives of the Murray street Baptist church.

At the Charlotte street Methodist church Sunday morning the anthem was "As pants the hart for cooling streams," the solo being taken by Miss Pedlar.

The morning anthem, "I will praise Him," Benley, was rendered, the obligato solos, soprano and tenor being taken in splendid form by Miss Clara Belleghe... and ... H. Goldie respectively. During the offertory the solo "Song of Trust" was very effectively rendered by Miss Pascoe.

Special music was rendered on Sunday evening at the Charlotte street Methodist church. The anthem, "Praise ye the Lord O Jerusalem" showed careful preparation, the solo being taken by Mr. A. L. Davis. The offertory consisted of a male quartette, rendered by request. "Launch Away." The quartette was composed of Messrs. Davis, Steers, Moore and Skitch. Messrs. Davis and Steers took the dust in this piece very nicely.

Special music characterized the service in George street Methodist church Sunday. In the evening the usual service of song was rendered by the members of the choir.

The solo "Fear not ye, O Israel," Buck, was rendered by Mr. Mulligan in his usual good voice. The anthem, "Hallelujah, He is risen," Simper, was excellently rendered by the choir. The solo "Rejoice Jerusalem and sing" was very sweetly sung by Miss C. Belleghem. During the offertory the duet entitled "He Knows" was rendered with much expression by Miss Belleghem and Mr. Walden.

Reference was made in St. Peter's Cathedral on Sunday to the recent death of Rev. Father Calnan, who for a short time was a member of the cathedral staff, and died Friday evening at the residence of his mother at Vernonville, Northumberland county. He had been in declining health for some time, so that death did not come unexpectedly. Rev. Michael J. Calnan was a native of Vernonville, having been born there on August 1st, 1867. As a youth he studied at St. Jerome's College, Berlin, and took his theological course at the Grand Seminary, Montreal. He was ordained in his native parish at Grafton on September 24th, 1895, by his lordship Bishop O'Connor. Some time ago his health showed signs of declining, and he was attached to the cathedral staff here for a time. In the fall of 1896 he was advised to try a change of climate, and went to Colorado, New Mexico, and Southern California. He seemed to benefit by the change for a time, but it was not permanent, and he returned to die at his home. The funeral will take place at Grafton on Tuesday this morning at 10 o'clock. Ven. Archdeacon Casey and Rev. Father Brown and Jos. O'Sullivan are attending the funeral.

FLOWER SERVICE AT ST. LUKE'S

The annual flower service was held at St. Luke's Sunday night. The church was crowded, many being turned away from the doors. At 7 the children, carrying flowers, entered the church from the vestry, and escorted by Mrs. Wm. Scott, marched down the north aisle and up the south, singing the hymn

"Oh, gather the flowers together,"

Upon reaching the chancel steps the Rev. H. Symonds received the flowers on a silver tray, which was soon piled up with beautiful boqueta, as well as the chancel steps.

The service was throughout a children's service. The address was from the text, "He hath made everything beautiful in its time," at the close of which Mrs. Morris, who was in splendid voice, sang, "Consider the lilies of the field." After the benediction the hymn "Now the day is over" was sung, during which the children marched out of church. The flowers were distributed yesterday in the hospitals in town and amongst the sick, and a large box was dispatched to the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto by the early train Monday morning.

At the morning service Rev. Symonds preached on Christian Unity.

AN AUSTRALIAN VISITOR

Advocates Trade with his Canadian Cousins.

Speaking on the subject of Canadian-Australian trade, Mr. Littlejohn, of Sydney, N.S.W., tells the Monetary Times this week that Canada loses trade from the circumstance that American firms buy Canadian lumber, manufacture it into doors and other things, and undersell Canadian firms in the Australian market. The present usual conditions of the steamer freight market from United States ports to Australia and New Zealand undoubtedly favour American trade with those countries. They are now no fewer than four lines of steamers, two English and two American, plying from New York to Victoria and New South Wales and New Zealand ports, and this competition has reduced prices of freight to one-third what they were, and much less than by our Pacific coast route. This, of course, stimulates an export trade, and so much merchandise is going forward from the States that a glut of some kinds of American goods is feared. Mr. Littlejohn was in Montreal last week, and in Toronto this week, and succeeded in interviewing a number of firms, some of whose wares he will introduce to the Australian continent. He strongly favours Canadian vessels from our Atlantic coast to Australia, and it appears that so long as our goods go mainly from New York and by Canadian steamers we are handicapped. What he says of the disposition of the traders of New South Wales is, that other things being equal, they will give Canada the preference. He goes hence to Winnipeg and probably from that city to the Coast.

1,800 MEN QUIT WORK

Grand Trunk Trackmen Lay Down Their Tools.

DEMANDS OF THE EMPLOYES.

Better Pay, Shorter Hours and Recognition of Their Union Asked For—The General Manager Considering the Questions Submitted to Him—The Men Are Orderly—All the Chances.

Montreal, May 23.—It was almost a surprise yesterday when a strike of the trackmen of the Grand Trunk Railway was ordered. The men say they do not want to put the company to trouble, but they want the same pay as the men working for the Canadian Pacific Company. General Superintenden McGuigan had left for St. Louis, Mo., but he will probably return.

Mr. Hays, the general manager, said yesterday that the only remark he had to make in connection with the case of the trackmen was that he had seen the representatives of the men, and was considering the questions at issue.

What the Men Ask.

The following is the schedule the company are asked to adopt:

1. Increase of 25 cents per day on present pay.
2. Promotion by seniority, where merit and qualifications are equal.
3. Additional pay at the rate of half as much again for overtime and Sunday work.
4. A man to each two miles of track or fraction of main line track, not including foreman.
5. An eight-hour day on Saturday, from 7 to 12 a.m., and 1 to 4 a.m.
6. Reasonable leave of absence to attend monthly and annual meetings and a pass to annual convention.
7. That no trackmen be discriminated against for belonging to the Order of Railway Trackmen, and leave of absence to be given to serve on the executive committee, but only when applied for by the chairman of the executive committee.

It is claimed that some 1,800 men are out, but the company claims that all trains are running on time.

The Chairman Interviewed.

The committee representing the 1,800 trackmen in the employment of the Grand Trunk, and which is at present located at the St. James Motel, ordered a general strike yesterday over the whole system.

The chairman of the executive committee and the secretary of the latter said yesterday that they did not want to make trouble, but they did want justice, and the only way, it seemed, in which they would have a chance to get it was in taking the serious step of ordering a strike.

"Can the Grand Trunk employ outside men?"

"Well, that has been their argument, but how would outside men do the work? Would the public be safe? Would the engineers like the idea of running on a system neglected by the regular trackmen, whose duty it is to see to their respective sections of road twice every day—there being three men to every five miles of road—too few, in our opinion?"

"Do you expect the men can hold out?"

"Well, the men are poor, but surely they will have the sympathy of the public; they wanted a living wage, and they are treated with neglect."

"Does the committee realize the responsibility resting upon it in ordering a strike?"

"It does. A strike seemed the only thing left to us. Our representations were derided, our schedule flung aside, and there was only one thing to do."

The Unexpected in Toronto.

Toronto, May 23.—In this city the strike came as a big surprise to the local officials, who were not expecting such a move. The announcement was not altogether expected by the men themselves, although it was known that something would be done this week. The committee have been in Montreal for the past three days endeavoring to arrive at an amicable arrangement with General Manager Hays, but never were the prospects bright for a speedy settlement.

Prior to meeting Mr. Hays, the committee some time ago conferred with General Superintendent McGuigan, but that official, so the men say, only "jollied" them along. When it was seen that no requests would be recognized by Mr. McGuigan, the committee resolved to wait on Mr. Hays. The interviews with the general manager were not satisfactory, and the committee deemed it advisable to call the men out. The men in Toronto are confident of success, and do not express any regret at the step they have taken.

Strikers May Be Discharged.

General Roadmaster Ferguson of the Midland division was seen yesterday afternoon. He said that a circular had been issued by the management at Montreal to the effect that if the men did not return this morning they could consider themselves discharged.

"We will experience no trouble in filling their places," continued Mr. Ferguson, "and the strike could not have come at a better time for the company. The spring repairs have been made, and new tracks laid, and the roadbed is in an excellent condition."

Mr. Ferguson said he had received numerous telegrams from people wanting employment, who would take the strikers' places. One person sent a communication saying he could supply all the men the company wanted.

It was the opinion of Mr. Walter White, representing Mr. Jones, that the company could do without the trackmen for at least two months. In case of wrecks or mishaps on the line, the foremen could be sent to do the work, which they are quite capable of doing. In Toronto only a few trackmen could be seen working yesterday, and they are not members of the Brotherhood.

Is the Situation Dangerous?

Some of the older officials of the road look upon the present situation as a dangerous one. The number of men out is very large, and it is no telling what action they might resort to in case they are ignored. The men are said to have the sympathy of the other brotherhoods.

Situation at Belleville.

Belleville, May 23.—Twenty-two G.T.R. section hands, including three foremen, are on strike here; two foremen are at work and have two men with them. The strikers are out to stay until their requests are acceded to. They feel very sore over their treatment and say they are well backed in their strike. There is no trouble whatever, as the men are not making any demonstration.

Fifteen Quit at Hamilton.

Hamilton, May 23.—About 15 of the sectionmen at Hamilton quit work, in accordance with the order of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trackmen. About ten men refused to go on strike.

CONTRACTOR CONNORS ARRESTED.

He Was Charged With Importing Canadian Workmen.

Buffalo, N.Y., May 23.—Indications continue to point to an early settlement of the dock troubles. Yesterday all of the men employed inside the elevators, who struck out of sympathy for the grain shovellers, returned to work and more work was done in the elevators than on any day since the strike began. The freight handlers were advised to return to work at once by Bishop Quigley yesterday afternoon, and it is thought that the Bishop's advice will be accepted. The grain shovellers have again opened negotiations with Contractor Connors, looking to a settlement of their grievances, and the officers of the union said last night that the prospects for an agreement are bright.

Contractor W. J. Connors was arrested yesterday by a United States marshal on a charge of importing Canadian laborers. He was at once liberated on bail.

Without a Rival!

Paine's Celery Compound as a Blood Purifier and Health Giver Ranks First in Every Land.

Professional men, members of parliament, bankers, business men, mechanics and our farmers, after happy results and experiences with Paine's Celery Compound, emphatically assert the great medicine has no rival.

As a blood purifier, disease banisher and health giver, it has won the admiration and praise of those in position and affluence, and people in humbler circumstances have largely added to its extended reputation.

The vast army of sick and weakly people restored to health and vigour by Paine's Celery Compound have done more for the present world-wide sale of the great health-builder than all the press notices ever published.

Under such happy auspices, the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound with full and earnest confidence urge the use of this noblest and best of medicines at this present season.

The work of purifying the blood, cleansing the system, regulating the nerves, is an imperative one, and should not be delayed a moment, if ailing people would have perfect health.

Men and women distressed by headache, nervousness, sleeplessnes, dyspepsia, neuralgia, rheumatism and liver and kidney complaints, cannot afford to treat their troubles with indifference. Serious and fatal results follow delays. This is the time for the taking on of new strength and true vitality, and Paine's Celery Compound will never disappoint the sick and afflicted.

The old motto of Paine's Celery Compound, "Makes sick people well," is as true to-day as it was years ago.

YOU MUST WALK IN LONDON.

Street Car Men in the Western City Again on Strike.

London, Ont., May 23.—The Street Railway Company refused to consider the demands made by their employes for a new arrangement, and at 4.30 yesterday afternoon all the cars were run into the barns and the men went out on strike. The company has as yet given no indication of their policy in the matter, and at present everything is quiet.

STRIKERS BECOME VIOLENT.

They Burn Property and Fight With the Police and Military.

St. Petersburg, May 23.—Advices from Riga, capital of the Baltic Province of Livonia, announce that on Saturday last the workmen employed in a jute factory there struck for higher wages, and, joining with the workmen of the Phoenix Arms factory, destroyed and burned a number of houses and fought the police and military. The latter finally triumphed and rigorous measures have been taken against the leaders of the disturbance.

On Sunday evening at the Salvation Army Barracks an enrollment service of recruits was held. The real meaning of enrollment service for recruits is an opportunity given for those who have professed conversion to enlist as members of the Army. Six new members were enlisted, amongst them being Ald. John Sawers. Five others also professed conversion. The Sunday previous memorial services were held for Willie Peacock, who at one time was the snare drummer in the local corps.

BODY NOT FOUND YET.

The Search for Joe Wall Still being Prosecuted.

All efforts to recover the body of little Joe Wall, who lost his life by being drowned in the Otonabee river last week have been abandoned, but it is expected that the body will rise at an early date now. Ever since the accident occurred a constant search has been kept up, by way of grappling, but all such attempts have proved fruitless. Every foot of the Otonabee has been dragged from the spot where the little fellow fell in, down to McDonald's mill. On account of the great depth of the water in Little Lake, it is thought that attempts at grappling would be of no use.

BOUND TO STOP THEM.

High County Constable Cochrane Disperses a Gang Sunday.

For some time it has been the practice of certain men and boys to assemble on a Sunday afternoon and indulge in card playing on the grand stand, on the P.A.A.A. grounds. High County Constable Cochrane has had his eye on the gang for some time back, and is determined to put a stop to this practice.

On Sunday afternoon last, Constable Cochrane assisted by Archie Moore made a swoop down on the gang and dispersed them in short order. No arrests were made but the next time they are caught serious results will follow.

The management of the lacrosse club will heartily co-operate with Mr. Cochrane in his efforts to abolish a nuisance, which is a constant source of annoyance. Trespassers on the grounds are to be arrested and prosecuted.

QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY;

How the Day will be Celebrated in Peterborough.

The double attraction of a baseball game in the morning and a lacrosse game in the afternoon will be sufficient to attract a large number of people from the neighbouring villages to Peterborough on the 24th. Arrangements have been made for a train to leave town at nine o'clock in the evening for the accommodation of those living on the line between here and Campbellford.

The baseball match begins at 10 a.m. on the P.A.A.A. grounds, the opposing teams being the Delawares, of Toronto, and the Peterboroughs.

In the afternoon at three o'clock the Hastings Lacrosse team faces the local senior twelve. It is expected that several hundred people will accompany the Hastings boys to town.

Bring your guessing tickets to-day to the Spot Cash Grocery.

MATINEE TO-MORROW.

A Clever Production Assured by the Victoria Stock Company.

Three of the best plays extant will be produced here by the Victoria Stock Co, Wednesday and Thursday nights with Queen's Birthday matinee.

The company do clever and pleasing work as is evidenced by eulogistic notices received in every town they play in. It is undoubtedly a high-class organization that will give a play to please the most fastidious.

To-morrow night "The Wife's Secret" will be presented—a play in which the company have won great praise. Thursday night "The Bachelor's Divorce" will be the attraction. Hurly Burly will be given at the matinee to-morrow afternoon. This is one of the greatest comedies ever written. The famous character of Major Wellington De Boots will be impersonated by Mr. John Rose, who is one of the cleverest comedy character sketchers ever seen on the stage. Mr. Rose has portrayed this part before and won great praise, the press of the leading cities being most eulogistic of his clever and original portrayal of the part. This character of the major has been made famous by the leading comedians of the day.

With such a strong repertoire of plays the Victoria company should be given a good reception in Peterborough.

THE CATTLE YARDS.

Mr. Kennedy's Views on the Subject—Wants to be Placed on the Same Footing as Others.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy was interviewed this morning in regard to the cattle yards, which it is understodo, he intends to establish on the town lot in the south end. He states that there is a general misunderstanding existing in regard to the matter, as he does not wish to establish stock yards as at first intended, but simply desires to secure better shipping facilities, than either the Grand Trunk or C.P.R. can give him, their shipping yards being too small at present. He feels that it will be no more of a nuisance to have the cattle come to these yards to be weighed and sorted than it would be to drive them through the streets of the town to the public market. Mr. Kennedy further states that his yards would not be as much a nuisance as the railway yards, as with water and sewerage facilities, he will be in a position to keep them clean. All he desires is to get beside the shipping yards and be placed on the same footing as others. If all the yards are moved, he states, that he will be willing to move also.

Work in the Substructure on the Dalhousie and Sherbrooke Street Bridges to Begin at Once.

The Council held a special meeting last evening at which there were present, Mayor Davis and Aldermen McWilliams, Best, Hall, Denne, Neill, Corkery, Langford and Sawers.

Mr. James Stevenson was in attendance and stated that the commissioners were disposed to act with the council in the matter of refusing to give their sanction to Mr. H. P. Kennedy, establishing stock yards on the town lot in the south end, but ,isome delay would be occasioned by reason of the fact that they had not, as yet, an opportunity of consulting their solicitor.

Communications

were received and disposed of as follows:

From the Town Trust Commissioners in answer to a communication from the council, stating that the commissioners being statutory trustees of the town lots could not lease the said lots to the town.—Received.

From the County Treasurer, containing a statement of the expenditure on the Locks, Ashburnham and Pigeon Creek bridges and stating that the town's share is $108.03.—Referred to the Finance Committee.

From the Army and Navy Veterans, of Toronto, accepting the town's invitation to come to Peterborough for their annual outing.—Referred to special committee appointed to deal with this matter.

From J. F. Allin and a number of others, asking that an electric light be placed on Westcott street, near the Grand Trunk tracks also that grading be done on Westcott street.—Referred to the Board of Works and the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

THE ROLLER IS NOW UNLOADED.

But the Duty had to be Paid First—The Local Custom House Officer Interfered.

The road roller is now unloaded at the C.P.R. station, but this fact was not accomplished without some interference on the part of the local custom house officers.

A representative of the Harrisburg Roller Co., arrived in town yesterday and at once commenced the work of unloading the big iron monster. A skidway was built up to one end of the car, but before the roller was started on the downward course, the local custom house officers interfered and stopped the work, claiming that the duty had not been paid. The Harrisburg man therefore communicated with his company, and the latter immediately wired one of the local banks when matters were satisfactorily adjusted. The roller was then unloaded and will make her maiden trip on Thursday.

THE KAWARTHA LAKES.

"Kawartha Lakes" is the title of a new folder issued by the Grand Trunk Railway, setting forth the beauties and summer delights to be reached by their system, consisting of the magnificent chain of of waters nearly seventy miles in length, stretching from Lakefield to Coboconk comprising a bakers' dozen of beautiful lakes seeded with emerald-crowned islands, ideal summer homes, the waters abounding in splendid fish. Kawartha is the general name applied by the Mississauguas, the original owners of the lakes, who referred to them as Kawartha, gawmig paphenadah mowinakeen, meaning "Bright Waters and Happy Lands," such as thousands have found them in these days, and such as thousands more will find them, if they take a Grand Trunk train in any part of Canada, land at Lakefield, and take an elysian voyage or an elysian stay among the delights of the Kawarthas.

The folder was compiled and the descriptive matter splendidly written by that distinguished savant, celebrated litterateur and eminent "judge of whisky," "Smiff," who writes the leading articles for the Bobcaygeon Independent, and the magnificent wood-pictures presented show that the old gentleman's hand has not lost its cunning and that his well saturated head is horizontal.

The folder is well and liberally illustrated with photo-gravures of scenes in the Kawarthas, especially of the summer hotels, which are excellent and furnish ample and first-class accommodation.

A very clear map illustrates the district dealt with, and the whole folder in its completeness demonstrates the wisdom of the Grand Trunk in selecting Mr. Stewart of the Independent to complete and illustrate it; and no doubt its enterprise will be rewarded with large increase of passenger traffic as a result of so effectively calling attention to the most magnificent summer resort region in America. Full information as to tickets, routes, rates, etc., may be obtained of any agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, particularly of Mr. Wm. Bunton, up-town ticket agent, to whom the Examiner is indebted for a copy of the beautiful Kawartha Lakes folder.

In nine cases out of ten, those who are losing flesh, wasting away or going into decline—who feel sick and miserable all the time, are suffering either from impure blood or else their blood is thin and watery and lacking in tissue building elements.

A few bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters will do such people more good than any other remedy they can take.

There is nothing like it for purifying the blood, making it rich, red and nourishing, so that pale, thin weak, run-down people put on flesh and soon gain health and strength.

MR. ALFRED J. PERRY, Cole's Island, Queen's Co., N.B., says: "I was sick and run down in health for three years and could never get anything to help me until I started taking Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I used six bottles of it, and am now as well as any man could wish.

"I believe if it had not been for B.B.B. I would have been dead, as I was so reduced in flesh I only weighed 130 pounds. Since using B.B.B. I have steadily gained in weight, as well as strength, and now tip the scales at 180 pounds.

"There is no doubt B.B.B. is the best medicine on earth."

THE MISHAP TO THE PARIS.

The Damage Discovered—Divers Find Four or Five Large Holes.

Cove Rock, May 23.—The situation of the American Line steamer Paris, Captain Watkins, which went aground early on Sunday morning just off Lowlands Point, two miles east of this place, while on a voyage from Southampton, via Cherbourg, for New York, remains unchanged.

The cargo is being rapidly discharged from the two forward hatches.

The Damage Discovered.

The crew of the Paris during the day were engaged in jettisoning the coal from her bunkers. Divers who were recently employed to inspect the wreck of the Mohegan have been examining the inside of the Paris for the purpose of ascertaining the extent of the damage done. They discovered four or five large holes.

They Gave Thanks.

DAWSON'S THIRD FIRE

The Loss Will Aggregate Over Four Millions of Dollars.

PERILOUS CARRYING OF NEWS.

The Fire Brigade Powerless and the People Fled Panic-Stricken to the Hills—Not a Pioneer Building Left Standing—Dry, They Burned Like Tinder—2,000 People Homeless.

Victoria, B.C., May 22.—An extra of The Skaguay Alaskan was received by the Tees at midnight, containing the following brief report, wired from Bennett to Skaguay just previous to the sailing of the steamer:

"Another disastrous fire visited Dawson City, this time fairly wiping out the entire business centre of the town, creating losses that will aggregate $4,000,000, with not a dollar's worth of insurance on any of the great losses."

The news was telegraphed over wires from Bennett yesterday afternoon by the special correspondent of The Daily Alaskan, who received it from a man named Tokales who had just reached Bennett from a long and perilous trip out of Dawson over broken trails, open rivers and dangerous lakes.

Mr. Tokales reports that the fire occurred on April 21, in the very heart of the business centre of the city, commencing near the Opera House, on the waterfront, and spreading with unusual rapidity, driven by a strong wind, destroying everything in its way on that street, down to and including Donahue & Smith's establishment and taking in all of the waterfront buildings abreast of the same block. In other words, the fire crossed the street, burned through and spread over to Second street, covering the principal business portion of Dawson, leaving it all in ashes, with the firemen helpless and powerless to do anything. The fire consumed everything from Timmins' Royal Cafe down to and opposite Fairview Hotel.

The fire was the most disastrous that has ever visited Dawson. Every building burned like tinder, due to the fact that they have been standing for nearly two years and the logs are as dry as powder. The fire spread with such great rapidity that the citizens appeared panic-stricken and unable to save anything in the way of furniture, goods and clothing, so that the losses, when footed up, promises to be even greater than at first estimated.

Among the most prominent firms burned out were: The Royal Cafe, Donohue & Smith, McLellan & McFeely, Parsons' Produce Company, Aurora Saloon, Bodega Saloon, Madden House, Hotel Victoria, Macdonald Block, Bank of British North America, and scores of smaller firms and business houses. This fire came at a time when the mills and dealers in building materials had exhausted their winter's supply and were waiting the opening of navigation to replenish their stocks.

The results are that there is a famine in all kinds of building material and furniture, such as sashes, doors, locks, hinges, etc. The few articles still remaining outside of the burned district have quadrupled in prices. Doors are selling for $35 each, door locks $8 each, and everything else in proportion. The town is paralyzed because nothing can be done until the opening of navigation, which will not be for several weeks. The first boat going down with building material will reap a rich harvest.

VANCOUVER FIRMS LOSERS.

Bank of British North America Suffers to the Extent of $5,000.

Vancouver, B.C., May 22.—The Bank of British North America was one of the chief sufferes in the great fire which destroyed the business centre of Dawson City. William Godfrey, manager here, says the loss to the bank is about $5,000. Vancouver firms are among the losers. Parsons' Produce Company and McLellan & McFeeley had only recently stocked their stores, and they fear their loss will be large.

L. S. Humes, who brought special despatches to the bank from Dawson, left the Klondike on April 28. He will return Wednesday. He says that at one time the fire threatened to destroy every building in the city. A strong wind from the south swept across the Yukon River and fanned the flames so vigorously that waterfront buildings and those behind were burned with appalling rapidity. Luckily the wind shifted to the northeast and thus the conflagration was not so terrible as first appearances indicated. This is Dawson's third serious baptism of fire.

INTERVIEWED IN TORONTO.

Mr. Doyle Says That Between 2,000 and 3,000 Are Homeless.

Toronto, May 22.—Mr. John J. Doyle of Dawson City is at the Walker House. He came to Toronto to call on his sisters, who are attending Loreto Abbey. Mr. Doyle was surprised when told last night of the great fire at Dawson. He left Dawson on March 27 and has spent some time in Ottawa. Mr. Doyle said that between 2,000 and 3,000 persons must have been left homeless by the blaze.

"I feel sorry for a good many of them," he said, "because they had been hanging on over the winter expecting to make a harvest after the clean-up. Now, they are wiped out. I was at Dawson during the two previous fires and the people there lose their heads on such an occasion. Many of the people on the waterfront had just got into shape again after the last fire.

"From the despatch, I should judge that the burned district was about a quarter of a mile long," continued Mr. Doyle. "Jim McIsaacs, who owned the Victoria House, sold a fraction on Hunker Creek for $16,000 and put all that money in the hotel. Now I see he has lost all in this last fire."

Mr. Doyle, who formerly lived in Perth, Ont., went to Dawson first in the spring of '97, and he has made four trips over the White Pass and intends to return to the Yukon in two weeks.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

Women Wrecks. Every once in a while the newspapers tell of some once beautiful woman who has been consigned to an asylum, because physical weakness drove her to seek temporary strength in the alcholic mixtures that are found on many women's toilet tables.

The story is an old, but ever-new one. A woman finds herself suffering from weakness, nervousness, despondency and irritability. She cannot divine the cause, and her family physician seems equally at loss. A friend who suffers in the same way tells her that a wee drop of cologne, brandy drops, ale, beer, "malt-extracts" or other stimulant will give temporary relief. And that is the beginning that ends in a madhouse. The woman who suffers from the symptoms described may safely infer that there exists disease or at least weakness of the delicate organs that constitute her a woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which contains no alcohol or other stimulant to inebriate, will promptly put things right, and make her strong and healthy in a womanly way. It does away with necessity for obnoxious examinations and local treatment. It cures in the privacy of the home. It gives vigor and virility to the organs upon which depends the perpetuation of the human race.

Mrs. H. A. Alsbrook, of Austin, Lonoke Co., Ark., writes: "After five months of great suffering I write this for the benefit of other sufferers from the same affliction. I doctored with our family physician without any good result, so my husband urged me to try Dr. Pierce's medicines—which I did, with wonderful results. I am completely cured. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

Constipation kills slowly. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure quickly.

THE TRADE RETURNS.

An Increase of Over $14,000,000 in the Last Ten Months—Exports Lower—Raw Materials.

Ottawa, May 22.—The trade returns compiled by the Customs Department for the month of April indicate that the growing time in Canada's commerce continues with increasing strength. The value of dutiable goods imported for home consumption amounted to $3,032,-724, upon which duty to the amount of $2,220,419.02 was collected; free goods, $4,881,305, and coin and bullion, $38,078, making total imports of $12,452,117, as compared with dutiable goods, $6,082,404, upon which $1,753,653.90 was collected; free goods $3,550,124, and coin and bullion, $495,104, with a total of $10,-127,63 in April, 1898. This gives an increase of $2,324,483 for the month, as compared with the corresponding period of last year. The total imports for the ten months ending April 30 show a gratifying increase over the total for the corresponding period of the previous year, being in 1898, $106,388,815, and in 1899, $125,242,129, upon which the duty was in the respective years $18,259,592 and $21,072,127, an increase of $2,788,000.

An analysis of the schedule of goods entered free of duty for consumption in Canada shows a heavy increase in the goods which constitute the raw material of various industries, the principal increases over April, 1898, in certain leading articles being as follows: India rubber and gutta percha, crude, $97,000; fur skins, not dressed, $75,000; metal, iron and steel, other than steel rails for railways, $103,000; steel, manilla and hemp, undressed, $56,000; wool, $36,000; dyes and chemicals, $30,000; hides and skins, $30,000; anthracite coal, $190,000. In fact, every article specified in the returns which may be classed as raw material, with the exception of raw cotton, shows an increase.

The exports for April were $5,517,608, of goods the produce of Canada, and $198,574 the produce of other countries, making a total of $5,716,182, as compared with $5,756,960 the produce of Canada, $237,039 the produce of other countries, and a total of $5,992,998 for April of last year. Coin and bullion exported during April, 1899, amounted to $226,720, as compared with $218,165 during the corresponding month of last year, bringing the total exports to $6,942,902 and $7,121,164 respectively, a falling off of $209,262.

The wonderful success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills adds to the fame of the great doctor whose name is familiar in almost every home as the author of the world famous Recipe Book.

Scores and thousands of grateful men and women have been rescued from the miseries and dangers of kidney disease by this greatest of all kidney cures.

Mr. D. C. Simmons, Mabee, Ont., writes: "My kidneys and back were so bad I was unable to work or sleep. My urine had sediment like brick dust, I was compelled to get up four or five times during the night. I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and concluded to give them a trial. I have only used one box and am completely cured. I was a great sufferer for 18 years, but my kidneys do not bother me now. I enjoy good rest and sleep and consider Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills a boon to suffering humanity."

O. C. FISH IS FREE.

Grand Jury Threw Out the Indictment Against Emsdale Man.

Parry Sound, Ont., May 22.—The spring Assizes here were concluded on Saturday before Mr. Justice Ferguson. The case against O. C. Fish, accused of stealing $6,000 from his brother, an Emsdale merchant, was thrown out by the grand jury. Fish had been arrested in Dubuque, Iowa, waived extradition proceedings, and was brought back to Canada by Detective Murray. The only other case on the docket was one against Joseph Cornfield for criminal assault. The indictment was amended to that of common assault; prisoner found guilty and sentenced to six months.

Drove Off the Detectives.

Montreal, May 22.—Detective Joseph Kilkert, chief, and ten of his men, returned at 10 o'clock on Saturday evening from Valleyfield, where they went to execute warrants for the arrest of Captain George Marks of the big lake schooner Helvetia, at present at Valleyfield, at the head of the Beauharnois Canal, his son George, and his wife, Jenny Mitchell. All hail from Cleveland, O. The trouble arose in this way: Capt. Marks was appointed by the Atlantic Transport Company, and looked to them for his wages and the settlement of his expense account. Until his claim is satisfied he refuses to leave his ship, and his son, his wife, his crew and the people of Valleyfield stand by him. The owners of the vessel, a Cleveland firm, sent Captain William Parker and another crew down to Valleyfield to take the vessel over, but Marks refused to allow them on board. The detectives from this city fared similarly, and the chief, in order to avoid bloodshed, withdrew his men.

Over 1,000 More Galicians.

The only notable incidents of the passage were two births and one death.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. THE CZAR'S CONFERENCE.

The Eight Points of Count Muravieff's Circular Delivered to the Committees —The Order of Importance.

The Hague, May 22.—The committees will meet for the first time to-morrow. The eight points enumerated in Count Muravieff's circular for their consideration have been distributed among the committees. They are as follows:

The disarmament committee consider: First, the limitation of expenditures; second, the prohibition of new firearms; third, the limitation of the use of explosives; fourth, prohibition of the use of submarine boats.

The committee on laws of warfare will discuss: First, the application of the Geneva convention to naval warfare; second, the neutralization of vessels in an engagement while engaged in saving shipwrecked men, during and after naval engagements; third, the revision of the declaration of Brussels in 1874, on the notifications and customs of war.

The committee on arbitration and mediation will deal with the eighth question of Count Muravieff's circular. The British members of the arbitration committee are Messrs. Pauncefote and Howard.

It was learned during Saturday that M. de Staal placed the question of mediation and arbitration in the forefront during his speech. The question of the laws of war, rendering war as humane as possible by the extension of the regulations already existing, was then touched upon by the president, and he relegated the question of the reduction of armaments to the third place.

The conference decided on Saturday that all delegates, including the technical representatives, are to participate in the sittings and join in the business. The date of the next sitting has not yet been fixed. It depends upon the progress which will be made by the committees. M. de Staal announced that the Government of the Netherlands would give an artistic fete on June 16 in honor of the conference.

Toronto, May 22.—On Saturday that great racing and social function of the year, the Queen's Plate race, was run, and at this, the 19th annual meet of the Ontario Jockey Club, the succession was broken. Mr. Seagram's colors, eight times winners of the Plate in succession, were lowered by Mr. Hendrie's filly Butter Scotch. The time was 2.15¼, which was splendid for the track. The 12,000 crowd cheered itself hoarse on the victory. The probable value of the race is $1,600, 50 guineas the gift of Her Majesty, the first horse to receive the guineas, the stakes and $700 added by the club; second $200 and the club $100. TWO RAILWAY CASUALTIES.

Lindsay and St. Thomas Residents the Victims of the Accidents.

Lindsay, Ont., May 22.—A special doubleheader freight train of 35 cars and van, Conductor Lithgow, eastward bound from Midland, ran over a cow three miles west of here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, resulting in the derailment of both engines and some 20 cars. Fireman Dudley, who was on the seat, was instantly killed, and Brakeman Harry Zealand badly scalded, although hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Charles Harpen Killed.

St. Thomas, May 22.—Charles Harpen, a brakeman on the Michigan Central Railway, residing in this city, met with a tragic death at Ridgetown early yesterday morning by falling under the wheels of his train. WOODSTOCK WONDER.

A Crippled Rheumatic Restored by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Woodstock, Ont., May 22.—Never in the social history of this town since the Birchall trial, has such great interest been shown as the "Cutmore Case" has caused.

Mr. C. J. Cutmore, 90 Main street, was crippled by Rheumatism and Lumbago during five years. He couldn't stand straight and had to be helped from his room.

To-day he is straight and strong; sound in every limb, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills. Other remedies were used, but did no good. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him.

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

F. Prudhomme, Pere Deschambeault, interpreter, and La France, cook.

No Logs Moved.

Toronto, May 23.—An official denial was yesterday given to the statement that American limit-holders are shipping logs cut in Ontario to Michigan in defiance of the act requiring manufacture in the province; also to the report that the authorities fear that attempts will be made to resist the enforcement of the law.

Swallowed a Lead Pencil.

Kingston, Ont., May 23.—A young son of Mr. Cornell, Portsmouth, swallowed a piece of a lead pencil and had to be removed to the hospital, where he was relieved. He was nearly suffocated by the lodgement of the pencil in his throat. The pencil had a nickel top and an eraser.

Quaint Sayings.

It is interesting and instructive to read bright and well constructed advertisements. Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, must have been at a great feast and taken everything home with them. They are using a bright selection of quaint old sayings and proverbs as the starters in a series of clever advertisements, wherein the proverbs are neatly turned and paraphrased to fit the subject matter. The public like this breezy advertising, as it reminds of other proverbs and opens up discussion.

THE QUEEN'S QUEEN'S BIRTHDAY.

Will Receive the Congratulations of Her Family at Windsor Castle.

London, May 22.—The approaching ceremonies at Windsor will be most interesting. Upon the occasion of Her Majesty's birthday next Wednesday morning the Queen will receive the congratulations of her family and will then be serenaded in the grand quadrangle of the castle by a choir of 250 voices, to which the Queen will listen from the oak room overlooking the quadrangle. At noon the Scots Fusiliers Guards will march past the Queen on the east lawn and fire a feu de joie. A thanksgiving service in St. George's Chapel will follow. The Queen will then drive through Windsor, passing under a magnificent floral arch erected on Castle Hill and in the evening "Lohengrin" will be given by the Opera Company in the Waterloo Chamber.

It is rumored that the Queen, in connection with her birthday, will again offer the Marquis of Salisbury a dukedom, which he refused at the time of Her Majesty's Jubilee.

CHRISTIAN UNITY.

Rev. J. C. Davidson Speaks on the Subject in St. John's Church.

Rev. J. C. Davidson's evening sermon on Sunday was based on the text, "The Lord hath chosen Zion, he hath desired it for His habitation. This is my rest forever, here will I dwell." Ps. 132, 13th ver.

The speaker first spoke of the presence and work of the Holy Spirit in the Church, which by his instrumentality had begun on the day of Pentecost, a living organism instinct with the life of God. The same spirit had continued to abide in the Church from that day to this, but His influence was grieviously hindered by the faults and mistakes of members, and sometimes of whole sections of the Church, in which respect none of us could say that we were blameless. One of the sins which had seriously impeded the Holy Spirit's working lay in the divisions which in one way and the other had taken place in the Church. This was evident. If any body or organization was wounded or divided, it might maintain a sickly or imperfect existence, but could not be possessed of all the power of activity given to it. The speaker did not dwell further upon the evils of division, considering that they were only too apparent. As to the future, he maintained that the greater of these evils could be overcome. There were certain things we could not expect, such as absolute uniformity, which, however, was quite necessary and out of accord with nature. One type of church service might be adapted for one section of people, and possibly unsuited for another. There might even be different types of human organization, provided that the divine organization was not interfered with. What we should strive for was not uniformity, but living connection among all living Christians in one living body. But science has demonstrated to an absolute conclusion that life can only spring from life; therefore, this one living Church of the future must be in vital connection with the one of the past. Any new organization however broad, which had not this qualification would only add one to the number of existing sects. After referring to the means by which this life had been transmitted in the past, the speaker went on to point out that the Church of England did not aim to absorbe all other bodies. They desired that the Church of the future should not be the Church of England, but the Church of Canada, and they would be satisfied if it were in undoubted living connection with the one true church, which Our Lord Jesus Christ had left to continue the work in the world. We should all, the Rector said, investigate the heritage given to us and carefully distinguish between essential and non-essential parts of it. In regard to what simply suited or pleased ourselves we should be liberal. But essential portions of our heritage should be and would be loyally guarded and maintained, not only for ourselves, but for the benefit of the united church of the future when it is ready to receive these.

The preacher closed by urging them that we should all endeavour to understand one another in a frank and kindly spirit and give ourselves up to the guidance of Him, who was both the Spirit of Truth and the Spirit of Love.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir—May I beg the privilege of writing a few words in reply to "Veritas," who claims that the other church in our town which teaches "Divine" healing has been unfairly treated in being classed with the Christian Scientists, inasmuch as they (the Christian Alliance) preach the pure, unadulterated gospel, and yet, in almost the next sentence, he drags in a quotation from the words of our Blessed Lord which certainly is not pure, unadulterated gospel, or Scripture either, when it wrests it as he does. It is worthy of note that in the verse quoted it merely says "a man at variance with his father, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law," and in the following verse, "he that loveth father and mother more than me is not worthy of me." No mention is made of husband or wife, though of course every true Christian loves his Lord supremely and beyond every other earthly object. Our Lord has said "husbands love your wives," and he has never spoken a word which would invalidate that command. He has also said what God has joined let no man put asunder, and woe to the man, be he pastor or layman, who dares to do so, even in the slightest degree. Now in all that I am about to say I speak from an honest and sincere heart, and fully recognize whatever good the Alliance Mission may have done in our town. I may also state that I speak from actual knowledge and not from hearsay, as on my first coming to town some two or three years ago being willing to prove all things, I sometimes attended their meetings, soon discovered enough about them to send me to my knees in earnest prayer that the Lord would lead them into a better way. On first reading "Pro Bono Publico's" letter it sounds very harsh, yet with heartfelt sorrow I must say that I am aware of facts which would seem to justify the statements made therein, with the exception of their being unbalanced in their minds, and even as to that it is well known that some of them at least profess to believe that outlandish story of Dr. Dowie raising a woman from the dead, also another story direct from Rev. A. B. Simpson's college of a man who had his eyes injured and taken out and a new pair grown in in answer to the prayer of faith; also a boy who had his leg amputated and a new one grown on. In the face of all this we may well ask, as "Pro Bono Publico" does, of the Scientists, "How can anyone with a well-balanced mind make such statements as the above, and how can anyone accept them and still retain an intelligent grip of life and its conditions." If the pastor of the Christian Alliance church will call on you, you may give him my name and address, as I wish to take no unfair advantage of any person or people, especially of those who claim to be doing the Lord's Work.

The first meeting of the season of the Peterborough Cheese Board was held in the Council Chamber this morning. The following buyers were present: Messrs. Wrighton, Cluxton, Cook, Fitzgerald, Whitton, Rollins, Squire and Kerr.

Mr. Drummond, the chairman, in calling the meeting to order, expressed the pleasure it gave him to see so many old faces present. He referred in suitable terms to the death of Mr. Richard Waram. He was also pleased to see several new buyers present. The speaker referred to the matter of obtaining an instructor for this district. The matter was left in the hands of the executive of the board last fall, and during the winter that body had met and decided that a local man would be the most suitable. EMPIRE DAY.

How it was Observed in the Town Schools.

Empire Day was observed in the schools to-day in accordance with the suggestions contained in a circular issued from the Department of Education by Hon. G. W. Ross.

Half of the morning was occupied by the teachers of the various schools in delivering addresses on Canada's relation to Great Britain, the advantages to be derived from the same and similar patriotic subjects. In the afternoon the scholars recited and sang patriotic selections.

WORSE THAN YELLOW FEVER

Kidney Disease, Man's Deadliest Foe—Dodd's Kidney Pills its Only Cure.

Toronto, May 15. — "Yellow fever and smallpox combined do not kill as many people as Kidney Disease does." was the assertion of a prominent physician, recently.

The assertion is fully borne out by facts, and were it not that there is a means of checking and curing Kidney disease the number of its victims would be trebled.

But the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills keeps the death rate from this complaint quite low compared to its former height.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills were used in every case of Kidney Disease there would be no deaths from it.

The Red Bird, Best To-Day and Good for Years.
THE WILSON CHAIN
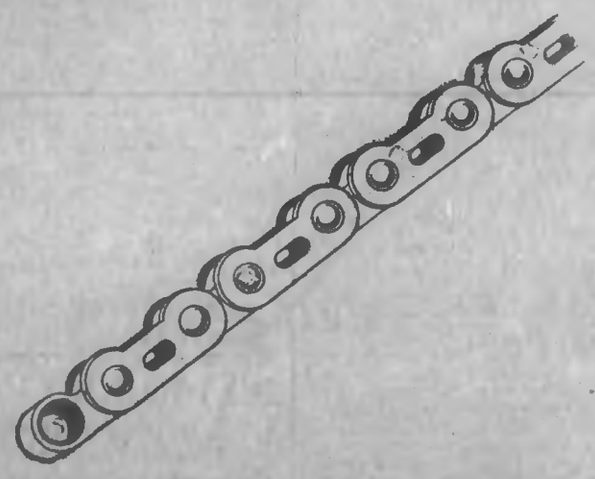
With Which Red Birds are Fitted
When bicycle manufacturers and riders the world over were having trouble with their bicycle chains, which, in spite of all they could do, would wear and stretch, it was a Canadian who found a way out of the difficulty.



This Canadian was Mr. Wm. Wilson, one of the experts paid by this company to bring the Red Bird nearer a state of perfection.

This invention consisted of a patent, whereby the centre part of the pin was hardened, giving the hardened steel pin. So well was this received that the largest chain manufacturing establishment in the world purchased the American right to produce it. Since then there have been many imitations, none are so good as the genuine article, such as Red Birds are fitted with to-day.

J. T. ROACH ARRESTED

One of the Gang Who Cracked the Bank in Napanee.

HE WAS CAUGHT IN BOSTON

The Nervy Individual Who, According to Pare and Holden, Was Implicated With Them in the Contents of the Dominion Bank's Safes—Story of His Alleged Connection With the Crime.

Toronto, May 25.—Ever since the arrest and confession of Pare, the Napanee bank robber, in July, 1898, the police of the continent have been on the lookout for one John T. Roach, said by Pare and his coadjutor Holden, to have been intimately connected with the famous robbery.

Caught at Boston.

News has reached the city of the arrest of the long-sought-for John, as will be seen by the following despatch:

Boston, Mass., May 24.—John T. Roach of Montreal, alleged by the police to be a professional pickpocket and all round crook, has been arrested here on the charge of being implicated in the robbery of the Dominion Bank, Napanee, Ont., Aug. 29, 1897, when $32,000 in cash and notes was taken. Roach is fifth and last on the list of suspected Napanee robbers.

Known in Toronto.

Roach is not unknown to the city police. He was arrested in Toronto, May 14, 1896, at D'Alton McCarthy's funeral, in company with a pal called Fenton. They were charged with picking pockets. After Roach's release he went to Fort Erie.

He is 21 years old, stands 5 feet 8½ inches high, has brown hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion. It is said he has a decided squint in one of his eyes.

His home is in Kingston, where he was once employed as a clerk.

His Part in the Story.

In regard to the Napanee bank robbery he comes early into the story. Holden in his testimony declared that Roach was with him when the unsuccessful attempt to crack the Dominion Bank safe was made in the early winter of 1897. A hole was bored in the side of the safe and an effort was made to punch off the bolts, but in vain.

The vault was entered, according to Holden's story, by the combination lock being left on the day lock by a man in the bank.

On returning from Napanee to Belleville the rig was smashed and the Indian Hill's house visited.

Pare related some interesting facts about Roach when he gave his confession in August, 1898. Pare said he was going from Cleveland to Montreal in the spring of 1897, when he received a letter from John Roach of Toronto. It caused him to go to Belleville to look for Roach. He didn't find him. Then he went to Montreal and met Roach, who was a friend of Pare's sister, Mrs. Saucier. Holden made up a unique trio.

The Montreal Meeting.

The Napanee robbery was discussed. Roach told of the first attempt and how it had failed. Another scheme, the hold-up one, was suggested by him, and all three decided to go in for it.

The three went up to Belleville, met Mackie, and spent the next few weeks in the vicinity of Napanee, camping out in the woods.

All details for carrying out the hold-up were laid as Pare explained. The first ruse was to have a card game in the bank. The game was so long being arranged that the plotters grew tired. Then the bicycle plan was thought of. This dropped through also. These were all the product of Roach's brain. With failure, Pare became bossy and wanted to try his hand at engineering the game. This was agreed to. Roach showed him around Napanee.

"Roach told me he knew the bank man," was a statement made by Pare in his confession. And when the hold-up game failed he suggested blackmailing the bank man and threatening to disclose the bored hole in the safe as evidence of guilt.

But Roach was like Cicero, never supporting a scheme not of his own initiating. Hence, he and the others quarrelled. He got sore and left on July 20 for Montreal, leaving the others in the woods. He declared there was nothing in the job and he was losing money. In a week he was back in Napanee.

Roach Was Nervy.

Of his return, Pare says:

We asked him: What are you going to do? Have you any money?

He replied: My money is my own.

What did you come for? we asked.

I am interested in this matter, was his reply.

Then I said: If you don't stay you may declare yourself out of the game.

He said: I am going to stay. Nobody can drive me out of the job.

Roach went away that night and that was the last I saw of him till the job was done.

During the trial in August last, Pare was shown a photo of Roach and recognized it.

Roach's Alleged Share.

The division of the spoils after the robbery gave Roach but $1100. But $100 of this he owed Mackie for board, and another $100 was deducted as a fine.

For, Pare said, "Ponton told me he had received a letter from Jack Roach to hold him $3000 for his share if successful. We agreed to fine Roach $100 for sending that letter, and deducted it. Roach really got $900 as he was to pay Mackie $100 for board."

One hundred dollars of the money was sent to Roach on Sept. 1 by Pare, to his mother's house in a letter.

Was One of the Trio.

At the trials in August and November, several witnesses recognized Roach's photo as that of one of the men that hung around Napanee during the summer of 1897, in company with Pare and Holden.

Miss French declared: "This looks like the man Mrs. Mackie called Jack."

In the Crown's case Roach is linked with Pare, Holden and Mackie as a conspirator to rob the bank.

Positively Identified.

Boston, May 24.—Detective Sutherglt of Montreal, who had reached here to-day, positively identified Roach as the man wanted at Napanee, though the prisoner denied all knowledge of the affair. He said he would make the Canadian Government forward extradition papers.

SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Edward Elliott to Hang on August 17 For Murdering William Murray—Deed Committed at Beaverton.

Whitby, May 26.—Edward Elliott, the 16-year-old lad from Beaverton, who was charged with the murder of old William Murray, at Beaverton, on Nov. 13 last, was found guilty here on Tuesday night, and Judge MacMahon sentenced him to be hanged on Aug. 17. The murdered man was a retired farmer, and was very old. He lived all alone in a little house in Beaverton, and had means. An old Scotchman, John McHaltie, did his chores, and was going to Murray's house on the day of the tragedy, when he met the Elliott boy, who asked where he was going. He said he was going to Mr. Murray's, and the lad said he would go along too, for he wanted to borrow Mr. Murray's pistol.

At the house Elliott asked the old man for his pistol, saying he wanted to shoot ducks. Murray replied that he had lent his pistol to someone else a long time ago, and McHaltie said, "Come, Elliott, let us go," but the lad said he was going to wait awhile. He had in his hands an iron bar about 2½ feet long, which was a portion of an agricultural machine.

McHaltie left, and that was the last he saw of Murray. Three days afterwards he, as well as his two neighbors, named Keely and Dunsheath, became alarmed because there was no smoke coming from the chimney of the old man's house, and they could not get in. Dunsheath broke open the door and found Murray lying near the stove, with his head broken in, his hair stuck to the floor by clots of blood. The matter was reported to the authorities at once, and Elliott and McHaltie were arrested. McHaltie was discharged, and a coroner's jury fixed the murder upon she lad, who was said to have made a confession. The lad told the whereabouts of the keys of the old man's house, and it is supposed he killed Murray with the iron bar which he had in his hands when McHaltie left on the fatal Friday. Elliott's extreme youth may save him from the hangman.

FILIPINOS ARE TENACIOUS.

They Went Back to a District From Which They Had Been Driven.

Manila, May 25.—Two companies of the Third Infantry and two companies of the 22nd Infantry, forming Gen. Lawton's rear guard, returning from San Miguel to Balinag, yesterday, escorting a signal party, which was picking up wire laid with Gen. Lawton's expedition, found that the insurgents had re-occupied the country and hard fighting followed from daylight until the Americans camped at night. But the troops completed their work, though harassed by the enemy. One American was killed and 14 were wounded. The troops captured 20 prisoners and 30 rifles.

It developed yesterday that five men, instead of one man, were drowned by the sinking of a raft, loaded with soldiers of the 14th Regiment, at Pasig Ferry on Tuesday. Twenty insurgents were killed and 40 wounded in the engagement with Major Bell's reconnoitering party in the vicinity of Santa Arita yesterday.

General Lawton, with most of his troops, has arrived at Malolos. His remarkable expedition marched 120 miles in 20 days and had 21 fights, captured 28 towns, destroyed 3,000 bushels of rice and only lost six men killed and 31 wounded. On the other hand, Gen. Lawton estimates that his troops killed 400 insurgents and wounded double that number. Gen. Lawton, after 30 days of successful campaigning, is resting with 6,000 men at Candaba.

The United States commissioners and many American officers celebrated Queen Victoria's birthday yesterday on board the British first class cruiser Powerful.

Sherman's Denunciation.

New York, May 25.—A Pittsburg special to The World says: John Sherman, ex-Secretary of State, was in Pittsburg yesterday, on his way to Mansfield, O., where he will spend the summer. He was vigorous in denunciation of the Administration and its conduct of the war against the Filipinos.

He said: "The war that is being waged against the Filipinos is as cruel as it is unnecessary. We promised them independence, and instead gave them merciless and devastating strife. It is too bad that we ever got into this trouble with those people."

G. T. R. TRACKMEN'S STRIKE.

The Men Say They Are Holding Out From Portland to Sarnia.

Montreal, May 24.—This news is good from Portland to Sarnia at 5 p.m.:

"We are holding out until the company settles with our committee.

"No notice is being taken of the threat of dismissal or the paying off. If they pay, it gives them some more pocket money. Our cast-iron instructions not to interfere with track or trains is being perfectly observed. Our striking trackmen are showing their sterling character by sobriety and non-interference with traffic.

"Statements from Portland that eight scabs were taken on at South Paris are untrue. Public sympathy at all points is too intense for any scabs to show up.

"Union meetings of engineers, conductors, firemen and brakemen are being held, and resolutions forwarded to General Superintendent McGuigan, telling him to settle or they will have to take action for their own safety.

"We are willing to resume work the moment the company does us justice, and are willing to lay our case before any three disinterested parties who know what work is worth.—William Pole, chairman Executive Committee; Joseph Harris, secretary."

London Street Cars Still Tied Up.

London, Ont., May 24.—The strike situation on the Street Railway remains unchanged. The company announced in the morning papers that the cars would start running at 6 o'clock this evening, but no attempt was made to run at that hour, and none ran later.

Finlanders for Newfoundland.

A WIN AND A WATERLOO.

The result of the bye-election in North Waterloo on Empire Day was a win for the Liberal candidate and a Waterloo for Dr. Lackner and the Conservatives. As predicted in the the Examiner a few days ago this old Liberal riding has taken advantage of the occasion of this election to return to the Liberal fold, from which, in a moment of weakness, she departed in March, 1898. At the general elections Dr. Lackner won a short-lived success owing to accidental and local circumstances—the overconfidence of the Liberals, which accounted largely for many changes throughout the province, added to local dissensions, and the employment of means which the election courts condemned. But once the Liberals put their shoulders to the wheel and united to win, the work of winning was easy; an adverse majority of 65 was converted into a Liberal majority of 111, and the fact that the chief gains were in the two townships that suffered most in the general elections of 1898 from local Liberal dissensions shows that they have buried the hatchet, and that now, the Liberals presenting a solid front, can win without trouble. Dr. Lackner and Mr. Whitney, the Opposition leader, conducted the campaign without a policy except an appeal to sympathy, while the Liberals had a good, strong, patriotic policy and an unimpeachable record as the basis of an appeal for the confidence of the electors. The robust electors of North Waterloo plainly prefer strong meat to milk and water.

There has been considerable talk about a new railroad from here north, passing near Stony Lake. It would be a great boon to the people of Norwood and vicinity who own cottages at that place. It would also be a terminal, east and west, for others seeking pleasure for a few weeks and months at that lake. The C. P. R. have been asked to interest themselves in the scheme, but as yet there has been no result. The people of the village should make every effort and secure the railroad.

The orchards in and around the village are infested by tree worms, and the owners of the trees will have a hard time keeping them from being destroyed. The spraying machine is in evidence and many of the trees are being saved.

Several parties in the village are preparing their lawns for tennis and there is talk of a club being formed. Matches could be arranged with Peterborough and several other surrounding towns. There are some fine players in the village and plenty of good material to pick from.

NEWS OF MR. WIDEMAN

ONE OF THE MOST REMARKABLE CASES ON RECORD.

Mr. Wideman's Health has Shown no Disposition to Break Down—All Further Anxiety Relieved—Dodd's Kidney Pills Insure His Life.

Duntroon, Ont., May 24.—Some time ago we published an account of A. N. Wideman, of Nottawanga Township, and of his rescue from a painful death. It will be remembered that Mr. Wideman was crippled, both legs being paralyzed. His body was swollen and sores had developed from continual lying in bed. One of these was poulticed 500 times before it healed. His condition was so distressing that he could not change his position. His legs were twisted out of shape, his toes pointing inwards. This state continued for five months.

The doctors treated him for inflammatory Rheumatism but failed to improve his condition. Indeed, to the contrary, their medicine made his teeth break off. He was finally given up by the doctors and all but one of his friends to die. That friend was the friend indeed.

Mrs. John Boyer induced him to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. From the first he improved. He simply had to improve. Rheumatism is caused by impure blood. Impure blood is caused by defective kidneys failing to strain it. Dodd's Kidney Pills get at the root of the disease by making the kidneys healthy.

Well, this was some months ago. Mr. Wideman is still in good health. A great deal of anxiety was felt by his friends as to whether the cure would be permanent. The disease has shown no inclination to return so far, and we may add the impression is so long as Mr. Wideman keeps his kidneys working properly it will not reoccur. This case has caused wide-spread comment in and about Duntroon, and has made Dodd's Kidney Pills a household word.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are for sale by all druggists, at 50 cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

IN MEMORIAM.

Resolution Concerning the Death of the Late John Stewart.

At a meeting of the session of the Centreville Presbyterian church on the 21st inst., the following motion was adopted:

The Session of the Centreville Presbyterian church desire to place on record their deep sense of loss in the removal by death of Mr. John Stewart, who has served the congregation in the capacity of elder since December 28th, 1884. During these years, as well as during the years that preceded his ordination and induction to the eldership, he approved himself a faithful and energetic servant of our congregation and a devoted follower of the Lord Jesus Christ. His regular and punctual attendance upon Church services, his interest in all that tended to the good of our congregation, and the practical piety of his daily life have been to us a source of much blessing and shall still influence us for good.

We are gratified to God for the work His spirit has wrought through the life of our departed brother, and our prayer is that He may minister comfort to the bereaved family and give us other helpers as willing and as efficient as the one He has removed.

On behalf of the Session,
J. W. McINTOSH,
Moderator.

His Life was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the quickest and surest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at James Lynch's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. WORLD ENCIRCLING

Were the Demonstrations in Honor of Queen's Birthday.

FOREIGN NATIONS JOIN IN

Her Majesty Honored at Home—Many American Cities Unite in Celebrating the Day—Congratulations From Rulers of Monarchical and Democratic Countries, Abroad—British Ships at Tampa, Fla.

London, May 24.—Torrents of rain to-day ushered in Queen Victoria's 80th birthday.

At Windsor, where a general holiday is being observed, the town was decorated with flags, and the church bells were rung at 7 o'clock in the morning. The weather cleared at about 11 o'clock, and a serenade by the Windsor and Eton Choral Societies was given in the Grand Quadrangle of Windsor Castle. The sun then shone brilliantly. The serenade was listened to by the Queen and the members of the Royal family, including the children of the Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Prince and Princess Christian and Princess Henry of Battenburg. Sir Walter Parratt, the Master of the Queen's Music and private organist to the Queen, wearing his official robes, conducted the serenade from the steps of the Queen's private entrance to the palace, just below the oak room, where the Queen was breakfasting.

The Eton College Volunteer Cadets marched into the castle grounds, headed by a band of music, and took up a position in the rear of the choir. Behind the cadets were drawn up the rest of the Eton boys and military knights of Windsor. The Mayor and corporation of Windsor, in their full robes of office, and the borough magistrates were also present.

A Picturesque Scene.

The scene was extremely picturesque. They all sang the National Anthem, and then the choir gave the program, comprising the late Bishop of Wakefield's Jubilee hymn, a four-part song, and two specially written madrigals to the Queen. Finally, the Eton boys gave three lusty cheers in honor of Her Majesty, and the Duke of Connaught came to one of the windows and thanked those present in behalf of the Queen, who herself, looking to be in excellent health, came forward and bowed repeatedly.

Sir Walter Parratt and the Mayor of Windsor were then introduced to the Queen and handed her a beautiful floral harp. Her Majesty afterwards knighted the Mayor, J. T. Soundry. Although the official birthday celebrations in London were postponed till June 3, all public buildings, many business houses and a great many private residences are decorated. In fact, more flags were flying than at any time since the Queen's Jubilee.

Thanksgiving Services.

A great congregation assembled in St. Paul's Cathedral this morning, where thanksgiving services were held, and huge crowds of people were unable to obtain admittance. They grouped themselves in the spaces about the building. The Lord Mayor of London, Sir John Voce Moore; the sheriffs, the aldermen, sword and mace-bearers, and all the other functionaries, in their robes of state, attended. The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev. Frederick Temple, D.D., officiated and preached the sermon, after which a Te Deum was sung.

Birthday celebrations occurred throughout the provinces, the ships in the different ports were "dressed" for the occasion and the warships were covered with bunting.

At Portsmouth there were reviews of the regular troops, volunteers and naval brigades, and the same ceremonies occurred at the various arsenals and garrison towns.

In Far-Off India.

A telegram from Simla, the summer capital of British India, says that impressive Queen's birthday services there were attended by the Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, and the Indian and military officials, in full dress. Royal salutes were fired. Lord and Lady Curzon will hold a state dinner and levee to-night. Despatches from the Continent report the printing of eulogistic articles on the Queen's reign in the European press.

Queen Plants a Sapling.

During the afternoon the Queen planted an oak sapling on the east lawn of Windsor Castle. She drove along Kenilworth drive to the spot, and was assisted in the planting by the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. All the members of the Royal Family witnessed the ceremony.

Her Majesty then continued her drive in the direction of Frogmore. The military knights of Windsor presented an address to the Queen at noon in the corridor of the castle, and received the warm thanks of Her Majesty.

A pretty incident was the presentation to the Queen this morning by each of her grand and great-grandchildren now at the castle of a tiny bouquet of flowers. These descendants of Her Majesty, who was deeply touched, also kissed her.

McKinley to Victoria.

Washington, D.C., May 24.—The President has addressed the following message to Queen Victoria, on the occasion of the anniversary of her birthday:

Executive Mansion, Washington, May 24.

To Her Majesty the Queen, Windsor Castle, England:

Madame,—It gives me great pleasure to convey on this happy anniversary the expression of the sentiments of regard and affection which the American people cherish towards Your Majesty, and to add the assurance of my own cordial respect and esteem.

May God grant Your Majesty and to the countries under your government many years of happiness and prosperity.

William McKinley.

Francis Joseph's Congratulations.

Vienna, May 24.—Emperor Francis Joseph, wearing a uniform of the King's Dragoon Guards, the British cavalry regiment of which he is honorary colonel, called at the British Embassy here to-day in order to personally offer his congratulations upon the occasion of Queen Victoria's 80th birthday.

Honors in Germany.

Berlin, May 24.—A banquet will be given in the Jasper Hall of the new palace at Potsdam this evening in honor of Queen Victoria's birthday. The Emperor and Empress of Germany, the Crown Prince Frederick William, Prince Eitel Frederick, second son of Their Majesties, and their suites, all of the Princes now in Berlin, the Court dignitaries, the officials of the British Embassy, the Imperial Chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron Von Buelow, and the leading military officers will be present.

Hotel Cecil Banquet.

London, May 24.—The birthday banquet, given at the Hotel Cecil to-night, was attended by many members of the American Society in London. Lord Rosebery, who presided, referred to the American guests as representing a commonwealth of States once part of the British Empire, but now nearer than any country excepting the colonies. Col. Taylor of the society, in responding for the Americans, paid a tribute to the Queen, and read cablegrams that had been exchanged with the citizens of Tampa, Fla. His speech brought out a further response from Lord Rosebery, after which the orchestra played "Hail Columbia" amid a lively demonstration.

Message From the Pope.

London, May 24.—Her Majesty received a telegram of congratulation from Pope Leo XIII.

Even Kruger Observed the Day.

Pretoria, Transvaal, May 24.—The Volksraad, or Parliament, adjourned at noon today, in honor of the birthday of Queen Victoria.

A Reception in Paris.

Paris, May 24.—Sir Edmund J. Monson and Lady Monson this evening gave a grand reception at the British Embassy. There were 1500 guests present, including the Infanta Eulalie, aunt of the King of Spain; Grand Duke Michael, brother of the Czar of Russia; the Cabinet Ministers, the diplomatic corps, and most of the members of the Bourbon and Bonaparte families. It was a brilliant gathering, and was representative of the highest society of the French capital. The music for the occasion was furnished by the band of the Republican Guards, sent by Gen. Zurlinden, Military Governor of Paris, which was meant as a compliment to Queen Victoria on the anniversary of her birthday.

A New York Celebration.

New York, May 24.—Seventy persons tonight sat down to the fourth annual dinner of the British Schools and Universities Club, given at the Brevoort House in honor of Queen Victoria's eightieth birthday. The banquet room was draped with the British and American colors, and the tables were decorated with flowers. The club is composed of residents of the city who have attended British universities and such schools as Eton and Harrow. Rear-Admiral Sampson was the guest of honor. At the head of the table were an immense British Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes, and between these a portrait of Victoria in her coronation robes. American and British flags were also arranged at the opposite end of the banquet hall.

Union Jack in Buffalo.

Buffalo, N.Y., May 24.—British flags were much in evidence in Buffalo to-day. The visit of the Hamilton, Ont., Army Veterans and the desire to honor Queen Victoria brought out a display of bunting in the down-town district that was almost equal to that of the 4th of July. The Union Jack was to be seen everywhere.

A Presbyterian Message.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 24.—The Presbyterian Assembly to-day sent a congratulatory cable gram to Queen Victoria on her eightieth birthday. This message was cabled:

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America tenders congratulations on the eightieth anniversary of your birthday, and rejoices in the divine guidance which has blessed your life and prosperous reign."

The Celebration at Tampa.

Port Tampa, Fla., May 24.—The 80th birthday of Queen Victoria was celebrated at Port Tampa to-day. Two hundred marines from the Intrepid and Pearl, the two British cruisers sent to take part in the celebration, landed at 8 o'clock in the morning and were escorted up the long dock by the Tampa division of the Florida Naval Reserve, the Englishmen playing the American national airs and the Americans responding with the British Anthem.

The most dramatic incident of the day was the unveiling of a portrait of Queen Victoria. The portrait, draped in the flags of the two countries, stood upon a small balcony of the inn, and before it stood a crowd of expectant watchers. At noon precisely in the capital at Albany, N.Y., Governor Roosevelt touched an electric button, the covering fell from the face and two marines, English and American, standing at either side of the portrait, clasped each other's hands. The people cheered enthusiastically and off in the harbor were heard the heavy guns of the warships firing the Queen's salute.

ALL OVER CANADA.

Some of the Methods by Which Local Communities Testified Their Loyalty.

Delightful weather was vouchsafed for Queen's Birthday in Canada this year. In Toronto the celebration of the day was privately effected by the people, or else they helped others celebrate. Woodstock had baseball and bicycle races. A 20-mile bicycle road race and baseball were the principal amusements in Brantford. Madoc had the Toronto Tampa cadets, baseball and drilling contests. Six hundred U. S. soldiers visited Kingston, the corps known as the 3rd New York Battalion. A military review and harness races were other attractions. Georgetown had races and other sports. Ottawa lacrosse games, suspension of business and games. Barrie indulged in cricket, baseball and other sports. St. Catharines had a grand military day, and Galt games and baseball. Baseball and lacrosse were the features of the day at Peterboro.

Military Day in Montreal.

Montreal, May 24.—(Special.)—The feature of the Queen's birthday celebration in Montreal was a grand military review and field day. The local corps were augmented by the Eighth Royal Rifles of Quebec and the Second Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto. The proceedings were also taken part in by the Grand Army of the Republic Veterans, Vermont Post, located in Montreal. The whole of the troops mustered about 4000, formed in review order under the command of Major-General Hutton, and were inspected by His Excellency the Governor-General.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264 95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334 80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

HOW THE DAY WAS OBSERVED.

Her Majesty's Birthday Celebration.

BASEBALL AND LACROSSE GAMES.

Annual Picnic at Lakefield was a Great Success as Usual.

HON. CHAS. FITZPATRICK'S PATRIOTIC ADDRESS.

Full Account of the Other Attractions which Drew so Many People to Lakefield on the Queen's Birthday—Result of the Sports which were Run Off.

Although the weather has been of the class generally designated as "inclement," for the past week or so, the sky cleared off Tuesday evening and Old Sol came out and in all his glory for Her Gracious Majesty's birthday.

In Peterborough the day was generally observed and flags flew from every staff in town. Quite a few went down the river to Jubilee on the steamers and others again made their way down the Otonabee in canoes. In town the amusements furnished, consisted of a baseball match in the morning and a lacrosse game in the P.A.A.A. grounds. A gun club shoot also took place after dinner on the Riverside Park. A large number from town patronised Rev. Father Fitzpatrick's Lakefield picnic.

THE BASEBALL MATCH.

A large crowd attended the baseball game in the morning and was most agreeably surprised to ascertain that the reorganized Peterboroughs were capable of putting up an article of ball, which would entitle them to travel in very fast company. The Delawares of Toronto, were their opponents and though they were the city champions last season, they were entirely out of their class when they entered the lists against the local nine.

The Peterborough have a battery of which they may well feel proud and their infield is also up to the mark. The outfielders had so little to do yesterday that it is hard to judge of their capabilities. Dan McCabe did great execution in the pitcher's box, having a wonderful command of the ball. It would be interesting to see him on his mettle against a strong team. As a batter he leads the nine, making yesterday a home run, a couple of two-baggers and two single base hits. Chris Graham did great work behind the bat and it was seldom indeed that anything went by him. The fact that he is credited with five base hits shows what he can do with the ash. In Parnell, the team has one of the finest infielders in the province. His work was of the gilt edged variety yesterday. The bases were well covered by Paxman, Melrose and Sheridan.

The visiting team tried two pitchers during the game but both were "easy," 21 base hits being made off the pair. The main fault, however, of the Delawares, seemed to be in their wild throwing to bases.

The score was as follows:

Peterborough—

	Runs	Base Hits
Sheridan	4	2
Parnell	6	2
Graham	5	3
McCabe	4	5
Melrose	1	2
Paxman	1	2
Connors	2	3
D'Russia	3	1
Grady	2	1
	28	21

Delawares—

	Runs	Base Hits
Morris	1	1
Winfield	2	1
A. Allen	2	2
Marshall	2	2
Griffin	0	1
M. Allen	1	0
Mackerel	1	2
Dunn	1	1
McKerihan	1	1
	11	11

Score by innings—

Peterborough... 4 8 3 5 3 5 0—28
Delawares... 0 2 3 0 1 4 1—11

The next game which the local team plays should draw a big crowd, as the boys were only fooling with the visitors yesterday and could easily have held them down.

The play of the day was made by the Delaware's second baseman when he made a leap in the air, and pulling a ball down with one hand, touched a base runner out.

[illegible] and Chris make a great battery, and before the season is over some of the strong teams will learn that all the best men are not in the league yet.

Parnell astonished the spectators yesterday. Few knew that Peterborough possessed an infielder of such merit.

McKerihan's drive over the centre field fence for a home run was a dandy.

Umpire McWilliams, of Lindsay, did his work in a highly satisfactory manner.

Sheridan's long run and catch of a foul fly was deserving of the applause which was given.

Parnell also got his man out at first in a manner deserving of the applause which was given.

ond base is well held down by Melrose.

THE LACROSSE MATCH.

The Senior Peterboroughs and the Hastings lacrosse team played an interesting match on the P.A.A.A. grounds in the afternoon, which was very largely attended. The visiitng team was a far harder problem of solution than was imagined and in consequence those in attendance were given a fine exhibition of the national game, the score being five to two in favour of the Peterboroughs.

The local senior twelve were not in as good shape as they should have been and in consequence were unable to set as fast a pace as they usually do. The team did not seem to be rightly balanced at the start and several changes were made during the match which helped matters a little. The absence of King was felt on the home and the presence of Reynolds would have strengthened the twelve. The defence worked well, but as no man has been practiced at the position of point, Dobbin had frequently to face an attack unassisted as the defence to a man would go out to meet the ball. A point man should play his position and remain with the goal keeper, but this is a hard thing to learn unless a man is continually practiced in the position.

On the home division McClelland made his first appearance with the seniors and played a hard game, covering a great deal of ground. When occasion required it, he used his head in placing the ball, which is one of the great requisites in a lacrosse player. Jack and Jim McCabe played well together, and Hollingshead proved that he is a past master in the art. It was the first time that "Holly" had given the local enthusiasts a chance to see him play, and the exhibition which he gave of how the position of outside home should be played was a fine one. If he can find the time to play the game through the season he will fill a niche on the team which has long been vacant. Lipsett held down his man well at inside home, and after he came out showed that he hasn't forgotten the trick of how to shoot goals. Crossley did better at inside home than in the field, but a poor stick did much to prevent him making a good showing.

Dobbin in goal has forgotten none of his old-time quickness and stopped many hot shots. A nice piece of combination resulted in Hastings scoring their first goal, but the second one was the result of a long shot which Dobbin stopped all right, but the ball droppped dea dto the ground and curled between the sticks. As stated before the position of point was not well played by either Hughes or Mein, as neither would remain in front of the flags. This was not a fault in either man, but was due to the fact that they were not accustomed to playing the position. When out in the field both did exceptionally good work. Brown, of course, was always in the right place at the right time, and put up a grand game, as did Glover, whose great interference work brought him a lot of applause. Myles McDonough has steadied down a lot this season and promises to be one of the strongest men on the team.

In reference to Hastings it may be said that if they win from the Peterborough Juniors they will have a cinch on the Junior Championship of the C.L.A. The team is a heavy one and the members of it can cover the ground at as lively a rate as the best of them. The home men are pretty stickhandlers, and have a very effective combination, the defence players also do good work, but have one fault of which they must cure themselves. In relieving the goal they are prone to "warp" the ball down the field in any direction instead of passing it out to their own men. Broken of this trick the team should show up well this season.

The two teams lined up in the following order:

Hastings—Goal, Welsh; point, E. Wilcox; cover point, R. Morrison; 1st defence, W. Clapper; 2nd defence, H. Quigley; 3rd defense, H. Stevenson; centre, H. Scriver; 3rd home, E. Scriver; 2nd home, F. Dodd; 1st home, E. McNichol; outside home, H. Doonan; inside home, H. Dodd; field captain, H. P. Lynch.

Peterborough — Goal, F. Dobbin; point, J. Mein; cover point, J. Brown; 1st defence, H. Hughes; 2nd defence, R. Glover; 3rd defence, M. McDonough; centre, A. J. McClelland; 3rd home, Jack McCabe; 2nd home, Jim McCabe; 1st home, W. Crossley; outside home, A. A. Hollingshead; inside home, G. Lipsett; field captain, [illegible].

Referee, Mr. W. K. Lech.

The ball was faced at 3.18 p.m. and the ball travelled rapidly in on the Hastings territory, Jim McCabe making a couple of very close shots on the goal before it was relieved. After nine minutes play Jack McCabe scored first blood for Peterborough.

In the next game the Hastings team was kept on the defensive nearly all the time. Myles McDonough finally captured the ball near centre, when it passed to Jack McCabe, Jim McCabe, Hollingshead and Lipsett, the latter scoring. Time, 3 minutes.

The visitors now woke up, and carrying the ball in on the Peterborough flags made things very warm for them for a time, Doonan making a close shot. On the goal being relieved the ball was taken rapidly up the field and both Jim McCabe and Lipsett made good shots on the goal, which were cleverly stopped. Then operations were transferred to the other end of the field again, and Dodd was nearly successful in scoring on Dobbin. Doonan made another close shot and then McNicholl succeeded in getting one between the flags. Time, 14 minutes.

It took just two minutes for Peterborough to add another goal to their credit, Lipsett passing to Hollingshead, who scored. Score, 3—1,

The play was very fast in the next game, and both goals were threatened more than once. Harvey Dodd finally did the trick for Hastings on a pass from Quigley. Time, 61-2 minutes. Score, 3—2.

Hastings showed up in fine form now and made a big effort to tie the score. Some very pretty combination work was seen, and honours were about even between the two teams. Peterborough, however, finally pulled the game out of the fire, Lipsett scoring. Time, 5 minutes. Score, 4—2.

The local team appeared to get their second wind by this time and made things hot for Hastings, Jack McCabe doing some close shooting on goal. On a pass from Lipsett, Hollingshead did the trick. Time, 3 minutes. Score, 5—2.

No more goals were scored before time was called.

During the afternoon Mr. Archie Moore lost a silver medal on the field. It was about the size of a half dollar. He would be glad to have it returned.

Mr. R. M. Roy took several snap shots of the teams.

THE DAY AT LAKEFIELD.

Many, and at all times successful, have been the 24th of May picnics held at Lakefield, but the picnic of 1899, under Rev. Father Fitzpatrick's supervision, will certainly go on record as the most successful in the history of the parish. There are two reasons which no doubt were largely instrumental in bringing about such a pleasing state of affairs. The first was perhaps the glorious weather which favoured the occasion. The much abused weather prophet did not disappoint trusting hearts for once, and Queen's weather honoured the Queen's birthday. Consequently there was much joy. Another very important factor that did its share in drawing together so many of the good people from Lakefield, Young's Point and vicinity was the presence of the Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General of Canada, who addressed the large gathering in inspiring words of patriotism. The whole countryside graced the occasion with their presence, from the little children of tender years to the sturdy old yeomen who have oft before assembled at the same place and at the same season of the year to spend the day in not only giving vent to their feelings of patriotism, but to assist in the advancement of their church as well.

The picnic was held in the Agricultural grounds, the supper was served in the agricultural hall adjacent. There was amusement for all. While the older and more staid sat or strolled about, indulging in social conversation about matters of church or state, the younger element indulged in various games, including football, lacrosse, dancing and many other such innocent amusements. Excellent music for dancing was kept up throughout the entire afternoon, with the single exception, of course, of when the speech making was in progress, by Miss Lottie Bell and Miss Maggie McCabe.

The speaking was brief, but there was a ring of patriotism in every address, and a noticeable feature was the applause which greeted any reference to toleration and friendly intercourse between the various nationalities and the religious bodies as well

The amusement opened at 10 o'clock by a lacrosse match between the Maple Leaf Team of Campbellford and the Young Shamrocks of Peterborough. These are two junior organizations and the contest was for a silver tankard, very generously donated by the Rev. Father Fitzpatrick. The match was keenly contested and was won by the Young Shamrocks by a score of 3 to 1.

The teams were as follows:

Maple Leafs — Goal, W. Barnett; point, W. McCann; cover point, R. Maynard; 1st defence, E. Doxee; 2nd defence, N. Beatty; 3rd defence, J. Welsh; centre, T. Larmouth; 3rd home, C. Brady; 2nd home, E. Dunk; 1st home, W. Whitton; outside home, A. Casey; inside home, L. McGrath; field captain, R. Keating.

Young Shamrocks—Goal, G. Gilman; point, W. Judge; cover point, W. Smith; 1st defence, J. Welsh; 2nd defence, John Mulligan; centre, James Mulligan; 3rd home, J. Dolan; 2nd home, D. White; 1st home, H. Gilman; outside home, H. Sullivan; inside home, M. Galvin; field captain, D. Simons.

Referee, M. Vandervoot, Campbellford.

The first game was scored by Dominick White in one-half minute, the second by Galvin in 15 minutes, and the third was put through by W. O'Brien after thity minutes hard play.

At two o'clock in the afternoon a football match took place between the

HOW THE DAY WAS OBSERVED.

Warsaw boys and a team from Clear Lake, resulting in a victory for the former by two goals to nothing. The teams were as follows:

Clear Lake—Goal, MacImons; left back, L. Godfrey; right back, P. Ayotte; half backs, G. Ayotte, J. Ayotte and F. Ayotte and R. Fitzgerald; centre, Jim Ayote; right forwards, F. Fitzgerald and P. Ayotte.

Warsaw—

Referee—Mr. White.

After the football match was over the speaking began and took place from a grand stand erected amongst the beautiful cedars which furnished shelter from the intense heat of the rays of the sun.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., acted as chairman, and with him on the platform were, Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General of Canada, Ven. Archdeacon Casey, Peterborugh, Rev. Father McGuire, Hastings, Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald and Mr. Daniel O'Connel, Peterborough.

The chairman expressed the great pleasure it gave him to be present with the people of Lakefield and vicinity on this, the occasion of their annual picnic.

He thought no more suitable day could be selected, the birthday of Her Majesty, the ruler of the greatest empire the world has ever seen, of which Canada is the greatest colony and Ontario the finest province. The picnic was in aid of the Church, the church helped to make people good, and as the individual or community became better, the whole empire, built of individuals and communities would be strengthened.

Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald was then introduced and said that after the eloquent address from our genial member, Mr. J. R. Stratton, whom we have always with us, and the doubtless still more eloquent address in store for you by our distinguished visitor, Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, Solicitor-General of Canada, you will allow me to pass off with with a few words only.

It is pleasant for us all, and doubtless very gratifying to your beloved Parish Priest, Father Fitzpatrick, to see so large an assemblage, and to witness the evidence it affords of the good neighborhood and good feeling that prevails in this community. The object is a worthy one, a two-fold one, to help the church and honour the Queen. Your earnest and devoted pastor is doing a noble work amongst you, winning hearts as he is souls, and carrying out so well and successfully the duties committed to him by our beloved bishop, in the twin parishes of Lakefield and Young's Point. We congratulate those congregations and the people generally, in having with them a gentleman so kind and courteous. We need not say that we are most grateful to Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick for giving us this day from his busy time at Ottawa, and that we extend to him, therefore, in the good old fashioned Irish way, "A cead mille failthe." It is not wholly because of his position in the government of Canada that we do this, but largely because he comes to us, as the representative of our sterling kinsmen, from the grand old historic city of Quebec, the pride and glory of the chivalrous and gallant French Canadians, who so dearly and passionately love their own city and province, and all about them. (Applause). Someone asks me a word about Ireland, well, he was glad to tell them that every day brings with it, good news from Ireland. The glorious result of the County Council election prove, not not only the desire for, but the existence of unity among the masses of the people and how by their united efforts, they have put down cranks in their own ranks, and practically crushed forever the power of landlordism, which has been for centuries the bane and curse of Ireland. Thank God, my friends Ireland is, if slowly, emerging from her long centuries of oppression to a condition of comparative peace and prosperity. (Applause). This day, as you know, is the eighteth birthday of the Queen and the sixty-second of her reign. Let us pray God that her reign may be yet extended, until she puts her aigumanual upon Home Rule for Ireland. That would be an act of real union—the crowning act of her life. But whatever happens one thing is certain, that our grand old race and nation must never be absorbed, must not be obliterated, but on the cause must go, amidst joy or weal or woe, 'till we'll make our Isle a nation free and grand.

Mr. Daniel O'Connel, the next speaker, disclaimed any intention of inflicting a speech. He came to show his sympathy in a good cause and assist in the good work being carried on by Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, the energetic and devoted priest of the parish. He referred to the day and occasion and to the large popular freedom enjoyed in Canada.

Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, the Solicitor-General of the Dominion, was then introduced by the chairman in a few complimentary remarks, referring briefly to the distinguished position he occupied as solicitor-general. Reference was also made to the pleasing coincidence existing in the fact that the distinguished gentleman from Ottawa and the popular parish priest bore the same name, and that both were types of the clever men, born of Irish parentage whose fore-fathers had found a home in Canada, to which they had done great credit.

Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick said that he did not come to make a speech. It would be a crime to prevent, by a long speech the enjoyment the day and occasion afforded, which was a legitimate one for sports and pastimes and social intercourse. One of his reasons for coming to Peterborough was to claim relationship with Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, which he regretted to discover, did not exist. He hoped however, that the acquaintance so pleasantly begun that day would become abiding and more intimate as time went. He thought it was a good thing for the representative men of the several provinces to exchange visits, and learn more of each other's good qualities and thus help to strengthen the bonds between the people. It was a good thing that people who claimed a common origin and common allegiance, should come together and talk over matters of common interest. He gave a cursory glance at the reign of Her Majesty, citing briefly the improvement in law, order and social conditions that had been made during the past sixty years. He referred to the great battles that had been won, and the prominent part taken in them by Irishmen, who were always found where the bullets were thickest and the fight the hottest. He thought that no Irishman had reason to regret that he had Irish blood quickening his veins. The most important and stirring pages of history were written with Irish blood, and in eloquent terms, asked the people to sing the songs of Ireland, read the pages of her history and live lives of tolerant respect for those differing from them in opinion, and thus prove that they are worthy sons of worthy sires, living in a land which they desired to make better by their presence in it—that in every stone in the great structure of Canadian nationality, there would be the mark of an Irish chisel. (Hearty applause.)

Rev. Father McGuire, of Hastings, made a very humourous speech in which he expressed much pleasure at being present. He claimed to have come from the good old county of Langford, which is at present represented by Hon. Edward Blake.

Rev. Father Fitzpatrick was the last speaker and his remarks were confined to words of thanks to the Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, the other gentleman, who were present, the committee in charge of the picnic, the ladies, his congregation generally and the public who had so liberally patronized his picnic.

Three cheers were then given for the Queen, the Solicitor-General, and the chairman.

At intervals during the afternoon the following events were run off:

LACROSSE AT LINDSAY.

Peterborough's second team went over to Lindsay and succeeded in winning against the team of that town by five goals to one. The Lindsay men were heavier than the fast Peterborough Juniors, but they did not play combination game and so could not get past the Peterborough defence. The game was a trifle rough at times and Horace Ayres lost a tooth in the scrimmage. The best of feeling, however, prevailed after the game and the boys are looking forward to taking Lindsay into camp when the return match is played here. The teams were composed as follows:

Peterborough — Goal, D. Boyle; point, T. Dineen; cover point, G. Mein; 1st defence, J. Comstock; 2nd defence, H. Morgan; 3rd defence, E. Dillon; centre, H. Ayres; 1st home, W. Mowry; 2nd home, F. Whitcroft; 3rd home, T. Glover; outside home, V. Hamilton; inside home, R. Gilman; field captain, H. Gunsolas.

Lindsay — Goal, J. Gillogly; point, W. Bunting; cover point, H. McKay; 1st defence, S. Shannon; 2nd defence, F. Staunton; 3rd defence, W. Burns; centre, W. Henders; 1st home, B. Paton; 2nd home, O. Dusty; 3rd home, B. Mengies; outside home, F. Taylor; inside home, T. Forbert; field captain, R. Brown.

Goals scored: Peterborough first, by Horace Ayres, 15 minutes; Peterborough second, by Glover, 16 minutes; Peterborough third, by Ayres, 35 minutes; Peterborough fourth, by Gilman, 20 minutes; Peterborough fifth, by Hamilton, 15 minutes; Lindsay sixth, by O. Dusty, 10 minutes.

Garnet Galley made a very satisfactory referee.

The Lindsay boys state that they will bring a far stronger team to Peterborough than that which played against the boys yesterday.

THE BURLEIGH FALLS TRIP.

The delightful weather probabilities influenced quite a large number of pleasure seekers to board the early G.T.R. train to Lakefield and take in the excursion trip round Stony Lake. At Lakefield the steamer Majestic took quite a number of the passengers, principally cottagers, who spent the day pleasantly visiting their summer houses. The steamer Sunbeam had been chartered for the day by Court Lakefield No. 3851, of the Independent Order of Foresters. This excursion was well patronized, both by Lakefield citizens and visitors from Peterborough. The boats left their wharfs at 9.30, and after locking through at Young's Point, took their respective routes through Clear and Stony Lakes. The sail was a most enjoyable one, the unrivalled weather and unrivalled scenery contributing to make a royal holiday, and stirring the patriotic feelings of the excursionists of such loyal, inspiring sentiments as are expressed in the following lines:

"Victoria! Victoria!
Long may she live and reign,
The Queen of our inviolate isles,
And Empress of the main."

The steamer reached Burleigh Falls shortly before noon, where dinner was heartily enjoyed. Most of the Foresters and their friends spread their

MONTREAL'S OPINION

Is to Make the City a National Government Port.

THE CITY'S GREATEST FRIEND.

Hon. Mr. Tarte, the Minister of Public Works, So Recognized by the Corn Exchange—The City Wants Terminal and Loading Facilities Provided by the Government.

Montreal, May 24.—That the Government should provide not only elevator but also terminal and loading facilities at Montreal as the necessary complement to the expenditure in deepening the canals and extending the Intercolonial was the opinion of the Corn Exchange expressed at a special meeting yesterday. A resolution was unanimously adopted calling upon the Government to construct these works before the opening of navigation next season. It was pointed out that there must be every facility here for the prompt discharge of vessels, or the big freighters would not come, and so the money spent on the canals would be wasted. Several speakers expressed their gratification at the way in which the subject has been taken up recently in Parliament, and especially at the speeches made by the members for Ontario to the effect that Montreal is a national port and should be equipped as such. Reference having been made to their recent interview with the Ministers at Ottawa and their friendly disposition, Mr. D. G. Thompson said: "Mr. Tarte is the greatest friend to Montreal that any Government at Ottawa ever had," and Mr. Thomas Harling added, "I am much pleased at these remarks about a much-maligned Minister, who was called down on the floor of the Board of Trade."

The American Commission.

All this talk about the St. Lawrence route seems to have stirred the Americans to action, for the commission appointed by Governor Roosevelt of New York State to inspect the Welland and St. Lawrence canals, with a view to collecting data and statistics bearing on the canal question, has reached here, and yesterday paid a visit to the harbor and the Lachine Canal. The arrival of the commission was used at the Corn Exchange meeting as an argument against allowing any private syndicate to erect elevators along the route or make terminal facilities until at the least the Government, by doing a portion of such work, had insured competition and rendered monopoly impossible, and it was pointed out that the ports of Buffalo and New York are practically in the hands of monopolists, and that the State of New York is powerless to avert the paralysis of business caused by the strike of grain shovellers.

RADCLIFFE AT WINNIPEG.

The Galicians, Gusezak and Cseby, to Die on Friday Next.

Winnipeg, May 23.—An Ottawa despatch says: "An order-in-council has been passed allowing the law to take its course in the case of the two Galician murderers, Wasyl Gusezak and Simon Cseby at Winnipeg, who killed Wasyl Bojeczko and his four children. They will be hanged on Friday next, the 26th inst."

There stepped off the train among passengers from the east yesterday a short, thick-set man with rather florid complexion and heavy red moustache, wearing a dark suit and light felt hat. He no sooner touched the platform than he quietly mixed with crowds and disappeared before attracting any attention. The man was Radcliffe, the hangman, who is to be the instrument to speed the condemned Galician murderers to eternity on Friday. Coming up on the train Radcliffe was very careful to shield his identity, and requested all trainmen who found out who he was to keep his name quiet. He talked with a reporter after being here a short time and interviewed Sheriff Inkster, also taking a look at the murderers.

"With pleasure I write to let you know the great benefit I have received from your medicines and self-treatment at home," writes Mrs. A. Flackus, of Dairy, Klamath Co., Oregon. "When you kindly advised me to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery' for my trouble, I followed your advice and received great benefit. I am over fifty years of age, and for over a year I suffered with pains in stomach, headache, irregular periods, constipation and indigestion. I had no appetite at all, and could not sleep. So it went on for months, till one day all at once I got dizzy, my heart seemed to beat as fast as it could, and I felt like fainting. My heart beat 120 or 125 times a minute. I went to the doctor; he gave me medicine, but it did no good. I thought I had to die. Every night when I went to bed I feared I would not be alive in the morning. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice. He prescribed his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' At first I thought the medicines did no good, but I kept on taking them as advised, and when I had taken five bottles I was so well that it seemed I did not need any more, but still I took the sixth bottle. I was then perfectly well. The headaches, pains in stomach, heart trouble and all left me. I have had a good appetite ever since, and can sleep well and do all my work."

If you are not sure what to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., about your symptoms fully and to such questions for your free of charge.

THE SENATE.

Oldest Legislator in the World in Active Work Makes a Speech.

Ottawa, May 23.—The Senate met yesterday and disposed of the business before it. Hon. David Wark, aged 95, probably the oldest legislator in the world in active vigorous work, spoke in favor of an expediting of business by the Commons, so that the Senate might have something to do. He thought more measures might originate in the Senate. Hon. David Mills, in replying, complimented the aged Senator on his clear statement, and showed how the absence at Washington of Ministers was responsible for the unavoidable delay.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell moved for full returns of original papers in connection with the Drummond County Railway purchase. Hon. David Mills had no objection to the motion, which was passed.

Several bills from the Commons were advanced a stage, and the Senate adjourned till Thursday evening.

SCALDED TO DEATH.

Little Son of George Nebbitt Fell Into a Pan of Boiling Water.

Leamington, Ont., May 23.—About 8 o'clock yesterday morning the little son of George Nebbitt of this town was scalded so seriously that he died in a few hours. The mother, in preparing for washing, had put boiling water into a large pan, and was in the act of getting something to quiet the child when he in tugging at his little cart fell backward into the scalding water. Medical aid was at once called and everything was done to relieve the child. He lingered till noon, when death put an end to his sufferings.

A BERLIN ARREST.

Crown Attorney at Berlin Says Penalty Imposed for Bribery Must Be Recovered by Civil Proceedings.

Berlin, Ont., May 23.—The party arrested here yesterday afternoon charged with having attempted to bribe certain electors by offering them money to vote for Mr. Breithaupt, appeared before Mr. J. A. Mackie, J.P. His name is James Cormack, said to come from Guelph. The prisoner asked for an adjournment in order to get his counsel, Mr. Mowat of Guelph. This was refused, and Mr. Scellen consented to act for the prisoner. Charles Joseph was sworn, and said the prisoner offered him $2 to vote for Mr. Breithaupt, and also pay him, Joseph, $2 each for his four Arabian friends' votes.

Another witness, sworn, said he was a voter. His name is Salin Kodisa.

At this time the prisoner's counsel rose and waived further evidence, and said he was willing to be committed.

Mr. Wardell, counsel for prosecution, objected, and wanted the first witness' evidence corroborated by two other witnesses, who were present ready to testify.

To this the prisoner's counsel objected, and Mr. Mackie adjourned the court in order to consult with the Crown attorney.

On his return he said the Crown attorney gave it as his opinion that the penalty imposed for bribery must be recovered by civil proceedings.

The prisoner was then discharged. The prisoner was caught about two miles out of town heading south towards Preston.

Robert Reid was an employe at the Grand Trunk Railway elevator at Midland, and was convicted by the local magistrate of having violated the provisions of the Lord's Day Act by working on Sunday. DR. GAUTHIER ENDORSES

The statement that Mr. Major owes his life to . . . . DR. CHASE'S Kidney Liver Pills

Dr. J. T. A. Gauthier, of Valleyfield, Que., writes: "I, the undersigned, certify that the contents of this letter, in regard to the cure of Mr. Isadore Major, by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, is correct."

Here is Mr. Major's letter: "After 20 years of suffering from backache and kidney disease I owe my life to Dr. A. W. Chase. I had tried an endless variety of remedies to no avail, and on the recommendation of a friend began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two pills that night and two next morning gave great relief, and I continued their use until now I am completely cured. My friends are surprised and pleased to see me well again, for I spent hundreds of dollars in vain trying to get cured. Before using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills my back ached so I could not put on my shoes and couldn't lift 20 lbs. My shoulders were sore, I had headaches and a bad taste in the mouth. These troubles are now entirely gone and what I say I am ready to prove. I have told my friends of my wonderful cure, and many have been greatly benefited by using these pills."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the greatest kidney cure the world has ever known. One pill a dose, 25c. a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

The Girl of to=day will be the woman of to-morrow. She does not know it, perhaps her mother does not fully understand it, but between the "to-day" when she is a girl and the "to-morrow" when she will be a woman, her life's happiness and health are in the balance. If she is to be a full-breasted, strong, healthy woman, she must develope rightly now. She is at a crisis. She needs more strength, more blood to tide it over.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

is the only medicine that will give her the strength and make new, rich blood. Thousands of healthy, happy girls and young women have been made so by the timely use of this medicine—but you must get the genuine. Substitutes will not cure.

A YOUNG GIRL'S HEALTH.

Mr. F. H. Hibbard, of Sawyerville, Que., says: "My daughter Lena kept gradually failing in health for nearly two years. She was studying hard at school and this may have been the origin of the trouble. She lost flesh, was very pale, subject to headaches, and had a poor appetite. We became very much alarmed and doctored for some time, but with little or no benefit. Finally we read the testimonial of a young girl whose symptoms were similar, who was cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This decided us to give them a trial in my daughter's case, and the result was beyond our most sanguine expectations. Before more than a few boxes were used Lena was rapidly looking better and gained sixteen pounds in weight. She is now as healthy as any girl in Sawyerville, and I am quite willing this statement should be published, that our experience may prove an equal blessing to some other similar sufferer."

There are numerous pink colored imitations against which the public is cautioned. The genuine are only sold in boxes with wrapper resembling the engraving on the left, but printed in RED ink. If your dealer does not have the genuine, send direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be mailed post-paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

BEAVERTON MURDER CASE.

Grand Jury Brings in a True Bill Against Edward Elliott.

Whitby, Ont., May 23.—The Assizes opened here yesterday with Mr. Justice MacMahon on the bench. There are only five cases, one of which is of more than ordinary interest, viz., that of Edward Elliott of Beaverton, who is accused of murdering William Murray. In this case the grand jury returned a true bill and the trial will proceed to-day. There were two cases settled yesterday. Hill v. Hill, in which the husband brings action to have $3,000, lying in the bank to the credit of his insane wife, declared to be his property. Judgment by consent. The other was a breach of promise case from Listowell, Wright v. Howe. The plaintiff sued for $4,000, but received a verdict for $1,500.

A third case was left unfinished: Merrick v. Merrick, the plaintiff suing his father for wages for the long period of nearly ten years.

TORNADO KILLED PEOPLE.

Two Counties of Texas Visited by a Disastrous Storm on Sunday.

Houston, Texas, May 23.—One of the worst tornadoes that has ever visited Texas passed over Titus and Brath Counties on Sunday. Homes and church buildings were wrecked in several localities. At Mount Pleasant the storm struck a church just as services were closing. A bolt of lightning and the wind descended upon the house simultaneously, wrecking it and scattering the debris in all directions. William Kaufmann was instantly killed and some 15 persons were injured, some fatally. Three are in a dying condition.

Two churches were unroofed and badly damaged, one man was killed and three were injured near Dublin.

WOODSTOCK WONDER.

A Crippled Rheumatic Restored by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Woodstock, Ont., May 22.—Never in the social history of this town since the Birchall trial, has such great interest been shown as the "Cutmore Case" has caused.

Mr. C. J. Cutmore, 90 Main street, was crippled by Rheumatism and Lumbago during five years. He couldn't stand straight and had to be helped from his room.

To-day he is straight and strong; sound in every limb, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills. Other remedies were used, but did no good. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him.

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Rheumatism and Lumbago.

It was not stated on what day the actress died, the notice merely giving the information that she had passed away at her home in Montmorency in her 55th year.

Who Stole the Timber?

Toronto, May 23.—A man named Shinnick, who is a Parry Sound settler, has complained to the Crown Lands Department that he had a farm fairly well cleared last fall, when he left with the intention of returning to build a house with the pine that was then standing on a portion of the property. When he went back this spring he found that the district had been entirely stripped of timber. Shinnick says he has walked all the way from the north country to see if the wrong cannot be righted.

THE WHITE PLAGUE.

Opening of the Tuberculosis Conference at Berlin, Germany.

THE SPEECHES OF WELCOME

Empress of Germany Present — 2,000 Members Attend in the Reichstag Building—All Representatives Cheered Except the Gentleman From the United States—He Was Received With Silence.

Berlin, May 25.—The tuberculosis congress was opened in the Reichstag building yesterday morning with 2,000 members, of which 200 were delegates from Germany and foreign governments, present. The Empress of Germany, as patroness of the congress, was seated in the royal gallery. Her Majesty wore a bright spring costume of yellow silk and carried a large bouquet of red roses. The Minister of the Interior, Count Posadowski Werner, who delivered the inaugural address, said the tuberculosis congress and the peace conference at The Hague constituted memorable pages in the history of civilization, enabling posterity to form an idea of the spirit of the present age. Welcome speeches and responses followed. The representatives of the United States, France, Great Britain, Italy, Austria-Hungary and Russia were among those who made brief remarks. They were all vigorously applauded, with the exception of Surgeon J. C. Boyd, who represents the medical corps of the United States navy at the congress. He was heard in silence. At the conclusion of the speech-making there were "Hochs" for the Empress, who graciously acknowledged them by bowing.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER.

Reception and Banquet to the Conservative Leader at Sherbrooke—A Disappointing Tour in Quebec.

Sherbrooke, May 25.—The Conservatives of the eastern townships took advantage of the Queen's Birthday holiday to arrange a demonstration here in honor of Sir Charles Tupper. But the result was disappointing to those who expected something new. Both at the public meeting in the afternoon and at the banquet in the evening the audiences were large and appreciative, but at neither did Sir Charles touch on many topics of current interest. On both occasions he dwelt almost entirely in the past, and did not make the slightest reference, for example, to the redistribution bill or to Senate reform. In that respect Hon. Mr. Ives' rather pious anticipations of a Moses who would point out the way to the promised land were not realized. Those at the banquet, being an urban rather than rural gathering, were much more enthusiastic, but Sir Charles in his brief speech indulged chiefly in flattery of those who had gone before in the eastern townships, and ridicule of Sir Wilfrid Laurier for the declaraton that he was a democrat up to the hilt. The only reference to Senate reform during the day was from the tail-end of a car at Richmond Station.

A special train left Montreal over the Grand Trunk in the morning, stopping at a number of places on the way wherever there was a sufficient number to warrant Sir Charles to indulge in a speech.

LAME BACK.

Is a Common Symptom of Kidney Trouble—Strike at the Root of the Disease by Regulating the Kidneys.

How many are at this time suffering from weak, painful, lame backs, that give no ease night or day?

Liniments rubbed on, and plasters applied seem to do no good. And why? Because a bad back is a symptom of disordered kidneys. You must correct the kidneys if you would cure the back. That's how it is Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kinds of bad backs when everything else fails.

Mrs. Margaret Brennan, 5 Granville street, Halifax, N.S., says: "My husband, Nicholas Brennan, was always complaining with a pain in his back.

"He was troubled very much with rheumatism and urinary difficulties, was feeling altogether miserable for a great many years.

"Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills and their success in curing Kidney Troubles he got a box and began their use. We are pleased to testify that they completely cured his lame back, removing the urinary difficulties and greatly relieving the rheumatism.

"His experience in the use of Doan's Kidney Pills has placed us both beyond power of expression, and we can highly recommend them to all sufferers."

The specific and direct action of Doan's Kidney Pills on the kidneys always restores them to healthy, natural action, thus curing all diseases arising from disorder of the kidneys, bladder, or urinary organs.

Backache, weak back, diabetes, bright's disease, gravel, sediment in the urine, puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, weakness of the kidneys in children, etc., all yield readily to Doan's Pills. Price 50c. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all druggists or sent by mail. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

Boer Officials Put It Up.

London, May 23.—The Johannesburg correspondent of The Morning Post, in a despatch dealing with the recent arrest of former alleged British officers on a charge of conspiracy to promote a rising, says he is now convinced that the conspiracy was primarily one of Boer officials, of which Police Commissioner Schutte was the prime mover. Schutte, who evidently used President Kruger's son as a tool, has been forced to resign, but will appeal to the Volksraad for reinstatement.

Col. Caverhill Is Dead.

Montreal, May 23.—Lieut.-Col. Frank Caverhill, senior partner of the big hardware firm of Caverhill, Learmont & Co., died last night from pneumonia. He was at one time commander of the Royal Scots and prominent in business and military circles.

Children Cry for CASTORIA

When the children are hungry, what do you give them? Food.

When thirsty? Water.

Now use the same good common sense, and what would you give them when they are too thin? The best fat-forming food, of course.

Somehow you think of Scott's Emulsion at once.

For a quarter of a century it has been making thin children, plump; weak children, strong; sick children, healthy.

Man Killed by Trolley.

Montreal, May 24.—(Special.)—The one accident of the Queen's Birthday chronicled so far, was the sad case of a man named Joseph Wilson, sewing machine agent, who, while crossing St. Catherine-street, near McGill College-avenue, was run down by a trolley and killed.

The body of young Russell, who disappeared two weeks ago, was found in the river to-day.

ICEBOUND NEWFOUNDLAND.

Commercial Operations of 30,000 People Virtually Suspended.

St. John's, Nfld., May 24.—The whole northeast coast of this Island has been blocked with ice for the last six weeks, the result being that navigation along the coast had been practically impossible. The people in many sections are now destitute of provisions, owing to the inability to replace their supplies, and the commercial operations of almost 30,000 people have been virtually suspended. Fishery outfitting for Labrador and the off shore fishing grounds will be quite out of the question until the ice blockade is raised. The mail steamer Virginia Lake, which attempted to proceed north, failed to force her way through the floes, and was compelled to return to this port. Fishing vessels from St. John's, bound for Labrador, have to skirt around the south coast of the Island, and to work out their way up the Straits of Belle Isle.

H. Burke, permanent under secretary for Ireland, who were assassinated by stabbing in Phoenix Park, Dublin, May 6, 1882.

Mr. D. D. Mann Signs a Contract.

Halifax, May 25.— D. D. Mann of Mackenzie & Mann, on Tuesday signed a contract with the Nova Scotia Government to construct the Inverness Railway, from Port Hastings to Broad Cove, C.B., a distance of 57 miles. This line will be the first to draw the increased railway subsidy of $4,000 per mile granted by the Provincial Government under an act at the last session of the Provincial Legislature. The company has already entered into an agreement with the Federal Government, under which it will secure the Dominion subsidy of $3,200 per mile.

tables on the moss-covered rocks and shady nooks near the Burleigh Falls Inn and feasted in groups, where gaity and mirth mingled with every mouthful. Others of the excursionists sat down to a well prepared dinner served up under the direction of the general host and hostess of the hotel. Quite a number of Peterborough pleasure-seekers had driven up from town and swelled the number of guests that patronized the cozy dining room of the "Sportsman's Paradise." Mr. and Mrs. Gretton have their popular summer resort in the pink of readiness for the incoming guests of the season. The inviting nature of the surroundings was everywhere apparent. Mr. Gretton and his attentive clerk, Mr. Fred Lozier, pay their guests every mark of attention; and with such invigorating air, such good sport and such matchless scenery seekers after health or recuperation should be well contented at this beauty spot.

After spending a pleasant hour "doing up" Burleigh, the "Sunbeam" steamed out with her excursionists and sailed down through the islands, calling at Mount Julian and several of the island homes, then up to the head of the lake and back again; then down to McCracken's Landing. Most of the excursionists disembarked here and enjoyed themselves for a half hour visiting the Victoria House summer resort and its picturesque surroundings. Mr. Tripp, of Peterborough, an ardent amauteur photographer, took several views of the excursionists grouped on the "Sunbeam" as she lay at the wharf and of the hotel, showing the new additions and improvements recently made to the premises. The house was formally opened for the season the day previous, and Mr. Fred Morgan had his hands full attending to the numerous demands of his visitors during the brief call of the steamer. The House can afford increased accommodation this season to tourists, as well as many new home comforts and attractions for transient pleasure seekers. The rest of the home trip was equally well enjoyed — every one being well satisfied with the highly successful management of the committee of Foresters. Mr. Em. Thompson, Chief Ranger, made an excellent chairman of the committee. He was well assisted by Mr. John Foley, secretary, and Messrs. M. L. Strickland, D. W. Edwards, J. P. Miller and W. D. White. Equal praise is due the steamer's officers—Capt. White, Engineer Grylls and Wheelsman Millage—each doing their share for the safety and pleasure of their party.

An unfortunate accident occurred at Mount Julian. One of the excursionists, Mr. John Watson, of Lakefield, was coming down the steps of Mount Julian House, when a loose board caused him to slip and he fell forward down the steep hill. On his return to the steamer it was found on examination that his shoulder joint was dislocated. Fortunately Dr. Burgess, of Lakefield, was on board, who promptly secured assistance and reduced the dislocation successfully. Mr. Watson will be able to resume his duties after a short rest of the disabled arm.

The water in the lake is gradually falling. It was learned, also, that the same unpleasant taste of the water was noticed by the boatmen during the early spring, and that it had now entirely disappeared. On enquiry it was also learned that no dead fish had been noticed floating on these lakes or connecting waters. A water spout was seen a short distance from the steamer when nearly opposite Berk's cottgae at the head of the lake.

EMPIRE DAY.

The First Celebration of the Day in Ashburnham Public School.

This year, on the last school day before May 23, Empire Day was celebrated in Canada for the first time.

At Ashburnham Public School the afternoon was devoted to a celebration of the day, and proved very interesting and instructive.

The following programme was carried out:

Chorus... ... ...The Maple Leaf
Reading from Shakespeare... ... ... Alice Scott
Address—"British Empire"... ... ... Rev. H. Symonds, M.A.
Reading from Sangster... ... ...Maggie Record.
Selection from Tennyson... ... ...Hazel Straine.
The May Queen... ... ... Rossie Bennett.
Map Drill on the British Empire.
Empire Day ... Miss Florence Coveney.
Scott's "Lochinvar"...Madeline Stone.
Selections from Dickens ...Eva Wylie.
A poem by Milton... ... Edna Rogers.
Carlyle—"A True Hero"...Bella Long
"Canada and Our Queen"—historical—... ... ... Mr. M. W. Matchett, Selection from Moore ... Flossie Scott.
From Burns' poems—recitation... ... '... ... ...Alice Scott.
God Save the Queen.

Every number on the programme was much enjoyed, and it is safe to say those present will always remember with pleasure their share in the celebration for the first time of Empire Day.

The thanks of the school are due and heartily tendered to Mr. Symonds for his kind assistance. He is ever ready to help the school in any way, and takes a deep interest in its welfare. The hearty applause which greeted his appearance showed that, although he is a weekly visitor at the school, yet no one is in the least degree anxious that his visits should be any less frequent.

In the morning the children of the kindergarten were photographed while at their work in school. Afterwards they were photographed in a group outside, after which they marched up and down Mark street, waving Union Jacks and singing patriotic songs as they marched.

On their return they sang lustily "God Save the Queen."

The children as well as the onlookers enjoyed it all very much.

The Victoria Stock Company Give a Splendid Performance.

A refined, high class production was given in a most clever and able manner by the Victoria Stock Company last night at the Opera House. The play, "Hurly Burly," proved to be a great piece. It is an old English comedy, bright sparkling with wit—a thoroughly legitimate comedy.

The audience was delighted, and all acknowledged that a very clever, artistic and pleasing performance was given. It is a clever company and gave an exceedingly good production.

To-night, the last night of their engagement here, that great success, "The Bachelor's Divorce," will be presented.

LOSS HALF A MILLION

Over 1,000 People Made Homeless by Fire in St. John, N.B.

NEARLY 200 HOUSES BURNED.

Indiantown, a Northern Suburb, Almost Totally Destroyed—Many Mill Operatives and Others Lose All Their Property — The Buildings All Being of Wood They Burned Like Tinder.

St. John, N.B., May 26.—The greatest fire in the history of St. John, with the exception of the terrible conflagration of 1877, which completely wiped out the city, occurred yesterday afternoon. It broke out shortly after 1 o'clock in a house owned by John Porter on Bridge street, Indiantown, adjoining the hardware house of Nase & Son. The warehouse soon caught and both were blazing fiercely when the alarm had summoned the fire department. A strong wind from the north spread the fire with astonishing rapidity. All the available apparatus in the city was hurried to the scene, but it was inadequate to cope with the raging demon, which soon had possession of whole blocks of buildings.

For nine hours the flames held sway, and when at 1 o'clock the fire had burned itself out, Indiantown was no more. Fifteen blocks and parts of blocks of buildings had been swept away and 200 buildings had gone up in smoke. Half a million dollars' worth of damage had been done, and more than 1,000 people were rendered homeless. The district was inhabited principally by the families of laboring men. The estimate of $500,000 is made by skilled valuators.

As the news spread through the town business almost came to a standstill. The Street Railway Company was forced to stop running its cars and thousands of people hurried to the scene on foot.

Many families of moderate means lived in the large tenements and small wooden buildings along Bridge street, and the scene on the waterfront was a pathetic one. As the fire worked its way down each side of the street, men, women and children hurried out of the houses, each bearing armfuls of household effects. These were deposited in the streets, on the wharves, or on board boats. The fire ate on and on, house after house smouldered, burst in flames, blazed furiously and crumbled to a mass of red embers.

The wind blew the flames away from the water's edge, but as the embers accumulated intense heat was generated and soon fire attacked the household effects piled on the piers. Then the ferryhouse and the Star Line warehouse burst into flames, followed by the river steamer May Queen's warehouse, 200 feet away. These were entirely burned, but the fire got no further in this direction. Bridge street, however, which runs parallel with the water, was burned on both sides from end to end. Only three houses remain. There were three blocks of buildings between the north side of Main street and the open country. These were all of dry wood, and as the flames devoured them people fled with whatever they could save to the rocks, hills, or beyond into the wet, marshy valley

Last night the scene was a weird one, several acres of ground were aglow with burning embers. Shelter has been provided for those who were burned out, but many grief-stricken people are wandering among the ruins. It is estimated that $300,000 will be forthcoming from the insurance companies.

Mrs. Arnold Mowry of Adelaide street, an old lady of the north end, died from shock and excitement during the fire.

DOUBLE HANGING POSTPONED.

The Death Warrant Had Not Reached Winnipeg Thursday Night.

Winnipeg, May 26.—Gusczak and Czuby, the Galician murderers, will not be executed this morning as expected. The death warrant did not arrive from Ottawa, and at 5 o'clock yesterday the Chief Justice instructed Sheriff Inkster to postpone the hanging for 24 hours, so that if the warrant arrives to-day, they will be hanged on Saturday morning. The Chief Justice, it appears, has power to do this. Very often men have been hanged without the arrival of the warrant, but no chance will be taken here.

As the time the Galician prisoners have to live narrows now to a few hours, the prisoners only accentuate the characteristics they have exhibited during the last few weeks. Gusczak is calm, resigned and even happy. He says he is prepared to die. He has put himself in a position to receive all the rites of the church. Two brothers, Fathers Albert and William Kulavi, will remain with him all to-day in prayer. If the warrant arrives, at 5 o'clock on Saturday morning they will administer the last sacrament. Those looking after his spiritual condition say he is fully prepared to die.

Czuby, on the other hand, grows more violent as the end approaches. He refuses to prepare for death or talk to anyone on religious subjects. He declares he is not guilty, and is not going to die. His two sons visited him yesterday, and, while the prisoner is very affectionate, it is understood that he refused to be advised by them to prepare for death. Czuby will be strapped in a chair if he continues in his present frame of mind.

There will be no conversation or statement on the scaffold, and the drop will fall as soon as everything is ready. Gusczak's body will be taken charge of by the priests of St. Mary's and Czuby's will be buried in a place outside the walls designated by the authorities.

London Street Cars Running.

London, Ont., May 26.—The Street Car Company began yesterday to run their cars with non-union men. The tie-up lasted two days and a half. It was at 9.30 that the first car left the barns. Nine others were sent out at short intervals in the course of the next hour, and thereafter every line in the city was regularly traversed. There was no demonstration. The strikers held a meeting last night.

Gaspesia's Salvage $12,500.

St. John's, Nfld., May 26.—The Vice-Admiralty Court here has handed down a decision awarding the sum of $12,500 to the sealing steamer Kite as salvage for rescuing the Canadian Liner Gaspesia from the ice floes in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, amid which she was imprisoned for 66 days.

ANNUAL DISTRICT MEETING.

Of the Methodist Clergy and Laymen, Held in George Street Methodist Church.

On Tuesday morning at 9.30 with the Rev. S. J. Shorey, chairman of the district in the chair, after singing the familiar hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," the financial secretary, Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph.B., read the IV chapter of Ephesians, and Rev. R. Cade, D.D., of Millbrook, led in prayer. The first day was purely ministerial and the examination of ministerial character occupied most of the day. It was found that all the ministers on the Peterborough district were sound in doctrine and blameless in life. Three young men, viz., J. N. Clarry, J. W. Coone, and C. W. Barrett, probationers, were examined by the chairman and several senior ministers on their belief, Christian experience and literary attainments. C. E. Cragg, who has been at the Victoria University during the past year was examined by the college district meeting, Rev. Prof. Wallace, D.D., vouched for his character and sent his educational standand he was recommended to be continued at college. Messrs. Clarry and Coone were also appointed to college for the coming conference year.

In the evening, Rev. Dr. Cade preached in Mark street church and prayer meetings were held in George and Charlotte street churches, several visiting brethren taking part.

The ministers and an equal number of laymen from each circuit assembled in the church parlour on Queen's birthday morning and proceeded with business. Rev. N. D. Drew was appointed secretary, with Rev. J. W. Coone, assistant. Rev's. W. D. Harrison and C. H. Coone were appointed a committee to audit the circuit schedules. It was found that there is an increase of 61 members and an increase in missionary money of $90. Thousands of dollars had been raised for the missionary, superannuation, educational, contingent, sustentation, church relief, Sunday school aid and Epworth League funds during the year.

Some very improtant elections took place Wednesday afternoon, when Rev. T. J. Edmison, B.D., of Lakefield, was elected to the stationing committee; Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph.B., to the Sunday school committee; Rev. C. H. Coone to the Epworth League committee, and Rev. D. O. Crossley, to the sustentation committee, and Mr. R. A. Clarke of Millbrook, was chosen lay representative on the conference missionary committee. The laymen were elected by the laymen's college to attend conference, but we cannot furnish the list, the secretary having the official record away with him.

At the close of the meeting, Rev. Dr. Cade moved and it was carried unanimously, that the district express its appreciation of the efficient and cordial manner in which the chairman, Rev. S. J. Shorey, has conducted the business during the year and at this meeting, which was carried by a standing vote. Few men enjoy the esteem of his brethren to a greater degree, than Rev. Mr. Shorey. The next May district meeting was appointed to be held at Charlotte street church.

A CHAPEL OF EASE

For Church of England Clergymen at Headlands, Stony Lake, Through the Generosity of Mrs Tate, Placed at Their use.

The following letter appears in the Canadian Churchman:

Sir — The trustees of Headlands, Stony Lake, would like it to be known that the summer residence of the late Mr. Tate, known as Headlands, and consisting of different buildings containing 10 rooms and a large verandah, with boat, ice, and bath houses, shower bath, tents, skiff, punt, and all the necessary furniture for lake housekeeping, having been donated by Mrs. Tate, is now placed at the disposal of the Canadian clergy for the summer season. It is proposed for this year that the use of Headlands for terms not exceeding three weeks each be offered to clergymen and their families and to groups of clergymen; all visitors being responsible for their own housekeeping arrangements, as is usual in lake cottages. For this they will find everything needful at hand. "Headlands" is furnished with kitchen utensils, dining room outfit and bed room arrangements; Juniper Island store can be reached in ten minutes; and neighbouring farmers call every day with milk, meat and vegetables. "Headlands" is 12 miles from the G.T.R. terminus at Lakefield, with which it is connected by steamboat; it commands a very fine view of Stony Lake and its many islands; and affords plenty of opportunity for bathing, canoeing, fishing and climbing. Further information may be obtained in Toronto from Rev. F. H. Hartley. Application for the use of "Headlands" should be made to Rev. G. Warren, Lakefield, Ont. It should be understood that the spacious verandah was used by the late owner for the maintenance of Divine service on Sundays, and that the trustees would like the visiting clergy to continue these services for the benefit of the many visitors to Stony Lake during the summer.

Of Course, It Seems Strange

The way we are doing business here. "Cash Only" is strange, but think how much better prices it lets us make for you. It brings us goods at the best possible cost. It wipes out everything in the way of bad debts. It saves almost all the expense of bookkeeping. It simplifies the store management. Every penny that is saved from any of these sources is a penny saved for you, if you trade here. All these things in a credit business help to make up "expenses." They are always added to the cost of goods. If the store gets along those who buy its goods must share in all these extra burdens. They do not know when they pay them for they are hidden in the prices put on goods.

You save money by buying of a Cash Store.

"Honesty is the Best Policy."

Never was a more pointed saying put into print, and yet to be honest only because it is policy is a poor kind of honesty. Better change "policy" to "principle" and the world will like you better. In the medical world there is one medicine honest for principle's sake—and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It is the specific of the age for all blood troubles. The liver, kidneys and bowels are all toned up by its action as a cleanser and thus good health ensues. It never disappoints.

Rheumatism—"I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal for rheumatism. It has done me more good than any other medicine I have taken." MRS. PATRICK KENNEY, Brampton, Ont.

Bad Cough—"After my long illness, I was very weak and had a bad cough. I could not eat or sleep. Different remedies did not help me but Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up and I am now able to attend to my work." MISSES JAQUES, Oshawa, Ont.

Biliousness—"I have been troubled with headache and biliousness and was much run down. Tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it gave me relief and built me up." A. MORRISON, 39 Defoe Street, Toronto, Ont.

Heart Trouble—"I had heart trouble for a number of years and different medicines failed to benefit me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and three bottles completely and perfectly cured me." MRS. C. A. FLINN, Wallace Bridge, N. S.

A Safeguard—"As I had lost five children with diphtheria I gave my remaining two children Hood's Sarsaparilla as they were subject to throat trouble and were not very strong. They are now healthier and stronger and have not since had a cold." MRS. W. H. FLECKER, Pembroke, Ont.

Varicose Veins—"I have been a great sufferer from varicose veins, which swelled my foot and limb, discharging watery matter. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and the sores healed." MRS. A. E. GILSON, Hartland, Vt.

THE BANK STATEMENT.

Montreal Gazette.

The statement of the condition of the chartered banks at the end of April is, says the Montreal Gazette, in general keeping with its predecessors of the past twelve months. The deposits, whose growth has been a matter of special attention, continue their steady upward march. Their increase during April was over three millions, and since April a year ago, was $33,427,322. Going back five years, the April figures for this item are:

1899	$251,630,572
1898	218,193,250
1897	196,724,888
1896	190,504,545
1895	180,035,660

The increase in four years is over seventy millions. If in other departments of wealth Canadians have added in proportion to their accumulations of bank credits the state of affairs is certainly remarkable.

AN OLD-FASHIONED HOOK-AND-EYE BUCKLE.

From Halifax to Esquimalt, from the Great Lakes to the pole,
That's the buckle of the golden zone that makes the empire whole;
And every morning of her life the good Queen belts it on,
And when the strong, unbroken links are round her figure drawn,
Behold the buckle shines in front; to break it, let them try,
For Halifax it is the hook and our Esquimalt's the eye.

From Halifax to Esquimalt, from the Great Lakes to the ice,
A buckle for her Majesty was purchased with a price;
Down from the Plains of Abraham to the hedge of Lundy's Lane,
Thro' cheers and tears, thro' blood and mud, thro' toil and spoil and pain,
They bought and wrought the buckle; the mighty zone it graced;
They put their arms about the Queen, and clasped it round her waist.

From Halifax to Esquimalt, from fresh water to the frost,
They are finding out that every rood is worth the splendid cost;
I'd rather have a shack of bark, thatched with Muskokan straw,
Than a cyclone cellar, cool and safe, in breezy Arkansaw;
I'd rather hear the binders break the western harvest calm,
Than to hear the darkeys singing in the swamps of Alabam'.

I'd rather watch the violet spears flash in my northern sky
Than see the faggots leap and flash when "our coloured brethren die;"
I'd rather live by Moosomin, 'mid the prairie and the hay,
Than own a smart plantation way down the Georgia way.
Ah! the woods of grand Muskoka are a safer place to hide,
Than a house in big Chicago or a ranch in Idaho.

From Halifax to Esquimalt, from fresh water to the sea,
It will be the one salvation of the sentient human;
It will be the one asylum of the Saxon race found free,
The power of Minnesota and the home of Tennessee.
Only Paris is more lovable—to breast of her I'd flee
To get away from it in the back and Saskatchewan the rest.

A BIG PRIVATE DAIRY.

$8,500 WORTH OF BUTTER IN A YEAR.

A Wine Cellar Gives Place to a Creamery—Openings for Young Dairymen.

In addition to its co-operative cheese factories and private factories, to which a number of patrons contribute a milk supply, Northumberland County has, perhaps, the largest private dairy in the Province. This dairy is located on what is known as the Fowler farm, a little east of Cobourg. This Fowler farm itself has a history. It was not many years ago the property of a man worth well on to a hundred thousand dollars. Eventually the property drifted into the hands of the Trust and Loan Company of Toronto. As the company found it impossible to sell the property to advantage it was determined to put on a manager and work the place for the benefit of the company. Dairying and hog raising are the two principal products of the farm. A stream runs across the front of the place, and on this stream there is located about 100 rods from the house a hydraulic ram that forces a constant supply of water to the house, dairy and hog and cattle stables. The whole cost of the water service, by the way, was only about $200.

Golden Butter Displaces Mellow Wine.

One of the finest butter factories in the province, that at Cannington, is in a building that once served as a hotel. The dairy on the Fowler farm is located in what was once the wine cellar of the old mansion. The store room, which at one time held material that assisted in the dissipation of a fine property, is now used in the manufacture of the rich, golden butter that forms the principal source of the revenue from a properous property.

All the cows used in the manufacture of the butter—50 in number—are the property of the company, and are fed on the place. The average output of butter is 350 pounds per week, and the bulk of it is sold to private customers in Cobourg at a flat rate of 20c the year round. Here is a revenue, from butter alone, from a private dairy, of well over $3,500 a year. That surely tops the record.

Openings for Bright, Young Men.

The dairy is in charge of Robert B. Struthers, one of Prof. Dean's old pupils from the Guelph Dairy School. Incidentally it may be observed just here, that while there are not many Fowler farms, still properties of a similar nature are being steadily developed all over this province, and these afford a further opening for the bright young men who are constantly passing through Prof. Dean's hands.

There is in the dairy a regular butter making plant — a six horsepower boiler and engine, a separator with a capacity of 1,000 pounds per hour, a Babcock tester, and all the appliances of a first-class butter-factory. The milk is pasteurized when necessary, but the necessity seldom arises. The cows are Holstein, Ayrshire, Jersey and Durham grades.

Individuality, not Breed.

"Which is the best?" Edward Bunnett, the farm manager, was asked.

"There are good and bad in all kinds," was the reply. "Our experience goes to show that individuality counts for a good deal more than breed. We have grade Jerseys that test 5.7 and 5.5. A couple of grade Durhams, while giving 28 and 30 pounds of milk respectively, tested 4.4 and 4.6. We have a Holstein grade that tested 3.4."

"How much milk to a pound of butter? In Dec. 22.3 lbs. were required; in January 23.6, and in February, 23.9.

Ensilage a Cheap Fodder.

"About feed? We will have 30 acres in corn this year, principally for the purpose of making ensilage. We have two silos, one with a capacity of 170 tons. What do I think of silage for dairy fodder? Excellent. I can fill the 170 ton silo from nine acres of corn. That will give all the silage 60 cows will eat during four months of constant feeding. All they will take in addition, by way of variety, is a little hay at noon and straw at night. A neighbour carried his cows through for eight weeks on silage alone, and they came out in the pink of condition. No, I do not go much on roots. This is a bad section for mustard; and, while you can keep the intervals between rows cleaned out with a scuffler, the rows themselves must be cultivated by hand, And that sort of work comes high where you have to pay men $15 a month for doing it.

350 Hogs a Year.

Of hogs about 350 are turned out in a year, at an average weight of 175 lbs. That figures out at something over $2,500 more, and makes the combined revenue from hogs and dairy $6,000 a year. There is a pipe from the dairy to the hog pens, through which the fresh, warm milk directly after separation, is forced by an injector. In addition to the milk the hogs get mixed chop and shorts. The hogs are Berks, Yorks and Chesters, or grades of the same.

"The Yorks usually give the best litters," said Mr. Bunnett," but the Berks and Chesters are the easiest feeders." One of the thoroughbred Berks is just now nursing a litter of ten.

Increase in Fertility.

The fertility of the farm has been greatly increased since the company took hold of it. "Two years ago," said Mr. Bunnett, "the average yield of barley, oats and peas was only about twenty bushels to the acre. Last year it was almost 50. Some of our barley gave 52 measured bushels to the acre, and the barley weighed 56 pounds to the bushel. The farm has also been improved in other ways. Five acres of Ben Davis and Baldwin apples have been set out, and considerable underdraining has been done."

The best field of meadow I have seen anywhere is one on twelve acres of tiled land in the front of the Fowler farm. The clover would be considered excellent in any year; for a year such as this it is extraordinary.

BAILLIEBORO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The seeding being finished, the farmers are busy preparing their root ground.

Mr. Fisher has rented his house. We believe that he purposes making his home with his daughter, Mrs. [illegible]. It is not supposed to be generally known who the tenant is.

The C. O. F. are to attend divine service in the Presbyterian church at Cavendish.

A SERIOUS STATE OF AFFAIRS

Dead Fish in the River May Contaminate the Water Supply.

The Lindsay Post says—In Wednesday's issue we noted that the board of health had instructed Mr. R. R. Douglas, sanitary inspector, to collect thedead and decaying fish scattered all along the shores of the river above the lock. It was supposed at the time that at most there would be but a load or two.

On Wednesday Mr. Douglas put some met at work, and they succeeded in picking up enough fish to fill twenty barrels. They didn't go outside the town boundary, either.

The situation is a serious one. We have been told that the dead fish line the banks for miles up the river, and are continually floating down with the current. The smell is almost unbearable now, and if they are left to decay longer the stench will be frightful when warm weather arrives.

We understand the Ops board of health has been called to meet tomorrow. The members should act with vigour—the nuisance is now on their property, and if not removed at once and our water supply becomes contaminated, the consequences may prove very serious.

While on this subject we would suggest that Lindsay and Ops boards of health should mutually agree to offer a reward for information as to the presence and location of a dead animal or other nuisance in the stream. Some unscrupulous persons frequently deposit such in the river, and a small reward would stimulate fishermen and others constantly passing up and down to give prompt notice when there would be some chance of identifying the offender.

"TIS LOVE THAT MAKES THE WORLD GO ROUND."

Some people think money is a greater power than love. Oh! What a mistake! See how the great money kings are controlled by the little boy Cupid! See how the great soldiers and men of power are twisted around his little fingers!

A woman's most precious possession is the capacity for awakening pure and noble love. More potent than wit or intellect is the womanly capacity for happy wifehood and motherhood.

A woman who is weak or diseased in the special organism of her sex is deprived of the power and prestige which naturally belong to her. Such troubles are not a necessity. Perfect health and strength of the feminine organism is insured by proper care and the aids afforded by enlightened medical science. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all weaknesses and diseases of woman's special organism. For nearly 30 years Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. No other physician has had a more extensive practice or greater success in the treatment of women's diseases. No other such perfect and scientific remedy for these ailments has ever been devised. It has restored health, strength and womanly power to tens of thousands of women.

Any woman consulting Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, will receive, free of charge, the professional advice of a skilled specialist. No mere nurse, however excellent she may be, has the knowledge or skill to prescribe remedies for complicated diseases, and no sensible woman will risk her life with so unsafe a guide.

"Since my last child was born, thirteen years ago, I had suffered from uterine trouble," writes Mrs. Paul Devraine, of Jellico, Campbell Co., Tenn. "I consulted several doctors, and took much medicine, but failed to find any relief. I had very bad health for twelve years. Every month I was in bed a week before the monthly period and a week after, and when I was hoping to be better was in bed again. I was obliged to keep the bed four months last summer. I lost twenty-six pounds in four months. I was coughing so much I thought I was in consumption. I wrote you a letter sitting in my bed. I was suffering severely from pain in my back, bearing down pains in womb, chills and cold sweats. You were so kind in giving me good advice to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and his 'Golden Medical Discovery' for my cough. I commenced the medicines the same day. I also used the Fountain Syringe, as you advised, until cured. Now I feel the benefit of all. The first month I did not have any chills, and the pain was less severe.

"After I took four bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' my bad coughing stopped. After taking six bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' the periods became regular, and were passed without pain. Now I am fleshy, more so than ever before. All my neighbors are surprised to see me in such good health after having seen me so low."

"I would like to add my testimony to the great benefit derived from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. H. Mason, of Strykersville, Wyoming Co., N. Y. "I commenced using it about three months before confinement. With my former confinement I suffered greatly while this was comparatively easy, owing, I feel confident, to the use of the 'Favorite Prescription.' I gladly recommend it to all prospective mothers."
